Singapore, 15 October 2026 – ComfortDelGro Corporation Limited (SGX:C52) (“ComfortDelGro”, “the Group”) today announced the appointment of two Independent Non-Executive Directors and the retirement of its Deputy Chairman, as part of the Board’s ongoing renewal and succession planning.

Mr Chew Hock Yong and Ms Ang Fung Fung will join the Board as Independent Non-Executive Directors with effect from 1 November 2026. Their appointments broaden the Board’s collective experience across transport, public administration, audit, financial oversight, risk management and capital-market transactions.

Mr Chew will join the Board Risk Committee and the Sustainability Committee and will assume the chairmanship of the Board Risk Committee from 1 January 2027. Ms Ang will join the Audit Committee and the Board Risk Committee.

Mr Chew brings more than three decades of public-service leadership experience. He served as Chief Executive of the Land Transport Authority from 2010 to 2014 and subsequently as Permanent Secretary in the Ministry of National Development, the Ministry of Social and Family Development and the Ministry of Home Affairs. He retired from the civil service in 2022 and is currently Chairman of the National Parks Board.

Ms Ang brings more than 30 years in audit, financial management, risk and capital-market transactions, including as an audit partner and a global lead audit partner at KPMG Singapore for major SGX-listed companies and US SEC registrants. Her experience also spans mergers and acquisitions, due diligence and public offerings. She is Chairperson of the Board of Nanyang Girls’ High School Ltd and Board Member and Sustainability Committee Chairperson of Ren Ci Hospital.

Mr Choi Shing Kwok will retire from the Board on 31 December 2026 to devote more time to his personal interests. He has served since 1 August 2022, and as Deputy Chairman since April 2023.

PRESS RELEASE

Mr Mark Greaves, Chairman of ComfortDelGro, said: “On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Shing Kwok for his valuable counsel and contribution, including as Deputy Chairman. The appointments of Hock Yong and Fung Fung continue the orderly renewal of the Board. Their respective experience in transport and public administration, and risk management, financial oversight and capital-market transactions, will complement the Board’s existing capabilities as ComfortDelGro continues to execute its long-term strategy.”
