Such permission will be granted when such Notes have been admitted to the Official List of the SGX-ST. Unlisted Series of Notes may also be issued pursuant to the Programme. The relevant Pricing Supplement (as defined herein) in respect of any Series of Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on the SGX-ST (or any other stock exchange). There is no assurance that an application for the listing of the Notes on the Official List of the SGX-ST will be approved. The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions or reports contained in this Offering Circular. The approval in-principle for the listing and quotation of any Notes to be issued pursuant to the Programme from, and admission of the Notes to the Official List of, the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Programme, the Notes, the Issuer, and/or its subsidiaries. Investors are advised to read and understand the contents of this document before investing. If in doubt, investors should consult their advisers.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and the Notes may include Bearer Notes (as defined herein) that are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. The Notes may not be offered, sold, or, in the case of Bearer Notes, delivered within the United States or, in the case of Notes offered or sold outside the United States in reliance on Category 2 of Regulation S under the Securities Act, to or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirement of the Securities Act and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction. Notes are subject to certain restrictions on transfer, see "Subscription and Sale".

The Notes of each Series issued in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") will be represented on issue by a temporary global note in bearer form (each a "temporary Global Note") or a permanent global note in bearer form (each a "permanent Global Note"). The temporary Global Notes and the permanent Global Notes collectively, the "Global Notes". Notes in registered form ("Registered Notes") will be represented by registered certificates (each a "Certificate"). One Certificate being issued in respect of each Noteholder's entire holding of Notes in registered form of one Series. The Notes of each Series in registered form will initially be represented by a global certificate (each a "Global Certificate"). The Programme is expected to be rated "Baa2" by Moody's Investor's Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Moody's Corporation ("Moody's"). This rating expectation is only correct as at the date of this Offering Circular. Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is to be rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the ratings assigned to the Programme. Where an issue of Notes is rated, its rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating applicable to the Programme. The Issuer has been rated "Baa2" by Moody's. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, change or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Investing in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks and may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should have sufficient knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the information contained in this Offering Circular and in the applicable Pricing Supplement and the merits and risks of investing in a particular issue of Notes in the context of their financial position and particular circumstances. Investors also should have the financial capacity to bear the risks associated with an investment in Notes. Investors should not purchase Notes unless they understand and are able to bear risks associated with Notes. The principal risk factors that may affect the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations in respect of the Notes are discussed under "Risk Factors" below.

IMPORTANT — EEA RETAIL INVESTORS — If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MIFID II"); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended, the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MIFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as amended, the "Prospectus Regulation"). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the "PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT — UK RETAIL INVESTORS — If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom ("UK"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA"); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("FSMA") and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of the Prospectus Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK Prospectus Regulation"). Consequently no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (as amended, the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MIFID II product governance/target market — The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "MIFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MIFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MIFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "MIFID Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise none of the Arranger specified under "Summary of the Programme" (the "Arranger") or Dealers or any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MIFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MIFIR product governance/target market — The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MIFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the "UK MIFIR Product Governance Rules") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MIFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MIFIR Product Governance Rules.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 OF SINGAPORE — The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification" which will state the product classification of the Notes pursuant to section 309B(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore (as modified or amended from time to time, the "SFA"). The Issuer will make a determination in relation to each issue about the classification of the Notes being offered for purposes of section 309B(1)(a) and section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA. Any such legend included on the relevant Pricing Supplement will constitute notice to "relevant persons" for purposes of section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA.

Accordingly no representation or warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made or given and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers, the Trustee or the Agents or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, affiliates or advisers as to the accuracy, completeness or sufficiency of the information contained or incorporated in this Offering Circular or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme, and nothing contained or incorporated in this Offering Circular is, or shall be relied upon as, a promise, representation or warranty by the Dealers, the Trustee or the Agents or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, affiliates or advisers. Neither this Offering Circular nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (i) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (ii) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, any of the Dealers, the Trustee or any of the Agents or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, affiliates or advisers that any recipient of this Offering Circular should purchase any Notes. Each of the Dealers, the Trustee or the Agents or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, affiliates or advisers accordingly disclaims all and any liability whether arising in tort or contract or otherwise (save as referred to above) which it might otherwise have in respect of this Offering Circular, the relevant Pricing Supplement or any such statement. Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct — Important Notice to Prospective Investors: Prospective investors should be aware that certain intermediaries in the context of certain offerings of Notes pursuant to this Programme, each such offering, a "CMI Offering", including certain Dealers, may be "capital market intermediaries" ("CMIs") subject to Paragraph 21 of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission (the "SFC Code"). This notice to prospective investors is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on such CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of prospective investors. Certain CMIs may also be acting as "overall coordinators" ("OCs") for a CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Issuer, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an association ("Association") with the Issuer, the CMI or the relevant group company. Prospective investors associated with the Issuer or any CMI (including its group companies) should specifically disclose this when placing an order for the relevant Notes and should disclose, at the same time, if such orders may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who do not disclose their Associations are hereby deemed not to be so associated. Where prospective investors disclose their Associations but do not disclose that such order may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such order is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should ensure, and by placing an order prospective investors are deemed to confirm, that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). A rebate may be offered by the Issuer to all private banks for orders they place (other than in relation to Notes subscribed by such private banks as principal whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors), payable upon closing of the relevant CMI Offering based on the principal amount of the Notes distributed by such private banks to investors. Private banks are deemed to be placing an order on a principal basis unless they inform the CMIs otherwise. As a result, private banks placing an order on a principal basis (including those deemed as placing an order as principal) will not be entitled to, and will not be paid, the rebate. Details of any such rebate will be set out in the applicable Pricing Supplement or otherwise notified to prospective investors. If a prospective investor is an asset management arm affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such prospective investor should indicate when placing an order if it is for a fund or portfolio where the relevant Dealer or its group company has more than 50% interest, in which case it will be classified as a "proprietary order" and subject to appropriate handling by CMIs in accordance with the SFC Code and should disclose, at the same time, if such "proprietary order" may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a "proprietary order". If a prospective investor is otherwise affiliated with any relevant Dealer, such that its order may be considered to be a "proprietary order" (pursuant to the SFC Code), such prospective investor should indicate to the relevant Dealer when placing such order. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a "proprietary order". Where prospective investors disclose such information but do not disclose that such "proprietary order" may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such "proprietary order" is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should be aware that certain information may be disclosed by CMIs (including private banks) which is personal and/or confidential in nature to the prospective investor. By placing an order, prospective investors are deemed to have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by the relevant Dealer and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Issuer, any OCs, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, it being understood and agreed that such information shall only be used for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. Failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected.

SPECIAL NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements under "Risk Factors", "Description of the Group" and elsewhere in this Offering Circular constitute "forward-looking statements". The words including "believe", "expect", "plan", "anticipate", "schedule", "estimate" and similar words or expressions identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause actual results or performance of the Group to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding the Group's present and future business strategies and the environment in which the Group will operate in the future. The Issuer expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in the Issuer's or the Group's expectations with regard thereto or any change of events, conditions or circumstances, on which any such statements were based. This Offering Circular discloses, under "Risk Factors" and elsewhere, important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Issuer's expectations. All subsequent written and forward-looking statements attributable to the Issuer or persons acting on behalf of the Issuer are expressly qualified in their entirety by such cautionary statements.

INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

This Offering Circular should be read and construed in conjunction with:

- (i) each relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (ii) all amendments and supplements from time to time to this Offering Circular; and

The Issuer prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRS"). The Issuer's consolidated financial information as of and for the two years ended 31 December 2022 and 2023 have been extracted from the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 which have been audited by the independent auditor of the Issuer.

Each Series may be issued in tranches (each a " Tranche ") on the same or different issue dates. The specific terms of each Tranche (which will be completed, where necessary, with the relevant terms and conditions and will be identical to the terms of other Tranches of the same Series) will be completed in the relevant pricing supplement (the " Pricing Supplement ").

	(ii) by reference to EURIBOR, HIBOR or SOFR (or such other benchmark as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) as adjusted for any applicable margin; or (iii) on such other basis as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s). Interest periods will be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Zero Coupon Notes	Zero Coupon Notes may be issued at their nominal amount or at a discount to it and will not bear interest.
Dual Currency Notes	Payments (whether in respect of principal or interest and whether at maturity or otherwise) in respect of Dual Currency Notes will be made in such currencies, and based on such rates of exchange as the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) may agree and as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Index Linked Notes	Payments of principal in respect of Index Linked Redemption Notes or of interest in respect of Index Linked Interest Notes will be calculated by reference to such index and/or formula or to changes in prices of securities or commodities or to such other factors as the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) may agree and as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Interest Periods and Interest Rates	The length of the interest periods for the Notes and the applicable interest rate or its method of calculation may differ from time to time or be constant for any Series. Floating Rate Notes and Index Linked Interest Notes may also have a maximum interest rate, a minimum interest rate, or both. The use of interest accrual periods permits the Notes to bear interest at different rates in the same interest period. All such information will be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Redemption	The relevant Pricing Supplement will indicate either that the relevant Notes cannot be redeemed prior to their stated maturity (other than in specified instalments, if applicable, or for taxation reasons or following an Event of Default as described in Condition 10) or that such Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Issuer and/or the Noteholders upon giving notice to the Noteholders or the Issuer, as the case may be, on a date or dates specified prior to such stated maturity and at a price or prices and on such other terms as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s). The relevant Pricing Supplement may provide that Notes may be redeemable in two or more instalments of such amounts and on such dates as are indicated in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Optional Redemption	Notes may be redeemed before their stated maturity at the option of the Issuer (either in whole or in part) and/or the Noteholders to the extent (if at all) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Change of Control Redemption	The terms of the Notes will contain a provision for the early redemption of the Notes at the option of the holders thereof upon the occurrence of a Change of Control as further described in Condition 6(f).

Tax Redemption	Notes will be redeemable at the Issuer's option prior to maturity for tax reasons as described in " Terms and Conditions of the Notes — Redemption, Purchase and Options ".
Status of Notes	The Notes will constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and (subject to the provisions of Condition 4(a)) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves, with all other outstanding unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness and monetary obligations of the Issuer, present and future, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable legislation.
Use of Proceeds	The net proceeds from the issue of each Tranche of Notes will be for refinancing and general working capital purposes of the Group. If, in respect of any particular issue there is a particular identified use of proceeds, this will be stated in the relevant Pricing Supplement.
Negative Pledge	The Notes will contain a negative pledge provision as further described in Condition 4(a).
Cross Default	The Notes will contain a cross default provision as further described in Condition 10.
Withholding Tax	All payments of principal and interest by or on behalf of the Issuer in respect of the Notes, the Receipts and the Coupons shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Hong Kong or any authority therein or thereof having the power to tax, unless the withholding or deduction is required by law. In that event, the Issuer shall (subject to certain customary exceptions as provided in Condition 8) pay such additional amounts as shall result in receipt of the Noteholders and Couponholders of such amounts as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required.
Governing Law	The Trust Deed, the Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.
Listing and Admission to Trading	Approval in-principle has been received from the SGX-ST for the establishment of the Programme and application will be made for the listing and quotation of any Notes which are agreed at the time of issue thereof to be so listed on the Official List of the SGX-ST. Such permission will be granted when such Notes have been admitted to the Official List of the SGX-ST. There is no assurance that an application for the listing of the Notes on the Official List of the SGX-ST will be approved. If the application to the SGX-ST to list a particular series of Notes is approved, such Notes listed on the SGX-ST will be traded on the SGX-ST in a minimum board lot size of at least S $200,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies).

For so long as any Notes are listed on the SGX-ST and the rules of the SGX-ST so require, the Issuer shall appoint and maintain a paying agent in Singapore, where such Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment or redemption, in the event that the Global Note(s) or Global Certificate(s) representing such Notes is exchanged for definitive Notes. In addition, in the event that the Global Note(s) or Global Certificate(s) is exchanged for definitive Notes, an announcement of such exchange will be made by or on behalf of the Issuer through the SGX-ST and such announcement will include all material information with respect to the delivery of the definitive Notes, including details of the paying agent in Singapore.

Unlisted Series of Notes may also be issued pursuant to the Programme. The Notes may also be listed on such other or further stock exchange(s) as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer in relation to each Series of Notes. The Pricing Supplement relating to each Series of Notes will state whether or not the Notes of such Series will be listed on any stock exchange(s) and, if so, on which stock exchange(s) the Notes are to be listed.

Rating The Programme is expected to be rated "Baa2" by Moody's. The Issuer has been rated "Baa2" by Moody's. Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated.

A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, change or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

RISK FACTORS

Prior to making any investment decision, prospective investors should consider carefully all of the information contained in this Offering Circular, including the risks and uncertainties described below. Each of the Issuer and the Group believes that the following factors may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfill its obligations under the Notes. Additional considerations and uncertainties not presently known to each of the Issuer or the Group or which each of them currently deems immaterial may also have an adverse effect on an investment in the Notes. All of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and each of the Issuer and the Group is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring. Any of the risks or uncertainties described below, as well as additional risks or uncertainties, including those which are not currently known to the Issuer or the Group or which the Issuer or the Group currently deems to be immaterial, may affect the Issuer's or the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations or their ability to fulfill their respective obligations under the Notes.

Risks relating to the Group's Overall Business

The Group's business is inherently subject to market fluctuations and general economic conditions.

The Group's business is inherently subject to market fluctuations and general economic conditions. Difficult operating conditions resulting from the global financial crisis in 2009 and volatile capital markets conditions had a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. From 2009 to 2019, the global economy, the Hong Kong economy and the PRC economy generally experienced recovery and growth, although there were events that contributed to further market volatility, including trade disputes between the United States and the PRC, social unrest in Hong Kong, exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union effective from 31 January 2020 and a substantial drop in oil prices. The 2019 novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic has severely disrupted the PRC economy, the Hong Kong economy and the global economy. Unprecedented travel restrictions, social distancing requirements and lockdown measures imposed around the world have had various degrees of adverse impact on economic activity, liquidity of global financial markets, the level and volatility of debt and equity prices, interest rates, currency and commodity prices, investor sentiment, the availability of the cost of capital and credit, and businesses globally. (See "Risk Factors — Risks relating to the Group's Overall Business — The outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable disease in Hong Kong, could materially and adversely affect the Group's business and results of operations."). Furthermore, continuing concerns over inflation, energy costs, geopolitical issues (including but not limited to trade tensions and disputes), the availability and cost of credit, unemployment, consumer confidence, declining asset values, capital markets volatility, liquidity issues, rising interest rates and slowdown in economic growth have created difficult operating conditions in the past and could create difficult operating conditions in the future, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The global economy has experienced, and continues to experience, uncertainty brought on by geopolitical events such as the trade negotiations between the PRC and the United States, political instability in the Middle East, Europe and various parts of the Asia-Pacific region, the ongoing conflict in Ukraine and the ongoing conflict in Israel-Palestine. For example, the conflict between Russia and Ukraine has resulted in the imposition by the United States and other nations of sanctions and other restrictive actions against certain banks, companies and individuals in Russia and has led to significant volatility in the global credit and equity markets. Major overseas economies also experienced inflation due to tight energy supply amid geopolitical tensions in 2023. Interest rate hikes announced by central banks (such as the United States Federal Reserve) led to economic stagnation of major economies, whilst experiencing inflation. This weighed on global capital markets.

In particular, the following events may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

- Decreased sales of the Group's products. An economic downturn or other adverse events may result in higher unemployment levels, lower family income, decreased corporate earnings and reduced business investment and consumer spending, which could in turn significantly reduce the demand for the Group's products. In addition, the Group's ability to sell certain investment products may be materially and adversely affected by excessive volatility in global capital markets.

- Losses from debt securities. An economic downturn, market volatility or other adverse events may result in financial difficulties or default by issuers of listed debt securities and unlisted debt securities held in the Group's investment portfolios. In addition, credit spread and benchmark interest rate variations could also reduce the fair value of these debt securities. Under these circumstances, the Group may have to impair these debt securities or may recognise losses realised upon their sale. Moreover, shareholders' equity and earnings may be affected by fair value revaluations of the listed debt securities and unlisted debt securities held in the Group's investment portfolios.
- Loan portfolio defaults and delinquencies. The Group may suffer losses due to delinquencies or defaults on the loans included in its investment portfolio.
- Equity price declines. The Group may suffer declines in the value of equity securities held in its investment portfolio as a result of conditions in certain capital markets or as a result of certain economic events. The global stock markets have been extremely volatile due to the uncertainties and instability in global market conditions. There is decreased confidence in the banking industry caused by, amongst other issues, the collapse of Silicon Valley Bank, Signature Bank and First Republic Bank and the acquisition of Credit Suisse Group AG by UBS Group AG in 2023. There has also been significant volatility in the PRC stock markets in recent years and the PRC government taking steps to support the markets. This volatility has impacted global markets, as well as the Hong Kong stock market. As at 31 December 2023, the Group held a 16.57 per cent. stake in Lufax Holding Ltd. ("Lufax") whose American depositary shares ("ADSS", every two ADSS representing one ordinary share of Lufax) were listed on the New York Stock Exchange (stock code: LU) and subsequently listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (stock code: 6623.HK). Since the listing, the value of such shares fluctuated due to the reasons referred to above and there is no assurance that the value of such shares will not continue to fluctuate in the future.

Although the United States and the PRC entered into "phase one" of an economic and trade agreement in January 2020 as an initial step towards resolving the trade disputes between them, the effect of such an agreement remains uncertain, including any long-term effect on the PRC and Hong Kong economies. In addition, the United States government has made statements and taken certain actions that may lead to changes to the United States' trade policies, including tariffs imposed on a range of products manufactured in the PRC or sanctioning certain companies with connections to the PRC. In response, the PRC government imposed certain counter-measures to counteract the extra-territorial application of foreign laws to Chinese persons. It is unknown whether and to what extent new tariffs or counter-tariffs (or other new laws or regulations) will be adopted, or the effect that any such actions would have on the global stock markets.

Any further significant falls or increased volatility may further impact global capital markets, potentially making it more difficult for the Group to access financing. The market volatility may also negatively affect consumer confidence and have an adverse impact on the wider PRC and Hong Kong economies. This may affect the value of the Group's investments and businesses. There can be no assurance that the value of equity securities in the future may not be affected by the continued weakness in the domestic stock market. The global, PRC, Hong Kong and other Asian equity markets have experienced, and may continue to experience, significant volatility and the Group may continue to suffer more investment losses.

- Counterparty default. The Group's counterparties could fail to discharge their obligations to it or the Group may be unable to secure the products or services of counterparties.
- Fixed interest rate liabilities. Declines in the value of the Group's equity and bond portfolios may result in the Group experiencing difficulties in meeting its liabilities at fixed interest rates, which could have an adverse impact on the Group's solvency position and require the Group to replenish its capital.

The Group's business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected if it is unable to successfully manage its growth.

The Group's strategic objective is to achieve sustained and balanced growth across its three main businesses, namely asset management and advisory services, investment and insurance. The Group's growth in the future may place significant demands on its managerial, operational and capital resources. The expansion of the Group's business activities exposes it to various challenges, including, but not limited to:

- improving and optimising synergies among its business sectors and the integrated operational back office platform;
- recruiting, training and retaining personnel with proper experience and knowledge;
- in the case of the Group's insurance business operated by China Ping An Insurance (Hong Kong) Company Limited meeting higher requirements for cost controls and meeting the demand for a larger capital base, as well as satisfying an ongoing need to meet the minimum solvency margin requirements stipulated by the Insurance Authority of Hong Kong (the "IA");
- strengthening and expanding its risk management and information technology systems; and
- increasing marketing and sales activities.

There is no assurance that the Group will manage its growth successfully.

The Group may need additional capital in the future, and there is no assurance that it will be able to obtain such capital on acceptable terms or at all.

Certain of the Group's businesses are capital intensive and require significant amounts of working capital to support their respective operations. The Group may require additional capital in the future in order for it to meet regulatory capital adequacy requirements relative to premiums received, remain competitive, grow its existing business, enter new businesses, pay operating expenses, conduct investment activities, meet its liquidity needs, expand its base of operations and offer new products and services. To the extent the Group's existing sources of capital are not sufficient to satisfy its needs, it may have to seek external sources. The Group's ability to obtain additional capital from external sources in the future is subject to a variety of uncertainties, including:

- its future financial condition, results of operations and cash flows;
- its ability to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals on a timely basis;
- any tightening of credit markets and general market conditions for debt and equity raising activities by insurance companies and other financial institutions. For example, since 2022, driven by inflationary pressures, interest rates have risen globally, including several raises announced by the United States Federal Reserve; and
- economic, political and social conditions in the geographical markets in which it operates and elsewhere.

However, there is no assurance that the Group will be able to obtain additional capital in a timely manner or on acceptable terms, if at all. The cost of the Group's future financing could increase if interest rates continue to rise. Future financing could include terms that restrict the Group's financial flexibility or restrict its ability to manage its business freely.

The Group has substantial indebtedness and may incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future.

The Group has a substantial amount of indebtedness. The total interest-bearing bank and other borrowings of the Group as at 31 December 2023, was approximately HK$17.9 billion, representing approximately 44.05 per cent. of the total liabilities of the Group, and bonds payable of the Group as at 31 December 2023, was approximately HK$15.3 billion, representing approximately 37.58 per cent. of the total liabilities of the Group. The substantial indebtedness of the Group and incurrence of substantial indebtedness in the future could have adverse consequences to its business and financial condition, including making it more difficult for the Issuer to satisfy the obligations under the Notes and the Group to satisfy its obligations in respect of other debt increasing the Group's vulnerability to adverse general economic and industry conditions; and requiring it to dedicate a substantial portion of its cash flow to servicing and repaying its indebtedness.

In addition, while the Group monitors its liquidity risk and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by management to finance the Group's operations and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flow, in view of the forthcoming maturity of approximately HK$15.3 billion of bonds payable and HK$17.9 billion interest-bearing bank and other borrowings as at 31 December 2023, there can be no assurance that the Group is able to maintain sufficient reserves of cash and readily realisable marketable securities and adequate lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements.

Further, the Group pledges assets for its bank borrowings. As the Notes are unsecured obligations, payments in respect of the Notes may be compromised if, among other things, there is a default in payment under the Issuer's secured indebtedness. (See "Risk Factors — Risks Relating to the Notes issued under the Programme — The Notes are unsecured obligations.").

In the future, the Group may from time to time incur additional indebtedness and contingent liabilities. If the Issuer or its subsidiaries incur substantial additional debt, the risks that it faces as a result of its already substantial indebtedness and leverage could intensify. The Group's ability to generate sufficient cash to satisfy outstanding and future debt obligations, including the Issuer's obligations under the Notes, will depend upon the future operating performance of its subsidiaries and associates, which will be affected by prevailing economic conditions and financial, business and other factors, many of which are beyond the Group's control.

