

StarHub Announces Resignation of CFO
- New CFO Will Be Announced In Due Course -

Singapore, 17 April 2015 - StarHub today announced the resignation of its Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Nicholas Tan. He is leaving for personal reasons.

Nicholas joined StarHub in July 2013. Together with the management team, Nicholas strengthened the Company's financial foundation, drove shareholder value and ensured that StarHub remains a company with good corporate governance and sound financial practices. His resignation will take effect from 30 April 2015.

"The StarHub Board expresses its appreciation to Nicholas for his contributions to the company during his tenure, and wish him well in his future endeavours," said StarHub Chairman, Tan Guong Ching. "The StarHub Board has identified a new CFO after an executive search and more details on the new appointment will be announced in due course."

StarHub's Chief Executive Officer Tan Tong Hai will oversee all financial matters before the new CFO joins the Company.

About StarHub

StarHub is Singapore's fully-integrated info-communications company, offering a full range of information, communications and entertainment services for both consumer and corporate markets. StarHub operates a mobile network that provides 4G, 3G and 2G services. It also manages an island-wide HFC network that delivers multi-channel pay TV services (including HDTV, Internet TV and on-demand services) as well as ultra-high speed residential broadband services. StarHub operates an extensive fixed business network that provides a wide range of data, voice and wholesale services. Over Singapore's fibre-based Next Generation Nationwide Broadband Network, StarHub offers a broad range of home and business broadband plans, as well as commercial and residential IPTV services.

Launched in 2000, StarHub has become one of Singapore's most innovative info-communications providers, and the pioneer in 'hubbing' - the ability to deliver unique integrated and converged services to all its customers. StarHub, listed on the main board of the Singapore Exchange since October 2004, is a component stock of the Straits Times Index and the MSCI Singapore Free Index.
