I am pleased to present the results of the Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2017.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income

The operations of the Group comprise property investment, property development and property agency consultancy services. The revenue for 2017 consisted of revenue generated from the property agency consultancy services and other service fees income.

The Group's revenue increased by US$1.5 million from US$11.6 million for 2016 to US$13.1 million for 2017. The increase was mainly attributable to the increase in revenue generated from the Vigers operations.

Cost of sales increased by US$1.1 million from US$8.7 million for 2016 to US$9.8 million for 2017. The increase was mainly attributable to the higher contracted manpower costs in the Vigers operations.

The Group recorded a gross profit of US$3.3 million for 2017 as compared to US$3.0 million for 2016, an increase of US$0.3 million as explained in the preceding paragraphs.

The Group had other net gain of US$5.5 million for 2017 as compared to other net loss of US$5.1 million for 2016. In 2017, the other net gain comprised mainly the net foreign currency exchange gain of US$4.1 million arising from translating the monetary items denominated in foreign currencies, the interest income of US$1.3 million and the additional provision on rental guarantee of US$0.2 million. In 2016, the other net loss comprised mainly the impairment loss on the goodwill and trademark total of US$5.6 million, the additional provision on rental guarantee of US$0.7 million, the net foreign currency exchange loss of US$0.5 million arising from translating the monetary items denominated in foreign currencies and interest income of US$1.6 million.

Administrative costs increased by US$0.8 million from US$8.2 million for 2016 to US$9.0 million for 2017. The increase was mainly attributable to the increase in legal and professional fees of US$0.4 million and the increase in staff costs of US$0.2 million.

Finance costs decreased by US$0.3 million from US$0.5 million for 2016 to US$0.2 million for 2017. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in the interest on borrowings from a related party of US$0.2 million and the decrease in the notional finance charge of US$0.1 million recognised in compliance with the IFRS for the provision of net rental expenses pursuant to a guaranteed rental agreement entered into with LEHD.

As a result of the above, the Group's loss before taxation for 2017 was US$0.4 million, as compared to US$10.9 million for 2016, a decrease of US$10.5 million, as explained in the preceding paragraphs.

The tax expense in 2017 was mainly represented by the tax on the net assessable profits of the the Vigers Group companies derived from their respective jurisdictions. The tax credit in 2016 was mainly represented by the reduction in the deferred tax provision of US$1.1 million arising from the diminution in the fair value of the trademark.

As a result of the above, the Group's net loss for 2017 was US$0.5 million, as compared to US$9.8 million for 2016, a decrease of US$9.3 million, as explained in the preceding paragraphs.

Other comprehensive loss increased by US$0.67 million from US$0.04 million for 2016 to US$0.71 million for 2017. The increase was mainly attributable to the increase in currency translation difference arising on consolidation of foreign subsidiaries of US$0.34 million and the increase in revaluation loss on land and building of US$0.36 million.

As a result of the above, the Group's total comprehensive loss for the year was US$1.2 million as compared to US$9.8 million for 2016, a decrease of US$8.6 million, as explained in the preceding paragraphs.

Consolidated Statement of Financial Position

Property, plant and equipment decreased by US$4.9 million from US$5.3 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$0.4 million as at 31 December 2017. The decrease was mainly due to the disposal of the Group's office premises of US$5.0 million in September 2017.

Available-for-sale investments increased by US$0.03 million from US$0.01 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$0.04 million as at 31 December 2017. The increase was due to the increase in fair value of the financial assets.

Non-trade receivable from a related party, Lafe (Emerald Hill) Development Pte. Ltd. ("LEHD"), increased by US$3.3 million from US$41.1 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$44.4 million as at 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly attributable to the translation adjustment arising from translating the receivable denominated in foreign currency. The outstanding balance comprises fixed term loans extended to LEHD. It bears interest at 3% per annum and is repayable by 27 September 2020. It is secured by a corporate guarantee given by The Ho Family Trust Limited, a related party, and a second-ranking pledge of the entire shares in LEHD.

Trade and other receivables increased by US$0.6 million from US$2.0 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$2.6 million as at 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly due to the increase in outstanding receivables generated from the Vigers operations.

Bank loans under "Current liabilities" and "Non-current liabilities" decreased in total by US$2.0 million from US$2.0 million as at 31 December 2016 to nil as at 31 December 2017. The decrease was mainly attributable to the full repayment of the bank loans during the current financial year.

Provisions under "Current liabilities" and "Non-current liabilities" decreased in total by US$1.2 million from US$7.0 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$5.8 million as at 31 December 2017. The decrease was mainly attributable to the net effect of the payments made during the current financial year, the additional provision for rental guarantee recognised during the financial year, the translation adjustment arising from translating the provisions denominated in foreign currency and the discount unwound adjustment charged to profit or loss during the current financial year.

The movement in cash and cash equivalents from US$12.8 million as at 31 December 2016 to US$9.6 million as at 31 December 2017, a decrease of US$3.2 million, is explained in the statement of cash flows below.

Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows

During the year, the Group's net cash used in operating activities was US$5.9 million as compared to net cash used in operating activities of US$7.6 million in 2016. The cash movement in 2017 was mainly attributable to the payments made for rental guarantee. The net cash generated from investing activities in 2017 of US$4.7 million was mainly attributable to the net receipt of sales proceeds from disposal of property, plant and equipment. The net cash used in financing activities in 2017 of US$2.0 million was mainly attributable to the bank loan repayments.

DIVIDENDS

The Board do not recommend payment of a final dividend in respect of the financial year ended 31 December 2017.

PROSPECTS

The Group will continue to look for suitable opportunities for future development and investment.

The Vigers Group, which provides property agency, appraisal and consultancy services, continues to make a positive contribution to the Group's operating results. In face of the severe competition in Hong Kong, the Vigers Group has been putting great efforts in developing its business in the PRC and Macau with a view to expanding its professional valuation services.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to extend my appreciation to the management and the staff of the Group for their loyalty and commitment. I would also like to thank our shareholders, customers, suppliers and business associates for their continuing support and confidence.

To provide the shareholders with a balanced and understandable assessment of the Company's performance, position and prospects, annual and quarterly financial statements and announcements to shareholders are reviewed by the Audit Committee before submission to the Board for adoption. The Audit Committee reviews the financial statements with emphasis on (i) changes in accounting policies and practices, if any; (ii) significant matters arising from the audit, if any; and (iii) compliance with relevant accounting standards and legal requirements.

The Audit Committee also reviews Interested Person Transactions to ensure that they are conducted on normal commercial terms and not prejudicial to the interests of the Company or its shareholders.

In the year under review, the Internal Auditors carried out reviews on certain areas to assess and evaluate:

To the Members of Lafe Corporation Limited

For the financial year ended 31 December 2017

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Lafe Corporation Limited (the Company) and its subsidiaries (the Group) as set out on pages 22 to 70, which comprise the statement of financial position of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2017, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows of the Group and the statement of changes in equity of the Company for the financial year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Group and the statement of financial position and statement of changes in equity of the Company give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group and the financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2017, and of the consolidated financial performance, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group and the changes in equity of the Company for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority (ACRA) Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Public Accountants and Accounting Entities (ACRA Code) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Singapore, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ACRA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Impairment assessment of trademark

As disclosed in Notes 5b(i) and 17 to the consolidated financial statements of the Group, the Group has trademark with carrying amount of US$5,179,000 (2016: US$5,220,000) which is allocated to the cash generating unit (CGU) comprising operations in Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China.

Trademark with an indefinite useful life is required to be tested for impairment annually.

Impairment assessment of trademark is considered to be a key audit matter due to the significance of the asset to the Group's consolidated financial position, and due to the estimation involved in the assessment of the value in use of the CGU performed by the management. The estimation relates to the future results of the CGU and the discount rates applied to future cash forecasts.

Our procedures to address the key audit matter

We obtained an understanding of management's impairment assessment process.

We assessed the key estimates to the value in use calculation by comparing the forecasts to historical data and publicly available industry data and compared previous estimates to actual results achieved. We assessed the sensitivity of the key estimates on the impairment assessment. We involved our valuation specialists in assessing the valuation methodology and the reasonableness of the terminal growth rate and discount rate used.

We have also assessed the adequacy and appropriateness of the disclosures made in the financial statements.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Directors for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with IFRSs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors' responsibilities include overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Guo Shuqi.

1 CORPORATION INFORMATION

The Company was incorporated on 8 April 1999 as an exempted company with limited liability in Bermuda under the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda with its registered office at Wessex House, 45 Reid Street, Hamilton HM 12, Bermuda and principal place of business at 119 Emerald Hill Road, #12-01 Residences at Emerald Hill, Singapore 229401. The shares of the Company are listed on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the "SGX-ST"). In the opinion of the Directors, the Company's immediate and ultimate holding company is Sino Capital Resources Limited which is incorporated in the British Virgin Islands.

The Company acts as an investment holding company. Details of the principal activities of the subsidiaries are set out in Note 33.

The consolidated financial statements of the Group and the statement of financial position and statement of changes in equity of the Company for the financial year ended 31 December 2017 were authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 29 March 2018.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The financial statements presented in United States dollar are rounded to the nearest thousand ("US$'000") except when otherwise indicated.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the financial year. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions and historical experiences and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, actual results may ultimately differ from those estimates.

Use of estimates and judgements

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The areas involving a higher degree of judgement in applying accounting policies, or areas where assumptions and estimates have a significant risk of resulting in material adjustment within the next financial year are disclosed in Note 5 to the financial statements.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade and other current receivables and payables approximate their respective fair values due to the relatively short-term maturity of these financial instruments.

3 ADOPTION OF NEW AND REVISED INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS INTERPRETATIONS COMMITTEE

(a) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

In the current financial year, the Group has adopted all the new and revised IFRS issued by the IASB and interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Standards Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC Interpretations") that are relevant to its operations and effective for the current financial year. Changes to the Group's accounting policies have been made as required, in accordance with the transitional provisions in the respective IFRS and IFRIC Interpretations.

From 1 January 2017, as a result of the amendments to IFRS 7 Statement of Cash Flows (Disclosure Initiative), the Group has provided additional disclosure in relation to changes in liabilities from financing activities for the current financial year (Note 24).