The Group may undertake investments, acquisitions, partnerships and new business lines and strategies, which may not be successful.

As part of the Group's overall strategy, it may acquire certain businesses, assets and technologies, as well as develop new products and distribution channels that are complementary to its business. Such transactions and initiatives require the Group's management to develop expertise in new areas, manage new business relationships and attract new types of customers. Furthermore, such transactions and initiatives may require significant attention from the Group's management, and the diversion of its management's attention and resources could have a material adverse effect on its ability to manage its business. The Group may also experience difficulties integrating any investments, acquisitions, distribution arrangements and/or partnerships into its existing business and operations. There is no assurance that the Group will be able to successfully implement and execute these initiatives or that it will be able to identify successful initiatives in the future. These acquisitions and business initiatives may also expose the Group to potential risks, including risks associated with:

- the integration of new business lines, operations and personnel;
- the diversion of resources from its existing business and technologies;

- the potential loss of, or harm to, relationships with employees or customers; and
- unforeseen or hidden liabilities.

There is no assurance that the Group will not need to make significant impairment provisions or allowances or incur substantial losses on its future investments.

If the Group fails to successfully identify or undertake future investments, acquisitions, partnerships and new business lines and strategies, it may experience a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

If the Group's role in the Ping An Group (as defined below) changes, the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

The Group functions as a wholly-owned offshore financing and investment platform of the Company (as defined elsewhere in this Offering Circular) and its subsidiaries (together, the "Ping An Group"), and has historically received financial and operational support from the Ping An Group. The Group's management team and the board of directors of the Issuer are also entirely appointed by the Ping An Group. There is no assurance that the Group's role within the Ping An Group will not change, or that such support will always continue or not be reduced. In the event that the Group's role changes within the Ping An Group or if the Ping An Group reduces its support to the Group because of a slowdown in the growth of the PRC economy, the business of the Ping An Group or any constraints resulting from controls by regulators on cross-border capital flows or otherwise, the Group's financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

The Group depends on its management and actuarial personnel as well as dedicated sales agents, and could be materially and adversely affected by the loss of their services.

The Group depends on the continued service of its senior management members, skilled actuarial and other personnel. The Group's business could suffer if it loses the services of any of these personnel and cannot adequately replace them. In particular, the Group may be required to substantially increase the number of such employees in connection with its future growth plans, and there is intense competition for their services in Hong Kong. There is no assurance that the Group will be able to retain its present personnel or attract additional qualified personnel as and when needed. In addition, the Group may need to increase employee compensation levels in order to retain its existing officers and employees and attract any additional personnel it may require.

The Group also depends to a significant extent on sales agents to distribute its insurance and other products. Intense competition exists for dedicated sales agents with demonstrated ability and the Group competes to attract and retain dedicated sales agents to distribute its products. The Group competes for these agents with other companies primarily on the basis of reputation, brand name, products, compensation and retirement benefits, training, support services and financial position. While the Group has undertaken, and expects to continue to undertake, various initiatives and measures to retain and attract its agents, there is no assurance that these initiatives will succeed in attracting new agents or retaining existing agents. Sales and persistency in the Group's businesses, as well as its financial condition and results of operations, could be materially and adversely affected if the Group is unsuccessful in attracting and retaining these sales agents.

The Group's risk management and internal control systems may not be adequate or effective in all respects and could materially and adversely affect its business and results of operations.

The Group seeks to establish risk management and internal control systems consisting of organisational frameworks, policies, procedures and risk management methods that are appropriate for its business operations. The Group also seeks to continue to improve these systems, for instance, in making solid progress in the strategy and development of the internet finance business and strengthening the credit risk management of alternative assets. However, due to the inherent limitations in the design and implementation of risk management and internal control systems, there is no assurance that the Group's risk management and internal control systems will be able to identify, prevent and manage all risks. As a result, the Group may need to establish and implement additional risk management and internal control policies and procedures to further improve its systems from time to time.

The Group implements its risk management and internal controls by using a series of risk management methods. However, these methods also have their inherent limitations as risk management methods are generally based on statistical analysis of historical data as well as assumptions that risks in future periods share similar characteristics as risks in past periods. There is no assurance that such assumptions are always reliable. In addition, although the Group has established what it believes to be an advanced information technology system and has the benefit of industry and company data accumulated in its operations, the Group's information technology systems may not be adequate in the collection, analysis and processing of these data, and its historical data and experience may not be able to adequately reflect risks that may emerge from time to time in the future. As a result, the Group's risk management methods and techniques may not be effective in directing it to take timely and appropriate measures in risk management and internal controls.

Any significant failure in the Group's information technology systems, including its management information systems, could have a material adverse effect on its business and profitability.

The Group's business is highly dependent on the ability of its information technology systems to timely process a large number of transactions across numerous and diverse markets and products at a time when transaction processes have become increasingly complex and the volume of such transactions are growing at a significant rate. The proper functioning of the Group's financial control, accounting, customer database, customer service and other data processing systems, including those relating to underwriting and claim processing, together with the communication systems between the Group's various branch offices and its main information technology centres, is critical to its business and to its ability to compete effectively. Although the Group has a backup data centre that could be used in the event of a catastrophe or a failure of its primary system, and has established alternative communication systems where available, there is no assurance that business activities would not be materially disrupted in the event of a partial or complete failure of any of these primary information technology or communications systems, which could be caused by, among others, software bugs, computer virus attacks or conversion errors due to system upgrading. In addition, a prolonged failure of the Group's information technology systems could damage its reputation and materially and adversely affect its future prospects and profitability.

The Group's business is extensively regulated and changes in laws and regulations may reduce its profitability and limit its growth.

The Group is subject to laws, rules and regulations that regulate all aspects of its three main businesses, namely asset management and advisory services, investment and insurance. For example, the Group's business in asset management and advisory services is extensively regulated by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong (the "SFC") and the Group's general insurance business, including statutory insurance and acceptance of reinsurance, is extensively regulated by the IA. Each of these regulators have been given wide discretion in their administration of these laws, rules and regulations as well as, if necessary, the authority to impose regulatory sanctions on relevant members of the Group. Compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations may restrict the Group's business activities and require it to incur increased expense, restate or write down the value of its assets or liabilities, and to devote considerable time to such compliance efforts. Failure to comply with any of the applicable laws, rules and regulations (or increased enforcement of previously unenforced rules and regulations) could result in fines, restrictions on business expansion or, in extreme cases, revocation of business licenses, which could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, liquidity, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, the laws, rules and regulations under which the Group is regulated may change from time to time. Since 23 September 2019, the IA has taken over regulation from the three self-regulatory organisations, and has become the sole independent insurance regulator in Hong Kong. New provisions under the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) of Hong Kong (the "IO") and other rules, codes and guidelines have been introduced since then. There is no assurance that future legislative or regulatory changes, including deregulation, by the IA or other regulators, would not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

The Group is subject to the regulatory oversight of a number of financial services, insurance, securities and related regulators, such as the IA and the SFC. Collectively, these regulators oversee the Group's operations in each of the financial service markets in which it operates and, as a result of this broad oversight, the Group is occasionally subject to overlapping, conflicting or expanding regulation. These regulators, some of which are governmental entities, have broad authority over the Group's business, including its ownership and shareholding structure, capital, solvency and reserving requirements, investment portfolio allocations, the Group's ability to declare dividends and other distributions, expand its operations, enter certain lines of business and markets, offer new products, underwrite certain risks, price its products profitably and enter into certain distribution and outsourcing arrangements. In addition, there could be a substantial increase in government regulation and supervision of the financial services and insurance industries in the future. There is no assurance that any regulatory or government action would not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, there has been a global trend in recent years towards the adoption of a risk-based approach to insurance supervision in order to strengthen the protection of policyholders. This features implementation of a risk-based capital ("RBC") framework which takes into account different risk factors when assessing the capital adequacy of an insurer. In 2011, the International Association of Insurance Supervisors, the global standard-setter for the insurance industry, issued the Insurance Core Principles (the "Principles") which place more emphasis on risk-based supervision on both quantitative and qualitative aspects. All member superiors around the world, including the IA, are obliged to observe the Principles. To align with the international standards, Hong Kong is in the process of moving towards the RBC regime from the current rules-based regime. It is proposed that the framework will comprise three pillars (Pillar 1: quantitative requirements; Pillar 2: qualitative requirements; and Pillar 3: disclosure and transparency requirements). In December 2021, the IA published a circular regarding early adoption of aspects of Pillar 1 of the RBC framework, which will involve the IA exercising its powers under sections 130(1) and 17(2) of the IO to relax the Insurance (Determination of Long Term Liabilities) Rules (Cap. 41E) of Hong Kong and to modify or vary the requirements of schedule 3 to the IO (on accounts and statements) in their application to an authorised insurer to align these requirements with the forthcoming RBC regime. The final details of Pillar 3 and the remaining aspects of Pillar 1 of the RBC regime have not yet been finalised. While it is expected that the solvency regime will change to RBC basis in Hong Kong in the second half of 2024, the timing will largely depend on the legislative process. Accordingly, uncertainty remains over the time of implementation, the final form and the potential impact of these remaining aspects on the Group.

The Group has not yet determined the impact of the new regulations, if any, on its business as a whole in the long term, although it is possible that it could affect the profitability of its products. In order to comply with applicable solvency and capital requirements, or future changes to these requirements, the Group may need to raise or inject additional capital to meet the Group's solvency and capital requirements, which may impact the profit return of the Group's shareholders. The Group may also need to change the Group's business strategy, including the types of products it sells and how the Group manages its capital. Furthermore, compliance with solvency and capital requirements may require the Group to slow the growth of its business. In addition, the failure to make such adjustments to comply with solvency requirements may affect the Group's reputation or financial strength which could in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

The Group may not be able to detect money laundering and other illegal or improper activities in its business operations on a timely basis.

The Group is required to comply with applicable anti-money laundering laws, antiterrorism laws and other regulations in Hong Kong and overseas. The relevant anti-money laundering laws and regulations in Hong Kong require the Group to establish sound internal control policies and procedures with respect to anti-money laundering monitoring and reporting activities.

The Group's existing policies and procedures for the detection and prevention of money laundering activities and terrorism-funding activities through its business subsidiaries may not completely eliminate instances in which the Group may have been used by other parties to engage in money laundering and other illegal or improper activities. In the event that the Group fails to fully comply with applicable laws and regulations, the relevant government authorities may freeze the Group's assets or impose fines or other penalties on the Group. The Group cannot assure investors that there will not be failure in detecting money laundering, terrorism funding or other illegal or improper activities which may adversely affect the Group's business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's business is subject to various PRC laws, regulations and government policies.

The Group is an overseas investment platform for the Ping An Group and manages a substantial part of the Ping An Group's overseas investments. It is also responsible for sourcing and managing offshore non-capital markets investments for its fellow subsidiaries of the Ping An Group. In addition, the Group is the offshore financing platform for the Ping An Group. The Group's business is therefore subject to various PRC laws, regulations and government policies and changes in PRC laws, regulations and government policies may have an impact on Hong Kong businesses, including the Group's businesses in Hong Kong. For example, constraints resulting from regulations on cross-border capital flows will make it more difficult or costly for the onshore subsidiaries of the Ping An Group to undertake offshore investments or raise offshore capital and this may materially affect the Group's business. Further, changes to the regulations and policies promulgated by the National Financial Regulatory Administration (國家金融監督管理總局) ("NFRA") and the National Development and Reform Commission (the "NDRC") may restrict the Ping An Group's ability to carry out investment activities and this may in turn impact on the Group's business.

Any changes to the regulatory regimes and policies of the PRC may also have an impact on the Group. For example, in 2023, the CBIRC was replaced with the NFRA, and the authority to regulate enterprise bonds was transferred from the NDRC to the China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC"). Certain regulatory powers were also transferred from the CSRC and People's Bank of China to the NFRA. There can be no assurance that the policies, laws, regulations and regulatory regimes will not change in the future or that any such changes will not materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations nor can there be any assurance that the Group will be able to adapt to all such changes on a timely basis. In addition, there may be uncertainties regarding the interpretation and application of new policies, laws and regulations, which may result in penalties and restrictions on the Group's activities and could also have a significant impact on its business.

An actual or perceived reduction in the Group's financial strength, or a downgrade in its credit ratings, could have a material adverse impact on the Group's business and results of operations.

Policyholders' and the other customers' confidence in the financial strength of the Group, as well as in the financial services industry generally, is an important factor affecting the Group's business. Any actual or perceived reduction in the Group's financial strength, whether due to a credit rating downgrade, a reduction in the Group's solvency margin, or other factors, could materially and adversely affect the Group's business because any such development may, among other things:

- damage the Group's relationships with its creditors, its customers and the distributors of its products;
- negatively impact new sales of its products;
- require the Group to reduce prices for many of its products and services to remain competitive;

- adversely impact the Group's ability to obtain reinsurance on acceptable terms; and
- increase the Group's borrowing costs as well as affect its ability to obtain financing on a timely basis.

There is no assurance that the Group will not experience reductions in its financial strength, actual or perceived, in the future.

The Group will be exposed to various risks as the Group expands its range of products and services.

The Group has expanded and intends to continue to expand its products and services to customers. The Group's expansion of the range of its products and services has and will expose it to new and potentially increasingly challenging risks, including the following:

- its experience and expertise in managing and commercialising the new products and services;
- its ability to recruit additional qualified staff;
- its ability to provide satisfactory customer service, such as providing sufficient products and service information and handling of customer complaints;
- acceptance of its new products by customers;
- its ability to establish an effective management team or to enhance its risk management systems and information technology system to support a broader range of products and services;
- its ability to obtain or maintain regulatory approval for its new products and services;
- its ability to identify all potential risks associated with its products and services; and
- its ability to respond to the actions of its competitors, or developments in the insurance and asset management industries, which may render the Group's new products and services obsolete or uneconomical.

If the Group is unable to achieve the intended results with respect to its new products and services, the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

Estimated synergies set out in the Offering Circular may not be achieved or may be offset by competing commercial considerations.

The Group believes that it can achieve synergies across its asset management and advisory services, investment and insurance businesses. However, there is a risk that these synergy benefits may fail to materialise, are materially lower than have been estimated, or may take longer or cost more to achieve, which could have a significant impact on the profitability of the Group going forward.

Furthermore, synergies may be offset by competing commercial considerations. For example, the Group may have a smaller than anticipated number of customers who can realistically be targeted with cross-selling activities. It is possible that certain customers may not want one single corporate group managing all of its insurance and asset management matters. In addition, the Group's individual lines of businesses are subject to obligations to protect the personal data and information of its customers and, for confidentiality reasons, may not be able to share such information with other businesses within the Group. Such competing commercial considerations may offset the extent of synergies realised or the net benefits to the Group.

Agent, employee and distribution partner misconduct is difficult to detect and deter and could harm the Group's reputation or lead to regulatory sanctions or litigation against it.

Agent, employee or distribution partner misconduct could result in violations of applicable laws, regulatory sanctions, litigation or serious reputational or financial harm. Such misconduct could include:

- binding the Group to transactions that exceed authorised limits;
- hiding unauthorised or unsuccessful activities, resulting in unknown and unmanaged risks or losses;
- improperly using or disclosing confidential information or conducting front-running or market manipulation trades;
- making illegal or improper payments;
- recommending products, services or transactions that are not suitable for the Group's customers;
- misappropriation of funds;
- engaging in misrepresentation or fraudulent, deceptive or otherwise improper activities when marketing or selling products or engaging in the sale of fraudulent products not offered by the Group;
- engaging in unauthorised or excessive transactions to the detriment of the Group's customers; or
- otherwise not complying with applicable laws or the Group's internal policies and procedures.

The Group may not always be able to deter agent, employee or distribution partner misconduct, and the precautions it takes to prevent and detect these activities may not be effective in all cases. If the Group is unable to detect and deter any such misconduct, the Group could suffer harm to its reputation, which could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. This may even lead to regulatory sanctions or litigation against the Group.

The Group faces a significant risk of litigation, regulatory investigations and similar actions in the ordinary course of its business.

The Group faces a significant risk of litigation, regulatory investigations and similar actions in the ordinary course of its business, including the risk of lawsuits and other legal actions relating to suitability, sales or underwriting practices, claims payments and procedures, product design, disclosure, administration, denial or delay of benefits and breaches of fiduciary or other duties. Any such action may include claims for substantial or unspecified compensatory and punitive damages, suspension of licences or restriction on the ability of the Group to conduct its business, as well as civil, regulatory or criminal proceedings against the Group's directors, officers or employees, and the probability and amount of liability, if any, may remain unknown for significant periods of time. The Group is also subject to various regulatory inquiries, such as information requests and books and records examinations, from regulators and other authorities in the geographical markets in which the Group operates.

A substantial liability arising from a lawsuit, judgment or a significant regulatory action against the Group or a disruption in the Group's business arising from adverse adjudications in proceedings against the Group's directors, officers or employees could have a material adverse effect on its liquidity, business, financial condition and results of operations. Moreover, even if the Group ultimately prevails in any litigation, regulatory action or investigation, it could suffer significant harm to its reputation, which could materially affect the Group's prospects and future growth, including its ability to attract new customers, retain current customers and recruit and retain employees and agents.

The Group is dependent on maintaining its reputation in Hong Kong and is exposed to reputational risks.

The Group is dependent on maintaining its reputation in Hong Kong in order to maintain and grow its businesses. The Group's reputation is an important asset of its businesses and central to the Group's success. The Group is exposed to the risk that litigation, misconduct, operational failure, negative publicity or press speculation, whether or not valid, could harm its reputation. The Group's reputation could also be adversely affected if its products or services do not perform as expected. In addition, the Group's reputation could be affected by the conduct or performance of third parties over which it has no control. The Group is also exposed to adverse publicity relating to the insurance industry as a whole. An incident related to the Group or the conduct of a competitor unrelated to the Group may taint the reputation of the industry as a whole and may affect the perception of customers, investors and the attitude of regulators. Furthermore, negative publicity may result in greater regulatory scrutiny of the Group's operations and of the industry generally. If the Group is unable to maintain its reputation in the jurisdictions in which it operates or should there be reputational damage to the insurance industry as a whole, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group may be subject to liability and regulatory action if it is unable to protect personal and other confidential information.

Various laws, ordinances, rules and regulations impose obligations on the Group, including in terms of its asset management and advisory services, investment and insurance businesses, to protect the personal data and information of the customers of these businesses. The relevant authorities may issue sanctions or orders against the Group if the Group fails to protect the personal information of its customers, and the Group may have to provide compensation for economic loss and emotional distress arising from a failure to protect personal information in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations. In addition, incidents of mishandling personal information or failure to otherwise protect confidential information could create a negative public or client perception of the Group's operations or its brand, which may in turn harm customer and market confidence in the Group and materially and adversely affect the Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

The outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable disease in Hong Kong, could materially and adversely affect the Group's business and results of operations.

The outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable disease (such as Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, Ebola virus disease, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome coronavirus, H5N1 avian flu, the human swine flu (also known as Influenza A (H1N1)), H7N9 avian flu or COVID-19) in Hong Kong could materially and adversely affect the overall business sentiment and environment in Hong Kong, particularly if such outbreak is inadequately controlled. In addition, if any of the Group's employees are affected by any severe communicable disease, it could adversely affect or disrupt operations at the relevant premises and materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations, which may also involve a closure of the Group's facilities to prevent the spread of the disease. The spread of any severe communicable disease in Hong Kong may also affect the operations of the Group's customers and suppliers, which could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations. (See "Risk Factors — Risks relating to the Group's Overall Business — The Group's business is inherently subject to market fluctuations and general economic conditions.").

If the Group cannot effectively respond to the increasing competition, its profitability and market share could be materially and adversely affected.

In respect of the Group's asset management and advisory services business, the Group competes primarily with fund management companies, banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions in Hong Kong and in the region. In respect of the Group's investment activities, the Group competes primarily with securities firms that are qualified to conduct direct investment business and private equity firms in Hong Kong and in the region. In respect of the Group's insurance business, the Group competes primarily with both domestic and foreign-invested general insurance companies. Some of the Group's competitors may have advantages over it in one or more areas, such as financial strength, management capabilities, resources, operating experience, market share, distribution channels and capabilities in pricing, underwriting and claims settlement.

The Group's competitiveness depends on a number of factors, including its:

- brand name and reputation;
- product mix and features;
- scope of distribution and cooperative arrangements;
- quality of service;
- risk management and internal controls;
- pricing techniques and prices;
- investment performance and perceived financial strength;
- ability to innovate; and
- claims settlement ability.

A decline in the Group's competitive position as to one or more of these factors may materially and adversely affect its results of operations, financial condition and business prospects.

The imposition of new accounting standards could impact the Issuer.

The HKICPA has from time to time issued a number of new and revised HKFRS, Hong Kong Accounting Standards and interpretations. In addition, interpretations on the application of the HKFRS will continue to develop. These factors may require the Issuer to adopt new accounting policies. Since 1 January 2023, the HKFRS 17 became effective and replaced the HKFRS 4 "Insurance Contracts". The HKFRS 17 includes fundamental differences to accounting in both insurance contract measurement and profit recognition. The Group has restated comparative information for 2022 in the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 by applying the transitional provisions of HKFRS 17. The adoption of new accounting policies or new HKFRS could have a significant impact on the Issuer's financial position or results of operations.

Risks relating to the Group's Investment Business

The Group may incur significant losses on its investments, which may cause its investment income to decrease, and could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's investment returns, and thus its profitability, may be adversely affected from time to time by conditions affecting its specific investments and, more generally, by market fluctuations, as well as general economic, market and political conditions in the jurisdictions in which it operates. In particular, the Group's ability to make a profit on its products depends in part on the returns on investments supporting its obligations under these products, and the value of specific investments may fluctuate substantially. The Group's investment income may be affected by decreases in the fair value of equity investments, as well as fluctuations in realised gains and losses on the sale of investments, resulting from movements in market interest rates, unfavourable conditions in the Hong Kong, the PRC and the global securities markets and other factors. Future movements in market interest rates, unfavourable conditions in the Hong Kong, the PRC and the global securities markets or other factors may cause the Group's investment income to decrease significantly, and could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations. (See "Risk Factors — Risks relating to the Group's Overall Business — The Group's business is inherently subject to market fluctuations and general economic conditions.").

Concentration of the Group's investment portfolio in any particular asset class, market or segment of the economy may increase its risk of suffering investment losses.

