INVESTIGATION BY HONG KONG CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DEPARTMENT

The Board of Directors of Plastoform Holdings Limited (the “Company”) would like to announce that the Hong Kong Customs and Excise Department (the “HK Customs”) visited the Company’s Hong Kong office located at Kwai Chung (the “HK office”) on 20 October 2015 for the investigation of suspicious unauthorised use of computer software in business. Few of the Company’s computers were detained by the HK Customs for further investigation. Operation in the HK office has resumed after the Company took immediate action of buying several new computers and installing of licensed software in replacement of those retained by the HK Customs.

There has been no material impact caused to the Company’s business. Furthermore, 21 October 2015 was a recent public holiday in Hong Kong.

Internally, the Company is looking into the aforesaid matter and at the same time co-operating with the HK Customs on its on-going investigation.

The Company will provide further update on the outcome of the investigation.
