20. Events after the end of the reporting period

There are no known subsequent events which led to adjustments to this set of condensed consolidated interim financial statements.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES

1. Whether the figures have been audited or reviewed and in accordance with which auditing standard or practice.

The condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position of Sevens Atelier Limited and its subsidiaries as of 30 September 2026 and the related condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the third quarter ended 30 September 2026 and certain explanatory notes have not been audited or reviewed.

2. Where the figures are subject to an adverse opinion, qualified opinion or disclaimer of opinion:

a) Updates on the efforts taken to resolve each outstanding audit issue; and

b) Confirmation from the Board that the impact of all outstanding audit issues on the financial statements has been adequately disclosed.

The Company received an unmodified opinion with material uncertainty related to going concern and emphasis of matter for the Group ‘s latest audited consolidated financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2025.

The Group’s working capital deficit narrowed from S$4.04 million as at 31 December 2025 to S$3.74 million as at 30 September 2026.

Nevertheless, the Board of Directors (the “Board” or “Directors”) has considered the following mitigating factors in forming its assessment that the going concern basis of preparation remains appropriate for these unaudited financial statements.

- Secured Orderbook and Revenue Pipeline — The Group holds a secured project orderbook of approximately S$6.24 million as at 30 September 2026 which is expected to be substantially recognised over the next 12 to 18 months. These contracts represent committed future revenue streams from ongoing and newly awarded projects.
- Improvement in financial performance between 9MFY2026 and 9M FY2025 — The Group recorded revenue of S$4.59 million and a net profit of S$0.16 million in 9M FY2026, as compared to revenue of S$4.30 million and a net loss of S$0.80 million in the corresponding reporting period in 9M FY2025. This reflects an improvement in the Group’s financial performance, supported by higher revenue recognition and continued cost control efforts.
- Short-term working capital financing - On 28 July 2026, Sevens Build Pte. Ltd. (“Sevens Build”), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into an unsecured short-term loan agreement for a principal amount of S$0.20 million (“Loan 1”) with a third-party lender controlled by the former vendor from whom the Company acquired the design and build businesses (the “Former Vendor”). Loan 1 was originally repayable on 28 October 2026.

  On 18 September 2026, Sevens Build entered into a second unsecured short-term loan agreement with the same lender for a principal amount of S$0.60 million (“Loan 2”), which was originally repayable in December 2026.

  Please refer to below disclosure for subsequent developments in relation to Loan 1 and Loan 2.

  The Former Vendor is neither a director nor a shareholder of the Company, does not hold any executive role within the Group, and is not an associate of any substantial shareholder or controlling shareholder of the Company. The proceeds from both loans are intended for general working capital purposes, including payments to subcontractors, and provide additional liquidity to support the Group’s ongoing operations and project requirements.

F. Other information required by Appendix 7C of the Catalist Rules (CONT'D)

Subsequent to 30 September 2026:

• Extension of short-term loans — On 26 October 2026, Sevens Build and the lender agreed to extend the repayment dates of both Loan 1 and Loan 2 to 30 June 2027. The extensions defer the Group's near-term repayment obligations and are expected to alleviate short-term cash flow pressures, allowing Sevens Build to focus its financial resources on ongoing project execution and working capital requirements. Sevens Build will continue to monitor its cash flows and engage with the lender on the repayment arrangements, where necessary.

• Restructuring of lease arrangements — On 1 November 2026, Sevens Build implemented a restructuring of its existing lease arrangements, including the novation of the existing lease and entry into a new sub-lease arrangement. The restructuring is intended to support the Group's strategy of maintaining a light-asset business model and to better align its property commitments with its operational requirements.