The Group has significant credit exposure to corporate issuers. The Group also has significant risk exposure to banking and other financial institutions. Events or developments that have a negative effect on any particular industry, asset class, group of related industries, country or geographic region may have a greater negative effect on the Group's investment portfolio to the extent that its portfolio is concentrated. These types of concentrations in the Group's investment portfolio increase the risk that, in the event that the Group experiences a significant loss in any of these investments, its financial condition and results of operations would be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, there may not be a liquid trading market for certain types of the Group's investments, which is affected by numerous factors, including the existence of suitable buyers and market makers, market sentiment and volatility, the availability and cost of credit and general economic, political and social conditions. Due to the size of some of the Group's fixed income investment holdings, relative to the size and liquidity of the relevant market, the Group's ability to sell certain securities without significantly depressing market prices, or at all, may be limited. If the Group is required to dispose of these or other potentially illiquid assets on short notice, it could be forced to sell such assets at prices significantly lower than the prices it has recorded in its consolidated financial information.

The Group is subject to credit risk from its investment counterparties, including the issuers or borrowers whose securities or loans it holds.

Issuers or borrowers whose securities or loans the Group holds may default on their obligations to the Group. The Group's investment portfolio includes investments in the financial services sector and other market sectors that have recently experienced significant price fluctuations and defaults. Action, such as investment, nationalisation and other intervention, by governments and regulatory bodies in response to financial and other crises could negatively impact these instruments, securities, transactions and investments. Moreover, certain portions of the Group's investment portfolio may not be rated by independent parties and this may affect the Group's ability to evaluate the risks of these investments. Defaults on the Group's investment securities or governmental actions involving the issuers of such securities may have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations, as well as its liquidity and profitability.

In addition, there is no assurance that the Group will not suffer losses due to defaults from certain counterparties related to its investment activities, such as trading counterparties, counterparties under swaps and other derivative contracts and other financial intermediaries and guarantors. Any such losses may have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations, as well as its liquidity and profitability.

Defaults on the Group's debt investments may materially and adversely affect its profitability and financial position.

A substantial portion of the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as of 31 December 2023 were comprised of listed and unlisted equities, debt securities and funds investments and convertible promissory notes. In addition, a significant portion of the Group's financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income as at 31 December 2023 were comprised of listed debt securities which amounted to approximately HK$3.9 billion. Debt securities held by the Group are also held at amortised costs. The issuers whose debt securities are held by the Group may fail to pay or otherwise default on their obligations due to bankruptcy, a lack of liquidity, a downturn in the economy, operational failures or other reasons. Losses due to these defaults could reduce the Group's profitability and may have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial position, financial condition and results of operations, as well as the Group's liquidity and profitability.

The Group is exposed to liquidity risk for certain of its investments.

There may not be a liquid trading market for certain of the Group's investments such as any unlisted debt securities, unlisted funds and unlisted equity instruments held by the Group. The liquidity of trading markets and these investments are affected by numerous factors, including the existence of suitable buyers and market makers, market sentiment and volatility, the availability and cost of credit and general economic, political and social conditions. Such factors may affect the Group's ability to sell certain securities without significantly depressing market prices. If the Group is required to dispose of these or other potentially illiquid assets on short notice, it could be forced to sell such assets at prices significantly lower than the prices as recorded in the Group's consolidated financial statements, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Increases in the amount of allowances and impairments taken on the Group's investments could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

The Group assesses the carrying amount of all its debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss to determine whether an allowance for expected credit loss should be recorded in its financial statements in accordance with HKFRS. Such determination varies by investment type and is based upon the Group's periodic evaluation and assessment of known and inherent risks associated with the respective asset classes. These evaluations and assessments are revised as conditions change and new information becomes available. The determination of the amount of allowance for expected credit loss to be taken on the Group's investment assets may require complex and subjective judgments. The Group cannot make any assurances that its management's best estimates reflect actual losses that it will ultimately incur on these investments, that historical trends will be indicative of future impairments or allowances or that it will not be required under future accounting standards to change the amounts of allowances and impairments of its investments.

The Group has significant investments and financing outside Hong Kong denominated in foreign currencies and is susceptible to foreign currency risk.

The Group has significant investments and financing outside Hong Kong denominated in U.S. dollars, Renminbi, sterling and euro for the year ended 31 December 2023. The Hong Kong dollar is pegged to the U.S. dollar and therefore there is no significant currency risk arising from the financial assets and liabilities denominated in U.S. dollars. As a result, the Group's consolidated statement of financial position can be affected significantly by movements in the Renminbi, sterling and euro exchange rates. There is no assurance as to how and to what extent the exchange rates of such currencies will fluctuate against the Hong Kong dollar or any other foreign currency in the future.

The valuations of the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss contain certain assumptions that may not materialise or prove to be accurate and may fluctuate from time to time.

The Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are inherently difficult to value. Valuations are subject to subjective judgments and are made on the basis of assumptions which may not necessarily materialise. Additionally, inspections of the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and other work undertaken in connection with a valuation exercise may not identify all deficiencies and factors that could affect the valuation. There can be no assurance that the Group's investment in its financial assets at fair value through profit or loss will be realised at the valuations recorded or reflected in its financial statements or in this Offering Circular. The Group applies fair value accounting for all its financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. The value of the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss in the Group's portfolio may fluctuate from time to time due to market and other conditions and are also based on certain assumptions which, by their nature, are subjective and uncertain, and may differ materially from actual results. There is no assurance that the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss will retain the price at which they may be valued or that the Group's investment in such financial assets at fair value through profit or loss will be realised at the valuations it has recorded or reflected in its financial statements, and the price at which the Group may sell any part or the whole of the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss may be lower than the valuation for those financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Such adjustments to the fair value of the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss in the portfolio could have an adverse effect on the Group's net asset value and profitability.

If the investee companies of the Group's investment business fail to repay the principal amount of investments and the returns thereof as scheduled due to a material deterioration of their operations, the Group's results of operations and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected.

The Group provides financing to companies through various fixed income investments. In respect of these fixed income investments, the Group has established a systematic financial investment risk management system. In particular, business review and legal review departments of various levels will conduct an independent review for each case, and business review committees of various levels will conduct an independent review and discussion for each case. The personnel of the relevant projects shall carry out ongoing evaluations and post-investment management in respect of the investment projects. However, the repayment capabilities of the investee companies in these projects depend on their operating conditions, and such conditions will be affected by various factors such as the macro-economic, legal and regulatory and operating environment. If the operating conditions of these investee companies experience material deterioration which is outside of the Group's anticipation, the Group may not be able to recover the principal amount of the foregoing fixed income investments and the returns thereof as scheduled, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's private equity investments are affected by factors beyond its control, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's private equity investments involves making an accurate investment decision which requires the Group to carefully identify and select a target company based on its financial condition, operations and the condition of the industry in which it operates. In general, this process involves a systematic analysis and estimation of the target company's profitability and sustainability. However, the Group may make unsound investment decisions due to fraudulent and concealed, inaccurate or misleading statements from a target company in the course of its due diligence, which could lead the Group to mistakenly estimate the value of the target company and affect its ability to make profit from such investments. In addition, the Group's undertaking of and judgement on the industry in which the target company operates or its business may deviate and result in inaccurate investment decisions.

The Group has limited control over the companies in which it has invested. As a result, the Group may not be able to influence the business decisions of its investee companies, which could prevent the Group from profiting from such investments as anticipated. In addition, the Group's private equity investment portfolio companies may fail to meet their obligations under the agreements entered into with the Group, which could result in deterioration in the value of its investments. In such cases, the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group's investment business could be materially and adversely affected.

The Group's private equity portfolio companies may take a longer time than it expects to become suitable for public listing or for the Group to achieve exit through other means. In addition, the Group's returns on private equity investments are affected by the macroeconomic environment. Even in the case of successful public listings, the Group may be unable to exit its investments at desirable prices or within the time period as it anticipated. If the Group cannot exit during the planned investment period, its investment returns will continue to be exposed to market risks, and the Group may be unable to achieve the expected returns.

Risks relating to the Group's Asset Management and Advisory Services Business

Limited recurring earnings from the Group's asset management and advisory services business.

Fees and commission income earned by the Group for the year ended 31 December 2023 was approximately HK$535.44 million and for the year ended 31 December 2022 was approximately HK$432.73 million. While the Group plans to continue to expand its third-party asset management and advisory services business in order to help improve the Group's recurring earnings, there is no assurance as to the pace of growth of its third-party asset management business and advisory services and consequently fees and commission income earned by the Group may not increase significantly, if at all.

A portion of the Group's revenue and income is derived from its asset management and advisory services business which will be adversely affected if the performance of the funds which it manages deteriorates.

The Group conducts its asset management and advisory services business principally through Ping An of China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Company Limited ("Ping An Asset Management HK") and Ping An Overseas Investment Management Company Limited. Ping An Asset Management HK is currently responsible for the management of certain insurance funds of the Ping An Group (the "Managed Insurance Funds"). Ping An Overseas Investment Management Company Limited is currently the advisor of some of the existing private funds operated by the Group (the "Managed Third Party Funds" and together with the Managed Insurance Funds, the "Managed Funds"). Other third parties funds are managed by their respective general partners or their board. The Group's revenues from the management of each of these Managed Funds generally comprise management fees, advisory fees and commissions. Any condition which might have a material adverse effect on the operating performance or financial condition of the Managed Funds, or termination of the Group's management or advisory services, could materially reduce its revenue derived from managing these Managed Funds.

Pursuant to certain NFRA regulatory requirements, contracts for the provision of fund management services to the Managed Insurance Funds shall not have a duration of longer than three years. Accordingly, the Group's contracts for the provision of fund management services to the Managed Insurance Funds are normally renewed annually. Normally, the Managed Insurance Funds also provide that the Group's fund management services may be terminated generally if the Group is disqualified by the NFRA or other authorities to carry out overseas investment business or upon 90 days' notice for any reason. On the other hand, the Group's existing contracts for the provision of fund management services to the Managed Third Party Funds are for the life of the relevant Managed Third Party Fund unless the Group resigns or is removed as manager. The Managed Third Party Funds also provide that the Group's fund management services may be terminated generally as a result of the manager's material violation of the provisions of the applicable agreement, the redemption of all the units of the relevant Managed Third Party Fund, illegality or upon certain number of days' prior written notice. In the event that the Group's services are terminated prior to the expiry of the applicable contract, or the Group is removed as a manager in accordance with the terms of the applicable contracts or applicable law, or (in the case of the Managed Insurance Funds) the Group is unable to renew contracts that have expired, and on terms that are commercially reasonable to the Group, this would adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The exchange traded funds managed by the Group, which are index-tracking funds, are subject to concentration risk which in turn may adversely impact the revenue and income derived from the management of such exchange traded funds.

The exchange traded funds, which are index-tracking funds, are subject to concentration risk as a result of tracking the performance of companies whose operations and business are primarily from a single region (i.e. the PRC and Hong Kong). Changes in political, economic and social conditions in the region could adversely affect the value of the investment return which in turn may compromise management fees and commissions earned by Ping An Asset Management HK from the management of such exchange traded funds.

The Ping An of China SIF — RMB Bond Fund (the "RMB Bond Fund") is subject to certain investment risks which in turn may impact on the revenue and income derived from the management of the RMB Bond Fund.

The RMB Bond Fund is a Hong Kong authorised unit trust which principally invests in RMB denominated fixed income instruments which may rise and fall in value within a short period of time. Any adverse effect on the value of the investment return may in turn compromise management fees and commissions earned by Ping An Asset Management HK from the management of the RMB Bond Fund. In particular, the RMB Bond Fund is subject to the following risks:

- RMB currency risk. RMB is not a freely convertible currency and is subject to foreign exchange control policies and restrictions on the repatriation of funds out of Mainland China. There is no guarantee that RMB will not depreciate. There is a limitation on the daily conversion amount of RMB in Hong Kong and this may have an adverse effect on the return for investors.
- Credit risk of counterparties. The RMB Bond Fund is exposed to the credit/insolvency of the issuers of the RMB denominated fixed income instruments and bank deposits. RMB denominated fixed income instruments that the RMB Bond Fund invests in may or may not be of investment grade. The RMB Bond Fund is fully exposed to the credit/insolvency risk of its counterparties as an unsecured creditor.
- Interest rate risk. An increase in interest rates may adversely affect the value of the RMB denominated fixed income instruments held by the RMB Bond Fund, causing the RMB Bond Fund to suffer a loss in its investments if it disposes of the RMB denominated fixed income instruments before their maturity.
- Risk of limited pool of investments. The quantity of RMB denominated fixed income instruments issued or distributed outside the PRC that is available for the RMB Bond Fund is currently limited. The RMB Bond Fund may hold a significant portion of assets in bank deposits if there are insufficient RMB denominated fixed income instruments for the RMB Bond Fund to invest in. This may adversely affect the RMB Bond Fund's return and performance.
- Liquidity risk. For RMB denominated fixed income instruments issued or listed outside the PRC, there may not be an active secondary market. Ping An Asset Management HK may have to liquidate such investments at a discount to meet redemption requests. The bid and offer spread of the price of RMB denominated fixed income instruments may be large, so the RMB Bond Fund may incur significant trading and realisation costs and may suffer losses when selling such investments.

Some or all of the above risks may adversely affect the value of the investment return of the RMB Bond Fund which may in turn compromise management fees and commissions earned by Ping An Asset Management HK from the management of the RMB Bond Fund.

Asset management is subject to significant regulation and supervision by the regulatory authorities in certain jurisdictions, and compliance failures and changes in regulation could adversely affect the Group.

The asset management industry is subject to significant regulation and supervision by regulatory authorities in certain jurisdictions. The Group may also be adversely affected if new or revised legislation or regulations are enacted, or if there are changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing rules and regulations that apply to the Group. Such events could increase the Group's costs of conducting its asset management and advisory services business, require the Group to restructure the way in which it carries on its asset management and advisory services business, or render the Group unable to continue all or part of its asset management and advisory services business, which in turn could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Despite the Group's efforts to comply with applicable regulations, there are a number of associated risks, particularly in areas where applicable regulations may be unclear or where regulators subsequently revise their previous guidance. Material incidents of non-compliance may subject the Group to penalties or restrictions on its business activities. There is no assurance that the Group will be able to meet all the disciplinary actions, including, among other things, limitations or prohibitions on its future business activities, which may limit its ability to launch new businesses and harm its reputation, and consequently materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Risks relating to the Group's Insurance Business

Interest rate fluctuations may materially and adversely affect the Group's profitability.

Investment returns of the Group's insurance business are exposed to fluctuations in interest rates.

To contain the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, governments and central banks around the world have implemented fiscal and monetary stimulus measures, including reducing the interest rates significantly since 2020, to stabilise the markets and provide liquidity easing to the markets. However, following a prolonged period of low interest rates, driven by inflationary pressure, major central banks in the world have begun to hike interest rates aggressively since 2022, and signaled that interest rates could stay elevated for longer to tame the still-high inflation. In the United States, the Federal Open Market Committee ("FOMC") has raised the target federal funds rate 10 times since 2022, and the target federal funds rate has been raised from the range of 0.00 per cent. to 0.25 per cent. on 16 March 2020 to the range of 5.00 per cent. to 5.25 per cent. on 4 May 2023. In the most recent FOMC meeting held on 21 March 2024, it was announced the benchmark interest rates would remain at 5.25 per cent. – 5.50 per cent. Market interest rates may continue to experience volatilities.

During periods of declining interest rates, the Group's average investment yield will decline as the Group's maturing investments, as well as bonds and loans that are redeemed or prepaid to take advantage of the lower interest rate environment, are replaced with new investments with lower yields and coupon payments. As a result, the decline in interest rates would reduce the Group's return from investments of capital, which would adversely affect its profitability, regardless of whether such investments are used to support particular insurance policy obligations. During periods of increasing interest rates, there may be a rise in surrenders and withdrawals of insurance policies and contracts as policyholders seek other investment with higher perceived returns. Higher interest rates could also adversely impact the cost or other terms of the Group's existing financing, as well as its ability to obtain new credit facilities or access the capital markets on favourable terms.

Changes in interest rates could also adversely affect the Group's solvency levels and capital position. Insurance companies are generally required by the applicable Hong Kong law to maintain their solvency at a level in excess of statutory minimum standards, and changing interest rates could adversely impact the Group's ability to comply with these standards.

If the Group cannot obtain capital in a timely manner to satisfy the regulatory requirements regarding solvency margin, the authorities may impose regulatory sanctions on the Group, which may have a material adverse effect on its business and results of operations.

The Group, through China Ping An Insurance (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd., is subject to the IA regulations regarding the maintenance of solvency margin. If the Group's solvency margin does not satisfy the relevant requirements, the IA may impose a range of regulatory sanctions depending on the degree of deficiency in its solvency margin.

The current framework as at the date of this Offering Circular is a rules-based capital adequacy framework. While the Group's solvency ratio is currently above the regulatory requirement, if the Group continues to grow rapidly in the future, the Group may need additional capital to improve its solvency margin if its profits are not sufficient to support its business growth. In addition, the regulatory regime governing solvency margin is subject to change, which may lead to stricter requirements on the Group's capital base. There is no assurance that the Group will be able to obtain additional capital in a timely manner or on acceptable terms, or at all. Any failure of the Group to meet the solvency margin requirements may have a material adverse effect on its business and results of operations.

Differences between actual benefits and claims experience and underwriting and reserving assumptions could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

The Group establishes property and casualty reserves to pay future policyholder benefits and claims based on assumptions and estimates of damages and liabilities incurred. Consequently, the Group's earnings depend significantly upon the extent to which its actual claims experience is consistent with the assumptions and estimates used in setting the prices for its products and establishing the reserves for its obligations for future policy benefits and claims. To the extent that actual benefit or claims experience is less favourable than the Group's underlying assumptions and estimates used in establishing its reserves, the Group may be required to increase its reserves. Any such increase in reserves will result in additional charges, and may reduce the Group's net income.

The process of estimating reserve liabilities is a difficult and complex exercise involving many variables and subjective judgments. Due to the nature of the underlying risks and the high degree of uncertainty associated with the determination of the liabilities for unpaid claims, the Group cannot determine precisely the amount which it will ultimately pay to settle these liabilities. These amounts may vary from the estimated amounts, particularly when those payments may not occur until well into the future. In addition, variations in claims experience could cause actual underwriting experience to be different from actuarial assumptions used in the pricing of the Group's insurance products. This may materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group may be unable to utilise reinsurance successfully.

The Group's ability to obtain external reinsurance on a timely basis and at a reasonable cost is subject to a number of factors, many of which are beyond its control. In particular, certain risks that the Group is subject to, such as epidemics, are difficult to reinsure. If the Group is unable to renew any expiring external coverage or obtain acceptable new external reinsurance coverage, its net risk exposure could increase or, if it is unwilling to bear an increase in net risk exposure, its overall underwriting capacity and the amount of risk it is able to underwrite would decrease. To the extent that the Group is unable to utilise external reinsurance successfully, its business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, although a reinsurer would be liable to the Group for the risk transferred pursuant to a reinsurance arrangement, such an arrangement does not discharge the Group's primary liability to its policyholders. As a result, the Group is exposed to credit risk with respect to reinsurers in all lines of its insurance business. In particular, a default by one or more of the Group's reinsurers under its reinsurance arrangements would increase the financial losses arising out of a risk it has insured, which would reduce its profitability and may have a material adverse effect on its liquidity position. There is no assurance that the Group's reinsurers will always be able to meet their obligations under the reinsurance arrangements on a timely basis, if at all. In addition, the Group receives payments from its reinsurers through brokers under a number of reinsurance agreements. As a result, the Group is consequently subject to the risk of non-payment from these brokers.

If the Group is not able to attract, motivate and retain agency leaders and individual agents, the Group's competitive position, growth and profitability will suffer.

The Group depends to a significant extent on its agency leaders and individual agents to distribute its insurance products. The Group faces intense competition to attract and retain its agency leaders and individual agents, and it competes with other companies for their services, primarily on the basis of its reputation, product range, compensation and retirement benefits, training, support services and financial position. The Group may not always be successful in attracting agency leaders and individual agents, and there is no assurance that the Group's initiatives to retain and attract agency leaders and individual agents will succeed. Competition from other insurance companies and business institutions may also force the Group to increase the compensation of its agency leaders and individual agents, which would increase operating costs and reduce its profitability. If the Group is unsuccessful in attracting and retaining agency leaders and individual agents, its ability to effectively market and distribute its products may be negatively affected, which could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations.

Catastrophic events, which are unpredictable by nature, could materially and adversely affect the Group's profitability and financial condition.

The Group's motor insurance, travel insurance, home insurance and fire insurance businesses expose it to risks arising out of catastrophic events, which are unpredictable by nature. Catastrophes can be caused by various natural hazards, including hurricanes, typhoons, floods, earthquakes, severe weather, fires and explosions. Catastrophes can also be man-made, such as terrorist attacks, wars and industrial or engineering accidents. In addition, a health epidemic or pandemic such as avian influenza, Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome, Ebola virus disease, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome coronavirus, H5N1 avian flu, the human swine flu (also known as Influenza A (H1N1)), H7N9 avian flu or COVID-19, or other outbreak of contagious diseases can adversely affect the Group's business in respect of travel and property insurance. For example, the extensive travel restrictions, social distancing protocols and lockdown measures which may be imposed around the world due to the outbreak of contagious diseases may have a severe impact on travel and leisure businesses, which, in turn may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business. Catastrophes could also result in losses in the Group's investment portfolios, due to, among other things, the failure of its counterparties to perform or significant volatility or disruption in financial markets, and could in turn adversely affect its profitability.

Changing climate conditions have added to the unpredictability and frequency of natural disasters in certain parts of the world, including Hong Kong, and have created additional uncertainties as to future trends and exposures. It is possible that both the frequency and severity of natural disasters may increase in the future.

The frequency and severity of catastrophes are inherently unpredictable. There is no assurance that the reserves established by the Group will be sufficient to pay for all related claims. Although the Group carries some reinsurance to reduce its catastrophe loss exposures, due to limitations in the underwriting capacity and terms and conditions of the reinsurance market, as well as difficulties in assessing the Group's exposures to catastrophes, this reinsurance may not be sufficient to protect the Group adequately against losses. As a result, one or more catastrophic events could materially reduce the Group's profits and cash flows and harm its financial condition.

The rate of growth of Hong Kong insurance market may not be as high or as sustainable as the Group anticipates.

