REQUIREMENT TO PERFORM QUARTERLY REPORTING

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of NutryFarm International Limited (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) wishes to announce that the Company has received a letter (“Letter”) from the Singapore Exchange Regulation Pte Ltd on 6 February 2020 notifying the Company that it will be required to continue with the quarterly reporting (“QR”) with effect from 7 February 2020 in view of the modified opinion issued by the Company’s statutory auditor in the Company’s latest annual report. The grace period extended under amended Rule 705(2A) of the Listing Manual is not applicable to the Company.

The Letter has stated, inter alia, that:

- a. In the announcement of the Company’s quarterly results, a statement should be included on the cover page indicating that the QR announcement is mandatory, made pursuant to the Exchange’s requirements, as required under Rule 705(2C) of the Listing Manual.
- b. The Company can cease to do QR if it is able to resolve the issues raised by the Company’s statutory auditor in the next annual report and obtain an unqualified opinion without any material uncertainty relating to going concern.
- c. The Company has to provide: (a) updates on efforts taken to resolve each outstanding audit issue; and (b) confirmation from the Board that the impact of all outstanding audit issues on the financial statements have been adequately disclosed. This will not be required for any audit issue that relates to going concern.

Please refer to the Letter attached with this announcement.

The Board notes and acknowledges the contents of the Letter and will comply with the requirements set out therein. The Company will announce its unaudited financial statements for the next set of quarterly financial statements for Q3 period from October to December 2019 by 14 February 2020.

The Company will notify shareholders if there are any material developments on this matter.
