

InnoTek Limited

(Company Registration No. 199508431Z)

(Incorporated in the Republic of Singapore)

UPDATE ON CHINA OPERATIONS IN VIEW OF RECENT OUTBREAK OF NOVEL CORONAVIRUS

The Board of Directors of InnoTek Limited (the “Company”), and its subsidiary, Mansfield Group, would like to provide an update on the Company’s China operations, in view of the recent outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus (“Coronavirus”) that originated from Wuhan.

- 1) As of 10 February 2020, 5 p.m. (local time), there have been no confirmed cases of infection among employees of Mansfield Group.
- 2) There have been no confirmed cases of infection among the 65 employees of Mansfield Wuhan (a subsidiary of Mansfield Group), including those staying in the Wuhan and Hubei Provinces. In accordance with instructions from the State Council and local government, all employees will remain at home and take precautionary measures to prevent spread of the virus.
- 3) With regard to the extension of the Spring Festival (Chinese New Year) holiday, according to the notice published by the State Council on 27 January 2020 and the notices published by the governments of Guangdong and other places where factories of Mansfield Group are located, the employees of the subsidiaries in Dongguan has returned to work on 10 February 2020. The date for returning to work of employees of Mansfield Suzhou has yet to be advised by the government. As for Mansfield Wuhan, the returning to work time will depend on the development of the epidemic.
- 4) In response to the outbreak of the Coronavirus, Mansfield Group has set up a special committee to collect relevant information on employees and customers in the affected locations, as well as to implement measures to prevent the spread of the virus and oversee the return of employees at a later date after the spring holidays.
- 5) InnoTek, Mansfield Group and its subsidiaries will continue to monitor the situation, and will update shareholders on any major developments, if necessary.

By Order of the Board
Linda Sim Hwee Ai
Company Secretary