The Group expects the insurance market in Hong Kong to expand and the insurance penetration rate to rise with the continued growth of the Hong Kong economy and household wealth, the reform of the social welfare system, demographic changes and the further opening up of the Hong Kong insurance market to foreign participants. The Group's judgments regarding the anticipated drivers of such growth and their impact on the Hong Kong insurance industry are prospective. The Group offers no assurance though that such prospective judgments will be consistent with actual developments.

Demand for insurance products may change as a result of shifts in customer preferences, technological changes and changes in regulation, and the Group may not respond appropriately or in time to sustain the Group's business or its market share.

The insurance product market is constantly evolving in response to shifts in the preferences of customers, technological changes and changes in regulation, and the Group needs to respond to these changes to remain competitive, increase the Group's businesses and maintain market share. The Group also faces certain risks when introducing new products, and the Group's new products may fail to achieve market acceptance, which could have a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In particular, the insurance market is subject to emerging technological changes. To maintain its competitiveness, the Group is required to anticipate the impact on its business brought by changing technologies, such as driverless cars, connected devices, artificial intelligence and online insurance advice. If the Group is not effective in adapting to this constantly evolving technological landscape, the Group's ability to successfully operate its business may be impaired, which could have an adverse impact on the Group's results of operations.

To remain competitive and stimulate customer demand, the Group needs to continually introduce new products, services and technologies, enhance existing products and services, effectively stimulate customer demand for new and upgraded products and successfully manage the transition to these new and upgraded products. Accordingly, the Group's success depends greatly on its ability to anticipate and respond to emerging customer preferences and demands, technological changes, changing regulations and industry standards, by ensuring continuing and timely development of new products, as well as enhancements to existing products and services. Any such change in customer preferences, technologies, regulations or industry standards may require the Group to re-evaluate its business model and to adopt significant changes to its strategies and business plan. The Group may not be able to ensure its competitiveness in the market as a result of a variety of factors, including failure to anticipate consumer trends and needs. Failure of or delays in understanding or anticipating market trends or delays in innovation, product development and execution may also result in a suboptimal portfolio of products and services, gaps in certain price points or an uncompetitive offering. This in turn may lead to a negative effect on the Group's market share, net sales and profitability, but may also erode its brand by disappointing customers in the carrier, enterprise and consumer market segments, and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Insurance companies are subject to laws and regulations which give priority to policyholders.

Laws and regulations applicable to insurance companies generally contain provisions whereby policyholders are given priority over the claims of other creditors. This protection could adversely impact the claims of creditors of insurance companies other than policyholders, including the Noteholders.

Risks relating to the Notes issued under the Programme

The Issuer has limited assets and will need to rely on cash flow from other Group members (particularly the operating subsidiaries of the Group) to service its obligations under the Notes.

The Issuer is an investment holding company of the Group with net assets of HK$47,739.2 million as at 31 December 2023. Accordingly, the Issuer has limited liquid assets to meet its obligations under the Notes and its ability to make payments in respect thereof depends largely upon the receipt of funding, such as equity injections, from the Group's operating subsidiaries and disposal of the Issuer's existing projects. The ability of the Group's subsidiaries to provide funding to the Issuer is subject to their operating performance and profitability, and to applicable laws. The ability of the subsidiaries and associated companies of the Issuer to pay dividends is subject to their performance and cash flow requirements and may be subject to applicable laws and regulations. The outstanding indebtedness of subsidiaries of the Issuer may contain covenants restricting the ability of such subsidiaries to pay dividends in certain circumstances for so long as such indebtedness remains outstanding. Moreover, the Issuer's percentage interests in its subsidiaries and associated companies could be reduced in the future. Accordingly, the rights of Noteholders under the Notes are structurally subordinated to the obligations of the Group's subsidiaries.

As the Notes are unsecured obligations, the repayment of the Notes may be adversely affected if:

- (i) the Issuer enters into bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganisation or other winding-up proceedings; or
- (ii) there is a default in payment under the Issuer's future secured indebtedness or other unsecured indebtedness; or
- (iii) there is an acceleration of any of the Issuer's indebtedness.

If any of these events were to occur, the Issuer's assets may not be sufficient to pay amounts due on the Notes.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors.

Each potential investor in any Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular, any applicable supplement to the Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the relevant Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the relevant Notes, including where principal or interest is payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Some Notes may be complex financial instruments and such instruments may be purchased as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to the purchaser's overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Notes which are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of such Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

Additionally, the investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) the Notes are legal investments for it, (2) the Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing, and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of the Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

Decisions that may be made on behalf of all holders of the Notes may be adverse to the interests of individual holders of the Notes. Modifications and waivers may be made in respect of the Conditions, the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement by the Trustee or less than all of the holders of the Notes.

The Conditions contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Conditions also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders, agree to (i) any modification (except as mentioned in the Trust Deed) of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the Conditions or any of the provisions of the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement, or determine, without any such consent as aforesaid, that any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default (as defined in the Conditions) shall not be treated as such (provided that, in any such case, it is not, in the opinion of the Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders) or (ii) any modification which, in the opinion of the Trustee, is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is to correct a manifest error or to comply with mandatory provisions of law.

A change in English law which governs the Notes may adversely affect Noteholders.

The Notes are governed by English law in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Notes. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of issue of the relevant Notes.

Additional procedures may be required to be taken to hear English law governed matters in the Hong Kong courts. There is also no assurance that the PRC courts will recognise and enforce judgments of the Hong Kong courts in respect of English law matters.

The Conditions and the Programme documents are governed by English law, whereas parties to these documents have submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Hong Kong courts. In order to hear English law governed matters, Hong Kong courts may require certain additional procedures to be taken.

Hong Kong and the PRC have entered into certain arrangements on the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters (the "Reciprocal Arrangements") which allow for a final court judgment (relating to the payment of money or other civil or commercial proceeding) rendered by a Hong Kong court or PRC court (as the case may be) to be recognised and enforced in the PRC or Hong Kong (as the case may be), provided certain conditions are met. In particular, on 18 January 2019, the Supreme People's Court of the PRC and the Hong Kong government signed the Arrangement on Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters by the Courts of the Mainland and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (關於內地與香港特別行政區法院相互認可和執行民商事案件判決的安排), which has been implemented in Hong Kong by the Mainland Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters (Reciprocal Enforcement) Ordinance (Cap. 645) of Hong Kong which came into operation on 29 January 2024, applying to judgments made on or after 29 January 2024. However, certain matters may be excluded under the Reciprocal Arrangements and a judgment may be refused to be recognised and enforced by the requested place in certain circumstances such as for public policy reasons or where the judgment was obtained by fraud. As a general matter, a judgment of a court of another jurisdiction may be reciprocally recognised or enforced if the jurisdiction has a treaty with the PRC or if judgments of the PRC courts have been recognised before in that jurisdiction, subject to the satisfaction of other requirements. The PRC signed the Hague Convention on Choice of Court Agreements (the "Hague Convention") in September 2017 which is intended to promote the use of exclusive choice of court agreements in international contracts and facilitate the creation of a recognition and enforcement regime for court judgements between contracting States. However, the signing of the Hague Convention does not have currently have any legal effect until it is ratified by the PRC government. The PRC has not entered into treaties or arrangements providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments of courts with numerous countries, including Japan, the United States and the UK. Therefore, it may be difficult for Noteholders to enforce any judgments obtained from such foreign courts against the Bank, the Issuer, the Group or any of their respective directors or senior management in the PRC.

The Notes may be represented by Global Notes or Global Certificates and holders of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or a Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of the relevant Clearing System(s).

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates. Such Global Notes or Global Certificates will be deposited with a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, or lodged with the CMU (each of Euroclear, Clearstream, and the CMU, a "Clearing System"). Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate, investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes. The relevant Clearing System(s) will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes and the Global Certificates. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through the Clearing Systems.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to the relevant Clearing System for distribution to their account holders or in the case of the CMU, to the persons for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in accordance with the CMU Rules as notified by the CMU to the Issuer in a relevant CMU Issue Position Report or any other notification by the CMU.

A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or a Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of the relevant Clearing System(s) to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Issuer does not have any responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes or the Global Certificates.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes or the Global Certificates will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by the relevant Clearing System(s) to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes or the Global Certificates will not have a direct right under the respective Global Notes or Global Certificates to take enforcement action against the Issuer in the event of a default under the relevant Notes but will have to rely upon their rights under the Trust Deed.

Noteholders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

In relation to any issue of Notes which have a denomination consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination (as defined in the Conditions) plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations. If definitive Notes are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

The insolvency laws of Hong Kong and other local insolvency laws may differ from those of another jurisdiction with which the Noteholders are familiar.

As the Issuer is incorporated under the laws of Hong Kong, any insolvency proceedings relating to the Issuer would likely involve insolvency laws of Hong Kong, the procedural and substantive provisions of which may differ from comparable provisions of the local insolvency laws of jurisdictions with which the Noteholders are familiar.

The Issuer may be unable to pay interest or redeem the Notes.

On certain dates, including the occurrence of any early redemption event specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement or otherwise and at maturity of the Notes, the Issuer may, and at maturity, will, be required to pay interest on, or redeem all of the Notes. If such an event were to occur, the Issuer may not have sufficient cash on hand (whether due to a serious decline in net operating cash flows or otherwise) and may not be able to arrange financing to make such payment or redeem the Notes in time, or on acceptable terms, or at all. The ability to make interest payments or redeem the Notes in such event may also be limited by the terms of other debt instruments. Failure to pay interest on the Notes or to repay, repurchase or redeem tendered Notes by the Issuer would constitute an event of default under the Notes, which may also constitute a default under the terms of other indebtedness of the Group.

The ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes may depend upon the due performance by the other parties to the transaction documents.

The ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes may depend upon the due performance by the other parties to the transaction documents of the obligations thereunder including the performance by the Issuing and Paying Agent, any other Paying Agent, each Lodging and Paying Agent, each Transfer Agent, the relevant Registrar and/or the relevant Calculation Agent(s) of their respective obligations. Whilst the non-performance of any relevant parties will not relieve the Issuer of its obligations to make payments in respect of the Notes, the Issuer may not, in such circumstances, be able to fulfil its obligations to the Noteholders and the Couponholders.

The Trustee may request that the Noteholders provide an indemnity and/or security and/or prefunding to its satisfaction.

In certain circumstances (including, without limitation, the giving of notice to the Issuer pursuant to Condition 10 and the taking of steps and/or actions and/or institution of proceedings pursuant to Condition 12), the Trustee may (at its sole discretion) request the Noteholders to provide an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding to its satisfaction before it takes actions on behalf of Noteholders. The Trustee shall not be obliged to take any such actions if not indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction. Negotiating and agreeing to any indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding can be a lengthy process and may impact on when such actions can be taken. The Trustee may not be able to take actions notwithstanding the provision of an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding to it, in breach of the terms of the Trust Deed constituting the Notes and/or in circumstances where there is uncertainty or dispute as to the applicable laws or regulations and, to the extent permitted by the agreements and the applicable law, it will be for the Noteholders to take such actions directly.

Risks relating to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of certain such features:

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer may have a lower market value than Notes that cannot be redeemed.

Unless in the case of any particular Tranche of Notes the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies otherwise, in the event that the Issuer would be obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Notes due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within Hong Kong or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, the Issuer may redeem all outstanding Notes in accordance with the Conditions.

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Dual Currency Notes have features which are different from single currency issues.

The Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies which may be different from the currency in which the Notes are denominated. Potential investors should be aware that:

- (i) the market price of such Notes may be volatile;
- (ii) they may receive no interest;
- (iii) payment of principal or interest may occur at a different time or in a different currency than expected; and
- (iv) the amount of principal payable at redemption may be less than the nominal amount of such Notes or even zero.

Failure by an investor to pay a subsequent instalment of partly-paid Notes may result in an investor losing all of its investment.

The Issuer may issue Notes where the issue price is payable in more than one instalment. Failure to pay any subsequent instalments could result in an investor losing all of its investment.

The market price of variable rate Notes with a multiplier or other leverage factor may be volatile.

Notes with variable interest rates can be volatile securities. If they are structured to include multipliers or other leverage factors, or caps or floors, or any combination of those features or other similar related features, their market values may be even more volatile than those for securities that do not include such features.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes are typically more volatile than conventional floating rate debt.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate. The market values of such Notes typically are more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse Floating Rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes. See also "The regulatory reform of benchmarks may adversely affect the value of Notes referencing such benchmarks." for risks related to reference rates.

The market prices of Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities.

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium to their nominal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Investors may lose part or all of their investment in any Index-Linked Notes issued.

If, in the case of a particular Tranche of Notes, the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies that the Notes are Index-Linked Notes or variable redemption amount Notes, there is a risk that the investor may lose the value of its entire investment or part of it.

Risks relating to the market generally

Set out below is a brief description of certain market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

Notes issued under the Programme have no current active trading market and may trade at a discount to their initial offering price and/or with limited liquidity.

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). In particular, one or more initial investors in the Notes may purchase a significant portion of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes pursuant to an offering. The existence of any such significant holder may reduce the liquidity of Notes in the secondary trading market. If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Issuer. If the Notes are trading at a discount, investors may not be able to receive a favourable price for their Notes, and in some circumstances investors may not be able to sell their Notes at all or at their fair market value. Although the approval in-principle has been received from the SGX-ST for the establishment of the Programme and application will be made for the listing and quotation for any Notes which are agreed at the time of issue thereof to be so listed on the Official List of the SGX-ST, there is no assurance that an application for the listing of the Notes on the Official List of the SGX-ST will be approved, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. In addition, the market for investment grade and crossover grade debt has been subject to disruptions that have caused volatility in prices of securities similar to the Notes issued under the Programme. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market, or that disruptions will not occur, for any particular Tranche of Notes. If the Notes listed on the Official List of the SGX-ST or any other stock exchanges are de-listed, investors' ability to resell the Notes may be materially affected.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls may result in investors receiving less interest or principal than expected.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the currency specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (the "Specified Currency"). This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Notes.

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Notes.

The credit ratings assigned to the Notes may not reflect all risks.

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to an issue of Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

The regulatory reform of benchmarks may adversely affect the value of Notes referencing such benchmarks.

Reference rates and indices, including Interest rate benchmarks such as the Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR"), which are used to determine the amounts payable under financial instruments or the value of such financial instruments ("Benchmarks") have, in recent years, been the subject of political and regulatory scrutiny as to how they are created and operated. This has resulted in regulatory reform and changes to existing Benchmarks, with further changes anticipated. These reforms and changes may cause a Benchmark to perform differently than it has done in the past or to be discontinued. Any change in the performance of a Benchmark or its discontinuation, could have a material adverse effect on the Notes.

Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the "EU Benchmarks Regulation") applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark within the EU. It will, among other things, (i) require benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevent certain uses by EU supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). EU Benchmarks Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK Benchmarks Regulation") among other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks and the use of a benchmark in the UK. Similarly, it prohibits the use in the UK by UK supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority or registered on the Financial Conduct Authority register (or, if non-UK based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international reforms or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Any such change or consequential changes as a result of international reforms or other initiatives or investigations could have a material adverse effect on the value of, and return on, any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

In addition, any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes. Moreover, any of the above matters or any other significant change to the setting or existence of any relevant reference rate could affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Floating Rate Notes or could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, the Floating Rate Notes.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by any international reforms in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

The use of SOFR as a reference rate is subject to important limitations.

The rate of interest on the Floating Rate Notes may be calculated on the basis of SOFR (as further described under Condition 5(b)(iii)(C) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes).

In June 2017, the New York Federal Reserve's Alternative Reference Rates Committee (the "ARRC") announced SOFR as its recommended alternative to U.S. dollar London inter-bank offer rate ("LIBOR"). However, the composition and characteristics of SOFR are not the same as those of LIBOR. SOFR is a broad U.S. Treasury repo-financing rate that represents overnight secured funding transactions. This means that SOFR is fundamentally different from LIBOR for two key reasons. First, SOFR is a secured rate, while LIBOR is an unsecured rate. Second, SOFR is an overnight rate, while LIBOR represents interbank funding over different maturities. As a result, there can be no assurance that SOFR will perform in the same way as LIBOR would have at any time, including, without limitation, as a result of changes in interest and yield rates in the market, market volatility or global or regional economic, financial, political, or regulatory events. For example, since publication of SOFR began in April 2018, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in comparable benchmark or other market rates.

As SOFR is an overnight funding rate, interest on SOFR-based Notes with interest periods longer than overnight will be calculated on the basis of either the arithmetic mean of SOFR over the relevant interest period or compounding SOFR during the relevant interest period. As a consequence of this calculation method, the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date will only be known a short period of time prior to the relevant interest payment date. Noteholders therefore will not know in advance the interest amount which will be payable on such Notes.

Although the Federal Reserve Bank of New York has published historical indicative SOFR information going back to 2014, such prepublication of historical data inherently involves assumptions, estimates and approximations. Noteholders should not rely on any historical changes or trends in the SOFR as an indicator of future changes in the SOFR.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York notes on its publication page for SOFR that use of the SOFR is subject to important limitations and disclaimers, including that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York may alter the methods of calculation, publication schedule, rate revision practices or availability of the SOFR at any time without notice. In addition, SOFR is published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York based on data received from other sources. There can be no guarantee that the SOFR will not be discontinued or fundamentally altered in a manner that is materially adverse to the interests of the Noteholders. If the manner in which the SOFR is calculated is changed or if SOFR is discontinued, that change or discontinuance may result in a reduction or elimination of the amount of interest payable on the Notes and a reduction in the trading prices of the Notes which would negatively impact the Noteholders who could lose part of their investment.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a SOFR Benchmark Event occurs, which is based on the ARRC recommended language. There is however no guarantee that the fallback arrangements will operate as intended at the relevant time or operate on terms commercially acceptable to all Noteholders. Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to SOFR.

The market continues to develop in relation to risk-free rates (including SOFR) as reference rates for floating rate Notes.

Nascent risk-free rates and market

Investors should be aware that the market continues to develop in relation to risk-free rates, such as SOFR, as reference rates in the capital markets for U.S. dollar bonds, as applicable, and their adoption as alternatives to the relevant interbank offered rates.

SOFR are newly established risk-free rates. For example, the Federal Reserve began to publish SOFR in April 2018 and although the New York Federal Reserve has been publishing historical indicative SOFR since 2014, such historical indicative data inherently involves assumptions, estimates and approximations. Therefore, such risk-free rates have a limited performance history and it is impossible to predict the future performance of such risk-free rates. As a consequence no future performance of the relevant risk-free rate or Notes referencing such risk-free rate may be inferred from any of the hypothetical or actual historical performance data. In addition, investors should be aware that risk-free rates may behave materially differently from interbank offered rates as interest reference rates. For example, since the publication of SOFR, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in comparable benchmarks or other market rates.

Calculation of Interest

Interest is calculated on the basis of the compounded risk-free rate (e.g. compounded SOFR), which is calculated using the relevant specific formula set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, not the risk-free rate published on or in respect of a particular date during such Observation Period. For this and other reasons, the interest rate on the notes during any Observation Period will not be the same as the interest rate on other investments linked to the risk-free rate that use an alternative basis to determine the applicable interest rate.

In addition, market conventions for calculating the interest rate for bonds referencing risk-free rates continue to develop and market participants and relevant working groups are exploring alternative reference rates based on risk-free rates. For example, on 2 March 2020, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, as administrator of SOFR, began publishing the SOFR Compounded Index. Accordingly, the specific formula for calculating the rate used in the Notes issued under this Offering Circular may not be widely adopted by other market participants, if at all. The Issuer may in the future also issue Notes referencing risk-free rates that differ materially in terms of interest determination when compared with any previous Notes referencing risk-free rate rates issued by it. If the market adopts a different calculation method, that could adversely affect the market value of Notes issued pursuant to this Offering Circular.

Interest on Notes which reference a risk-free rate is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may be difficult for investors in Notes which reference risk-free rates to reliably estimate the amount of interest which will be payable on such Notes. Further, if the Notes become due and payable under Condition 10, or are otherwise redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest payable shall be determined on the date the Notes became due and payable and shall not be reset thereafter.

Each risk-free rate is published and calculated by third parties based on data received from other sources and the Issuer has no control over their respective determinations, calculations or publications. There can be no guarantee that the relevant risk-free rate (or the SOFR Compounded Index) will not be discontinued or fundamentally altered in a manner that is materially adverse to the interests of investors in Notes linked to or which reference a such risk-free rate (or that any applicable benchmark fallback provisions provided for in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes will provide a rate which is economically equivalent for Holders). The Federal Reserve has no obligation to consider the interests of Holders in calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing the relevant risk-free rate (or the SOFR Compounded Index). If the manner in which the relevant risk-free rate is calculated is changed, that change may result in a reduction of the amount of interest payable on such Notes and the trading prices of such Notes.

Market Adoption

The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of risk-free rates that differs significantly from that set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and used in relation to Notes that reference a risk-free rate issued under this Offering Circular. Investors should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of such reference rates in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of any Notes.

Risks relating to Renminbi-denominated Notes

Notes denominated in Renminbi ("Renminbi Notes") may be issued under the Programme. Renminbi Notes contain particular risks for potential investors.

Renminbi is not freely convertible and there are regulations on the remittance of Renminbi into and outside the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of Renminbi Notes.

Renminbi is not freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between Renminbi and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar, despite significant reduction in control by it in recent years over trade transactions involving import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items.

However, remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for purposes such as capital contributions, known as capital account items, debt financing and securities investment, is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for settlement of capital account items are being adjusted from time to time to match policies of the PRC government.

Although Renminbi was added to the Special Drawing Rights basket created by the International Monetary Fund in 2016, and the People's Bank of China ("PBOC") has implemented policies improving accessibility to Renminbi to settle cross-border transactions in foreign currencies, there is no assurance that the PRC government will gradually liberalise control over cross-border remittance of Renminbi in the future, that any pilot schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or out of the PRC. Despite the Renminbi internationalisation pilot programme and efforts in recent years to internationalise the currency, there can be no assurance that the PRC government will not impose interim or long-term restrictions on the cross-border remittance of Renminbi. In the event that any regulatory restrictions inhibit the ability of the Issuer to repatriate funds outside the PRC to meet its obligations under Notes denominated in Renminbi, the Issuer will need to source Renminbi offshore to finance such obligations under the relevant Notes denominated in Renminbi, and its ability to do so will be subject to overall availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC.

In addition, holders of beneficial interests in the Renminbi Notes may be required to provide certifications and other information (including Renminbi account information) in order to allow such holders to receive payments in Renminbi in accordance with the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong.

