RafflesMedicalGroup Announces Leadership of Raffles China Healthcare Division

Singapore, 2 March 2020 – RafflesMedicalGroup (the Group) is pleased to announce the appointment of Raffles China Healthcare Division's key members of the leadership team with effect from today.

Dr Yang Ching Yu as Medical Director, Dr Vincent Chia and Ms Goh Ann Nee as Deputy Managing Director.

Dr Yang Ching Yu, Medical Director, Raffles China Healthcare Division

Dr Yang Ching Yu joined RafflesMedicalGroup in 1993 when Raffles Surgicentre opened, and he has been with the Group for over 25 years. Dr Yang has been a Medical Director of RafflesHospital Singapore since 2001. Concurrently, he is also the Medical Director for RafflesHospital Chongqing since its opening in January 2019.

Dr Yang received his MBBS in 1980 from the University of Singapore. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons (Glasgow) (1986) and the Academy of Medicine Singapore 1992. Dr Yang underwent advance specialist training at The Cleveland Clinic, Ohio USA, where he was a special Fellow in the Department of Colorectal Surgery and Gastro-Intestinal Surgery under a Singapore Government Health Manpower Development Plan Scholarship in 1989. Besides general surgery procedures, Dr Yang is particularly interested in colorectal surgery, sphincter preserving rectal procedures, complicated recto-anal fistula surgeries and has extensive diagnostic & therapeutic endoscopy experience. He has been actively pursuing minimally invasive laparoscopic procedures since 1990. In July 2003, Dr Yang was the lead surgeon involved in the successful separation of the Korean Ischio-pagus conjoined twins at RafflesHospital.

Dr Vincent Chia, Deputy Managing Director, Raffles China Healthcare Division

Prior to joining RafflesMedicalGroup, Dr Chia was the founder and Medical Director of Asian Healthcare Solutions. He has worked as an independent healthcare consultant from 2017 to end 2019, and covered strategy, quality and operational projects in China and South East Asia. Before 2016, Dr Chia had previously held various senior management positions in the healthcare sector, including Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Gleneagles Hospital Singapore, CEO of Parkway East Hospital, Vice President Business Development for Parkway Shenton, and General Manager, Primary Care for Healthway Medical Group.

Dr Chia graduated with a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery from the University of Newcastle upon Tyne in the United Kingdom in 1995.

Ms Goh Ann Nee, Deputy Managing Director, Raffles China Healthcare Division

Ms Goh Ann Nee joined RafflesMedicalGroup as Chief Financial Officer in February 2016. In that time, she has contributed significantly to the completion of RafflesHospital Chongqing, as well as streamlining the operations of Raffles China Clinics.

Prior to joining the Group, she served as the Chief Financial Officer of City Developments Limited and the Vice President (Finance) at Millennium & Copthorne International Limited. Ms Goh also served as a board member on the National Library Board between 2009 to 2015. Ms Goh started her career with Coopers & Lybrand (now known as PricewaterhouseCoopers) in London and has led an international financial management career with various multi-national companies. A Chartered Accountant, Ms Goh is also a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants and a Fellow Member of CPA Australia. Ms Goh graduated with a Bachelor of Accountancy from the University of Glasgow where she subsequently obtained a Master of Business Administration. She has been reappointed to the ACRA (Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority) Financial Reporting Technical Advisory Panel and also on the Advisory Council at the Fletcher School of Law & Diplomacy, GMAP (Boston, USA).

“As we continue to expand our presence in China, we are confident that the strengths and vast experience of the leadership team will take the business to greater heights,” said Dr Loo Choon Yong, Executive Chairman, RafflesMedicalGroup.
