New Leadership Appointments in RSP and Squire Mech

Singapore, 22 November 2017 – SGX Mainboard-listed Rowsley Ltd. (“Rowsley”, or “the Company”), today announced new leadership appointments in the Company’s design and engineering business.

The new appointments are part of Rowsley’s plan to strengthen its core business. With effect from 1 December 2017, Seah Chee Kien and Beh Swee Chiew will be appointed as Managing Directors of RSP, and Teo Yann will be appointed as Managing Director of Squire Mech.

“The new appointments mark the culmination of the leadership renewal process for RSP and Squire Mech, and the beginning of a new journey. The new Managing Directors will chart new paths to achieve transformational change to innovate, excel and succeed in an increasingly competitive environment,” said Tan Wee Tuck, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer, Rowsley.

Mr Seah and Mr Beh are currently Executive Directors. With their years of experience at RSP, they will transit seamlessly to their new leadership roles, leading the firm to best serve clients’ needs and deepen the client relationships.

Teo Yann has also served many years at Squire Mech, and was deeply involved in the development of its China business. In his new role as Managing Director, Squire Mech, he will focus on ramping up core capabilities and enhancing service quality with the ultimate goal of improving the client experience.

Also in new roles with effect from 1 December 2017 are Lai Huen Poh as Senior Managing Director of RSP, Lee Kut Cheung as Senior Director of RSP, and Ng Eng Kiong as Senior Director of Squire Mech.

Mr Lai, who will oversee the Group's design and engineering business, said, "These changes are part of our continued efforts to invigorate the business and to maintain the firm's innovative and competitive edge. With the instatement of the new leadership team, our clients can look forward to more integrated, innovative and outstanding services."
