HATTEN LAND LIMITED
(UNDER JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT)
(Incorporated in the Republic of Singapore)
(Company Registration No. 199301388D)

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT ORDER

The judicial managers of Hatten Land Limited (Under Judicial Management) (the "Company") wish to update that an application has been filed in the High Court of Singapore on 4 March 2026 for, among others, the judicial management of the Company to be extended for a further period of 180 days from 7 April 2026 (the "JM Extension Application").

The Court has fixed the JM Extension Application for hearing on 31 March 2026 at 2.30pm at the Supreme Court of Singapore. The Court has also issued the following directions:

(a) Any party who objects to the JM Extension Application is to file an affidavit by 19 March 2026, 4pm. All affidavits are to be served by email followed by eservice via eLitigation.

(b) The following are to be tendered to Court by 24 March 2026, 4pm:

(i) Submissions and bundle of authorities which are to be exchanged, efiled via eLitigation and hardcopies tendered to Court. The submissions of each party is limited to 35 pages.
(ii) The attendance list of parties who wish to attend, indicating whether the party attending is supporting or opposing the JM Extension Application.
(iii) A time bank.

If you are a party who may be affected by the orders sought in the JM Extension Application, you may attend the hearing if you wish to be heard on any issue related to the JM Extension Application. If you (or your representative) wish to attend the hearing on 31 March 2026, please provide the judicial managers via email at jamkoh@deloitte.com with the following information by 12pm SGT on 20 March 2026 (Friday) so that we may provide the Court with the attendance list of parties who wish to attend the hearing:

(a) Name of party;
(b) Name and email address of representative attending the hearing (if not the party);
(c) Further to (b) above: (i) the nature of the relationship between the representative and the party (e.g. solicitor-client / duly authorised officer of the party); (ii) name of law firm (if the party is legally represented); and (iii) the letter of authorisation authorising the representative to represent the party in the proceedings (if the party is a corporation and is not legally represented); and
(d) Whether the party attending is supporting or opposing the JM Extension Application, and the time required by such party to make oral submissions at the hearing, if any.

Copies of the relevant cause papers filed by the Company in respect of the JM Extension Application will be made available to any creditor or interested party whose interests may be affected by the orders sought in the JM Extension Application upon request in writing to the judicial managers at jamkoh@deloitte.com.

For the avoidance of doubt, you are not required to attend the hearing or file any document (including any reply affidavit or written submissions) in the proceedings unless you have a specific position or issue that you wish to convey to the Court. If you are in any doubt about what action should be taken (including whether to attend the hearing), you should seek independent professional advice.

Further announcements on the above will be made in due course, where appropriate and material, on the progress of the JM Extension Application.

The shares in the Company have been suspended since 6 August 2024. Although the Company's shares are under suspension, shareholders and investors are advised to read this announcement and any past and future announcements by the Company carefully when dealing with the shares of the Company. Shareholders and investors should consult their stockbrokers, bank managers, solicitors or other professional advisors if they have any doubt about the actions they should take or when dealing with their shares in the Company.