The adoption of these new/revised IFRS and IFRIC Interpretations did not have any material effect on the financial results or position of the Group and the Company.

(b) Standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards that are issued, revised or amended but are not yet effective

New standards, amendments to standards and interpretations that have been issued at the end of the reporting period but are not yet effective for the financial year ended 31 December 2017 have not been applied in preparing these financial statements. None of these are expected to have a significant effect on the financial statements of the Group and the Company, except as disclosed below:

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

IFRS 15 replaces IAS 18 'Revenue', IAS 11 'Construction contracts' and other revenue-related interpretations. It applies to all contracts with customers, except for leases, financial instruments, insurance contracts and certain guarantee contracts and non-monetary exchange contracts. IFRS 15 provides a single, principle-based model to be applied to all contracts with customers. An entity recognises revenue in accordance with the core principle in IFRS 15 by applying a 5-step approach.

Under IFRS 15, an entity recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

The standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018, with early adoption permitted. IFRS 15 includes disclosure requirements that will result in disclosure of comprehensive information about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the entity's contracts with customers.

The Group plans to adopt the new standard on the required effective date of 1 January 2018 without restating prior periods' information and recognises any difference between the previous carrying amount and the carrying amount at the beginning of the annual reporting period at the date of initial application in the opening retained earnings as at 1 January 2018.

Management has performed a preliminary impact assessment of applying the new standard on the Group's financial statements and there will be no material impact to the financial statements of the Group in the period of initial application of IFRS 15. The Group is finalising its assessment and quantification of the impact and of the transition adjustments on its financial statements.

3 ADOPTION OF NEW AND REVISED INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS INTERPRETATIONS COMMITTEE (cont'd)

(b) Standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards that are issued, revised or amended but are not yet effective (cont'd)

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

IFRS 9 which replaces IAS 39, includes guidance on (i) the classification and measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities; (ii) impairment requirements for financial assets; and (iii) general hedge accounting. Financial assets are classified according to their contractual cash flow characteristics and the business model under which they are held. The impairment requirements in IFRS 9 are based on an expected credit loss model and replace IFRS 9 incurred loss model.

The Group plans to adopt the new standard on the required effective date without restating prior periods' information and recognises any differences in the carrying amounts of financial assets and financial liabilities resulting from the adoption of IFRS 9 at the date of initial application in the opening retained earnings and reserves as at 1 January 2018.

(a) Classification and measurement

The Group does not expect a significant change to the measurement basis arising from adopting the new classification and measurement model under IFRS 9:

- Loans and receivables that are currently accounted for at amortised cost are expected to continue to be measured at amortised cost.
- The Group elects to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income (OCI) for equity instruments currently classified as available-for-sale (AFS) financial assets because these investments are not held for trading.

(b) Impairment

IFRS 9 requires the Group to record expected credit losses on all of its loans and trade receivables, either on a 12-month or lifetime basis. The Group will apply the simplified approach and record lifetime expected losses on all trade receivables. Upon adoption of IFRS 9, the Group does not expect any additional impairment allowance for its loans and receivables for the financial year ended 31 December 2017.

The Group will adopt IFRS 9 when it becomes effective in financial year ending 31 December 2018.

IFRS 16 Leases

IFRS 16 replaces the existing IAS 17: Leases. It reforms lessee accounting by introducing a single lessee accounting model. Lessees are required to recognise all leases on their balance sheets to reflect their rights to use leased assets (a "right-of-use" asset) and the associated obligations for lease payments (a lease liability), with limited exemptions for short term leases (less than 12 months) and leases of low value items. In addition, the nature of expenses related to those leases will change as IFRS 16 replaces the straight-line operating lease expense with depreciation charge of right-of-use asset and interest expense on lease liability. The accounting for lessors will not change significantly.

The standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019. The Group will assess the potential impact of IFRS 16 and plans to adopt the standard on the required effective date.

4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

4.1 Revenue recognition

Revenue for the Group comprises the fair value of consideration received or receivable for rendering of services in the ordinary course of business, net of rebates, discounts and sales related tax, and after eliminating sales within the Group.

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity, and the amount of revenue and related cost can be reliably measured.

i) Rendering of services

Service income, management and consultancy fees are recognised in the period in which the services are rendered.

ii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest method.

iii) Rental income

Rental income from operating lease (net of any incentives given to the lessees) is recognised on a straight line basis over the lease term as set out in specific rental agreements.

iv) Property services income

Property services income is recognised when the relevant services have been rendered.

4.2 Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. On disposal of the investment, the difference between disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts of the investments are recognised in profit or loss.

4.3 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries at the end of the reporting period. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting date as the parent company. Consistent accounting policies are applied for like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

Intragroup balances and transactions, including income, expenses and dividends, are eliminated in full. Profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and property, plant and equipment, are eliminated in full.

4.3 Basis of consolidation (continued)

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred for the acquisition comprises the fair value of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred also includes the fair value of any contingent consideration arrangement and the fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses as incurred. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

Any excess of the fair value of the consideration transferred in the business combination, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any) and the fair value of the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any), over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. Goodwill is accounted for in accordance with the accounting policy for goodwill stated in Note 4.4. In instances where the latter amount exceeds the former and the measurement of all amounts has been reviewed, the excess is recognised as gain from bargain purchase in profit or loss on the date of acquisition.