There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Notes and the Issuer's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service Renminbi Notes.

As a result of the regulations implemented by the PRC government on Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside the PRC is limited. Currently, licensed banks in Singapore, Hong Kong and Taiwan may offer limited Renminbi-denominated banking services to Singapore residents, Hong Kong residents, Taiwan residents and specified business customers. While the PBOC has entered into agreements on the clearing of Renminbi business with financial institutions in a number of financial centres and cities (the "Renminbi Clearing Banks"), including but not limited to Hong Kong, London, Frankfurt and Singapore, has established the Cross-Border Inter-Bank Payments System (CIPS) to facilitate cross-border Renminbi settlement and is further in the process of establishing Renminbi clearing and settlement mechanisms in several other jurisdictions (the "Settlement Arrangements"), the current size of Renminbi-denominated financial assets outside the PRC remains limited.

There are regulations implemented by the PBOC on Renminbi business participating banks in respect of cross-border Renminbi settlement, such as those relating to direct transactions with PRC enterprises. Furthermore, Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from the PBOC, although the PBOC has gradually allowed participating banks to access the PRC's onshore inter-bank market for the purchase and sale of Renminbi. The Renminbi Clearing Banks only have access to onshore liquidity support from the PBOC to square open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions, including open positions resulting from conversion services for corporations relating to cross-border trade settlement, and are not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services. In such cases, the participating banks will need to source Renminbi from the offshore market to square such open positions.

Although it is expected that the offshore Renminbi market will continue to grow in depth and size, its growth is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the Settlement Arrangements will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside the PRC. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Notes. To the extent the Issuer is required to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service the Renminbi Notes, there is no assurance that the Issuer will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all.

Remittance of proceeds into or out of the PRC in Renminbi is subject to the regulation by the PRC government.

In the event that the Issuer decides to remit some or all of the proceeds into the PRC in Renminbi, its ability to do so will be subject to obtaining all necessary approvals from, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC government authorities. However, there can be no assurance that the necessary approvals from, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC government authorities will be obtained at all or, if obtained, they will not be revoked or amended in the future.

In the event that the Issuer does remit some or all of the proceeds into the PRC in Renminbi and the Issuer subsequently is not able to repatriate funds outside the PRC in Renminbi, it will need to source Renminbi outside the PRC to finance its obligations under the Renminbi Notes, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC.

Investment in the Renminbi Notes is subject to exchange rate risks.

The value of Renminbi against other foreign currencies fluctuates from time to time and is affected by changes in the PRC and international political and economic conditions as well as many other factors. In August 2015, the PBOC changed the way it calculates the mid-point price of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar, requiring the market-makers who submit for the PBOC's reference rates to consider the previous day's closing spot rate, foreign-exchange demand and supply as well as changes in major currency rates. This change, and other changes such as widening the trading band that may be implemented, may increase volatility in the value of the Renminbi against foreign currencies. In May 2017, the PBOC further decided to introduce counter-cyclical factors to offset the market pro-cyclicality, so that the midpoint quotes could adequately reflect China's actual economic performance. However, the volatility in the value of the Renminbi against other currencies still exists.

All payments of interest and principal will be made with respect to the Renminbi Notes in Renminbi unless otherwise specified. As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments may vary with the changes in the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If an investor measures its investment returns by reference to a currency other than Renminbi, an investment in the Renminbi Notes entails foreign exchange-related risks, including possible significant changes in the value of Renminbi relative to the currency by reference to which an investor measures its investment returns. Depreciation of Renminbi against such currency could cause a decrease in the effective yield of the Renminbi Notes below their stated coupon rate(s) and could result in a loss when the return on the Renminbi Notes is translated into such currency. Accordingly, the value of the investment made by a holder of the Renminbi Notes in that foreign currency will decline.

There may be PRC tax consequences with respect to investment in the Renminbi Notes

In considering whether to invest in the Renminbi Notes, investors should consult their individual tax advisers with regard to the application of PRC tax laws to their particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdictions. The value of the holder's investment in the Renminbi Notes may be materially and adversely affected if the holder is required to pay PRC tax with respect to acquiring, holding or disposing of and receiving payments under those Renminbi Notes. In addition, there may be tax consequences for the investor, as a result of any foreign currency gains resulting from any investment in the Renminbi Notes.

Investment in the Renminbi Notes is subject to interest rate risks

The value of Renminbi payments under Renminbi Notes may be susceptible to interest rate fluctuations occurring within and outside the PRC, including PRC Renminbi repo rates and/or the Shanghai inter-bank offered rate. The PRC government has gradually liberalised its regulation of interest rates in recent years. Further liberalisation may increase interest rate volatility. In addition, the interest rate for Renminbi in markets outside the PRC may significantly deviate from the interest rate for Renminbi in the PRC as a result of foreign exchange controls imposed by PRC law and regulations and prevailing market conditions.

As Renminbi Notes may carry a fixed interest rate, the trading price of the Renminbi Notes will consequently vary with the fluctuations in the Renminbi interest rates. If holders of the Renminbi Notes propose to sell their Renminbi Notes before their maturity, they may receive an offer lower than the amount they have invested.

Payments with respect to the Renminbi Notes may be made only in the manner designated in the Renminbi Notes.

All payments to investors in respect of the Renminbi Notes will be made solely:

- (i) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are represented by global certificates held with the common depositary for Clearstream and Euroclear or any alternative clearing system, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained by or on behalf of the holder with a bank in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing Clearstream and Euroclear rules and procedures or those of such alternative clearing system or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank operates, if so specified in the Pricing Supplement;
- (ii) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are represented by global certificates lodged with a sub-custodian for or registered with the CMU, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained by or on behalf of the holder with a bank in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing CMU rules and procedures; or
- (iii) for so long as the Renminbi Notes are in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained by or on behalf of the holder with a bank in Hong Kong or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank operates, if so specified in the Pricing Supplement, in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations. The Issuer cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

Gains on the transfer of the Renminbi Notes may become subject to income taxes under PRC tax laws.

In considering whether to invest in the Renminbi Notes, investors should consult their individual tax advisers with regard to the application of PRC tax laws to their particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdictions. The value of the holder's investment in the Renminbi Notes may be materially and adversely affected if the holder is required to pay PRC tax with respect to acquiring, holding or disposing of and receiving payments under those Renminbi Notes.

If the Issuer is unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in its debt agreements, this could constitute a default under the terms of such agreements or the Notes, which could cause repayment of its debt to be accelerated.

If the Issuer or the relevant subsidiaries are unable to comply with the restrictions (including restrictions on the Group's future investments) and covenants in its current or future debt obligations and other agreements, a default under the terms of such agreements may occur.

In the event of a default under such agreements, the holders of the debt could terminate their commitments to the Issuer or its subsidiaries, accelerate the debt and declare all amounts borrowed due and payable or terminate the agreements, as the case may be. Some of the financing arrangements entered into by the Issuer and its subsidiaries may contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions. As a result, a default by the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries under any such agreements may cause the acceleration of repayment of not only such debt but also other debts, or result in a default under other debt agreements. If any such events occur, there can be no assurance that the assets and cash flows of the Issuer or its subsidiaries would be sufficient to repay in full all of their respective debts as they become due, or that the Issuer or its subsidiaries would be able to find alternative financing. Even if the Issuer and its subsidiaries could obtain alternative financing, there can be no assurance that it would be on terms that are favourable or acceptable to the Issuer or its subsidiaries.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions that, save for the words in italics and subject to completion and amendment and as supplemented or varied in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Pricing Supplement, shall be applicable to the Notes in definitive form (if any) issued in exchange for the Global Note(s) or the Global Certificate(s) representing each Series. Either (i) the full text of these terms and conditions together with the relevant provisions of the Pricing Supplement or (ii) these terms and conditions as so completed, amended, supplemented or varied (and subject to simplification by the deletion of non-applicable provisions), shall be endorsed on such Bearer Notes or on the Certificates relating to such Registered Notes. All capitalised terms that are not defined in these Conditions will have the meanings given to them in the relevant Pricing Supplement or in the Trust Deed. Those definitions will be endorsed on the definitive Notes or Certificates, as the case may be. References in these Conditions to "Notes" are to the Notes of one Series only, not to all Notes that may be issued under the Programme.

The Notes are constituted by an amended and restated trust deed (as amended and/or supplemented from time to time and as at the date of issue of the Notes (the "Issue Date"), the "Trust Deed") dated 15 September 2023 between the Issuer and The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (the "Trustee", which expression shall include all persons for the time being the trustee or trustees under the Trust Deed) as trustee for the Noteholders (as defined below). These terms and conditions (these "Conditions") include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Trust Deed, which includes the form of the Bearer Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons and Talons referred to below. An amended and restated agency agreement (as amended and/or supplemented from time to time and as at the Issue Date, the "Agency Agreement") dated 15 September 2023 has been entered into in relation to the Notes between the Issuer, the Trustee, The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited as initial issuing and paying agent, The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited as CMU lodging and paying agent for Notes to be held in the Central Moneymarkets Unit Service operated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (the "CMU") and the other agents named in it. The issuing and paying agent, the CMU lodging and paying agent, the other paying agents, the registrar, the transfer agents and the calculation agent(s) for the time being (if any) are referred to below respectively as the "Issuing and Paying Agent", the "CMU Lodging and Paying Agent", the "Paying Agents" (which expression shall include the Issuing and Paying Agent and the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent), the "Registrar", the "Transfer Agents" and the "Calculation Agent(s)" and collectively, the "Agents". For the purposes of these Conditions, all references to the Issuing and Paying Agent shall, with respect to a Series of Notes to be held in the CMU, be deemed to be a reference to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent and all such references shall be construed accordingly.

Copies of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement are available for inspection, or electronically by written request to hkcorporate.trust.queries@hsbc.com.hk, at all reasonable times during usual business hours (being between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.) at the principal office of the Trustee (being at the date of the Trust Deed at Level 24, HSBC Main Building, 1 Queen's Road Central, Hong Kong) and at the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent following prior written request and proof of holding and identity satisfactory to the Trustee or, as the case may be, the Issuing and Paying Agent.

The Noteholders, the holders of the interest coupons (the "Coupons") relating to interest bearing Notes in bearer form and, where applicable in the case of such Notes, talons for further Coupons (the "Talons") (the "Couponholders") and the holders of the receipts for the payment of instalments of principal (the "Receipts") relating to Notes in bearer form of which the principal is payable in instalments are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Trust Deed and are deemed to have notice of those provisions applicable to them of the Agency Agreement.

All capitalised terms that are not defined in these terms and conditions (the "Conditions") will have the meanings given to them in the Trust Deed or in the relevant Pricing Supplement. As used in these Conditions, "Tranche" means Notes which are identical in all respects.

1. Form, Denomination and Title

The Notes are issued in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") or in registered form ("Registered Notes") in each case in the Specified Denomination(s) shown hereon.

This Note is a Fixed Rate Note, a Floating Rate Note, a Zero Coupon Note, an Index Linked Interest Note, an Index Linked Redemption Note, an Instalment Note, a Dual Currency Note or a Partly Paid Note, a combination of any of the foregoing or any other kind of Note, depending upon the Interest and Redemption/Payment Basis shown hereon.

Bearer Notes are serially numbered and are issued with Coupons (and, where appropriate, a Talon) attached, save in the case of Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to interest (other than in relation to interest due after the Maturity Date), Coupons and Talons in these Conditions are not applicable. Instalment Notes are issued with one or more Receipts attached.

Registered Notes are represented by registered certificates ("Certificates") and, save as provided in Condition 2(c), each Certificate shall represent the entire holding of Registered Notes by the same holder.

Title to the Bearer Notes and the Receipts, Coupons and Talons shall pass by delivery. Title to the Registered Notes shall pass by registration in the register that the Issuer shall procure to be kept by the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement (the "Register"). Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the holder (as defined below) of any Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon shall be deemed to be and shall be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest in it, any writing on it (or on the Certificate representing it) or its theft or loss (or that of the relevant Certificate) and no person shall be liable for so treating the holder.

In these Conditions, "Noteholder" means the bearer of any Bearer Note and the Receipts relating to it or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be), "holder" (in relation to a Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon) means the bearer of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be) and capitalised terms have the meanings given to them hereon, the absence of any such meaning indicating that such term is not applicable to the Notes.

(a) No Exchange of Notes: Registered Notes may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes. Bearer Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes of another Specified Denomination. Bearer Notes may not be exchanged for Registered Notes.

In the case of a transfer of part only of a holding of Registered Notes represented by one Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Certificate in respect of the balance of the holding not transferred shall be issued to the transferor. All transfers of Notes and entries on the Register will be made subject to the detailed regulations concerning transfers of Notes scheduled to the Agency Agreement. The regulations may be changed by the Issuer, with the prior written approval of the Registrar and the Trustee, or by the Registrar with the prior written approval of the Trustee. A copy of the current regulations will be made available for inspection by the Registrar to any Noteholder following written request and proof of holding and identity satisfactory to the Registrar at all reasonable times during normal business hours at the specified office of the Registrar.

Transfer of interests in the Notes evidenced by the Global Certificate will be effected in accordance with the rules of the relevant clearing systems.

- (c) Exercise of Options or Partial Redemption in Respect of Registered Notes: In the case of an exercise of an Issuer's or Noteholders' option in respect of, or a partial redemption of, a holding of Registered Notes represented by a single Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the holder to reflect the exercise of such option or in respect of the balance of the holding not redeemed. In the case of a partial exercise of an option resulting in Registered Notes of the same holding having different terms, separate Certificates shall be issued in respect of those Notes of that holding that have the same terms. New Certificates shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Certificates to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. In the case of a transfer of Registered Notes to a person who is already a holder of Registered Notes, a new Certificate representing the enlarged holding shall only be issued against surrender of the Certificate representing the existing holding.

In this Condition 2 (d), "business day" means a day, other than a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, on which banks are open for business in the place of the specified office of the relevant Transfer Agent or the Registrar (as the case may be).

3. Status

The Notes and the Receipts and Coupons relating to them constitute direct, unsubordinated, unconditional and (subject to Condition 4(a)) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and shall at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves. The payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and the Receipts and the Coupons relating to them shall, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable legislation and subject to Condition 4(a), at all times rank at least equally with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness and monetary obligations of the Issuer, present and future.

The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(h).

(b) Interest on Floating Rate Notes and Index Linked Interest Notes:

(i) Interest Payment Dates: Each Floating Rate Note and Index Linked Interest Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(h). (ii) Business Day Convention: If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day that is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (A) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (x) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (y) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (B) the Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day, (C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(iii) Rate of Interest for Floating Rate Notes: The Rate of Interest in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined in the manner specified hereon and the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate Determination shall apply, depending upon which is specified hereon.

(A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), "ISDA Rate" for an Interest Accrual Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (x) the Floating Rate Option is as specified hereon;
- (y) the Designated Maturity is a period specified hereon; and
- (z) the relevant Reset Date is the first day of that Interest Accrual Period unless otherwise specified hereon.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), "Floating Rate", "Calculation Agent", "Floating Rate Option", "Designated Maturity", "Reset Date" and "Swap Transaction" have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

- (B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes (other than Floating Rate Notes where the Reference Rate is specified as being SOFR Benchmark)

- (x) Where Screen Rate Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined where the Reference Rate is not SOFR Benchmark, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (1) the offered quotation; or
- (2) the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at either 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time in the case of EURIBOR or Hong Kong time in the case of HIBOR) on the Interest Determination Date in question as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations.

If the Reference Rate from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes is specified hereon as being other than EURIBOR or HIBOR, the Rate of Interest in respect of such Notes will be determined as provided hereon; and

- (y) if the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, sub-paragraph (x)(1) applies and no such offered quotation appears on the Relevant Screen Page or if sub paragraph (x)(2) above applies and fewer than three such offered quotations appear on the Relevant Screen Page in each case as at the time specified above, subject as provided below, the Calculation Agent shall promptly inform the Issuer and the Issuer shall use its best endeavours to appoint an Independent Investment Bank and procure such Independent Investment Bank to request, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of each of the Reference Banks or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, the principal Hong Kong office of each of the Reference Banks, each to provide the Independent Investment Bank and the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Independent Investment Bank and the Calculation Agent with such offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Accrual Period shall be the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations as determined by the Calculation Agent; and

- (z) if paragraph (y) above applies and the Calculation Agent has received quotations from fewer than two Reference Banks, subject as provided below, (i) the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) as communicated at the request of the Independent Investment Bank to the Independent Investment Bank and the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market, or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, the Hong Kong inter-bank market, as the case may be, or, (ii) if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Independent Investment Bank and the Calculation Agent with such offered rates referred to in (i) above, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time), or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Independent Investment Bank suitable for such purpose) informs the Independent Investment Bank and the Calculation Agent it is quoting to leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market, or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR, the Hong Kong inter-bank market, as the case may be, provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (z), the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period, in place of the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period).

For the purposes of this Condition 5(b)(iii)(B), "Independent Investment Bank" means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise (which shall not be the Calculation Agent) appointed by (and at the expense of) the Issuer for the purposes of this Condition 5(b)(iii)(B) and notified in writing by the Issuer to the Calculation Agent and the Trustee.

(C) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes where the Reference Rate is specified as being SOFR Benchmark

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined where the Reference Rate is SOFR Benchmark, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will, subject as provided below, be equal to the relevant SOFR Benchmark plus or minus the Margin (if any) in accordance with Condition 5(g), all as determined by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Interest Determination Date.

The "SOFR Benchmark" will be determined based on Simple SOFR Average, Compounded Daily SOFR or SOFR Index, as follows (subject in each case to Condition 5(n) as further specified hereon):

- (x) If Simple SOFR Average ("Simple SOFR Average") is specified hereon as the manner in which the SOFR Benchmark will be determined, the SOFR Benchmark for each Interest Accrual Period shall be the arithmetic mean of the SOFR reference rates for each day during the period, as calculated by the Calculation Agent, and where, if applicable and as specified hereon, the SOFR reference rate on the SOFR Rate Cut-Off Date shall be used for the days in the period from (and including) the SOFR Rate Cut-Off Date to (but excluding) the Interest Period Date.
- (y) If Compounded Daily SOFR ("Compounded Daily SOFR") is specified hereon as the manner in which the SOFR Benchmark will be determined, the SOFR Benchmark for each Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the compounded average of daily SOFR reference rates for each day during the relevant Interest Accrual Period (where SOFR Lag, SOFR Payment Delay or SOFR Lockout is specified as applicable hereon to determine Compounded Daily SOFR) or the SOFR Observation Period (where SOFR Observation Shift is specified as applicable hereon to determine Compounded Daily SOFR).

Compounded Daily SOFR shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent in accordance with one of the formulas referenced below depending upon which is specified as applicable hereon:

(1) SOFR Lag:

- (l) Calculation Agent: The Issuer shall procure that there shall at all times be one or more Calculation Agents if provision is made for them hereon and for so long as any Note is outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed). Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Notes, references in these Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under these Conditions. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish the Rate of Interest for an Interest Accrual Period or to calculate any Interest Amount, Instalment Amount, Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount or Optional Redemption Amount, as the case may be, or to comply with any other requirement, the Issuer shall (with prior written notice to the Trustee) appoint a leading bank or financial institution of international repute engaged in the inter-bank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter index options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal London office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been appointed as aforesaid. If the Calculation Agent is unable (other than due to its own gross negligence, willful default or fraud) to make any calculation under this Condition 5 or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer thereof and the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and (in the absence of such gross negligence, willful default or fraud) shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

(m) Benchmark discontinuation (general)

(i) Independent Adviser

Other than in the case of a U.S. dollar-denominated Floating Rate Notes where Benchmark Discontinuation (SOFR) is specified as applicable hereon, if a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, with a view to the Issuer determining a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5(m)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread if any (in accordance with Condition 5(m)(iii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5(m)(iv)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 5(m) shall act in good faith as an expert and (in the absence of bad faith or fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it or for any advice given to the Issuer in connection with any determination made by the Issuer, pursuant to this Condition 5(m).

If (i) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (ii) the Issuer fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 5(m) prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Period. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest shall be the initial Rate of Interest. Where a different Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Period shall be substituted in place of the Margin or Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Period. For the avoidance of doubt, this Condition 5(m) shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Interest Period only and any subsequent Interest Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this Condition 5(m)(i).

(ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, determines in its sole discretion that:

- (A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 5(m)(iii))

subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 5(m)); or

- (B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 5(m)(iii)) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 5(m)).

(iii) Adjustment Spread

If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, determines in its sole discretion (A) that an Adjustment Spread is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and (B) the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then such Adjustment Spread shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

(iv) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate or Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 5(m) and the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, determines in its sole discretion (A) that amendments to these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the "Benchmark Amendments") and (B) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 5(m)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders, the Trustee or the Agents, vary these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, but subject to receipt by the Trustee and the Agents of a certificate signed by an Authorised Signatory pursuant to Condition 5(m)(v), the Trustee and/or the Agents shall (at the expense of the Issuer), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, be obliged to concur with the Issuer to vary these Conditions, the Notes, the Trust Deed and/or the Agency Agreement to give effect to any Benchmark Amendments (including, inter alia, by the execution of a deed supplemental to or amending the Trust Deed) and neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be liable to any party thereof, provided that neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be bound or obliged to give effect to any Benchmark Adjustment if in the opinion of the Trustee and/or any of the Agents, the same will not be operable or doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the rights and/or the protective provisions afforded to the Trustee and/or any of the Agents in these Conditions or the Trust Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental trust deed), the Agency Agreement and/or any other documents to which it is a party in any way.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 5(m)(iv), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

(v) Notices, etc.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 5(m) will be notified at least 5 Business Days prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 16, the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Trustee and the Agents of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by an Authorised Signatory of the Issuer:

- (A) confirming (I) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (II) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate and, (III) where applicable, any Adjustment Spread and/or the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 5(m); and
- (B) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread.

The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread (if any) and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread (if any) and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the Trustee's ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Agents and the Noteholders. Neither the Trustee nor any Agent shall be responsible or liable for any determinations, decisions or elections made by the Issuer or its designee with respect to the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread (if any) and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) or any other changes proposed by the Issuer or its designee in accordance with this Condition 5(m).

(vi) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under Conditions 5(m)(i), 5(m)(ii), 5(m)(iii) and 5(m)(iv), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Conditions 5(b)(iii)(B)(y) and 5(b)(iii)(B)(z) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

(vii) Definitions:

As used in this Condition 5(m):

"Adjustment Spread" means either a spread (which may be positive or negative), or the formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, determines in its sole discretion is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders, Receipholders and Couponholders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (A) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or (if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate).
- (B) the Issuer determines in its sole discretion, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); (or if the Issuer determines that no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged).
- (C) the Issuer, in its sole discretion, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith, determines to be appropriate.

