Stable Operating Metrics

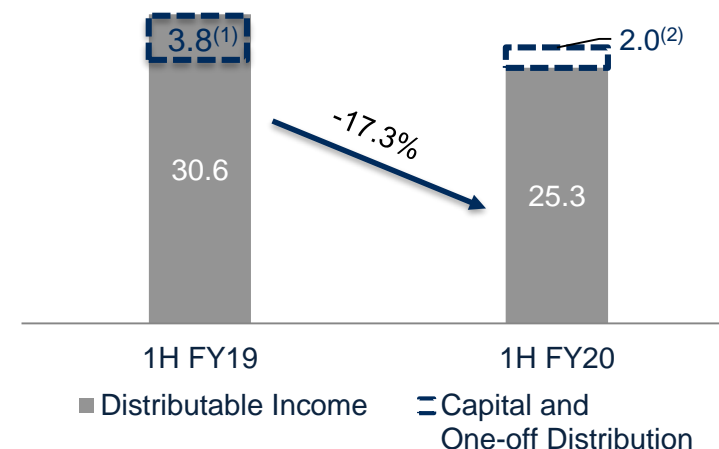

Gross Revenue and Net Property Income

(S$ million)

Distributable Income

(S$ million)

- Gross Revenue and NPI decreased by 1.4% and 0.7% respectively, due to:
 - i. transitory downtime between replacement tenants at ALOG Cold Centre and Pandan Logistics Hub;
 - ii. rental waivers to be given to qualifying SME tenants as part of the rental relief framework under the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) (Amendment) Bill;
 - iii. weaker Australian dollar; and
 - iv. partially offset by higher revenue at ALOG Commodity Hub with the commencement of new leases in 2Q FY20 and additional rental contribution from the property in Altona, Victoria, Australia acquired in April 2019.
- 1H FY20 distributable income would have been 2.1% higher as compared to 1H FY19 on a like-for-like basis.⁽³⁾

Notes:

- (1) One-off S$0.7 mil tax-exempt distribution from the divestment of Jinshan Chemical Warehouse, S$2.5 mil distribution from 51 Alps Avenue and S$0.6 mil capital distribution in 1H FY19.

Market Outlook - Singapore

Stable Logistics Market Fundamentals with High Growth Potential LOGISTICS TRUST

- Healthy demand for warehouse space in 2Q 2020 was underpinned by renewals and short-term leasing requirements to accommodate medical supplies, food and consumer items (i.e. from e-retailers), as safety concerns and movement controls resulted in growth in e-commerce activities and increased stockpiling requirements.
- Logistics and warehouse rents held steady in 2Q 2020, supported by healthy demand. This has also in turn supported capital values, which held firm during the quarter.
- Logistics and warehouse properties' rents are expected to perform slightly better with a more marginal decline of 5.0% Y-O-Y in 2020, due to reviving demand for food and cold storage facilities, and logistics warehouses.

Market Outlook - Australia

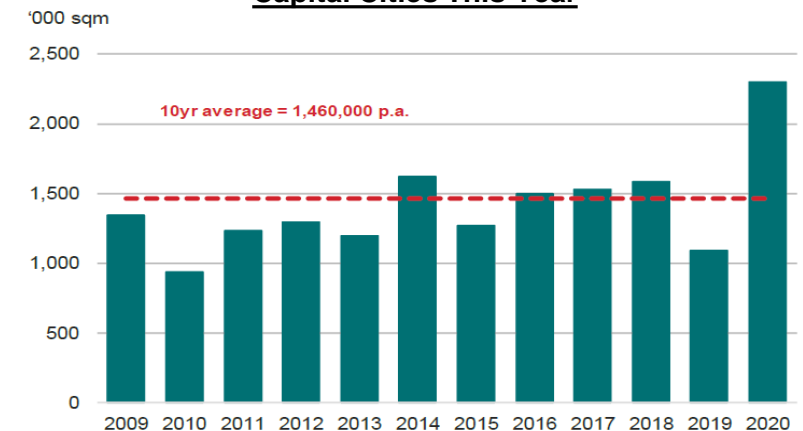

Stable and Resilient Logistics Market Fundamentals

- Deloitte's forecasted a 5.2% contraction in GDP growth in 2020.
- Improved outlook is however expected to be underpinned by:
 - Sizable fiscal stimulus packages amounting to 16.4% of GDP, designed to help businesses and workers;
 - Reduction in the official cash rate to a record low of 0.25% and easing in the AUS dollar, providing further stimulus; and
 - Ongoing infrastructure pipeline.
- Notwithstanding the short-term impacts, macro drivers for industrial and logistics tenancy demand such as growth in e-commerce and infrastructure investment continue to support leasing activity.
- Higher demand for additional warehouse space seen from sectors under e-commerce, essential goods, pharmaceutical supplies, medical equipment and online retail sectors.
- Industrial property markets are expected to be relatively resilient and long-term growth drivers for the Australian industrial market remain intact with continued expansion in e-commerce and infrastructure investment.
