PROFIT GUIDANCE FOR THE SIX MONTHS PERIOD AND FULL YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2023

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Soon Lian Holdings Limited (the “Company”, and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) wishes to announce that following a preliminary review of the unaudited results for the six months period (“2H2023”) and full year ended 31 December 2023 (“FY2023”), the Group is expected to report a consolidated net loss, compared to a consolidated net profit in the corresponding prior year period.

The main factors contributing to the expected loss are a decline in sales revenue and a higher allowance for impairment on inventories, both of which were attributable to the challenging market conditions in FY2023. The Group has been impacted by weaker demand for its products in the precision engineering segment, as a result of the weaker global semiconductor industry.

The Company is in the process of finalising its unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements for 2H2023 and FY2023. Further details of the Group’s financial performance will be disclosed when the relevant announcement is released on or before 29 February 2024.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing or trading in the securities of the Company. Shareholders and potential investors are advised to read this announcement and any further announcements by the Company carefully. When in doubt as to the action they should take, shareholders and potential investors should consult their stockbrokers, bank managers, solicitors, accountants or other professional advisers.