In addition to the above, the Group continues to undertake the following measures to strengthen its liquidity and working capital position:

- Conversion of landed rebuild and interior design pipeline into near-term sales. As at 30 September 2026, in addition to the secured project orderbook of S$6.24 million mentioned above, the Group has an active pipeline of potential landed property rebuild and interior design projects with an aggregate contract sum of approximately S$6.41 million, for which quotations have been issued following several rounds of discussions with the respective owners. Management is following up closely with these owners and is targeting to secure a meaningful portion of these projects within the next three months. If successfully converted, these projects are expected to contribute to progress billings and operating cash inflows over the next 12 months, thereby supporting the Group's liquidity position and working capital needs.
- Enhanced working capital management and cash collection capabilities. The Group is strengthening its working capital management discipline by accelerating progress billings and milestone claims, tightening credit control on new and existing customers, and stepping up collection efforts for overdue receivables. In parallel, the Group is engaging with key suppliers and subcontractors to optimise payment terms, with the objective of improving cash conversion and reducing near-term liquidity strain.
- Studying potential fundraising initiatives through corporate exercises. This may involve equity financing options such as private placements, rights issues, or other capital-raising mechanisms. The management assesses market conditions, regulatory requirements, and investor appetite to determine the most suitable approach to strengthening the Group's financial position; and
- Actively exploring and evaluating various options for securing debt financing from controlling shareholder or financial institutions. This includes engaging with potential lenders, assessing the terms and feasibility of available credit facilities, and preparing the necessary financial documentation to support loan applications.

  Having considered the above factors and measures, the Board is of the view that the Group will be able to meet its obligations as and when they fall due and that the going concern basis of preparation remains appropriate for the unaudited financial statements for the financial period ended 30 September 2026.

The Board confirms that all outstanding audit issues on the financial statements for the financial period ended 30 September 2026 have been adequately disclosed.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

3. Whether the same accounting policies and methods of computation as in the issuer's most recent audited annual financial statements have been applied.

The Group has applied the same accounting policies and methods of computation in the Group's financial statements for the current financial period as compared to the audited financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2025.

4. If there are any changes in the accounting policies and methods of computation, including any required by an accounting standard, what has changed, as well as the reasons for, and the effect of, the change

The Group has adopted the new SFRS(I) and amendments and interpretations of SFRS(I)s that are relevant to its operations and effective from 1 January 2026.

The adoption of these pronouncements did not have any significant impact on the financial performance or position of the Group.

5. A review of the performance of the Group, to the extent necessary for a reasonable understanding of the Group's business. The review must discuss any significant factors, including (where applicable) seasonal or cyclical factors. It must also discuss any material factors that affected the cash flows, working capital, assets or liabilities of the Group during the current financial period reported on.

a) Review of Group Performance

Revenue

For the three months ended 30 September 2026 ("3Q FY2026"), the Group's revenue decreased by S$0.35 million to S$1.97 million, from S$2.32 million for the three months ended 30 September 2025 ("3Q FY2025").

The decrease was mainly attributable to new contracts secured during 3Q FY2026 being at the early stages of project execution. Accordingly, the relevant performance obligations had not yet been substantially satisfied, resulting in lower revenue recognition as compared with 3Q FY2025.

For the nine months ended 30 September 2026 ("9M FY2026"), the Group's revenue increased by S$0.28 million to S$4.59 million, from S$4.30 million for the nine months ended 30 September 2025 ("9M FY2025").

The increase was mainly attributable to ongoing building construction and design projects, for which a higher proportion of the performance obligations under previously secured contracts was satisfied during 9M FY2026. In comparison, the contracts undertaken during 9M FY2025 were generally at earlier stages of project execution, and the related performance obligations had not yet been substantially satisfied for revenue recognition purposes.

Cost of sales

Cost of sales for 3Q FY2026 decreased by S$0.50 million to S$1.57 million, from S$2.08 million in 3Q FY2025.

Cost of sales for 9M FY2026 increased by S$0.06 million to S$3.78 million, from S$3.72 million in 9M FY2025.

The movements in cost of sales were broadly in line with the corresponding movements in revenue for the respective financial periods.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

Gross profit

For 3Q FY2026, the Group recorded gross profit of S$0.40 million, compared with S$0.24 million in 3Q FY2025.

The increase in gross profit was mainly attributable to the projects with the later stage of progress status with higher margin that were recognised during 3Q FY2026 as compare to 3Q FY2025.

For 9M FY2026, the Group recorded gross profit of S$0.81 million, compared with S$0.59 million in 9M FY2025.

The increase in gross profit was mainly attributable to the higher revenue recognised during 9M FY2026, as explained above.

