On 13 June 2018, the pre-trial conference for the Third Party Proceedings was refixed to 21 June 2018 (from the original date of 28 June 2018).

In relation to the High Court Suit between Hyundai-GS and EQ Insurance, in 2016, Hyundai-GS engaged the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, JPSS, for the supply, installation and maintenance of timber flooring and decking works for a project pursuant to a sub-contract agreement dated 15 February 2016. On or about 28 March 2016, EQ Insurance issued a performance bond in favour of Hyundai-GS for the sum of S$395,183.50 (representing 10% of the sub-contract sum). According to papers filed in the High Court Suit, Hyundai-GS wrote to EQ Insurance on 25 January 2017, demanding payment of the sum of S$395,183.50. EQ Insurance took the position that the performance bond had not taken effect at all as it was cancelled before it could be delivered to Hyundai-GS, and such performance bond was cancelled because JPSS had no intention to commit to the agreement with Hyundai-GS. EQ Insurance has, through the Third Party Proceedings, brought in the Company as the third party on the basis that the Company is liable to indemnify EQ Insurance against Hyundai-GS' claim and the costs of such action as the court may deem fit on the grounds that the Company had agreed under a deed of indemnity dated 5 February 2016 to indemnify EQ Insurance against, inter alia, all demands, actions, losses and expenses arising out of the performance bond.

On 4 September 2018, the Company announced that EQ Insurance has on 28 August 2018 filed and served its Statement of Claim against the Company, which is based entirely on the deed of indemnity dated 5 February 2016. The Company has, on 4 September 2018, filed a summons to strike out EQ Insurance's third party claim in its entirety (the "Striking Out Application"). This Striking Out Application is predicated on the argument that EQ Insurance's claims based on the deed of indemnity dated 5 February 2016 have been extinguished by operation of the Scheme of Arrangement dated 12 January 2017 as sanctioned by an Order of the High Court made on 15 March 2017. The Company will also be seeking leave to extend the deadline for the filing of its Defence against EQ Insurance's Statement of Claim, pending the determination of its Striking Out Application. As it currently stands, this deadline is 10 September 2018.

The Company will update the shareholders as and when there are material developments on the matter.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
