

Murata Manufacturing Co., Ltd.

VOLUNTARY DELISTING OF SHARES FROM THE MAIN BOARD OF THE SINGAPORE EXCHANGE SECURITIES TRADING LIMITED

Reference is made to the announcements of the Company dated 20 December 2024, 1 April 2025, 10 November 2025 and 24 November 2025 and the Information Booklet dated 30 July 2025 (the "Information Booklet") in relation to the proposed Delisting. Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalised terms used in this announcement shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Information Booklet (read together with the announcements dated 10 November 2025 and 24 November 2025).

THE DELISTING

The Company wishes to announce that the Shares will be delisted from the Official List of the Main Board of the SGX-ST with effect from 9:00 a.m. (Singapore time) on the Delisting Date, i.e. Friday, 5 December 2025.

REMAINING DEPOSITORS

Shares held with CDP as at the Delisting Date will be automatically transferred from CDP to the Provisional Accounts with Nomura Securities Co., Ltd. ("Nomura") on or after the Delisting Date.

Please note that while Shares are held in the Provisional Accounts:

- (i) the exercise of voting rights in respect of such Shares will be suspended; and
- (ii) dividends (if any) paid on such Shares will be pooled in a separate account in the name of the Company (the "Cash Account") and will not be commingled with other cash or assets of the Company.

The Company will bear the costs in relation to the transfer of the Shares of Remaining Depositors from CDP into the Provisional Accounts including all applicable fees / expenses imposed by depository agents (if applicable). However, Remaining Depositors will have to make their own arrangements to transfer their Shares from the relevant Provisional Account into a securities account held with a Relevant Broker if they wish to sell or trade their Shares on the TSE, and while Nomura will not charge any fees or expenses in connection with the withdrawal of Shares from the relevant Provisional Account, the Company will not bear fees, charges or expenses (if any) which may be charged by such Relevant Broker in connection with the transfer of such Shares.

In this regard, Remaining Depositors can elect to open a trading account with the Designated Broker and for their Shares to be transferred from the Provisional Accounts into the Designated Broker's omnibus account with its custodian agent. In this case, there will be safekeeping fees of SGD2 + GST (applicable for GST a/cs) per counter/month billed on a quarterly basis (subject to possible waiver by the Designated Broker if certain criteria are met within the quarter). Such safekeeping fees will be billed to the Remaining Depositor directly by the Designated Broker and the Company does not cover the safekeeping fees. For the avoidance of doubt, Remaining Depositors may alternatively transfer their Shares from the relevant Provisional Account to their designated securities account held with a Relevant Broker (other than the Designated Broker).

As and when a Remaining Depositor designates a relevant securities account with a Relevant Broker

(which may, but need not, be the Designated Broker), the Company will, upon being provided with satisfactory evidence of such Remaining Depositor's identity and shareholding, instruct the release of the Shares of such Remaining Depositor from the relevant Provisional Account and arrange for such Shares to be credited in scripless form to the securities account so designated by such Remaining Depositor. Any dividends previously pooled in the Cash Account will also be paid on a pro rata basis to (or to the instruction of) such Remaining Depositor at that time.

In order to transfer Shares from the relevant Provisional Account to a securities account with a Relevant Broker (which may, but need not be, the Designated Broker), a Remaining Depositor must provide the Company with (i) mandatory identification documents and (ii) (as voluntary material) supplementary documents to verify his / her identity and shareholding as requested by the Company:

Examples of the documents in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) above are as follows:

- in respect of (i) (mandatory identification documents): Passport, NRIC (National Registration Identity Card), driver's license with a photo of individual's face and address, etc.
- in respect of (ii) (voluntary material): Bank or credit card statement, utility receipts (gas, electricity, telephone), tax documents, motor vehicle registration or motor vehicle tax, employment letter (Singapore only), documents issued by other financial institutions and government agencies, etc.

The documents referred to in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) above are required to be issued by a foreign government, or an international organization approved by the Japanese government (before the expiration date thereof or within six months from the date of issuance).