Non-controlling interests are that part of the net results of operations and of net assets of a subsidiary attributable to the interests which are not owned directly or indirectly by the equity holders of the Company. They are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of financial position. Total comprehensive income is attributed to the non-controlling interests based on their respective interests in a subsidiary, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

For non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the acquiree's net assets in the event of liquidation, the Group elects on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis whether to measure them at fair value, or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets, at the acquisition date. All other non-controlling interests are measured at acquisition-date fair value or, when applicable, on the basis specified in another standard.

In business combinations achieved in stages, previously held equity interests in the acquiree are remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date and any corresponding gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions (i.e. transactions with owners in their capacity as owners). The carrying amount of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interest is adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributable to owners of the Company.

When a change in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary results in a loss of control over the subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary including any goodwill, non-controlling interest and other components of equity related to the subsidiary are derecognised. Amounts recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are also reclassified to profit or loss or transferred directly to accumulated profits if required by a specific IFRS.

Any retained equity interest in the previous subsidiary is remeasured at fair value at the date that control is lost. The difference between the carrying amount of the retained interest at the date control is lost, and its fair value is recognised in profit or loss.

4.4 Goodwill

Goodwill is initially measured at cost and is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

The Group tests goodwill annually for impairment, or more frequently if there are indications that goodwill might be impaired.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than the carrying amount of the unit, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro-rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

On disposal of a subsidiary, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the profit or loss on disposal.

4.5 Property, plant and equipment

Cost and measurement

Land and building are initially recorded at cost. Freehold land is subsequently stated at revalued amount less accumulated impairment losses. Building is subsequently carried at revalued amounts less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Their fair values are determined by an independent professional valuer every year and whenever their carrying amounts are likely to differ materially from their fair values.

Other property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost and subsequently carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value.

The cost of property, plant and equipment initially recognised includes its purchase price and any cost that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Dismantlement, removal or restoration costs are included as part of the cost of property, plant and equipment if the obligation for dismantlement, removal or restoration is incurred as a consequence of acquiring or using the asset.

The cost of replacing a component of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the component will flow to the Group, and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced component is derecognised.

When an asset is revalued, any accumulated depreciation at the date of revaluation is eliminated against the gross carrying amount of the asset. The net amount is then restated to the revalued amount of the assets. Any increase in the carrying amount arising from revaluation is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the asset revaluation reserve unless it reverses a previous revaluation decrease relating to the same asset, which was previously recognised as an expense. In these circumstances the increase is recognised as income to the extent of the previous write down. When an asset's carrying amount is decreased as a result of a revaluation, the decrease is recognised as an expense unless it reverses a previous surplus relating to that asset, in which case it is charged against any related revaluation surplus, to the extent that the decrease does not exceed the amount held in the revaluation surplus in respect of that same asset.

On disposal of a property, plant and equipment, the difference between the net disposal proceeds and its carrying amount is taken to profit or loss; and any amount in asset revaluation reserve relating to that asset is transferred to accumulated profits directly.

4.5 Property, plant and equipment (continued)

Depreciation

No depreciation is provided on freehold land.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis to write off the cost or revalued amount of other property, plant and equipment over their expected useful lives. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Freehold building	50 years
Leasehold improvements	Shorter of lease terms or 3 years
Furniture, fixtures and office equipment	3 to 5 years
Motor vehicles	4 years

The residual values, estimated useful lives and depreciation method of property, plant and equipment are reviewed, and adjusted as appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. The effects of any revision are recognised in profit or loss when the changes arise.

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the financial statements until they are no longer in use.

4.6 Trademark

Trademark acquired in a business combination is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Trademarks with indefinite useful lives are not subject to amortisation, but are tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there are indications of impairment.

The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life is reviewed annually to determine whether the useful life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

4.7 Impairment of non-financial assets excluding goodwill

At each reporting date, the Group assesses the carrying amounts of its non-financial assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the impairment loss is recognised in other comprehensive income up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (cash-generating unit) in prior years. A previously recognised impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is only reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase.

4.8 Operating leases

When a Group entity is the lessee:

Leases where a significant portion of the risks and rewards incidental to ownership are retained by the lessors are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are taken to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease. Contingent rents, if any, are charged as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

When an operating lease is terminated before the lease period expires, any payment required to be made to the lessor by way of penalty is recognised as an expense in the period in which termination takes place.

When a Group entity is the lessor:

Leases where the Group retains substantially all risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income (net of any incentives given to lessees) is recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

4.9 Income taxes

Income tax on the profit or loss for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity in which the tax is also recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively).

Current tax is the expected tax payable or recoverable on the taxable income for the current year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable or recoverable in respect of previous years.

Deferred income tax is provided using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements except where the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination, and at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting nor taxable profit or loss.

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference can be controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on currently enacted or substantively enacted tax rates at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax is measured based on the tax consequence that will follow the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amounts of its assets and liabilities.

