Creative Subsidiary ZiiLabs Files Complaint With The US ITC Against Eight Companies. Parallel Patent Infringement Lawsuit Also Filed.

Creative Technology Ltd (“Creative”) today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary ZiiLabs Inc., Ltd (“ZiiLabs”) filed a Complaint with the United States International Trade Commission (“ITC Complaint”), seeking injunctions against Nvidia, Nintendo, Asus, Micro-Star International, Gigabyte, PNY Technologies, EVGA and Zotac. A parallel patent infringement lawsuit (“the Lawsuit”) has also been filed against Nvidia in the US, wherein ZiiLabs is seeking damages and injunctions.

The ZiiLabs patent portfolio contains patents in the graphics, processor and 3D spaces. Four of these patents (US 6,181,355, US6,900,800, US 8,144,156 and US 8,643,659) have been asserted in the ITC Complaint and the Lawsuit.

In October 2017, Creative had announced that ZiiLabs filed an earlier patent infringement lawsuit in the US against Nvidia in respect of four different patents in the ZiiLabs patent portfolio.

Creative had previously announced that Intel, Apple and Samsung had each taken a non-exclusive license to ZiiLabs’ patent portfolio. On 8 July 2017, Creative had also made an announcement regarding the settlement of certain other US patent lawsuits involving patents in the ZiiLabs patent portfolio.
