SAMUDERA RECOGNISED FOR LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE AT SINGAPORE CORPORATE AWARDS 2026

- Group CEO Bani M. Mulia named Best CEO in the mid-cap category, marking Samudera's first win for the award
- Samudera receives Bronze for Best Managed Board in the mid-cap category, its second consecutive year of recognition in the category

Singapore, 22 September 2026 – Samudera Shipping Line Ltd ("Samudera" or the "Group") received two accolades at the Singapore Corporate Awards ("SCA") 2026, recognising the Company's leadership and continued commitment to strong corporate governance.

Mr Bani M. Mulia, Executive Director and Group Chief Executive Officer, was named Best Chief Executive Officer in the mid-cap category, marking the first time a Samudera CEO has received the award.

The Company was also conferred the Best Managed Board Bronze Award in the mid-cap category, marking its second consecutive year of recognition in this category.

The SCA recognises excellence in corporate governance among companies listed on the Singapore Exchange and their corporate leaders.

Mr Masli Mulia, Non-Executive Chairman, said, "We are deeply honoured by these recognitions. Our second consecutive Best Managed Board award reflects the Board's continued commitment to strong governance and responsible stewardship as Samudera grows. The Best CEO award is also an important recognition for the Group and reflects the collective efforts of our management team and colleagues across Samudera. Together, we are focused on building a resilient business and creating sustainable, long-term value for our stakeholders."

Mr Goh Teik Poh, Independent and Non-Executive Director, said, "Strong governance is built over time through independent oversight, open and constructive dialogue, and a clear alignment between the Board and management on the long-term interests of the Company. To be recognised for the second consecutive year is an encouragement to us to continue strengthening these foundations. We are also pleased to see Mr Bani recognised as Best CEO, underscoring his leadership of the Group and the management team's disciplined execution of Samudera's strategy."