Other income and gains

For 3Q FY2026, the Group recorded other gains of S$0.60 million, compared with S$0.03 million in 3Q FY2025. The increase was mainly attributable to the following items, which were absent in 3Q FY2025:

(a) reversal of impairment loss of $0.45 million trade receivables following a collection from few customers;

(b) One-time corporate income tax refund of $0.14 million from the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS) due to tax computation verification for past tax computation re-assessment; and

(c) a reversal of over accrual of the variable portion of professional fee of S$0.01 million.

For 9M FY2026, the Group recorded other gains of S$0.70 million, compared with S$0.08 million in 9M FY2025. The increase was mainly attributable to reasons above.

Marketing and distribution cost

For 3Q FY2026, the Group did not incur marketing and distribution costs , compared with a credit of approximately S$8,000 in 3Q FY2025.

The credit recorded in 3Q FY2025 arose from a credit note issued by a service provider following management's decision not to continue the engagement due to the quality and performance of the services provided.

For 9M FY2026, the Group recorded marketing and distribution costs of approximately S$2,000, compared with S$0.07 million in 9M FY2025.

The decrease was mainly attributable to the Group's cost-saving initiatives, including the use of its in-house marketing resources instead of outsourcing such services to external service providers.

Administrative expenses

For 3Q FY2026, the Group recorded administrative expenses of S$0.39 million, compared with S$0.49 million in 3Q FY2025. The decrease was mainly due to decrease in employee benefits expenses of S$0.10 million, mainly arising from cost-saving initiatives and an internal restructuring undertaken to streamline the Group's business operations.

For 9M FY2026, the Group recorded administrative expenses of S$1.33 million, compared with S$1.39 million in 9M FY2025. The decrease was mainly attributable to decrease in employee benefits expenses of S$0.14 million, mainly arising from cost-saving initiatives and an internal restructuring undertaken to streamline the Group's business operations, which partially offset by the payment of one-off referral fee of S$0.04 million incurred in relation to an interior design projects and increase of additional provision of professional fees $0.04 million.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

Finance costs

For 3Q FY2026, finance costs increase to approximately $10,000 from $5,000 in 3Q FY2025 mainly due to obtained two short-term working capital loans.

For 9M FY2026, finance costs increased to approximately $18,000, as compared to approximately S$11,000 in 9M FY2025. The increase was mainly due to the two short-term working capital loans obtained during the financial period, which increased the related interest expense.

Profit before income tax

The Group recorded a profit before income tax of S$0.60 million in 3Q FY2026, compared with a loss before income tax of S$0.23 million in 3Q FY2025, mainly due to the factors explained above.

For 9M FY2026, the Group recorded a profit before income tax of S$0.16 million, compared with a loss before income tax of S$0.80 million in 9M FY2025, mainly due to the factors explained above.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

b) Review of Statement of Financial Position

The Group's current assets increased by S$0.08 million, mainly due to an increase in trade and other receivables of S$0.46 million, mainly attributable to higher credit provided when billing to customers during the financial period; partially offset by decrease in contract assets of S$0.20 million as worked performed but yet to reach the stage to bill to customers during the financial period and a decrease in cash and cash equivalents of S$0.19 million, mainly attributable to payments made to subcontractors;

The Group's non-current assets decreased by S$0.21 million, mainly due to the following:

(a) a decrease in property, plant and equipment of S$0.12 million, mainly attributable to depreciation charges during the financial period; and

(b) a decrease in right-of-use assets of S$0.09 million, mainly attributable to depreciation charges during the financial period.

The Group's current liabilities decreased by S$0.23 million, mainly due to the following:

(a) a decrease in trade and other payables of S$1.01 million following payments made to subcontractors; and

(b) a decrease by S$0.03 million in lease liabilities following lease payments made during the financial period

This was partially offset by an increase in other financial liabilities as Group obtained another short term working capital loan amounting $0.80 million and increase of contract liabilities of S$0.01 million arising from advance consideration received from customers in respect of performance obligations that had not yet been satisfied.

The Group's non-current liabilities decreased by S$0.07 million, mainly due to a decrease in lease liabilities following lease payments made during the financial period.

The Group's equity increased by S$0.16 million, mainly attributable to the net profit of S$0.16 million recorded for 9M FY2026.

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

c) Review of change in cash flow

The Group recorded a net decrease in cash and cash equivalents of S$0.19 million during 9M FY2026, mainly due to net cash generated from financing activities.

