BNY Mellon may execute DR foreign currency transactions itself or through its affiliates and in such cases it acts as principal counterparty and not as agent, advisor, broker or fiduciary. BNY Mellon has no obligation to obtain the most favorable exchange rate, makes no representation that the rate is a favorable rate and will not be liable for any direct or indirect losses associated with the rate. BNY Mellon earns and retains revenue on its executed foreign currency transactions based on, among other things, the difference between the rate it assigns to the transaction and the rate that it pays and receives for purchases and sales of currencies when buying or selling foreign currency for its own account. The methodology used by BNY Mellon to determine DR conversion rates is available to registered Owners upon request or at <http://www.adrbnymellon.com/files/PB43451.pdf>.
