For the six months ended 30 June 2026 ("1H 2026"), the Group recorded revenue of S$1,354.7 million, up 7.4% year-on-year. Revenue growth for 1H 2026 reflected improved momentum in the quarter ended 30 June 2026 ("2Q 2026"), during which revenue increased 12.5% year-on-year.

This was largely driven by growth in the Test & Measurement Instrumentation, Networking & Communication and Semiconductor Related Equipment technology domains across multiple end markets, including those supporting AI-related infrastructure, as well as growth in the Life Science technology domain.

On a sequential quarter basis, 2Q 2026 revenue rose 15.6% against 1Q 2026, reflecting improved business momentum.

The Group registered net profit of S$119.3 million for 1H 2026, and continues to deliver a resilient net profit margin of 8.8%, supported by our focus on high value-add solutions and strong operational discipline.

Financial Position and Cashflow

The Group generated operating profit before working capital changes of S$154.0 million for 1H 2026. The working capital movement reflected higher inventories to support business growth and strengthen supply chain resilience, partially offset by improved net receivables and payables position. Consequently, net cash generated from operating activities stood at S$12.9 million for 1H 2026.

As at 30 June 2026, the Group maintained a strong balance sheet with zero debt. The Group's net cash stood at S$1,108.5 million as at 30 June 2026. During the period, the Group executed the payment of FY2025 final dividend totaling S$143.8 million on 19 May 2026 and share buybacks.

As at 30 June 2026, equity attributable to owners of the Company was S$2,771.5 million and net asset value per share was S$9.64.

Interim Dividend

For 1H 2026, the Board of Directors declared an interim ordinary dividend of 30 cents per share on a one-tier tax-exempt basis. For the same period last year, the Board of Directors declared an interim ordinary dividend of 25 cents per share and a special dividend of 5 cents per share.

The higher interim ordinary dividend reflects Venture's improved financial performance, and demonstrates our commitment to enhancing shareholder returns.

The dividends will be paid on 11 September 2026.

Outlook

Venture delivered encouraging growth in the first half of 2026. The new shoots that sprouted in the early part of the year have taken root and are beginning to gain strength, reflecting improved momentum across multiple technology domains.

Based on customers' feedback, demand continues to strengthen in our Networking & Communications, Test & Measurement Instrumentation and Semiconductor Related Equipment technology domains.

Venture continues to invest in new opportunities across multiple technology domains and build strategic partnerships with customers on technology development to drive long-term growth.