4.10 Financial assets

a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets as loans and receivables and available-for-sale. The classification depends on the nature of the asset and the purpose for which the assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

i) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except those maturing later than 12 months after the end of the reporting period which are classified as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are presented as "trade and other receivables", "other non-current and current assets" (excluding prepayments and advances paid), "non-trade receivable from a related party" and "cash and cash equivalents" on the statements of financial position.

ii) Financial assets, available-for-sale

Financial assets, available-for-sale include equity securities that are non-derivatives and are either designated in this category or not classified in any of the other categories. They are included in non-current assets unless management intends to dispose of the assets within 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

b) Recognition and derecognition

Regular purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date - the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. On disposal of a financial asset, the difference between the net sale proceeds and its carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss. Any amount in the fair value reserve relating to that asset is also transferred to profit or loss.

c) Initial measurement

Financial assets are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs.

d) Subsequent measurement

Financial assets, available-for-sale are subsequently carried at fair value. Available-for-sale investments in equity instruments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measurable, are measured at cost less impairment loss. Loans and receivables financial assets are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment.

Changes in fair values of available-for-sale equity securities (i.e. non-monetary items) are recognised in fair value reserve/other comprehensive income, together with the related currency translation differences.

Interest and dividend income on available-for-sale financial assets are recognised separately in profit or loss.

e) Impairment

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired.

i) Loans and receivables

Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default or delinquency in payments are considered indicators that the receivable is impaired.

The carrying amount of these assets is reduced through the use of an impairment allowance account, and the amount of the loss is recognised in profit or loss. The allowance amount is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate. When the asset becomes uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are recognised against the same line item in profit or loss.

If in subsequent periods, the impairment loss decreases, and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversed date.

ii) Financial assets, available-for-sale

In the case of an equity security classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is considered an indicator that the security is impaired.

When there is objective evidence that an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, the cumulative loss that was recognised directly in the fair value reserve is reclassified to profit or loss. The cumulative loss is measured as the difference between the acquisition cost (net of any principal repayments and amortisation) and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that financial asset previously recognised. Impairment losses recognised in profit or loss on equity instruments classified as available-for-sale financial assets are not reversed through profit or loss.

For available-for-sale financial assets carried at cost, the amount of impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. The amount of impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss and such losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

4.11 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits with financial institutions which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value, other short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and excludes pledged deposits.

4.12 Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities include trade and other payables, non-trade payables to related parties and bank loans.

Financial liabilities are recognised on the statements of financial position when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instruments.

Financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is extinguished. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised and through the amortisation process.

4.13 Share capital

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share premium.

4.14 Provisions for other liabilities

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle that obligation and the amount can be estimated reliably. Provisions are measured at management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount of the provision shall be discounted to present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and risks specific to the obligation.

When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as a finance cost in profit or loss.

4.15 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are recognised in the profit or loss using the effective interest method.

4.16 Employee benefits

Employee benefits are recognised as an expense, unless the cost qualifies to be capitalised as an asset.

i) Provision for staff benefits

Staff benefits are provided based on the employees' salaries and their respective length of service in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations in their respective countries of employment.

ii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable whenever an employee's employment is terminated before normal retirement date, or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits when it is demonstrably committed to either: terminate the employment of current employees according to a detailed plan without possibility of withdrawal; or to provide termination benefits as a result of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of each reporting period are discounted to present value.

iii) Retirement benefits scheme contributions

The retirement benefits scheme contributions charged in the profit or loss represent the amount of contributions payable by the Group's defined contribution scheme in respect of the current financial year. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid.

iv) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. Accrual is made for the unconsumed leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

4.17 Foreign currencies

i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which that entity operates (the "functional currency"). The financial statements of the Group and the Company are presented in United States Dollar ("US$"), which is the Company's functional currency and the presentation currency for the financial statements.

ii) Transactions and balances

Transactions in a currency other than the functional currency ("foreign currency") are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Currency translation gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in profit or loss, except for currency translation differences on net investment in foreign operations and borrowings and other currency instruments qualifying as net investment hedges for foreign operations, which are included in the exchange reserve within equity in the consolidated financial statements. The exchange reserve is reclassified from equity to profit or loss of the Group on disposal of the foreign operation.

Non-monetary items measured at fair values in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair values are determined.

iii) Translation of Group entities' financial statements

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the Group's presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

a) Assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rates at the end of the reporting period;

b) Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates (unless the average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions); and

c) All resulting exchange differences are recognised in the exchange reserve within equity.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign operations (including monetary items that, in substance, form part of the net investment in foreign entities), and of borrowings and other currency instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are taken to the foreign currency translation reserve.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the closing rate.

On the disposal of a foreign group entity, the cumulative amount of the currency translation reserve relating to that particular foreign entity is reclassified from equity and recognised in profit or loss when the gain or loss on disposal is recognised.

4.18 Segment reporting

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incurs expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with other components of the Group.

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Group's chief operating decision maker for making decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments.

4.19 Financial guarantees

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due.

Financial guarantee contracts are initially recognised at their fair values plus transaction costs. Financial guarantees are classified as financial liabilities.