"Alternative Rate" means an alternative to the Reference Rate which the Issuer following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith determines in accordance with Condition 5(m)(ii) is customary in market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) in the same Specified Currency as the Notes.

"Benchmark Amendments" has the meaning given to it in Condition 5(m)(iv).

"Benchmark Event" means:

- (A) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for a period of at least 5 Business Days or ceasing to exist; or
- (B) a public statement by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it will, by a specified date within the following six months, cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate); or
- (C) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate, that the Original Reference Rate has been or will, by a specified date within the following six months, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (D) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate as a consequence of which the Original Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used either generally, or in respect of the Notes, in each case within the following six months; or
- (E) it has become unlawful for any Paying Agent, Calculation Agent, the Issuer or other party to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder using the Original Reference Rate.

For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Trustee, the Agents nor the Calculation Agent shall have any responsibility for making such determination.

"Independent Adviser" means an independent financial institution of international repute or an independent financial adviser with appropriate expertise appointed by the Issuer under Condition 5(m)(i).

"Original Reference Rate" means the originally-specified Reference Rate used to determine the Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) on the Notes.

- (A) the central bank for the currency to which the Reference Rate relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Reference Rate; or
- (B) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (I) the central bank for the currency to which the Reference Rate relates, (II) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Reference Rate, (III) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (IV) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof.

"Successor Rate" means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(n) Benchmark discontinuation (SOFR):

This Condition 5(n) shall only apply to U.S. dollar-denominated Notes where so specified hereon.

The following provisions, in addition to and notwithstanding the terms set forth elsewhere in these Conditions, shall apply if Benchmark Discontinuation (SOFR) is specified as applicable hereon:

(i) Benchmark Replacement

If the Issuer or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

(ii) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes

In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Issuer or its designee will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee and any of the Agents shall, at the direction and expense of the Issuer, effect such consequential amendments to the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and these Conditions as may be required to give effect to this Condition 5(n). Noteholders' consent shall not be required in connection with effecting any such changes, including the execution of any documents or any steps to be taken by the Trustee or any of the Agents (if required). Neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be liable to any party thereof for such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes or any consequential amendments to the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and these Conditions, provided that neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be bound or obliged to give effect to any such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes or any consequential amendments if in the opinion of the Trustee and/or any of the Agents, the same will not be operable or doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the rights and/or the protective provisions afforded to the Trustee and/or any of the Agents in these Conditions or the Trust Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental trust deed), the Agency Agreement and/ or any other documents to which it is a party in any way. Further, none of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registrars or the Transfer Agents shall be responsible or liable for any determinations, decisions or elections made by the Issuer or its designee with respect to any Benchmark Replacement or any other changes and shall be entitled to rely conclusively on any certifications provided to each of them in this regard.

(iii) Decisions and Determinations

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Issuer or its designee pursuant to this Condition 5(n), including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection (A) will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error, (B) will be made in the sole discretion of the Issuer or its designee, as applicable, and (C) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documentation relating to the Notes, shall become effective without consent from the holders of the Notes or any other party. Neither the Trustee nor any Agent shall be responsible or liable for any determinations, decisions or elections made by the Issuer or its designee with respect to the Benchmark Replacement, Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes or any other changes proposed by the Issuer or its designee in accordance with this Condition 5(m).

(iv) The following defined terms shall have the meanings set out below for purpose of this Condition 5(n):

"Benchmark" means, initially, the relevant SOFR Benchmark specified hereon; provided that if the Issuer or its designee determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the relevant SOFR Benchmark

(including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) or the then-current Benchmark, then "Benchmark" means the applicable Benchmark Replacement;

"Benchmark Event" means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (A) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or
- (B) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark

(or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark, which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

- (C) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing that the Benchmark is no longer representative;

"Benchmark Replacement" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Issuer or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

 - (x) the alternate reference rate that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof); and
 - (y) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;
- (B) the sum of:
 - (x) the ISDA Fallback Rate; and
 - (y) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or
- (C) the sum of:
 - (x) the alternate reference rate that has been selected by the Issuer or its designee as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) giving due consideration to any industry-accepted reference rate as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) for U.S. dollar-denominated Floating Rate Notes at such time; and
 - (y) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

"Benchmark Replacement Adjustment" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Issuer or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (B) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (C) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Issuer or its designee giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated Floating Rate Notes at such time;

"Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes" means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors, and other administrative matters) the Issuer or its designee decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Issuer or its designee decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Issuer or its designee determine that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Issuer or its designee determines is reasonably necessary);

"Benchmark Replacement Date" means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (A) in the case of sub-paragraph (A) or (B) of the definition of "Benchmark Event", the later of:
 - (x) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein; and
 - (y) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or
- (B) in the case of sub-paragraph (C) of the definition of "Benchmark Event", the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event giving rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination;

"designee" means a designee as selected and separately appointed by the Issuer in writing;

"ISDA Fallback Rate" means the rate that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be effective upon the occurrence of an index cessation date with respect to the Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof) for the applicable tenor excluding the applicable ISDA Fallback Adjustment;

"Reference Time" with respect to any determination of the Benchmark means (A) if the Benchmark is the SOFR Benchmark, the SOFR Determination Time (where Simple SOFR Average or Compounded Daily SOFR is specified as applicable hereon) or SOFR Index Determination Time (where SOFR Index is specified as applicable hereon), or (B) if the Benchmark is not the SOFR Benchmark, the time determined by the Issuer or its designee after giving effect to the Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes;

"Relevant Governmental Body" means the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or any successor thereto; and

6. Redemption, Purchase and Options

(a) Redemption by Instalments and Final Redemption:

- (i) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided in this Condition 6, each Note that provides for Instalment Dates and Instalment Amounts shall be partially redeemed on each Instalment Date at the related Instalment Amount specified hereon. The outstanding nominal amount of each such Note shall be reduced by the Instalment Amount (or, if such Instalment Amount is calculated by reference to a proportion of the nominal amount of such Note, such proportion) for all purposes with effect from the related Instalment Date, unless payment of the Instalment Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the Relevant Date relating to such Instalment Amount.
- (ii) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided below, each Note shall be finally redeemed on the Maturity Date specified hereon at its Final Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided hereon, is its nominal amount) or, in the case of a Note falling within Condition 6(a) (i) above, its final Instalment Amount.

(b) Early Redemption:

- (i) Zero Coupon Notes:
 - (A) The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note, the Early Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/ or a formula, upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 6(c), Condition 6(d) or Condition 6(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 shall be the Amortised Face Amount (calculated as provided below) of such Note unless otherwise specified hereon.
 - (B) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (C) below of this Condition 6(b)(i), the Amortised Face Amount of any such Note shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date discounted at a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (which, if none is shown hereon, shall be such rate as would produce an Amortised Face Amount equal to the issue price of the Notes if they were discounted back to their issue price on the Issue Date) compounded annually.

- (C) If the Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon its redemption pursuant to Condition 6(c), Condition 6(d) or Condition 6(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortised Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (B) above of this Condition 6(b)(i), except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were the Relevant Date. The calculation of the Amortised Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph shall continue to be made (both before and after judgment) until the Relevant Date, unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date together with any interest that may accrue in accordance with Condition 5(c).

Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction shown hereon.

- (ii) Other Notes: The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Note (other than Notes described in Condition 6(b)(i) above), upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 6(c), Condition 6(d) or Condition 6(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10, shall be the Final Redemption Amount unless otherwise specified hereon.
- (iii) Calculations: None of the Trustee or the Agents shall be under any duty to determine, calculate or verify the redemption amount payable under this Condition 6 and will not be responsible or liable to Noteholders or any other person for any loss arising from any failure by it to do so.
- (c) Redemption for Taxation Reasons: The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is either a Floating Rate Note or an Index Linked Interest Note) or at any time (if this Note is neither a Floating Rate Note nor an Index Linked Interest Note), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable) and to the Trustee and the Issuing and Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent in writing, at their Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 6(b) above) (together with interest accrued to but excluding the date fixed for redemption), if the Issuer satisfies the Trustee immediately before the giving of such notice that (i) it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as described under Condition 8 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Hong Kong or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of the Notes, and (ii) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due. Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition 6(c), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (A) a certificate signed by an Authorised Signatory of the Issuer stating that the obligation referred to in (i) above of this Condition 6(c) cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it and (B) an opinion of independent legal or tax advisers of recognised standing to the effect that such change or amendment as is referred to in (i) above of this Condition 6(c) has occurred (irrespective of whether such amendment or change is then effective). The Trustee shall be entitled to accept such certificate and opinion as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set out in (i) and (ii) above of this Condition 6(c), in which event the same shall be conclusive and binding on Noteholders and Couponholders.

- (d) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer: If Call Option is specified hereon, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) and to the Trustee and the Issuing and Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent in writing, redeem all or, if so provided, some of the Notes on any Optional Redemption Date. Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their Optional Redemption Amount specified hereon (which may be the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 6(b) above)), together with interest accrued to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. Any such redemption or exercise must relate to Notes of a nominal amount at least equal to the Minimum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon and no greater than the Maximum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon.

All Notes in respect of which any such notice is given shall be redeemed on the date specified in such notice in accordance with this Condition 6 (d).

In the case of a partial redemption the notice to Noteholders shall also contain the certificate numbers of the Bearer Notes, or in the case of Registered Notes shall specify the nominal amount of Registered Notes drawn and the holder(s) of such Registered Notes, to be redeemed, which shall have been drawn in such place as the Trustee may approve and in such manner as it deems appropriate, subject to compliance with any applicable laws and stock exchange or other relevant authority requirements.

- (e) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders: If Put Option is specified hereon, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any such Note, upon the holder of such Note giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Issuer (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date(s) at its Optional Redemption Amount specified hereon (which may be the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 6(b) above)), together with interest accrued to but excluding the date fixed for redemption.

To exercise such option the holder must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Note (together with all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly completed option exercise notice (an "Exercise Notice") in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable) within the notice period. No Note or Certificate so deposited and option exercised may be withdrawn (except as provided in the Agency Agreement) without the prior consent of the Issuer.

- (f) Redemption for Change of Control: At any time following the occurrence of a Change of Control, the holder of each Note will have the right, at such holder's option, to require the Issuer to redeem all, but not some only, of such holder's Notes on the Change of Control Put Date at 101 per cent. of their principal amount, together with interest accrued to but excluding the Change of Control Put Date.

To exercise such right, the holder of the relevant Note must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Note (together with all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly completed notice of redemption, in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable) (a "Change of Control Put Exercise Notice") by not later than 60 days following a Change of Control or, if later, 60 days following the date upon which notice thereof is given to Noteholders by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 16. The "Change of Control Put Date" shall be the fourteenth day after the expiry of such period of 60 days as referred to above.

A Change of Control Put Exercise Notice, once delivered, shall be irrevocable and the Issuer shall redeem the Notes the subject of Change of Control Put Exercise Notices delivered as aforesaid on the Change of Control Put Date.

The Issuer shall give notice to the Noteholders (in accordance with Condition 16) and to the Trustee and the Issuing and Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent in writing by not later than 14 days following the first day on which it becomes aware of the occurrence of a Change of Control, which notice shall specify the procedure for exercise by holders of their rights to require redemption of the Notes pursuant to this Condition 6(f).

Neither the Trustee nor the Agents shall be required to monitor whether a Change of Control or any event which could lead to the occurrence of a Change of Control has occurred and none of them shall be liable to Noteholders or any other person for not doing so.

For the purposes of this Condition 6(f):

Whenever the Trustee is required or entitled by the terms of the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement or the Conditions to exercise any discretion or power, take any action, make any decision or give any direction, the Trustee is entitled, prior to exercising any such discretion or power, taking any such action, making any such decision or giving any such direction, to seek directions from the Noteholders by way of Extraordinary Resolution, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any loss or liability incurred by the Issuer, the Noteholders or any other person as a result of any delay in it exercising such discretion or power, taking such action, making such decision or giving such direction as a result of seeking such direction from the Noteholders or in the event that no direction is given to the Trustee by the Noteholders except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Trustee's own gross negligence, wilful default or fraud was the direct and primary cause of any such loss or liability. None of the Trustee or any Agent shall be liable to any Noteholder, the Issuer or any other person for any action taken by the Trustee or such Agent in accordance with the instructions of the Noteholders. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any direction, request or resolution of Noteholders given by holders of the requisite principal amount of Notes outstanding or passed at a meeting of Noteholders convened and held in accordance with the Trust Deed.

None of the Trustee or any of the Agents shall be responsible for the performance by the Issuer and any other person appointed by the Issuer in relation to the Notes of the duties and obligations on their part expressed in respect of the same and, unless it has written notice from the Issuer to the contrary, the Trustee and each Agent shall be entitled to assume that the same are being duly performed. 14. Replacement of Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons and Talons

If a Note, Certificate, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is mutilated, defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, it may be replaced, subject to applicable laws, regulations and stock exchange or other relevant authority regulations, at the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent (in the case of Bearer Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons) and of the Registrar (in the case of Certificates) or such other Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, as the case may be, as may from time to time be designated by the Issuer for that purpose and notice of whose designation is given to Noteholders, in each case on payment by the claimant of the fees and costs incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence, security and indemnity (which may provide, inter alia, that if the allegedly lost, stolen or destroyed Note, Certificate, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is subsequently presented for payment or, as the case may be, for exchange for further Coupons, there shall be paid to the Issuer on demand the amount payable by the Issuer in respect of such Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons or further Coupons) and otherwise as the Issuer or the References in these Conditions to the Notes include (unless the context requires otherwise) any such other securities issued pursuant to this Condition 15 and forming a single series with the Notes. Any further securities forming a single series with the outstanding Notes constituted by the Trust Deed or any deed supplemental to it shall be constituted by a deed supplemental to the Trust Deed. The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening a single meeting of the Noteholders and the holders of securities of other series where the Trustee so decides.

16. Notices

Notices to the holders of Registered Notes shall be mailed to them at their respective addresses in the Register and deemed to have been given on the fourth weekday (being a day other than a Saturday or a Sunday) after the date of mailing or, if such publication is not practicable, published in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Asia (which is expected to be the Asian Wall Street Journal). Notices to the holders of Bearer Notes shall be valid if published in a leading newspaper of general circulation in Asia (which is expected to be the Asian Wall Street Journal). If in the opinion of the Trustee any such publication is not practicable, notice shall be validly given if published in another leading daily English language newspaper with general circulation in Asia. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such publication or, if published more than once or on different dates, on the first date on which publication is made, as provided above.

So long as the Global Note or, as the case may be, the Global Certificate is deposited with a sub-custodian for the CMU, notices to Noteholders represented by the Global Note or, as the case may be, the Global Certificate may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to persons shown in a CMU Issue Position Report issued by the CMU on the business day prior to the date of despatch of such notice. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders on the second day after the day on which such notice is delivered to the persons shown in the relevant CMU Issue Position Report.

17. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Initial Issue of Notes

Global Notes and Global Certificates may be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream (the "Common Depositary") or a sub-custodian for the CMU.

Upon the initial deposit of a Global Note or a Global Certificate with the Common Depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream or with a sub-custodian for the CMU or registration of Registered Notes in the name of (i) any nominee for the Common Depositary or (ii) the Hong Kong Monetary Authority as operator of the CMU and delivery of the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate to the Common Depositary or the sub-custodian for the CMU (as the case may be), Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU (as the case may be) will credit each subscriber with a nominal amount of Notes equal to the nominal amount thereof for which it has subscribed and paid.

Notes that are initially deposited with the Common Depositary may also be credited to the accounts of subscribers with (if indicated in the relevant Pricing Supplement) other clearing systems through direct or indirect accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream held by such other clearing systems. Conversely, Notes that are initially deposited with any other clearing system may similarly be credited to the accounts of subscribers with Euroclear, Clearstream or other clearing systems.

Relationship of Accountholders with Clearing Systems

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any other clearing system ("Alternative Clearing System") as the holder of a Note represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate must look solely to Euroclear, Clearstream or any such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be) for his share of each payment made by the Issuer to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Notes or Global Certificates, subject to and in accordance with the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be). Such persons shall have no claim directly against the Issuer in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and such obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, in respect of each amount so paid.

If a Global Note or a Global Certificate is lodged with a sub-custodian for or registered with the CMU, the person(s) for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in accordance with the CMU Rules shall be the only person(s) entitled (or, in the case of Registered Notes, directed or deemed by the CMU as entitled) to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, such person(s) for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of the CMU, as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate must look solely to the CMU for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer in respect of such Global Note or Global Certificate.

Exchange

Temporary Global Notes

Each temporary Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date:

- (i) if the relevant Pricing Supplement indicates that such Global Note is issued in compliance with the C Rules or in a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable (as to which, see "Summary of the Programme — Selling Restrictions"), in whole, but not in part, for the Definitive Notes defined and described below; and

- (ii) otherwise, in whole or in part upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement for interests in a permanent Global Note or, if so provided in the relevant Pricing Supplement, for Definitive Notes.

The CMU may require that any such exchange for a permanent Global Note is made in whole and not in part and in such event, no such exchange will be effected until all relevant account holders (as set out in a CMU Issue Position Report (as defined in the rules of the CMU) or any other relevant notification supplied to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent by the CMU) have so certified.

The holder of a temporary Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification, exchange of the temporary Global Note for an interest in a permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

Permanent Global Notes

Each permanent Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date in whole but not, except as provided under "Partial Exchange of permanent Global Notes" below, in part for Definitive Notes: (i) if the permanent Global Note is held on behalf of Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or an Alternative Clearing System and any such clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or in fact does so; or (ii) if principal in respect of any Notes is not paid when due, by the holder giving notice to the Issuing and Paying Agent or CMU Lodging and Paying Agent (as applicable) of its election for such exchange.

In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, such Definitive Notes shall be issued in Specified Denomination(s) only. A Noteholder who holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

Global Certificates

The following will apply in respect of transfers of Notes held in Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or an Alternative Clearing System. These provisions will not prevent the trading of interests in the Notes within a clearing system whilst they are held on behalf of such clearing system, but will limit the circumstances in which the Notes may be withdrawn from the relevant clearing system. Transfers of the holding of Notes represented by any Global Certificate pursuant to Condition 2(b) may only be made in part:

- (i) if the relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or does in fact do so; or
- (ii) upon or following any failure to pay principal in respect of any Notes when it is due and payable, provided that, in the case of the first transfer of part of a holding pursuant to paragraph (i) or (ii) above, the Registered Holder has given the Registrar not less than 30 days' notice at its specified office of the Registered Holder's intention to effect such transfer.

Partial Exchange of Permanent Global Notes

For so long as a permanent Global Note is held on behalf of a clearing system and the rules of that clearing system permit, such permanent Global Note will be exchangeable in part on one or more occasions for Definitive Notes (i) if principal in respect of any Notes is not paid when due or (ii) if so provided in, and in accordance with, the Conditions (which will be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement) relating to Partly Paid Notes.

Delivery of Notes

On or after any due date for exchange, the holder of a Global Note may surrender such Global Note or, in the case of a partial exchange, present it for endorsement to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent).

In exchange for any Global Note, or the part thereof to be exchanged, the Issuer will (i) in the case of a temporary Global Note exchangeable for a permanent Global Note, deliver, or procure the delivery of, a permanent Global Note in an aggregate nominal amount equal to that of the whole or that part of a temporary Global Note that is being exchanged or, in the case of a subsequent exchange, endorse, or procure the endorsement of, a permanent Global Note to reflect such exchange or (ii) in the case of a Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes, deliver, or procure the delivery of, an equal aggregate nominal amount of duly executed and authenticated Definitive Notes. Global Notes, Global Certificates and Definitive Notes will be delivered outside the United States and its possessions. In this Offering Circular, "Definitive Notes" means, in relation to any Global Note, the definitive Bearer Notes for which such Global Note may be exchanged (if appropriate, having attached to them all Coupons and Receipts in respect of interest or Instalment Amounts that have not already been paid on the Global Note and a Talon). Definitive Notes will be security printed in accordance with any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements in or substantially in the form set out in the Schedules to the Trust Deed. On exchange in full of each permanent Global Note, the Issuer will, if the holder so requests, procure that it is cancelled and returned to the holder together with the relevant Definitive Notes.

Exchange Date

"Exchange Date" means, in relation to a temporary Global Note, the day falling after the expiry of 40 days after its issue date and, in relation to a permanent Global Note, a day falling not less than 60 days, or in the case of failure to pay principal in respect of any Notes when due 30 days, after that on which the notice requiring exchange is given and on which banks are open for business in the city in which the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent is located and in the city in which the relevant clearing system is located.

Amendment to Conditions

The temporary Global Notes, permanent Global Notes and Global Certificates contain provisions that apply to the Notes that they represent, some of which modify the effect of the terms and conditions of the Notes set out in this Offering Circular. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments

No payment falling due after the Exchange Date will be made on any Global Note unless exchange for an interest in a permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

Payments on any temporary Global Note issued in compliance with the D Rules before the Exchange Date will only be made against presentation of certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement. All payments in respect of Notes represented by a Global Note (except with respect to a Global Note held through the CMU) will be made against presentation for endorsement and, if no further payment falls to be made in respect of the Notes, surrender of that Global Note to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent as shall have been notified to the Noteholders for such purpose. A record of each payment so made will be enfaced on each Global Note, which endorsement will be prima facie evidence that such payment has been made in respect of the Notes. Condition 7(f)(vi) and Condition 8(d) will apply to the Definitive Notes only. For the purpose of any payments made in respect of a Global Note, the relevant place of presentation (if applicable) shall be disregarded in the definition of "business day" set out in Condition 7(h).

All payments in respect of Notes represented by a Global Certificate (other than a Global Certificate held through the CMU) will be made to, or to the order of, the person whose name is entered on the Register at the close of business on the record date which shall be the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the date for payment, where "Clearing System Business Day" means Monday to Friday inclusive except 25 December and 1 January.

All payments in respect of Notes represented by a Global Note or Global Certificate representing Notes held through the CMU, any payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts shall be made to the person(s) for whose account(s) interests in the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate are credited (as set out in the records of the CMU) at the close of business on the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the date for payment and, save in the case of final payment, no presentation of the relevant bearer Global Note or Global Certificate shall be required for such purpose. For the purposes of this paragraph, "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which the CMU is operating and open for business.

