I. A shareholder may be represented by another shareholder, their spouse or the partner with whom they have entered into a civil partnership agreement.

They may also be represented by any other natural person or legal entity of their choice:

1 When the company's shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market;

2 When the company's shares are admitted to trading on a multilateral trading facility which is subject to legislative or regulatory provisions aimed at protecting investors against insider dealing, price manipulation and the dissemination of false information under the conditions provided for in the General Regulation of the Autorité des marchés financiers [Financial Markets Authority], appearing on a list drawn up by the authority under the conditions laid down in its General Regulation, and when the articles of association provide for this.

II. The power of attorney and, where applicable, its revocation shall be written and communicated to the company. The conditions implementing this paragraph are specified by a Council of State decree.

III. Prior to each holding of a general meeting of shareholders, the chairman of the board of directors or the executive board, as the case may be, may arrange consultation of the shareholders mentioned in Article L. 225–102 in order to allow them to appoint one or more proxies to represent them at the general meeting in accordance with the provisions of this article.

Such consultation is mandatory when, the articles of association having been amended pursuant to Article L. 225–23 or Article L. 225–71, the ordinary general meeting must appoint to the board of directors or the supervisory board, as the case may be, one or more shareholder employees or members of the supervisory boards of the employee shareholding funds holding shares in the company.

This consultation is also mandatory when the Extraordinary General Meeting has to decide on an amendment of the articles of association in accordance with Article L. 225-23 or Article L. 225-71.

Clauses contrary to the provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall be deemed not written.

For any shareholder's power of attorney without any indication of a proxy, the chairman of the general meeting shall vote in favour of adoption of the draft resolutions presented or approved by the board of directors or the executive board, as the case may be, and a vote against adoption of all other draft resolutions. In order to cast any other vote, the shareholder must choose a proxy who agrees to vote as indicated by the principal.

This information relates in particular to the fact that the proxy or, where applicable, the person on whose behalf they are acting:

1 Controls, within the meaning of Article L. 233-3, the company of which the meeting is being called;

2 Is a member of the management, administrative or supervisory body of this company or of a person who controls it within the meaning of Article L. 233-3;

This information shall also be provided when there is a family relationship between the proxy or, where applicable, the person on whose behalf they are acting, and a natural person placed in one of the situations listed in points 1 to 4.

If one of the events mentioned in the preceding paragraphs occurs during the power of attorney, the proxy shall inform its principal of this without delay. If the latter does not expressly confirm the power of attorney, this shall lapse.

The company shall be notified immediately by the proxy of expiry of the power of attorney.
The conditions of application of this article are specified by a Council of State decree.

Article L. 225-106-2

It may also make public its intentions to vote on draft resolutions submitted to the meeting. Then, for any power of attorney received without voting instructions, it shall proceed with voting in accordance with the voting intentions made public in this way.

The conditions of application of this article are specified by a Council of State decree.

Article L. 225-106-3

The commercial court in the jurisdiction of which the company has its registered office may, at the principal's request and for a period not exceeding three years, deny the proxy right to participate in this capacity at any meeting of the company concerned in the event of non-compliance with the obligation to provide information stipulated in the third to seventh paragraphs of Article L. 225-106-1 or the provisions of Article L. 225-106-2. The court may decide to publish this decision at the proxy's expense.

The court may impose the same sanctions on the proxy, on the company's request, in the event of non-compliance with the provisions of Article L. 225-106-2.

Forms not stating whether votes are for or against, or indicating abstention shall not be considered as votes cast.

II. If the articles of association provide for this, shareholders participating in the meeting by video-conference or by telecommunications means allowing their identification, and the nature and conditions of application of which are determined by a Council of State decree, shall be deemed present for calculation of the quorum and the majority.