Subsequent to initial measurement, the financial guarantees are stated at the higher of the initial fair value less cumulative amortisation and the expected amount payable to the holder. Financial guarantee contracts are amortised in profit or loss over the period of the guarantee.

4.20 Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liabilities are not recognised on the statements of financial position except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair value can be reliably determined.

5 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

a) Critical judgements in application of the accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, which are described in Note 2, management has made the following judgements that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements (apart from those involving estimations, which are dealt in the preceding paragraphs).

Impairment of non-trade receivable from a related party

The Group assesses at the end of the reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that the non-trade receivable from a related party is impaired. Factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the related party and default or significant delay in payments are objective evidence of impairment. In determining whether there is objective evidence of impairment, the Group considers whether there is historical payment trend indicating that there have been significant changes in the related party's payment ability or whether there have been significant changes with adverse effect in the market, economic or legal environment in which the related party operates in. The Group also considers the securitites held for the non-trade receivable from a related party as disclosed in Note 16.

b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are discussed below.

i) Impairment of trademark

As disclosed in Note 17, the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit ("CGU") which trademark has been allocated to is determined based on value in use ("VIU") calculation. The VIU calculation requires the management to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGU and a suitable discount rate, in order to determine the present value of those cash flows. The key assumptions applied in the determination of VIU including a sensitivity analysis, are disclosed and further explained in Note 17.

ii) Provision for rental guarantee

In determining whether a provision is adequate requires management to estimate the future cash payments expected to arise pursuant to a guaranteed rental agreement entered into with a former subsidiary, Lafe (Emerald Hill) Development Pte. Ltd. ("LEHD") and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value. As at 31 December 2017, the carrying amount of provision for rental guarantee was US$5,507,000 (2016: US$6,695,000) (Note 25(i)). The management has considered the most significant assumption used is the 2% increase in rental rates upon expiry of existing rental contracts and that a reasonably possible change in the rental rates will not result in any material adjustment to the carrying amount of provision for rental guarantee.

iii) Contingent liabilities

In determining whether provision is necessary for contingent liabilities, management makes an assessment on the facts and merits of the legal claims and takes into consideration legal opinions obtained. As disclosed in Note 30, the Group has two outstanding legal claims made against them for which management is of the view that no provision is necessary at the end of the reporting period.

6 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group has adopted IFRS 8 Operating segments that requires operating segments to be identified on the basis of internal reports about components of the Group that are regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker in order to allocate resources to segments and to assess their performance.

Land and building comprise of a freehold land and building in Singapore occupied by the Group as office premises. The property is a refurbished two storey intermediate conservation pre-war shophouse with a mezzanine level and an attic. Total gross floor and land area of the property are approximately 292 square metres and 121.9 square metres respectively. The property had been pledged against loan facilities made available by a financial institution (Note 24) as collateral for bank loans.

The fair value of the office premises of S$7.5 million (equivalent to US$5.2 million) as at 31 December 2016 was arrived at based on a valuation carried out by PREMAS Valuers & Property Consultants Pte Ltd, an accredited independent valuer. The fair value was determined by reference to market transactions that consider sales of similar property that have been transacted in the open market. The fair value measurement is categorised as Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy (Note 35).

During the current financial year, the freehold land and building have been sold to a third party for a consideration of S$7.03 million (equivalent to US$5.04 million).

It is secured by a corporate guarantee given by The Ho Family Trust Limited, a related party, and a second-ranking pledge of the entire shares in LEHD. LEHD also signed a covenant that it will not distribute any dividends while any amount of the loan remains outstanding.

Trademark

Licenses are available for the use of the trademark on the bases of a royalty charged which depends on the period and the specific license. The license provides an option for renewal based on meeting conditions of the license and may be renewed at little or no cost to the Group. As a result, the trademark is considered by the management as having an indefinite useful life and is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there are indications of impairment.

Impairment testing of goodwill and trademark

Goodwill acquired through business combination and trademark have been allocated to the Group's CGU comprising operations in Hong Kong and the People's Republic of China. The recoverable amount of the CGU has been determined based on value in use calculation using cash flow projections from financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period.

Key assumptions used in value in use calculation

The key assumptions for the value in use ("VIU") calculation are those regarding the budgeted revenue growth rate, budgeted gross margin, terminal growth rate and discount rate.

	2017	2016
	%	%
Budgeted revenue growth rate	3.5	3.5
Budgeted gross margin	26.0 - 28.0	27.0 - 28.0
Terminal growth rate [1]	**–	–
Discount rate [2]	21.4	21.4

(1) Growth rate used to extrapolate cash flows beyond the budgeted period.

(2) Pre-tax discount rate applied to cash flow projections.

Budgeted revenue growth rate and gross margin are based on past performance and its expectations of market development. The forecasted terminal growth rate are based on published industry research and do not exceed the long term average growth rate for the industry. The discount rate used was pre-tax and reflected risks specific to the CGU.

During the previous financial year, impairment charges of US$520,000 on goodwill and US$5,096,000 on trademark were included within "Other net loss" in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. The impairment charges had arisen from the lower than expected performance of the operations in the People's Republic of China. No impairment was recognised during the current financial year.

