PRESS RELEASE

Samurai 2K Aerosol donates approximately RM1 million medical supplies to aid the Ministry of Health in the fight against COVID-19

Johor Bahru- Samurai 2K Aerosol Limited (“Samurai” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) is declaring their commitment in assisting Malaysia to overcome the spread of coronavirus (“COVID-19”) by providing medical equipment such as face masks, PPE glasses, special protective suits for medical professionals and frontline personnel who are working hard in handling the COVID-19 outbreak.

Samurai said the contribution will be carried out in stages, in collaboration with Ministry of International Trade and Industry. The assistance is in the form of supplying

- 100,000 medical masks,
- 10,000 face masks,
- 10,000 PPE suits,
- 10,000 emergency department clothing, and
- 500 units digital thermometers

According to the Group’s Chief Executive Officer and founder, Mr Ong Yoke En, “We hope the aid and support will help ensure adequate supply of protective equipment for hospital staff. As a responsible Malaysian corporate citizen, Samurai is also immeasurably grateful to the heroes who are bravely treating the COVID-19 patients despite knowing the risks.”

"I am deeply touched and appreciate the hard work and efforts of the medical staff who have worked tirelessly to address the growing Covid-19 outbreak in our country. We hope this donation will ease their burden and thus provide sufficient supply to carry out their work " Mr Ong continued.
