RECEIPT OF A LETTER OF DEMAND IN RELATION TO OUTSTANDING INVOICE(S) FOR LEGAL SERVICES RENDERED

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Camsing Healthcare Limited (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) wishes to announce that the Company has received a letter dated 17 September 2020 (the “Letter of Demand”) addressed to the Company and the Independent Directors, said to be from Rajah & Tann Singapore LLP (“R&T”), in relation to outstanding invoice(s) for legal services rendered by R&T in respect of advice concerning the requisition of an extraordinary general meeting as had been announced by the Company on 18 November 2019 and 13 November 2019.

The Letter of Demand claims that there is an outstanding sum due and owing from the Company to R&T of S$16,118.13, and states that payment is to be made within seven (7) days from the date of the Letter of Demand, failing which R&T shall commence legal action against the Company without further reference.

The Company is currently reviewing the Letter of Demand.

The Company will update shareholders and potential investors of the Company on any further development on the matters by way of further announcement(s) as and when necessary in accordance with the Listing Rules.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company are reminded that the trading suspension of the Company’s shares will continue and will only be lifted after the Company has submitted a trading resumption proposal pursuant to Rule 1304 of the Listing Manual and upon fulfilment of the conditions required by SGX RegCo, including SGX RegCo’s notices of compliance dated 1 September 2020 and 17 December 2019, and SGX RegCo indicating that it has no objections to the resumption proposal.
