PrimePartners Corporate Finance Holdings Invests in

Trendlines Medical Singapore

Misgav, Israel and Singapore – 4 January 2017 – The Trendlines Group Ltd. (Trendlines) (SGX: 42T, OTCQX: TRNLY) is pleased to announce that PrimePartners Corporate Finance Holdings Pte. Ltd. ("PPCFH")[1] and Trendlines Medical Singapore Pte. Ltd. (Trendlines Medical Singapore) have executed a definitive share purchase agreement.

PPCFH joins Trendlines and B. Braun Singapore Pte. Ltd. ("B. Braun") as the third investor in the Trendlines Medical Singapore incubator. Under the agreement, PPCFH becomes a minority shareholder in Trendlines Medical Singapore, holding approximately 3.57%, and B. Braun holding approximately 20.00%, with Trendlines being the majority shareholder with approximately 76.43%.

Commenting on the execution of the agreement, Mr. Eric Loh, CEO of Trendlines Medical Singapore said that, "Not only will PPCFH's investment contribute to the financial strength of the Trendlines Medical Singapore incubator, but we welcome the chance to develop our business network in Singapore and the greater Asia-Pacific region with PPCFH's experience and capabilities. The combined expertise of Trendlines in early-stage investing and incubator management, B. Braun's worldwide strength in the medical device sector, and PPCFH's financial knowhow make for a great team to begin our operations."

Mr. Gerald Ong, Director of PPCFH, added that, "We are very pleased to come on board as investors in the Trendlines Medical Singapore incubator. This is part of our strategy to be more active in supporting the development of earlier stage companies in Singapore. We look forward to the opportunity to share ideas and pool expertise among the collaborating parties and contribute our strengths and knowledge in the Asian financial sector."
