EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING HELD ON 30 APRIL 2024
- SUMMARY OF QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Capitalised terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed thereto in the Circular to shareholders dated 15 April 2024 in relation to the proposed entry into loan agreements for the following amounts as an interested person transaction: (1) RMB 80 million at an annual interest rate of 6% (simple interest) on a 365-day-per-year basis and (2) US$ 54 million at an annual interest rate of 6.5% (simple interest) on a 360-day-per-year basis (the “Circular”).

Question 1: Shareholder Please advise the increase in the cost of interest of the Company from the proposed loans from CEL.

Answer 1: Kooi Wei Boon (Group CFO) The effect of the proposed loans from CEL gives rise to a reduction in interest payable per annum in the aggregate amount of approximately RMB11 million, details of which are set out under Section 3.3 of the Circular. The published information has been verified by the independent financial adviser.

Question 2: Shareholder Please advise whether the Group has sufficient cash flow to repay the proposed loans or whether refinancing would be required after the maturity of the proposed loans. If the latter, the Group should consider capitalising such loans.

The Group should dispose its properties with the least return as soon as possible to increase its liquidity and reduce its liabilities. Please advise the gaps between the market value and valuation price of the assets, particularly the investment properties. The reason for this is that valuation price is determined from a professional’s point of view. However, the actual market condition may differ, particularly if a potential buyer is aware of the liquidity situation of the Group for disposing its property. If the market value and valuation price of these properties are not in line, this might result in a loss on disposal which would have an impact to the financial statements of the Group.

Answer 2: Kooi Wei Boon (Group CFO) As mentioned in the Annual Report of the Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2023 (“FY2023”), the Group would be proactively reshuffling or disposing low yielding properties to reduce gearing and improve liquidity position.

With reference to the valuation of the investment properties of the Group, an independent valuation was carried out by KPMG Advisory (China) Limited Shenzhen Branch on the investment properties held by the Group for FY2023, factors including realisable values and current market conditions etc. have been considered in determining such valuation.

The External Auditors have also assessed the professional valuer’s qualifications, expertise and competency.

Kooi Wei Boon
(Group CFO)

While the valuation price is subjected to uncertainty over the future market conditions and may fluctuate at the time of actual disposal, the financial figures published in the audited financial statements of the Group for FY2023 have reflected the current market conditions based on Management's best estimates.

The Board of Directors (the "Board") and Management noted the shareholder's suggestion on the disposal of assets. The Company will make further announcements should there be any material development.

Question 3:

Shareholder

While the Group may enjoy a lower interest rate by replacing old loans with new loans, interest costs for the new loans are still applicable. The Group may not be able to generate sufficient profits to pay for such interest costs.

Please re-assess and re-consider the appropriateness in replacing the old loans with new loans, regardless of the applicable interest rates. CEL could inject such funds as capital by taking up additional shares instead.

Nevertheless, Shareholders are required to approve the resolutions relating to the proposed loans for the Group to meet its upcoming debt liability since there is no other alternative at this juncture.

Answer 3:

Kooi Wei Boon
(Group CFO)

The Board and Management of the Group noted the comments from the shareholder and would take into consideration of the suggestion.
