- SGX Bull Charge raising funds for six adopted beneficiaries in 2018

Singapore soccer stars and Members of Parliament (MPs) came together today to raise $130,000 in the fifth edition of the SGX Bull Charge Charity Futsal tournament.

Held at Home United Youth Football Academy, the event is the second of three annual sports gatherings that anchor SGX Bull Charge, Singapore Exchange's (SGX) flagship charity initiative. A record 34 teams participated, including four all-women teams, four teams of beneficiaries and, for the first time, a team of social influencers.

Guest-of-Honour Edwin Tong, Senior Minister of State for the Ministry of Law and Ministry of Health, led a Parliament Team against an SGX team in a friendly match that featured national squad player Shakir Hamzah along with former stars Isa Halim, Nazri Nasir and S. Subramani.

Chew Sutat, SGX Bull Charge Chairman and Head of Equities & Fixed Income, said, "We are thrilled to be joined by our MPs and local soccer heroes today for a meaningful cause. While every team played to win, we shared a common goal off the pitch: to score for our beneficiaries. As we continue our fundraising efforts, we thank our corporate partners for their commitment and support."

Today's event follows a Charity Golf tournament in June, which raised $600,000 for six adopted beneficiaries. The 15th annual Charity Run, the grand finale of each year's SGX Bull Charge programme, will be held on 30 November at Marina Bay.

About SGX Bull Charge

Launched in 2004, SGX Bull Charge is the only corporate charity initiative that brings together Singapore's financial community and listed companies to support the needs of underprivileged children and families, persons with disabilities, as well as the elderly. All proceeds raised this year will be channelled to six adopted beneficiaries: AWWA Ltd., Autism Association (Singapore), Community Chest, Fei Yue Community Services, HCSA Community Services and Shared Services for Charities.

SGX Bull Charge has raised more than $30 million for over 50 charities, providing beneficiaries with care and assistance, and helping them lead a more positive, meaningful and comfortable life. Through the year, SGX staff also participate in get-togethers with beneficiaries for festive celebrations and Cook-A-Meals under the Bull Charge Cares series. For more information, please visit
