The purpose of this press release is to make a general public announcement concerning the public offering for the 3rd series of Unsecured Perpetual Subordinated Bonds with Optional Redemption Clause and Write-down Clause outside the United States. This press release has not been prepared for the purpose of, and does not constitute, an offer of, or solicitation of an offer to buy or subscribe for, securities of Nomura Holdings, Inc. The above-referenced securities will not be or have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements thereunder.

Summary of Interest Cancellation Clause	(1) Optional cancellation of interest payments: Nomura Holdings may cancel all or part of the interest payments on the Bonds on any interest payment date when it deems necessary at its absolute discretion, in which case, until such time that Nomura Holdings determines to pay or cancel interest due on the next interest payment date, Nomura Holdings shall not make any resolutions at its board of directors, or present its own proposal at a general meeting of shareholders, to (i) pay dividend on its common stock and stock of other classes which are qualified as its Additional Tier1 capital (other than preferred stock which ranks the most senior as to dividend payment) or (ii) pay dividend on its preferred stock which ranks the most senior as to dividend payments and is qualified as its Additional Tier1 capital, in excess of the amount obtained by multiplying one-half of the amount of preferred dividend of such preferred stock by a ratio of the amount of the interest which Nomura Holdings determines to pay on the Bonds among the amount of the interest payable on the Bonds on the same interest payment date. (2) Interest payable amount limitation: The amount of the interest payable on any interest payment date on each Bond shall not exceed the Interest Payable Amount, and Nomura Holdings shall not pay any amount of the interest on each Bond in excess of the Interest Payable Amount. The “Interest Payable Amount” means the amount apportioned to each Bond calculated by dividing the adjusted distributable amount, which will be the distributable amount under the Companies Act as of the interest payment date less the total amount of dividends and interest of the Bonds, the Parity Securities and the Junior Securities paid during the period from the beginning of the fiscal year in which such interest payment date falls to the day immediately preceding such interest payment date, on a pro rata basis among the total amount of the interest payable on the Bonds and the total amount of dividends and interest payable on the same interest payment date on its preferred stock which ranks the most senior as to dividend payments as well as the Parity Securities.
