Key Highlights

3Q 2022 Key Highlights

Resilient financial and portfolio performance

Distributable income and DPU for 3Q 2022 increased by 9.0% and 5.0% y-o-y respectively, mainly due to contributions from acquisitions and investment, as well as completed asset enhancement initiatives (AEI)

Minimal impact from rising electricity costs and inflation

- Fixed electricity tariffs for Singapore colocation assets for two years from Jan 2023
- Significantly above 90% of electricity costs passed through to colocation clients, master lease clients contract electricity directly with the power suppliers
- Impact of inflation (including electricity) partially offset by renewals and income escalations

Managing interest rates and forex impact

- Well-spread debt maturity profile, with the bulk of debt expiring from 2026 and beyond
- Interest rate exposures are managed with 74% of loans fixed
- Forecast foreign sourced distributions substantially hedged till end 2023
- Natural hedge strategy helps to mitigate impact of forex volatility on overseas investments

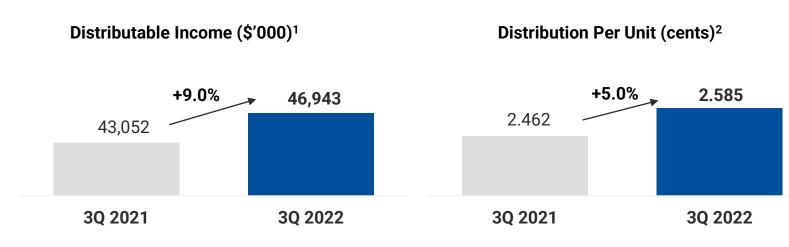

Continued pursuit of growth opportunities

- Continue to pursue opportunities in markets where acquisitions are accretive
- Pursue platform opportunities with underlying assets together with Keppel Group
- Continued geographical diversification for growth and income resilience
- Continue to source for master lease and colocation data centres acquisition opportunities
- Seek ways to optimise portfolio returns

30 2022 vs 30 2021

- Higher distributable income and DPU were mainly due to contributions from the:
 - Acquisitions of Guangdong Data Centre 1, 2 & 3 (Premises)³, London Data Centre and Eindhoven Campus
 - AEIs, renewals and income escalations
 - Completion of Intellicentre 3 East Data Centre
- Increase in gross revenue was partially offset by:
 - Net lower contributions from some of the Singapore colocation assets (facilities expenses including electricity costs & provision relating to DXC⁴)
 - o Depreciation of EUR, AUD and GBP against SGD
 - Divestment of iseek Data Centre
- Higher property expenses due to higher property-related expenses at the Dublin assets following AEI completion
- Higher finance income mainly due to interest income from NetCo Bonds and coupon income from Guangdong Data Centre 3

- 1. Distributable Income includes Capex Reserves. Keppel DC REIT declares distributions on a half-yearly basis. No distribution has been declared for the quarter ended 30 Sep 2022.
- DPU was computed based on the distributable income to Unitholders after the deduction of Capex Reserves that has been set aside.
- 3. Comprising only the shell and core of Guangdong Data Centre 3.
- 4. Keppel Data Centre has, out of prudence and without concession to the strength of its claim, made provisions in FY 2021 and YTD 2022.

- · Continued leasing momentum with healthy renewals and expansion by existing clients
- Extended land lease of Keppel DC Singapore 5 from 19 to 28 years remaining
- Built-in income and rental escalations based on Consumer Price Index or similar indexation, or fixed rate mechanisms make up more than half of the portfolio, with the WALE by rental income of contracts with no escalation at approx. 2.4 years
- Significantly above 90% of electricity costs are passed through to colocation clients.
 Master lease clients contract electricity directly with the power suppliers

Well-Spread Expiry Profile (as at 30 Sep 2022)

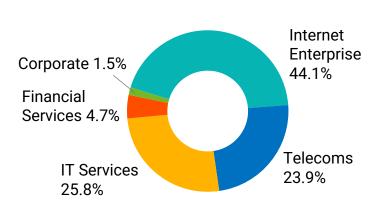

^{1.} Not adjusted for the ongoing litigation with DXC Technology Services Singapore Pte. Ltd. as the existing contract at Keppel DC Singapore 1 is still in place and effective.
2. By area. WALE by rental income was 5.3 years as a higher proportion of rental income is from colocation assets, which typically have shorter contractual periods.

World's data needs continue to grow exponentially, albeit growth in key data centre hubs may be limited by power and land availability¹

 Asia Pacific is set to become the world's largest data centre region over the next decade, fuelled by demand from hyperscalers and governments²

 1H 2022 data centre demand in Europe (Frankfurt, London, Amsterdam, Paris, Dublin) has surpassed 2021 total, underpinned by hyperscaler demand³

Tightening government regulations around sustainability leads to limits on new data centre supply whilst regulations on data privacy and national sovereignty creates more demand for data centres¹

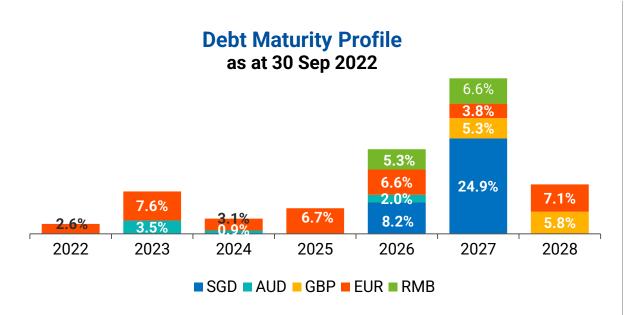

Capital Management

Prudent Capital Management

- Aggregate leverage remains healthy, q-o-q increase was mainly due to the financing of acquisition of Guangdong Data Centre 2 and the premises of Guangdong Data Centre 3¹
- Obtained credit facilities for RMB 480m and EUR 30m for 5 years

^{3.} Including amortisation of upfront debt financing costs and excluding lease charges.

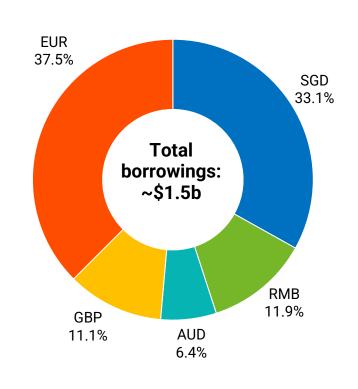

Management of Interest Rates and Forex

Majority of loans hedged through floating-tofixed interest rate swaps

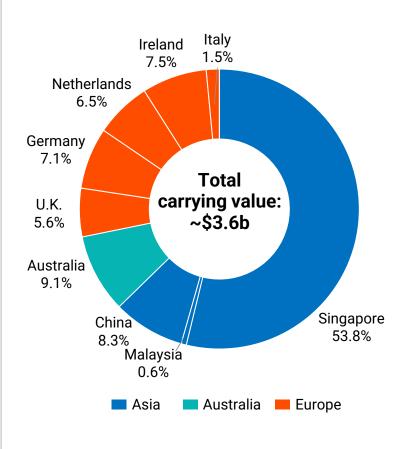

- With the 74% hedge in place, a 100bps rise in the interest rates would only affect the remaining 26% unhedged borrowings. A 100bps increase would have an approximately ~2.1%¹ impact to 3Q 2022's DPU on a pro forma basis
- Substantially hedged forecast foreign-sourced distributions till end 2023 with foreign currency forward contracts
- Adopted natural hedging by borrowing in currencies that match the corresponding investments
