Important Notice

The value of units in Ascott Residence Trust ("Ascott REIT") (the "Units") and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise. The Units are not obligations of, deposits in, or guaranteed by Ascott Residence Trust Management Limited, the Manager of Ascott REIT (the "Manager") or any of its affiliates. An investment in the Units is subject to investment risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested. The past performance of Ascott REIT is not necessarily indicative of its future performance.

This presentation may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Actual future performance, outcomes and results may differ materially from those expressed in forward-looking statements as a result of a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Representative examples of these factors include (without limitation) general industry and economic conditions, interest rate trends, cost of capital and capital availability, competition from similar developments, shifts in expected levels of property rental income, changes in operating expenses, including employee wages, benefits and training, property expenses and governmental and public policy changes and the continued availability of financing in the amounts and the terms necessary to support future business. Prospective investors and Unitholders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which are based on the current view of the Manager on future events.

Unitholders of Ascott REIT (the "Unitholders") have no right to request the Manager to redeem their units in Ascott REIT while the units in Ascott REIT are listed. It is intended that Unitholders may only deal in their Units through trading on Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the "SGX-ST"). Listing of the Units on the SGX-ST does not guarantee a liquid market for the Units.

Performance Highlights and Market Outlook

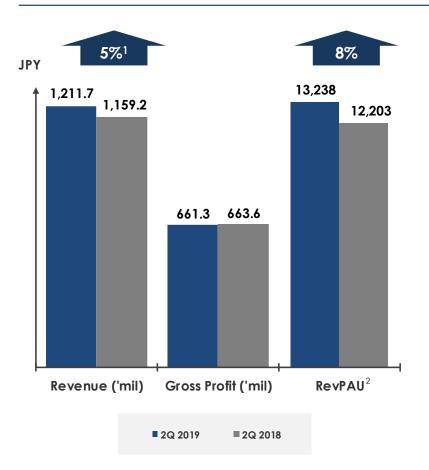

- Revenue decreased slightly due to competition arising from an increase in new supply in the second-tier cities. Demand in first-tier cities remained resilient
- Despite lower revenue, gross profit increased 9% (excluding FRS 116 adjustments) due to lower staff costs, marketing expense and depreciation expense
- IMF revised its GDP forecast from 6.3% to 6.2% for 2019 and maintained its forecast for unemployment rate at 3.8%¹
- In the near term, economic uncertainty and ongoing trade tensions may affect business sentiment²
- Nonetheless, major initiatives such as the Belt and Road Initiative will bring demand for hotel accommodation. China's tourism industry continues to grow fast on the back of rising incomes and middle-class consumption³

Performance Highlights and Market Outlook

- Revenue increased 2% due to higher market demand. Gross profit remained stable due to higher revenue, offset by higher marketing expense
- IMF cut its GDP growth forecast from 2.3% to 2.0% for 2019 and maintained its forecast for unemployment rate at 2.0%²
- For the first five months of 2019, international visitor arrivals are on track to meet the target growth of 1% to 4% for the full year³
- Supply is expected to be limited, increasing by 2.0% in 2019, with most of the new rooms located in the Sentosa region⁴
- In the shorter term, market RevPAU growth is expected to remain positive, although at a more moderate pace compared to 2018 due to the absence of one-off events in 20194
- Singapore's hotel market performance will likely continue on its growth traiectory with rising visitor arrivals, new attractions such as Jewel Changi Airport, and tight supply in the next few years⁵
