2. OUTCOME OF THE SINGAPORE RECOGNITION APPLICATION

The Company is pleased to announce that, on 1 March 2024, the Singapore High Court has granted, amongst other things, the recognition of the Malaysian High Court proceedings in connection with the New NCL Scheme, the Order of the Malaysian High Court sanctioning the New NCL Scheme, and the New NCL Scheme.

A copy of the sealed Order of the Singapore High Court will be made available at the same link which was previously provided to the Affected Persons via email when ready.

3. FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Any further material developments relating to the Restructuring will be disseminated at the appropriate juncture. There is no assurance or reasonable certainty that any Restructuring options will be successfully concluded, although we are hopeful that the Group can achieve a viable solution going forward. In the event the Restructuring is not concluded within a timely manner, the Company and/or the Group will continue to be faced with a going concern issue.

Further announcements will be made by the Company and the Board via SGXNET as and when there are material developments, in compliance with the listing rules of the SGX-ST.

4. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Stakeholders, including but not limited to the shareholders, Term Loan Creditors, Scheme Creditors, and potential investors of the Company are advised to read this announcement and any further announcements made by the Company carefully.

Trading in the Company's securities on the SGX-ST has been voluntarily suspended by the Company on 28 April 2020.

Stakeholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to refrain from taking any action with respect to their securities in the Company which may be prejudicial to their interests, and to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.

Pending the completion of the Restructuring, stakeholders and potential investors should exercise caution when trading in the Company's securities. When in doubt as to the action they should take, stakeholders and potential investors should consult their financial, tax or other advisers.
