SIA, 3SIXTY AND SATS FINALISE AGREEMENT FOR TRAVEL RETAIL JOINT VENTURE

Singapore Airlines (SIA), 3Sixty (formerly DFASS Group) and SATS have today finalised a shareholders' agreement sealing the establishment of a partnership to operate KrisShop and Scootalogue retail programmes in Singapore. The joint venture, KrisShop Pte Ltd, will launch operations on 1 December 2018.

Representing the three companies at the signing ceremony are (seated from L to R): Mr Roberto Graziani (Executive Vice Chairman, 3Sixty), Mr Goh Choon Phong (CEO, SIA) and Mr Alex Hungate (President & CEO, SATS Ltd). Standing are Mr Joe Martin (Legal Counsel, 3Sixty), Mr Campbell Wilson (SVP Sales & Marketing, SIA) and Mr Yacoob Piperdi (EVP Gateway Services, SATS Ltd), flanked by Singapore Girls Jamie Sin (left) and Tracee Chua (right).

The finalisation of the agreement follows an announcement in March that the three companies intended to launch a joint venture covering in-flight duty-free and ground-based duty-paid goods, as well as pre-order services, with onboard and ground-based deliveries. These activities will commence under the existing KrisShop and Scootalogue in-flight sales brands, transforming KrisShop into an e-commerce platform that is easily accessible to consumers. Other potential interested parties are expected to progressively come on board the programme.

Prior to today's finalisation of the shareholders' agreement, the companies signed a share subscription agreement on 23 November 2018 under which SIA, 3Sixty and SATS will jointly invest approximately $35 million in KrisShop Pte Ltd (formerly known as Singapore Airport Duty-Free Emporium). SIA holds 70 per cent of this entity, while 3Sixty (Singapore) and SATS Ltd each hold 15 per cent under the terms of the agreement.

About Singapore Airlines

The SIA Group's history dates back to 1947 with the maiden flight of Malayan Airways Limited. The airline was later renamed Malaysian Airways Limited and then Malaysia-Singapore Airlines (MSA). In 1972, MSA split into Singapore Airlines (SIA) and Malaysian Airline System. Initially operating a modest fleet of 10 aircraft to 22 cities, SIA has since grown to be a world-class international airline group.

Singapore Airlines is committed to the constant enhancement of the three main pillars of its brand promise: Service Excellence, Product Leadership and Network Connectivity. The SIA Group fleet and network are also expanding in support of the development of its portfolio strategy, in which it has investments in both full-service and low-cost airline operations. This portfolio of airlines serving short-, medium-, and long-haul markets gives the SIA Group more flexibility and nimbleness, with the right vehicles to serve the right markets.