Sensitivity to changes in assumptions

The estimated recoverable amount exceeds its carrying amount by approximately US$0.4 million as at 31 December 2017. If the budgeted revenue growth used in the VIU calculation had been 3%, the recoverable amount of the trademark would equal to its carrying amount.

The outstanding assignment consideration due by the subsidiary is unsecured, interest-free and expected to be repaid by 27 September 2020.

In accordance with IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, the Company initially recognised the loan at fair value, determined based on the market rate prevailing on loan inception date of 3%. The difference between the fair value of the loan and notional value of the loan at initial recognition is taken to "Deferred expenditure" account and amortised over the period of the loan to match the finance income from unwinding the fair value adjustment.

During the previous financial year, the non-trade receivable from a subsidiary repayment term has changed to repayable on demand, thus it was classified as current asset as at 31 December 2016.

(b) Deferred expenditure

Deferred expenditure will be amortised to profit or loss on a straight line basis over the loan period from the effective date of the deed of novation.

30 CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

(a) A plaintiff issued a writ of summons in the High Court of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Court of First Instance against the Company in January 2012 for a sum of US$5.7 million together with interest, costs and other reliefs as the Court sees fit. The claim is in relation to a guarantee and indemnity provided by the Company to its former subsidiary, Lafe Technology (Hong Kong) Limited ("LTHKL") under a factoring facility agreement between the plaintiff and LTHKL. The parties have so far filed and served the statement of claim, the defence and the reply, witness statement and supplemental witness statement and the discovery process is completed. The parties' experts on Norwegian law exchanged expert reports in May 2017 and prepared a joint report in September 2017. The plaintiff has obtained compensation from its insurer and its aggregate claims against LTHKL and the Company have been reduced to US$1.8 million plus interest. Joint expert report has been filed to court. The next trial dates will be from 24 April 2019 to 3 May 2019.

(b) A plaintiff, which is in creditors' voluntary liquidation, issued a writ of summons in the High Court of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Court of First Instance against certain subsidiaries of the Vigers Group and others on 3 May 2013 together with a statement of claim (with subsequent amendments made on 21 June 2013 and 7 October 2014 respectively) for breaches of fiduciary duties, preferential payments of approximately US$1.58 million, fraudulent disposition of certain funds of approximately US$1.06 million, disposition of the plaintiff's property of approximately US$1.23 million and failure to put in place proper professional indemnity insurance for the plaintiff. All the transactions in relation to these allegations happened prior to the acquisition of the Vigers Group by the Company. The plaintiff made a payment of HK$1 million and HK$1.5 million into court as security for Defendants' costs on 11 February 2014 and 18 January 2017 respectively. The action is at its discovery stage. There will be a hearing on 18 April 2018 for the plaintiff's summons for interrogations and a hearing on 26 June 2018 for the plaintiff's summons for specific discovery.

The management is of the view that no provision is necessary for any of the legal suits described above having considered their respective merits and stages of proceedings.

31 RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEME

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefits scheme (the "Scheme") under the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme Ordinance of Hong Kong, for those employees who are eligible to participate in the Scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees' basic salaries in accordance with the rules of the Scheme. The assets of the Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. The Group's employer contributions vest fully with the employees when contributed into the Scheme.

PRC employees of the Group's subsidiary registered in the PRC are members of the pension scheme operated by the PRC local government. The PRC subsidiary is required to contribute a certain percentage based on a relevant portion of the payroll of these employees to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group in respect of the pension scheme is the required contributions under the pension scheme.

In the case of eligible Singapore employees, the Group pays to a defined contribution plan. Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which the Group pays fixed contributions into separate entities such as the Central Provident Fund, and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions once the contributions have been paid. Contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed.

(b) Foreign currency risk (continued)

Sensitivity analysis for foreign exchange currency risk

In respect of the Group, at the end of the reporting period, if the SGD strengthens/weakens against United States Dollar ("USD") by 5% with all variables including tax rate being held constant, the Group's loss after taxation will be lower/higher by US$2,195,000 (2016: lower/higher by US$2,308,000).

In respect of the Company, at the end of the reporting period, if the SGD strengthens/weakens against USD by 5% with all variables including tax rate being held constant, the Company's loss after taxation will be lower/higher by US$2,701,000 (2016: lower/higher by US$2,631,000).

The sensitivity analysis for the other foreign currencies is not disclosed as the impact on the Group's and Company's loss after taxation is not significant.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contracutal obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. It is the Group's policy to enter into transactions with credit-worthy parties to mitigate any significant concentration of credit risk. Potential exposures are monitored and reported to management on a timely basis. As the Group and Company does not hold any collateral for its trade and other receivables, except for the non-trade receivable from a related party as referred to in Note 16, the maximum exposure to credit risk is the carrying amount of each class of financial instruments presented on the statement of financial position. The Group maintains an allowance for impairment loss of receivables for estimated losses resulting from the inability of debtors to make required payments. Allowances for impairment of receivables are based on the estimates of future cash flows on the aging of the trade receivables balance, their credit-worthiness and historical write-off experience.