So long as the Notes are represented by the Global Certificate and the Global Certificate is held on behalf of a clearing system, the Issuer has promised, inter alia, to pay interest in respect of such Notes from the Interest Commencement Date in arrear at the rates, on the dates for payment, and in accordance with the method of calculation provided for in the Conditions, save that the calculation is made in respect of the total aggregate amount of the Notes represented by the Global Certificate, together with such other sums and additional amounts (if any) as may be payable under the Conditions, in accordance with the Conditions.

Prescription

Claims against the Issuer in respect of Notes that are represented by a permanent Global Note will become void unless it is presented for payment within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and 5 years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8).

Meetings

The holder of a permanent Global Note or of the Notes represented by a Global Certificate shall (unless such permanent Global Note or Global Certificate represents only one Note) be treated as being two persons for the purposes of any quorum requirements of a meeting of Noteholders and, at any such meeting, the holder of a permanent Global Note or of the Notes represented by a Global Certificate shall be treated as having one vote in respect of each integral currency unit of the Specified Currency of the Notes. All holders of Registered Notes are entitled to one vote in respect of each integral currency unit of the Specified Currency of the Notes comprising such Noteholders holding, whether or not represented by a Global Certificate.

Cancellation

Cancellation of any Note represented by a permanent Global Note that is required by the Conditions to be cancelled (other than upon its redemption) will be effected by reduction in the nominal amount of the relevant permanent Global Note or its presentation to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent) for endorsement in the relevant schedule of such permanent Global Note or in the case of a Global Certificate, by reduction in the aggregate principal amount of the Certificates in the Register, whereupon the principal amount thereof shall be reduced for all purposes by the amount so cancelled and endorsed.

Purchase

Notes represented by a permanent Global Note or by a Global Certificate may only be purchased by the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries if they are purchased together with the rights to receive all future payments of interest and Instalment Amounts (if any) thereon.

Issuer's Option

Any option of early redemptions of the Issuer provided for in the Conditions of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a permanent Global Note or by a Global Certificate shall be exercised by the Issuer giving notice to the Noteholders within the time limits set out in and containing the information required by the Conditions, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of Notes drawn in the case of a partial exercise of an option and accordingly no drawing of Notes shall be required. In the event that any option of the Issuer is exercised in respect of some but not all of the Notes of any Series, the rights of accountholders with a clearing system in respect of the Notes will be governed by the standard procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or any Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be).

Noteholders' Options

Any option of the Noteholders provided for in the Conditions of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a permanent Global Note may be exercised by the holder of the permanent Global Note giving notice to the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent) within the time limits relating to the deposit of Notes with a Paying Agent set out in the Conditions substantially in the form of the notice available from any Paying Agent, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of the Notes in respect of which the option has been exercised and the options may be exercised in respect of the whole or any part of the permanent Global Note, and stating the nominal amount of Notes in respect of which the option is exercised and at the same time presenting the permanent Global Note to the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent), for notation.

Trustee's Powers

In considering the interests of Noteholders while any Global Note is held on behalf of, or Registered Notes are registered in the name of, or in the name of any nominee for, a clearing system, the Trustee may have regard to any information provided to it by such clearing system or its operator as to the identity (either individually or by category) of its accountholders with entitlements to such Global Note or Registered Notes and may consider such interest if such accountholders were the holders of the Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate.

Notices

So long as any Notes are represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate and such Global Note or Global Certificate is held on behalf of (i) Euroclear and/or Clearstream or any other clearing system (except as provided in (ii) below), notices to the holders of Notes of that Series may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to that clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication as required by the Conditions or by delivery of the relevant notice to the holder of the Global Note or (ii) the CMU, notices to the holders of Notes of that Series may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to CMU in substitution for publication as required by the Conditions or by delivery of the relevant notice to the holder of the Global Note or Global Certificate, and any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders on the day on which such notice is delivered to the CMU.

Partly Paid Notes

The provisions relating to Partly Paid Notes are not set out in this Offering Circular, but will be contained in the relevant Pricing Supplement and thereby in the Global Notes. While any instalments of the subscription moneys due from the holder of Partly Paid Notes are overdue, no interest in a Global Note representing such Notes may be exchanged for an interest in a permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes (as the case may be). If any Noteholder fails to pay any instalment due on any Partly Paid Notes within the time specified, the Issuer may forfeit such Notes and shall have no further obligation to their holders in respect of them.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the issue of each Tranche of Notes will be for refinancing and general working capital purposes of the Group. If, in respect of any particular issue, there is a particular identified use of proceeds, this will be stated in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Ping An Insurance HK's trading terms with its customers are mainly on credit. The credit period is generally one month extending up to three months for major customers. Ping An Insurance HK seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables and to minimise its risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management. Ping An Insurance HK's trade receivables related to a large number of diversified customers and Ping An Insurance HK believes that there is no significant concentration of credit risk to individual customers.

Distribution Network

Ping An Insurance HK has an extensive, multi-channel distribution network for its general insurance company. Ping An Insurance HK markets its general insurance products primarily through sales agencies and brokerage based in Hong Kong. As at 31 December 2023, Ping An Insurance HK had approximately 400 sales agents/brokers to market its individual insurance products. It has also enhanced its distribution and service capabilities through innovative distribution channels, such as its online platform and short messaging services on mobile phones.

Insurance Contract Liabilities

Ping An Insurance HK establishes reserves, carried as liabilities, which are actuarially determined amounts to meet the Ping An Insurance HK's obligations under its general insurance and property and casualty insurance products. The insurance contract liabilities movement is a significant component for Ping An Insurance HK's operating results and increases or decreases in reserves could have a material impact on Ping An Insurance HK's financial condition and results of operations. Ping An Insurance HK is also required to maintain, for purposes of its Hong Kong statutory accounts, statutory reserves that are determined pursuant to the Insurance Ordinance (Cap. 41) of Hong Kong, as well as Hong Kong statutory accounting standards, which are different in certain material respects from the Group's reserves determined for purposes of its consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with HKFRS.

The principal types of reserves in consolidated financial statement are liabilities for incurred claims and liabilities for remaining coverage.

Liabilities for incurred claims

Ping An Insurance HK maintains liabilities for incurred claims for its insurance contract liabilities provided for claims under its property and casualty and short-term insurance policies. Liabilities for incurred claims include incurred and reported reserves, incurred but not reported reserves and claim expense reserves. Ping An Insurance HK utilises the generally accepted actuarial methodologies such as the expected loss ratio method, chain ladder method and Bornheutter-Ferguson method to calculate the outstanding claim liabilities. The valuation assumptions take into consideration historical information and include appropriate adjustments for various factors that could have a prospective influence on the level of the claims such as changes in underwriting practices, changes in claims handling, changes in data processing and changes in legislation. Based on the results calculated by the various methods, a best estimate (i.e. probability-weighted mean) of the ultimate loss is selected. The claim patterns are informed by historical data and used to project expected future cash flows over time.

Liabilities for remaining coverage

Ping An Insurance HK maintains liabilities for remaining coverage reserves for its unexpired insurance obligations under its property and casualty and short-term insurance policies. For unearned exposures (i.e. liability for remaining coverage), unexpired risk reserves also consider a range of possible outcomes over the unearned portion of the insurance contracts through the trending of expected loss ratio and additional loadings for claims-related and maintenance-related expense ratios.

The establishment of insurance contract liabilities is an inherently uncertain process, and therefore, Ping An Insurance HK cannot provide any assurance that ultimate losses will not differ from its initial estimates. See "Risk Factors — Risk relating to the Group's Insurance Business — Differences between actual benefits and claims experience and underwriting and reserving assumptions, could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition and results of operations". For more information about Ping An Insurance HK's reserves and reserving practices, please refer to the Group's financial information included elsewhere in this Offering Circular.

Reinsurance

Ping An Insurance HK reinsures a portion of the risk that it assumes under its insurance policies to reduce its exposure to loss, stabilise its earnings and protect its capital resources. Ping An Insurance HK cedes to reinsurers a portion of these risks in exchange for a portion of the premiums it receives with respect to these policies. Ping An Insurance HK also purchases additional reinsurance based on its risk management needs.

Moreover, Ping An Insurance HK purchases additional catastrophic reinsurance treaties to cover natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods and windstorms for amounts in excess of its retention levels to ensure sufficient reinsurance coverage and the proper management of Ping An Insurance HK's risk exposure.

To reduce its reinsurance concentration risk, Ping An Insurance HK has established reinsurance programmes with various leading international reinsurers. Ping An Insurance HK's criteria for selecting reinsurers includes financial strength, service, terms of coverage, claims settlement efficiency and price. Ping An Insurance HK's principal property and casualty insurance reinsurers include China Property & Casualty Reinsurance Company Ltd., Swiss Re, Munich Re and Hannover Re Group.

Risk Management

The Group has established an integrated risk management framework with a risk management committee (comprised of various sub-committees such as the Group ALCO Committee, the Group Risk Committee, the Ping An Asset Management HK Risk Committee and the Group New Product Committee) set up under both the board of directors and the Group's senior group executives, which is primarily responsible for supervising and reviewing the implementation and assessment of the internal control system, addressing issues such as investment risk, liquidity risk, legal and compliance risk, reputational risk and information security and operational risk.

Risk Management Framework

The risk management committee is responsible for identifying the Group's major risks, supervising the effectiveness of risk management, as well as deliberating the following issues and making recommendations to the board of directors:

- overall risk appetite, risk management, policies and guidelines;
- risk management organisational structure and duties;
- risk assessment of major management decisions and proposal of significant risks mitigation plan; and
- annual risk assessment reports.

The risk management committee has the following duties: developing the overall risk appetite, policies and guidelines of risk management according to the Issuer's business strategy, guiding the subsidiaries' risk management organisational structure and overseeing their duties, monitoring the Group's risk exposure and available financial resources, as well as providing an early warning function and recommending measures to mitigate risks. The committee also supervises the effectiveness of risk management in subsidiaries or business lines and monitors risk-related follow-ups and other developments.

The Group's risk management department under its internal control centre is responsible for supporting the operation of the risk management committee, establishing and strengthening the enterprise risk management framework across the Group, identifying, evaluating and monitoring the risk profiles of subsidiaries by continuously improving risk management tools and techniques, as well as developing risk control measures and reporting.

Internal control mechanisms within the subsidiaries are responsible for applying compliance and risk management into the subsidiary's daily operations. The subsidiaries' risk management functions are to adhere to the regulatory authorities' requirements, implement the Group's risk policies and guidelines, as well as to coordinate control measures to mitigate risks and monitor and execute risk management tasks.

Major Risk Management

The Group adopts both quantitative and qualitative approaches to evaluate risk and ensure that all types of risks are monitored thoroughly and effectively. The Group also applies risk management techniques to conduct various scenario or sensitivity analyses and stress tests to balance its risk taking and profit making.

Market risk

Market risk refers to the potential loss for the Group as a result of changes in interest rates, market prices, foreign currency exchange rates, real estate prices and other related risk factors. The major market risk types for the Group include interest rate risk, equity risk and foreign exchange risk.

The Group's market risk is managed through the following mechanisms and processes:

- establishing and implementing a series of internal management guidelines on investments and managing market risk, by reviewing strategic asset allocation and asset and liability management;
- performing a periodic effective market risk management through scenario analysis, Value-at-risk ("VaR") and stress testing methods based on capital investment and market risk management characteristics;
- setting risk limits for each asset class to control market risks. When setting these limits, the Group will take into account the risk strategy, financial impact and asset and liability management strategy; and
- regulating the risk reporting system, issuing regular risk reports and making recommendations to the risk management committee to ensure that the market risk exposure is within the risk tolerance level.

Interest rates

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value/future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. Fixed-maturity securities held by the Group are exposed to interest rate risk. These investments are substantially represented by bond investments. The Group uses various methods such as sensitivity analysis and stress testing to evaluate its risk profile. Interest rate sensitivity is estimated by assuming a 50 basis-point parallel shift of the government bond yield curve.

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's listed and unlisted debt securities. Floating rate instruments expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk, whereas fixed rate instruments expose the Group to fair value interest risk.

Market price

Exchange-listed equity investments held by the Group are exposed to market price risk. These investments are mostly represented by equity securities and equity investment funds.

The Group uses the 10-day market price VaR technique to estimate its risk exposure. Market price VaR supposes a maximum loss in the value of the Group's portfolio of equity investment due to an adverse market event within a specified timeframe of 10 days and a given confidence level of 99 per cent.

Foreign currency

Currency risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. Foreign currency-denominated assets held by the Group are exposed to foreign currency risk. These assets include monetary assets, such as deposits and bonds held in foreign currency, and non-monetary assets measured at fair value, such as stocks and funds held in foreign currency. The Group's foreign currency-denominated liabilities are also exposed to fluctuations in exchange rates. These liabilities include monetary liabilities measured at fair value. Through measures such as managing and hedging limits, the Group keeps foreign exchange risk under control by continuing to optimise the aggregate foreign currency assets and liabilities, enhance overseas asset management, and regularly analyse the sensitivity to foreign exchange risk.

Real estate price

Investment properties held by the Group are exposed to real estate price risk. The Group tracks its exposure to property investment, monitors the movement of real estate prices in relevant regions, analyses the impact of macro policies and regional economic development on real estate prices, has engaged independent valuers for the fair value assessment, and conducts stress tests on a regular basis.

Liquidity Risk

The Group manages its liquidity risk and aims to fulfil its payment obligations by matching the investment terms of assets with the terms of corresponding insurance liabilities in order to provide funds to the credit and investment business of the Group.

The Group developed and regularly updates the Liquidity Risk Management Plan of the Group, constantly improves its management mechanisms and processes for better identification, evaluation, and management of liquidity risk for the Group and its subsidiaries. The Group's subsidiaries develop unique liquidity risk appetites and risk limits in line with the applicable regulations and industry practices of their business activities, and regularly conduct stress tests and carry out forward-looking analysis of liquidity risk.

Asset and Liability Management

The major asset allocation risk of the Group arises in respect of asset and liability management, where the duration of assets and liabilities of the Group cannot be effectively matched. Under the current regulatory and market environment, the Group is unable to lock in sufficient liability with a long enough duration to match that of its assets. Despite the market-wide shortage of long duration assets, the Group continues to optimise the duration gap between assets and liabilities. When the regulatory and market environment allows, the Group intends to gradually lengthen the duration of its liability.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss resulting from the failure of any of the Group's obligors to make any payment of principal or interest in full or when due. The Group is exposed to credit risk primarily associated with its bond investments, reinsurance arrangements and off-balance sheet related arrangements.

The Group manages credit risk by several methods, including:

- adopting a credit risk management mechanism with credit risk ratings as its core methodology;
- developing standardised policies, systems and procedures of credit risk management;
- setting and continuously monitoring credit risk limits in multiple dimensions, including customers and portfolios to manage high risk exposures;
- continuing to strengthen the risk management system to standardize consolidated risk management; and
- strengthening risk warning and monitoring and enhancing post-investment management.

Due to the difference in business nature and risk involvement in the insurance and investment sectors, the Group uses the following tailored control mechanisms:

Insurance-related credit risk

The Group will perform credit evaluations of potential reinsurance companies and target those with higher credit for mitigating credit risks to conduct business with.

The principal risk the Group faces under insurance contracts is that the actual claims payments exceed the carrying amount of insurance contract liabilities. This is influenced by the frequency of claims, severity of claims, the timing of payments and the possibility of legal developments that increase the exposure of the insurer. The variability of risks is improved by diversification of risk of loss to a large portfolio of insurance contracts as a more diversified portfolio is less likely to be affected across the board by change in any subset of the portfolio, as well as unexpected outcomes. The Group's variability of risks is improved by careful selection and implementation of underwriting strategy and guidelines as well as the use of reinsurance arrangements.

Banking-related credit risk

The Group will strengthen the early warning system based on big data, strictly implement post-lending management policies, and regularly review customers' risk profiles and overall asset quality. Risks are mitigated by preventing the accumulation of credit risk from large exposures. The Group also disposes of non-performing assets.

Investment-related credit risk

The Group will conduct credit evaluations of potential investments in line with internal risk rating policies and procedures, choose counterparties that have relatively high credit standing and set credit risk limits on investment portfolios from multiple dimensions. The Group also minimises losses from risk events through early risk detection, response and disposal.

Operational risk

Operational risk is the risk of losses resulting from internal operational failures or uncontrollable external events. Internal operational failures occur due to inadequate or failed internal processes (process risk), system failure (system risk), and human performance failure or corruption (personnel risk). Uncontrollable external events that contribute to operational risk mainly refer to legal events or changes in regulatory requirements, such as adjustments in tax laws and accounting standards.

The Group has established a comprehensive risk management framework covering pre-emptive safeguards, ongoing monitoring, and post hoc investigations:

- Compliance Management: in order to achieve a sound pre-emptive risk management and control, the Group utilises establishment of systems and policies, compliance assessments and regular compliance reviews, compliance risk warnings and prevention strategies, and internal control assessments and reporting mechanisms.
- Risk management: The continuously upgraded risk management tools have been implemented in accordance with the Group's business needs. The Group also has been promoting a culture of operational risk management through targeted training.

Solvency Management

Solvency refers to the capability to settle the Group's liabilities. The core purpose of solvency management is to meet statutory capital and maintain a healthy capital ratio in order to support business growth and maximise shareholders' value.

The current framework as at the date of this Offering Circular is a rules-based capital adequacy framework. See "Risk Factors — Risks relating to the Group's Insurance Business — If the Group cannot obtain capital in a timely manner to satisfy the regulatory requirements regarding solvency margin, the authorities may impose regulatory sanctions on the Group, which may have a material adverse effect on its business and results of operations."

The mechanisms adopted by the Group to manage its solvency include:

- analysing solvency requirements and the impact on regulatory capital when developing new products;
- evaluating the impact on solvency when determining strategies, business plans, investment decisions, and dividend distribution;
- conducting periodic solvency assessment and dynamic solvency testing and monitoring changes and trends; and
- establishing warning mechanisms and contingency plans to ensure capital adequacy.

The former CBIRC promulgated the Regulatory Rules on Solvency of Insurance Companies (II) ("C-ROSS Phase II Rules") at the end of December 2021. Under the C-ROSS Phase II Rules, solvency risk measurement of the Group is more prudential and rational, creating a positive impact on the Group's overall solvency margin assessment and management. The CBIRC was replaced by the NFRA in 2023.

Competition

The Group's businesses operate in highly fragmented and competitive markets, and face increasing competition for capital, labour, location, facilities and supporting infrastructure, services, pricing and raw materials, as well as acquisition opportunities and new business opportunities. Certain of the Group's competitors in their respective businesses may have longer operating track records, stronger government and customer relationships, greater parent support and access to financial, technical, infrastructure, marketing and other capabilities, or other resources and/or name recognition than the Group.

In respect of the Group's asset management and advisory services business, the Group competes primarily with fund management companies, banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions in Hong Kong and in the region in terms of the range of products and services offered, pricing and quality of customer service. In respect of the Group's investment activities, the Group competes primarily with securities firms that are qualified to conduct direct investment business and private equity firms in Hong Kong and in the region. In respect of the Group's insurance business, the Group competes primarily with both domestic and foreign-invested general insurance companies. Some of the Group's competitors may have greater financial, management and other resources than the Group does, and may have more extensive operating experience than the Group. Furthermore, these competitors may be able to offer a broader range of products and services, as well as establish their reserves more adequately, than the Group.

To maintain and enhance its competitiveness, the Group aims to further strengthen and develop long-term, stable and co-operative business opportunities, focus on improving its product mix and operational efficiencies, develop innovative process technologies, enhance its marketing techniques, further reduce its production costs and, ultimately, become a competitive diversified enterprise with a leading presence in each of its core businesses.

Insurance

The Group maintains insurance which covers losses caused by fire, flood, riot, strike and malicious damage. The Group believes that its properties are covered by adequate insurance provided by reputable independent insurance companies in the relevant jurisdictions, and with commercially reasonable deductibles and limits on coverage which are normal for the type and location of the assets and properties which they relate.

Employees

As at 31 December 2023, the Group had approximately 167 full-time employees.

The Group adheres to, and complies with, the relevant labour laws of Hong Kong and other jurisdictions in which it operates. Staff benefits include salaries, provident fund contributions, insurance and medical care. The Group believes that its employees are critical to its success, and it is committed to investing in the development of its employees through continuing education and training, as well as the creation of opportunities for career growth. In order to motivate employees, employee salaries are tied to business and individual performance. To date, the Group has not experienced any labour strikes or other material labour disputes that affected its operations.

Legal Proceedings

The Group is from time to time involved in certain legal proceedings concerning matters arising in the ordinary course of its business. Except as disclosed in this Offering Circular, the Group is not involved in any litigation or arbitration proceedings which may have, or have had during the 12 months preceding the date of this Offering Circular, a material adverse effect on its financial position, nor is the Group aware that any such proceedings are pending or threatened. Please see "Risk Factors — Risks relating to the Group's Overall Business — Agent, employee and distribution partner misconduct is difficult to detect and deter and could harm the Group's reputation or lead to regulatory sanctions or litigation against it."

TAXATION

The following summary of certain tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes is based upon applicable laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular, all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Notes and does not purport to deal with consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules. Persons considering the purchase of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers concerning the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes. It is emphasised that none of the Issuer nor any other persons involved in the Programme accepts responsibility for any tax effects or liabilities resulting from the subscription for purchase, holding or disposal of the Notes.

Prospective investors should consult their professional advisers on the possible tax consequences of buying, holding or selling any Notes under the laws of their country of citizenship, residence or domicile.

Hong Kong

Withholding Tax

No withholding tax is payable in Hong Kong in respect of payments of principal or interest on the Notes or in respect of any capital gains arising from the sale of the Notes.

Profits Tax

Hong Kong profits tax is chargeable on every person carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong in respect of profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong from such trade, profession or business (excluding profits arising from the sale of capital assets).

Interest on the Notes may be deemed to be profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong from a trade, profession or business carried on in Hong Kong in the following circumstances:

- (i) interest on the Notes is derived from Hong Kong and is received by or accrues to a corporation, carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong;
- (ii) interest on the Notes is derived from Hong Kong and is received by or accrues to a person, other than a corporation, carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong and is in respect of the funds of that trade, profession or business;
- (iii) interest on the Notes is received by or accrues to a financial institution (as defined in the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) of Hong Kong (the "IRO")) and arises through or from the carrying on by the financial institution of its business in Hong Kong; or
- (iv) interest on the Notes is received by or accrues to a corporation, other than a financial institution, and arises through or from the carrying on in Hong Kong by the corporation of its intra-group financing business (within the meaning of section 16(3) of the IRO).

