If yes, Please provide full details

Mr Chin was an Independent Non-Executive Director of Blockchain Group (previously known as Ping Shan Tea Group Limited) ("Blockchain Group").

Following a winding up petition against Blockchain Group, in or around the 3rd quarter of 2018, the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (the "Commission") conducted an investigation regarding the affairs of the Blockchain Group and to ensure that the Board of Directors of the Blockchain Group had discharged their duties lawfully regarding the repayments of certain bonds and debentures. The said bonds were convertible bonds which was issued before Mr Chin's appointment as a director of the Blockchain Group. The debentures were raised both before and during Mr Chin's appointment.

The Commission is still in the midst of investigation. Nonetheless, to the best of Mr Chin's knowledge and to the extent discloseable pending further investigations, Mr Chin has cooperated with the Commission and the liquidators of the Blockchain Group.

Mr. Chin has not been contacted for further queries after his initial interview with the Commission in or around April 2019.

Furthermore, based on the latest announcement made by Blockchain on 18 November 2019, a debt restructuring would be implemented if all parties, i.e. Blockchain, its investors and liquidators, can reach an agreement on the definitive terms and conditions of the Proposed Restructuring Plan. However, this is subject to the approval of the relevant Court and/or regulatory body, if necessary. The Plan would be implemented by 18 May 2020.
