ANNEXURE

Questions and answers

| | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| Question | : The Group's losses seem to be getting bigger. When can a turnaround be expected and what is the outlook? |
| Answer (Mr Yick Li Tsin) | : The Group has already begun to take steps to rebuild its business. It has regained its ability to process Visa and Mastercard payments and can now focus on acquiring new merchants. The margins for payment processing may be low but it is the Group's core business. The Group intends to focus on niche markets, such as B2B and travel as well as becoming wholesaler for alternative payment methods. Although the Group was not able to process credit card payments after its contract with Worldpay was terminated last year, it had managed to process a substantial volume of payments via other methods, such as PayNow. The Group has also tied up with Green Link Digital Bank to provide financial products and services. The Group plans to expand in other countries, including Thailand, Indonesia and the Philippines. Indonesia has a large market and the Group intends to invest in PT Diners Payment Indonesia which holds the Diners Club franchise in Indonesia. Overall, the outlook for the Group is good. |
| Question | : When is the turnaround expected? |
| Answer (Mr Ng Weng Sui Harry) | : The Company is not able to provide a forecast as it is price-sensitive information. However, with the support from the controlling shareholder, the Company will do its best to turnaround. |
| Question | : Can an estimated timeframe be provided for the Group's plans? |
| Answer (Mr Yick Li Tsin) | : The new business plans are estimated to start off within the next six to nine months. The Group is looking to increase payment processing volume in Singapore by 20%. |
| Question | : How does the Group intend to compete in the market? |
| Answer (Mr Yick Li Tsin) | : The Group will focus on those merchants which tend to be neglected by banks, such as smaller merchants, neighbourhood shops and cafes. The Group may be able to derive higher margins from such merchants. Positive results have been observed in the last three months. |
| (Mr Ching Chiat Kwong) | : The Company understands the frustrations of shareholders. The e-payment business is a tough business in Singapore and there is a lot of competition. As a listed company, the Company has many obligations, including making announcements for various matters. This has affected the Company. Nevertheless, I personally believe in OxPay's potential and have thus provided a letter of financial support. I believe that the Group can do well in the region with the right partners. There are a few upcoming deals and these will be announced when signed off. Mr Yick has just come on board and is trying his best. As part of its new strategy, the Group will be moving its office to Cecil Court in the Central Business District. This will bring the Group nearer to financial institutions. The management is carrying out its plans and hopes for patience from shareholders. |