Net cash used in operating activities was mainly attributable to payments made to subcontractors in relation to progress claims for the Group's building construction and design projects.

Net cash used in investing activities was mainly attributable to the purchase of property, plant and equipment.

Net cash generated from financing activities was mainly attributable to obtaining short-term working capital loans.

6. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to our shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results.

Not applicable.

7. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

As at 30 September 2026, Sevens Atelier's Design & Build division had a secured order book of approximately S$6.24 million, with revenue expected to be progressively recognised over the next 12 to 18 months. This provides the Group with near-term revenue visibility, although operating conditions remain competitive and subject to project execution risks, cost variability and working capital constraints.

Singapore's construction industry outlook remains supportive, with the Building and Construction Authority ("BCA") projecting total construction demand of between S$47 billion and S$53 billion in 2026 and construction output of between S$43 billion and S$46 billion. Demand is expected to be supported by major public-sector infrastructure, institutional and housing projects, including construction packages for Changi Airport Terminal 5, healthcare and transport infrastructure, and HDB developments.(i)

The private residential property market remained generally resilient in 3Q2026. Overall private residential property prices increased by 1.4% during the quarter, compared with an increase of 0.5% in 2Q2026. In particular, landed property prices increased by 2.9% in 3Q2026, following an increase of 2.5% in the preceding quarter. Private residential rentals also increased by 1.3% in 3Q2026. Private residential resale transactions remained broadly stable at 3,801 units in 3Q2026, compared with 3,813 units in 2Q2026. These market conditions continue to provide potential opportunities for the Group's landed redevelopment, additions and alterations, interior design and design-and-build services. Nevertheless, the Government has continued to emphasise the need for prudence in view of macroeconomic uncertainties and the substantial pipeline of future private housing supply. (ii)

The Housing & Development Board ("HDB") resale market also recorded higher transaction activity during 3Q2026. HDB resale transactions increased by 19.5% to 7,645 units in 3Q2026, from 6,396 units in 2Q2026, although the HDB Resale Price Index decreased marginally by 0.1% during the quarter. The Government had removed the 15-month wait-out period for private residential property owners seeking to purchase non-subsidised HDB resale flats with effect from 28 July 2026. HDB has, however, stated that it has not observed a significant increase in the prices or number of resale flats purchased by private residential property owners and former private residential property owners following the removal of the wait-out period. The higher overall resale transaction activity may nevertheless increase the pool of homeowners undertaking renovation and fit-out works, which may provide potential opportunities for the Group's interior design business. The extent of such opportunities will depend on actual renovation expenditure, customer preferences and prevailing competitive conditions. (iii)

F. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY APPENDIX 7C OF THE CATALIST RULES (CONT'D)

The broader economic environment remains mixed. According to the Monetary Authority of Singapore ("MAS"), Singapore's economy grew by 5.4% year-on-year in 3Q2026, with construction and real estate activities remaining firm. MAS expects the Singapore economy to continue expanding steadily in the immediate quarters ahead, although growth is expected to moderate thereafter. At the same time, higher energy and food prices may result in elevated imported cost pressures in the near term. Such developments could affect construction material costs, subcontractor pricing and project margins. (iv)

Globally, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) projects global economic growth of 3.1% in 2026 and 3.4% in 2027. The outlook remains subject to downside risks arising from geopolitical conflicts, renewed trade tensions, elevated inflation and tighter financial conditions. These factors may affect material prices, supply lead times, customer decision-making and project margins.(v)

The Group will continue to focus on converting its secured order book into revenue and operating cash flows in a timely manner through tighter project commencement controls, milestone billing and the timely submission and collection of progress claims. The Group will remain selective in its tendering activities and will prioritise landed redevelopment, additions and alterations, interior design and design-and-build projects where its capabilities, track record and pricing discipline can support sustainable margins.

The Group will also continue to strengthen its relationships with architects, quantity surveyors, property intermediaries, subcontractors and suppliers to enhance its project pipeline, improve execution certainty and manage cost and supply-chain risks. Notwithstanding the potential opportunities arising from continued construction activity and residential property transactions, the Group expects operating conditions over the next reporting period and the next 12 months to remain challenging, given intense competition, cost pressures, labour and scheduling constraints, working capital requirements and uncertainties in the broader economic environment.
