LEGAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE COMPANY

The Board of Directors of Next-Generation Satellite Communications Limited (the "Company", and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") wishes to announce that a civil summon issued by the Head of the District Court of Central Jakarta (with Hans Purnajo and Steve Iwan as the plaintiffs) has been served on the Company (the "Civil Summon"). The Company and its subsidiaries, namely PT. Karunia Anugerah Mitra Utama ("PT KAMU"), Multi Skies Nusantra Limited ("MSN") and Telemedia Pacific Communications Pte. Ltd ("TPC") have been named as the defendants.

The Civil Summon involves an outstanding dispute arising prior to the acquisition of MSN by the Group (as disclosed in paragraph 8 of the unaudited full results for financial year ended 31 March 2014 released on 30 May 2014) and the plaintiffs are claiming the Group for the sum of approximately S$5.6 million and all costs, interest and damages. In May 2010, TPC acquired the entire share capital of MSN from Bright Reach International Limited ("BRI"). MSN owns the entire share capital of PT KAMU, which in turn owns the entire share capital of PT Multi Skies Nusantara ("PT MSN"). PT MSN engages in satellite-based communication services in the remote area through building, operating and leasing base station controllers for Universal Services Obligation (USO) sites in Indonesia. BRI has also been named as one of the defendants.

It is the intention of the Company to vigorously defend the Company and its affected subsidiaries named in the Civil Summon against the allegations and claims made and will keep the shareholders informed of the progress of the matter and make such further announcements as and when appropriate.
