RESPONSE TO SUBSTANTIAL AND RELEVANT QUESTIONS RECEIVED FROM A SHAREHOLDER FOR THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING TO BE HELD ON 27 NOVERMBER 2026

The Board of Directors of Autagco Ltd. (the "Company" and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") refers to the annual report of the Company for the financial year ended 31 July 2026 ("FY2026") and the notice of annual general meeting ("AGM") dated 12 November 2026.

The Company wishes to thank the shareholder for submitting his questions in advance of the AGM. The Company's response is set out below.

Q1. A shareholder referred to recent media reports on (i) the Ministry of Manpower's ("MOM") investigations into suspected work pass offences involving contractors at Changi Airport, and (ii) alleged false CPF declarations involving "phantom" local workers that were used to inflate foreign worker quotas. The shareholder asked the Audit Committee whether the Group had noted any similar incidents in its Singapore operations over the past five years, including among its contractors or subcontractors, and, if so, how much the Group had overpaid them in connection with such incidents and how much had been recovered (including insurance payouts).

A1. Following the change in Management in 2026, the current Board and Management assumed their respective roles within the Group in recent months. Accordingly, they are unable to comment conclusively on matters concerning the Group's Singapore operations over the past five years.

Based on the information and records available to the current Management, and to the best of its knowledge, the Group is not aware of any incidents involving suspected work pass offences or false CPF declarations relating to purported local workers in its Singapore operations, including any incidents involving its contractors or subcontractors. The Group has also not been notified of, nor has it identified, any investigations by MOM in relation to such matters. As no such incidents have been identified or reported to the Group, there are no known related overpayments or amounts to be recovered, including any insurance claims or payouts.

The Audit Committee has considered the explanation provided by the current Management and concurred with the explanation. The above response should not be construed as an independent verification of all activities undertaken by the Group or its contractors and subcontractors throughout the entire five-year period.