Non-trade receivable from a related party is secured by a corporate guarantee given by The Ho Family Trust Limited, a related party, and a second-ranking pledge of the entire shares in LEHD. LEHD also signed a covenant that it will not distribute any dividends while any amount of the loan remains outstanding. Management is of the view that the non-trade receivable from a related party has adequate security and accordingly no impairment is required.

Bank balances and short term bank deposits are held with reputable financial institutions and are neither past due nor impaired.

As at 31 December 2017, the allowance for impairment of trade and other receivables for the Group and the Company were US$966,000 (2016: US$936,000) and US$18,992,000 (2016: US$19,145,000) respectively. The movements in allowance for impairment of trade and other receivables during the financial year are presented in Notes 19 and 20.

Except for trade and other receivables with specific terms of repayment, the Group extends an average credit period of 30 days (2016: 30 days).

Trade and other receivables that are neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy debtors with good payment records with the Group and the Company. Cash and cash equivalents are placed with or entered into with reputable financial institutions or companies with high credit ratings and no history of default.

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises on interest–bearing financial instruments recognised in the statements of financial position. It is the risk that changes in interest rates will affect the Group's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments.

The Group's exposure to interest rates relates primarily to interest-earning financial assets and interest-bearing financial liabilities. Interest rate risk is managed by the Group on an on-going basis with the primary objective of limiting the extent to which the interest could be affected by an adverse movement in interest rates.

The Group ensures that surplus funds are deposited at favorable interest rates with reputable financial institutions in the PRC, Hong Kong, Singapore and Macau.

As at 31 December 2016, the debt obligations pertain to its borrowings from banks in Singapore. The Group does not hedge interest rate risk. The Group ensures that it borrows at competitive interest rates under favorable terms and conditions.

The interest rates for short term bank deposits and the non-trade receivable from a related party are fixed. The Group's exposure to interest rate risks arises mainly from the bank loans at variable rates. The bank loans at 31 December 2016 were the mortgage loan on the Singapore office. The bank loans were fully repaid during the current financial year. If the interest rates increase/decrease by 0.5%, with all other variables including tax rate being held constant, the loss after taxation for the previous financial year will be higher/lower by US$8,000 as a result of higher/lower interest expense on these bank loans.

(e) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

The Group's cash and cash equivalents, operating cash flow and availability of banking facilities are actively managed to ensure that there is adequate working capital and that repayment and funding needs are met.

34 RISK FACTORS AND RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

(f) Capital risk

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain an optimal capital structure so as to maximise shareholder value. In order to maintain or achieve an optimal capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividend payment, issue new shares or obtain new borrowings.

Management monitors capital with reference to net debt-to-equity ratio. The Group strategies, which were unchanged from the previous year, are to maintain a prudent balance between the advantage and flexibility afforded by a strong capital position and the higher return on equity that are possible with greater leverage.

The gearing ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total equity. Net debt is calculated as all financial liabilities (including trade and other payables) and provision for rental guarantee less cash and cash equivalents. Total equity comprise share capital and all reserves.

35 FAIR VALUE OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

(a) Fair value hierarchy

The Group adopted the amendments to IFRS 7 which require disclosure of fair value measurements by levels in the fair value hierarchy based on the inputs to the valuation techniques.

The fair value hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

(i) Level 1 - quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities;

(ii) Level 2 - inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and

(iii) Level 3 - inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

35 FAIR VALUE OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (continued)

(b) Fair value measurements of assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value

The following table presents the level of fair value hierarchy for each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on the statements of financial position as at the end of the reporting period at 31 December 2017.

(c) Determination of fair values

(i) Quoted equity securities

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as available-for-sale securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. These instruments are included in Level 1.

(ii) Property, plant and equipment

As at 31 December 2016, the freehold land and building was valued at their highest and best use by independent valuers based on comparable market transactions that consider sales of similar properties that had been transacted in the open market at the end of the reporting period, with appropriate yield adjustments made for differences in the nature, location or condition of the specific properties being valued.

Significant inputs used in this valuation were prices per square metre of comparable properties in the vicinity. Significant unobservable inputs used were the adjustments made by the professional valuer, for any differences in nature, location, or condition of the specific property. A significant increase/ decrease in yield adjustments based on management's assumptions would result in a significantly lower/higher fair value measurement.

The fair value measurement of freehold land and building was categorised as Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy.

(iii) Non-current receivable from a related party

The basis of determining fair value of non-current receivable from a related party as at the end of the reporting period are disclosed in Note 16.

(d) Movements in Level 3 non-current assets measured at fair value

The following table shows a reconciliation from the beginning balances to the ending balances for Level 3 fair value measurements:

	Property, plant and equipment - freehold land and building

(e) Valuation process applied by the Group

As at 31 December 2016, the fair value of land and building was determined by external, independent property valuers, having appropriate professional qualifications and experience in the category of property being valued at the end of every financial year. For valuation performed by external valuers, management considered the appropriateness of the valuation technique and assumptions applied by the external valuers. The measurement of fair values of other assets and liabilities within Level 3 fair value hierarchy was performed by the Group on a yearly basis. The valuation reports and changes in fair value measurements were analysed and reported to the management regularly. Significant valuation issues were reported to the Audit Committee.
