From 10 October 2013 to the present date, our shareholding of TMC has always been a percentage of TMC's shares that rounds off to 9%. As our shareholding of TMC's shares had not reached a figure that rounds off to 10%, we had not made notification to SGX of our subsequent purchases of TMC's shares.

On being informed by TMC that we should make notification to SGX via their email on 18 September 2014, we have written to TMC and SGX to ask whether and when we should make notification to SGX. We have not yet received a reply from SGX. However, we are submitting these notifications to SGX, following the directions of TMC, to do our utmost to make the fullest disclosure possible.

We were surprised to learn this because we had been told that, as a substantial shareholder of TMC, we should only notify SGX when the change of our shareholding reached 1% of TMC's issued shares when rounded off to a whole number. From 10 October 2013 to the present date, our shareholding of TMC has always been a percentage of TMC's shares that rounds off to 9%. As our shareholding of TMC's shares had not reached a figure that rounds off to 10%, we had not made notification to SGX of our subsequent purchases of TMC's shares.