Sums received by or accrued to a financial institution by way of gains or profits arising through or from the carrying on by the financial institution of its business in Hong Kong from the sale, disposal or redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax.

Sums received by or accrued to a corporation, other than a financial institution, by way of gains or profits arising through or from the carrying on in Hong Kong by the corporation of its intra-group financing business (within the meaning of section 16(3) of the IRO) from the sale, disposal or other redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax.

Sums derived from the sale, disposal or redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax where received by or accrued to a person, other than a financial institution, who carries on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong and the sum has a Hong Kong source unless otherwise exempted. The source of such sums will generally be determined by having regard to the manner in which the Notes are acquired and disposed of.

In addition, the Inland Revenue (Amendment) (Taxation on Specified Foreign-sourced Income) Ordinance 2022 (Cap.112) of Hong Kong (the "Amendment Ordinance") came into effect on 1 January 2023. Under the Amendment Ordinance, certain foreign-sourced interest on the Notes and gains from the sale, disposal or redemption of Notes accrued to an MNE entity (as defined in the Amendment Ordinance) carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong are regarded as arising in or derived from Hong Kong and subject to Hong Kong profits tax when they are received in Hong Kong. The Amendment Ordinance also provides for relief against double taxation in respect of certain foreign-sourced income and transitional matters.

In certain circumstances, Hong Kong profits tax exemptions (such as concessionary tax rates) may be available. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors to ascertain the applicability of any exemptions to their individual position.

Stamp Duty

Stamp duty will not be payable on the issue of Bearer Notes provided that either:

- (i) such Bearer Notes are denominated in a currency other than the currency of Hong Kong and are not repayable in any circumstances in the currency of Hong Kong; or
- (ii) such Bearer Notes constitute loan capital (as defined in the Stamp Duty Ordinance (Cap. 117) of Hong Kong (the "SDO")).

If stamp duty is payable, it is payable by the Issuer on the issue of Bearer Notes at a rate of 3 per cent. of the market value of the Bearer Notes at the time of issue. No stamp duty will be payable on any subsequent transfer of Bearer Notes.

No stamp duty is payable on the issue of Registered Notes. Stamp duty may be payable on any transfer of Registered Notes if the relevant transfer is required to be registered in Hong Kong. Stamp duty will, however, not be payable on any transfer of Registered Notes provided that either:

- (i) such Registered Notes are denominated in a currency other than the currency of Hong Kong and are not repayable in any circumstances in the currency of Hong Kong; or
- (ii) such Registered Notes constitute loan capital (as defined in the SDO).

With effect from 17 November 2023, if stamp duty applies to the transfer of Registered Notes required to be registered in Hong Kong and which are not otherwise exempt it will be payable at the rate of 0.2 per cent. (of which 0.1 per cent. is payable by the seller and 0.1 per cent. is payable by the purchaser) normally by reference to the consideration or its value, whichever is higher. In addition, stamp duty is payable at the fixed rate of HK$5 on each instrument of transfer executed in relation to any transfer of the Registered Notes if the relevant transfer is required to be registered in Hong Kong.

FATCA Withholding

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended, the "Internal Revenue Code"), commonly known as FATCA, a "foreign financial institution" may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes ("foreign passthru payments") to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the British Virgin Islands) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA ("IGAs"), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an

IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of these rules to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are published in the U.S. Federal Register, and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be "grandfathered" for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the Issuer). However, if additional notes (as described under "Terms and Conditions — Further Issues") that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

FATCA IS PARTICULARLY COMPLEX AND ITS APPLICATION TO THE ISSUER, THE NOTES AND THE NOTEHOLDERS, IS UNCERTAIN AT THIS TIME, EACH NOTEHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISER TO OBTAIN A MORE DETAILED EXPLANATION OF FATCA AND TO LEARN HOW FATCA MIGHT AFFECT EACH NOTEHOLDER IN ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Arranger and Dealer has, in an amended and restated dealer agreement dated 22 April 2024, as amended and/or supplemented from time to time (the "Dealer Agreement"), agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will agree with the Issuer a basis on which they or any of them may from time to time agree to subscribe Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes". Under the terms of the Dealer Agreement, the Issuer will pay each relevant Dealer a commission as agreed between them in respect of Notes subscribed by it. The Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Arranger and Dealer for certain of its expenses incurred in connection with the establishment of the Programme and any future update of the Programme and the Dealers for certain of their activities in connection with the Programme. The Issuer may agree to pay, through the Dealers, a commission to certain private banks on certain tranches of Notes based on the principal amount of Notes purchased by the clients of such private banks. Any such commissions will be described in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

The Issuer has agreed to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes. The Dealer Agreement entitles the Dealers to terminate any agreement that they make to subscribe Notes in certain circumstances prior to payment for such Notes being made to the Issuer.

The Dealers and certain of their affiliates may have performed certain investment banking and advisory services for the Issuer and/or its affiliates from time to time for which they have received customary fees and expenses and may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for the Issuer and/or its affiliates in the ordinary course of their business.

The Dealers and certain of their respective affiliates may purchase the Notes and be allocated Notes for asset management and/or proprietary purposes and not with a view to distribution.

In connection with each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme, the Dealers or certain of their affiliates may purchase Notes and be allocated Notes for asset management and/or proprietary purposes but not with a view to distribution. Further, the Dealers or their respective affiliates may purchase Notes for its or their own account and enter into transactions, including credit derivatives, such as asset swaps, repackaging and credit default swaps relating to such Notes and/or other securities of the Issuer or its subsidiaries or affiliates at the same time as the offer and sale of each Tranche of Notes or in secondary market transactions. Such transactions would be carried out as bilateral trades with selected counterparties and separately from any existing sale or resale of the Tranche of Notes to which a particular Pricing Supplement relates (notwithstanding that such selected counterparties may also be purchasers of such Tranche of Notes).

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct — Important Notice to CMIs (including Private Banks): This notice to CMIs (including private banks) is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of other CMIs (including private banks). Certain CMIs may also be acting as OCs for the relevant CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Issuer, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an Association with the Issuer, the CMI or the relevant group company. CMIs should specifically disclose whether their investor clients have any Association when submitting orders for the relevant Notes. In addition, private banks should take all reasonable steps to identify whether their investor clients may have any Associations with the Issuer or any CMI (including its group companies) and inform the relevant Dealers accordingly.

CMIs are informed that, unless otherwise notified, the marketing and investor targeting strategy for the relevant CMI Offering includes institutional investors, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, hedge funds, family offices and high net worth individuals, in each case, subject to the selling restrictions and any MiFID II product governance language or any UK MiFIR product governance language set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and/or the applicable Pricing Supplement.

CMLs should ensure that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMLs). CMLs should enquire with their investor clients regarding any orders which appear unusual or irregular. CMLs should disclose the identities of all investors when submitting orders for the relevant Notes (except for omnibus orders where underlying investor information may need to be provided to any OCs when submitting orders). Failure to provide underlying investor information for omnibus orders, where required to do so, may result in that order being rejected. CMLs should not place "X-orders" into the order book.

CMLs should segregate and clearly identify their own proprietary orders (and those of their group companies, including private banks as the case may be) in the order book and book messages.

CMLs (including private banks) should not offer any rebates to prospective investors or pass on any rebates provided by the Issuer. In addition, CMLs (including private banks) should not enter into arrangements which may result in prospective investors paying different prices for the relevant Notes. CMLs are informed that a private bank rebate may be payable as stated above and in the applicable Pricing Supplement, or otherwise notified to prospective investors.

The SFC Code requires that a CML disclose complete and accurate information in a timely manner on the status of the order book and other relevant information it receives to targeted investors for them to make an informed decision. In order to do this, those Dealers in control of the order book should consider disclosing order book updates to all CMLs.

When placing an order for the relevant Notes, private banks should disclose, at the same time, if such order is placed other than on a "principal" basis (whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors). Private banks who do not provide such disclosure are hereby deemed to be placing their order on such a "principal" basis. Otherwise, such order may be considered to be an omnibus order pursuant to the SFC Code. Private banks should be aware that placing an order on a "principal" basis may require the relevant affiliated Dealer(s) (if any) to categorise it as a proprietary order and apply the "proprietary orders" requirements of the SFC Code to such order and will result in that private bank not being entitled to, and not being paid, any rebate.

In relation to omnibus orders, when submitting such orders, CMLs (including private banks) that are subject to the SFC Code should disclose underlying investor information in respect of each order constituting the relevant omnibus order (failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected). Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus orders should consist of:

- The name of each underlying investor;
- A unique identification number for each investor;
- Whether an underlying investor has any "Associations" (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a "Proprietary Order" (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a duplicate order.

Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus order should be sent to the Dealers named in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

To the extent information being disclosed by CMLs and investors is personal and/or confidential in nature, CMLs (including private banks) agree and warrant: (A) to take appropriate steps to safeguard the transmission of such information to any OCs; and (B) that they have obtained the necessary consents from the underlying investors to disclose such information to any OCs. By submitting an order and providing such information to any OCs, each CMI (including private banks) further warrants that they and the underlying investors have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by any OCs and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Issuer, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. CMIs that receive such underlying investor information are reminded that such information should be used only for submitting orders in the relevant CMI Offering. The relevant Dealers may be asked to demonstrate compliance with their obligations under the SFC Code, and may request other CMIs (including private banks) to provide evidence showing compliance with the obligations above (in particular, that the necessary consents have been obtained). In such event, other CMIs (including private banks) are required to provide the relevant Dealer with such evidence within the timeline requested.

Independent auditor's reportTo the sole member of China Ping An Insurance Overseas (Holdings) Limited

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of China Ping An Insurance Overseas (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 9 to 124, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Valuation of unlisted equities, debts, funds and derivatives in level 3
As at 31 December 2023, the Group had various financial instruments carried at fair value that were classified as level 3 under the fair value hierarchy, as their fair values are measured using valuation techniques with significant unobservable inputs. Those financial instruments, included unlisted equities, debts, funds and derivatives for HK$33,449 million, representing 38% of the Group's total assets (including financial assets at fair value through profit or loss for HK$31,525 million, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income for HK$342 million and derivative assets for HK$1,582 million) and financial liabilities for HK$3,548 million, representing 9% of the Group's total liabilities. Auditing fair value of the Group's level 3 investments is complex as the determination of an appropriate measurement model and the unobservable inputs requires significant judgment. Valuation techniques for financial instruments without active markets can be subjective in nature and involve various assumptions regarding pricing factors. The use of different valuation techniques and assumptions may lead to significantly different fair value estimations. Significant unobservable inputs include enterprise value to sales ratio, price to book ratio and discount rate. Related disclosures are included in notes 3, 23, 24, 26 and 40 to the consolidated financial statements.	With the involvement of our internal valuation specialists, the procedures we performed that addressed the key audit matter included, among others: • Performed a walkthrough of the Group's valuation process; • Tested the design and operating effectiveness of key controls related to the valuation of financial instruments, including the verification of all major inputs, the assessment on valuation movement, model validation and the management approval; • Tested the mathematical accuracy of the Group's valuation calculations; • Evaluated the pricing model methodologies and assumptions of selected financial instruments; • Compared the key inputs to the pricing models of selected financial instruments with appropriate benchmarks and observable pricing sources; • Evaluated the valuation of selected financial instruments by considering alternative valuation methodologies and assessing sensitivities to key inputs; and • Assessed the adequacy of the disclosures relating to the fair value of financial instruments against the requirements under HKFRSs.

Impairment of investments measured at amortised cost, loans to an associate, fellow subsidiaries and a related company, loans to third parties and interest receivables (loss allowance for expected credit losses ("ECL"))
As at 31 December 2023, the Group had various unlisted debts, loans and interest receivables, representing 12% of the Group's total assets, that are subject to the recognition of a loss allowance for ECL, including investments measured at amortised cost for HK$2,052 million, after recognising an impairment allowance of HK$1,964 million; loans to an associate, fellow subsidiaries and a related company for HK$2,440 million, after recognising an impairment allowance of HK$5 million; loans to third parties for HK$5,130 million, after recognising an impairment allowance of HK$302 million; and interest receivables for HK$566 million, after recognising an impairment allowance of HK$99 million. We identified impairment assessment under HKFRS 9 as a key audit matter, as it is complex and significant management judgement was involved in: 1) Selecting appropriate ECL models 2) Staging determination 3) Application of model assumptions 4) Formulating forward-looking adjustment Related disclosures are included in notes 3, 18, 21, 25, 38(b) and 41(b) to the consolidated financial statements.	With the assistance of our internal credit modelling specialists, the procedures we performed that addressed the key audit matter included, among others: • Tested the design and operating effectiveness of the Group's ECL controls, including the controls over model selection, internal credit rating and staging determination and forecasts of contractual cash flows, etc; • Tested management's key controls over formulating of forward-looking adjustment, including selection of macro-economic indicators and determination of weightings to various scenarios; • Evaluated the appropriateness of the ECL models built covering the Group's "investments measured at amortised cost, loans to an associate, fellow subsidiaries and a related company", "loans to third parties" and "interest receivables"; • Evaluated the staging determination against the Group's historical credit loss experience and industry practice; • Assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors such as complexity, subjectivity and susceptibility to management bias or fraud of key ECL model parameters and assumptions; • Evaluated ECL model methodologies and the detailed application of key ECL model parameters and assumptions, which includes possibility of default, loss given default, exposure at default, discount rate, etc.; • Evaluated the macro-economic scenario-settings and weightings against industry benchmarks; • Tested the mathematical accuracy of the calculation of ECL on a sampling basis; and • Assessed the ECL data inputs, by reviewing the counterparties' credit information such as credit exposure, credit risk ratings, loss rates, overdue status, collateral information, and other relevant information on a sampling basis.

Other Information

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Report of the Directors and statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income (unaudited) of the Company set out on pages 1 to 3, 125 to 126, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 405 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Board of Directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 Corporate information

China Ping An Insurance Overseas (Holdings) Limited (the "Company") is a limited liability company incorporated in Hong Kong. The registered office of the Company is Suite 2318, 23rd Floor, Two International Finance Centre, 8 Finance Street, Central, Hong Kong.

The principal activity of the Company is investment holding. The principal activities of the subsidiaries and associates (collectively, together with the Company, referred to as the "Group") comprise of underwriting general insurance business, including statutory insurance and acceptance of reinsurance; undertaking investment activities; provision of asset management and advisory services to related and unrelated companies, provision of internet finance business and finance leasing.

The Company is a subsidiary of Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China, Ltd., a company listed in Hong Kong and incorporated in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), which is considered by the directors as the Company's immediate and ultimate holding company.

2 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs"), including the adoption and implementation of new accounting standards and amendments for the financial year beginning 1 January 2023 as set out in Note 2.1 and the requirement of Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap.622. They have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for investment properties and certain financial assets and liabilities (including derivative instruments), which have been measured at fair value and insurance contract liabilities and reinsurance contract assets, which have been measured at the basis of fulfilment cashflows. These consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HKD") which is the Group's presentation currency and the Company's functional currency and all values are rounded to the nearest dollar except when otherwise indicated. They are prepared on a going concern basis.

The presentation of assets and liabilities on the consolidated statement of financial position is in the ascending order based on their liquidity, where amount expected to be recovered/settled after more than 12 months for each asset and liability line item that combines these amounts with amounts to be recovered/settled not more than 12 months after the reporting date, the disclosure is made in the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in note 3.

The nature and the impact of the new and revised HKFRSs that are applicable to the Group are described below:

HKFRS 17 Insurance Contracts

HKFRS 17 replaces HKFRS 4 Insurance Contracts for annual periods on or after 1 January 2023.

The Group has restated comparative information for 2022 applying the transitional provisions in Appendix C to HKFRS 17. The nature of the changes in accounting policies can be summarised, as follows:

Changes to classification and measurement

The adoption of HKFRS 17 did not change the classification of the Group's insurance contracts.

The Group was previously permitted under HKFRS 4 to continue accounting using its previous accounting policies. However, HKFRS 17 establishes specific principles for the recognition and measurement of insurance contracts issued and reinsurance contracts held by the Group.

Under HKFRS 17, the Group's insurance contracts issued and reinsurance contracts held are all eligible to be measured by applying the Premium Allocation Approach ("PAA"). The PAA simplifies the measurement of insurance contracts in comparison with the general model in HKFRS 17.

The measurement principles of the PAA differ from the 'earned premium approach' used by the Group under HKFRS 4 in the following key areas:

- The designation eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (sometimes referred to as "an accounting mismatch") that would otherwise arise from measuring the financial assets or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases;
- The liability for remaining coverage reflects premiums received less deferred insurance acquisition cash flows paid and plus allocation of insurance acquisition cash flows in insurance service expenses;
- Measurement of the liability for remaining coverage includes an adjustment for the time value of money and the effect of financial risk where the premium due date and the related period of services are more than 12 months apart;
- Measurement of the liability for remaining coverage involves an explicit evaluation of risk adjustment for non-financial risk when a group of contracts is onerous in order to calculate a loss component (previously these may have formed part of the unexpired risk reserve provision);
- Measurement of the liability for incurred claims (previously provision for claims reported by policyholders and provision for claims incurred but not reported ("IBNR")) is determined on a discounted probability-weighted expected value basis, and includes an explicit risk adjustment for non-financial risk. The liability includes the Group's obligation to pay other incurred insurance expenses; and
- Measurement of the asset for remaining coverage (reflecting reinsurance premiums paid for reinsurance held) is adjusted to include a loss-recovery component to reflect the expected recovery of onerous contract losses where such contracts reinsure onerous direct contracts.

The Group does not make use of the option under PAA to expense insurance acquisition cash flows as incurred.

For product lines where insurance acquisition cash flows are not immediately expensed, the Group allocates the acquisition cash flows to groups of insurance contracts issued or expected to be issued using a systematic and rational basis. Insurance acquisition cash flows include those that are directly attributable to a group and to future groups that are expected to arise from renewals of contracts in that group. Where such insurance acquisition cash flows are paid (or where a liability has been recognised applying another HKFRS standard) before the related group of insurance contracts is recognised, an asset for insurance acquisition cash flows is recognised. When insurance contracts are recognised, the related portion of the asset for insurance acquisition cash flows is derecognised and subsumed into the measurement at initial recognition of the insurance liability for remaining coverage of the related group.

Changes to presentation and disclosure

For presentation in the statement of financial position, the Group aggregates insurance and reinsurance contracts issued and reinsurance contracts held, respectively and presents separately:

- Portfolios of insurance and reinsurance contracts issued that are assets
- Portfolios of insurance and reinsurance contracts issued that are liabilities
- Portfolios of reinsurance contracts held that are assets
- Portfolios of reinsurance contracts held that are liabilities

The portfolios referred to above are those established at initial recognition in accordance with the HKFRS 17 requirements.

Portfolios of insurance contracts issued include any assets for insurance acquisition cash flows.

The line item descriptions in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income have been changed significantly compared with last year. Previously, the Group reported the following line items:

- Net earned premiums on insurance premiums contracts
- Gross insurance contracts claims incurred
- Reinsurers' share of gross insurance contracts claims incurred
- Commission expenses

Instead, the Group has changed the presentation in accordance with HKFRS 17 requirement:

- Insurance revenue
- Insurance service expenses
- Insurance finance income or expenses for insurance contracts issued
- Reinsurance finance income or expenses for reinsurance contracts held

The Group provides disaggregated qualitative and quantitative information about:

- Amounts recognised in its financial statements from insurance contracts
- Significant judgements, and changes in those judgements, when applying the standard

Transition

On transition date, 1 January 2022, the Group:

- Has identified, recognised and measured each group of insurance contracts as if HKFRS 17 had always applied;
- Has identified, recognised and measured assets for insurance acquisition cash flows as if HKFRS 17 has always applied. However, no recoverability assessment was performed before the transition date. At transition date, a recoverability assessment was performed and no impairment loss was identified;
- Derecognised any existing balances that would not exist had HKFRS 17 always applied; and
- Recognised any resulting net difference in equity.

Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKFRS Practice Statement 2 Disclosure of Accounting Policies

Amendments to HKAS 1 require entities to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. Accounting policy information is material if, when considered together with other information included in an entity's financial statements, it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. Amendments to HKFRS Practice Statement 2 Making Materiality Judgements provide non-mandatory guidance on how to apply the concept of materiality to accounting policy disclosures.

The Group has disclosed the material accounting policy information in note 2 to the consolidated financial statements. The amendments did not have any impact on the measurement, recognition or presentation of any items in the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 8 Definition of Accounting Estimates

Amendments to HKAS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates and changes in accounting policies. Accounting estimates are defined as monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty. The amendments also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates.

Since the Group's approach and policy align with the amendments, the amendments had no impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 12 Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction

Amendments to HKAS 12 narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception in HKAS 12 so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, such as leases and decommissioning obligations. Therefore, entities are required to recognise a deferred tax asset (provided that sufficient taxable profit is available) and a deferred tax liability for temporary differences arising from these transactions.

The amendments had no impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 12 International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules

Amendments to HKAS 12 introduce a mandatory temporary exception from the recognition and disclosure of deferred taxes arising from the implementation of the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. The amendments also introduce disclosure requirements for the affected entities to help users of the financial statements better understand the entities' exposure to Pillar Two income taxes, including the disclosure of current tax related to Pillar Two income taxes separately in the periods when Pillar Two legislation is effective and the disclosure of known or reasonably estimable information of their exposure to Pillar Two income taxes in periods in which the legislation is enacted or substantively enacted but not yet in effect. The Group has applied the amendments retrospectively.

Since the Group did not fall within the scope of the Pillar Two model rules, the amendments did not have any impact to the Group.

(b) Amended standards not yet adopted

The Group has not applied the following revised HKFRSs, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements. The Group intends to apply these revised HKFRSs, if applicable, when they become effective.

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture³
Amendments to HKFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback¹
Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current (the "2020 Amendments")^{1,4}
Amendments to HKAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants (the "2022 Amendments")^{1,4}
Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements¹
Amendments to HKAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability²

³ No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

Further information about those HKFRSs that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 (2011) Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture

Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 address an inconsistency between the requirements in HKFRS 10 and in HKAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss resulting from a downstream transaction when the sale or contribution of assets constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28 was removed by the HKICPA. However, the amendments are available for adoption now.

Amendments to HKFRS 16 Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback

Amendments to HKFRS 16 specify the requirements that a seller-lessee uses in measuring the lease liability arising in a sale and leaseback transaction to ensure the seller-lessee does not recognise any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2024 and shall be applied retrospectively to sale and leaseback transactions entered into after the date of initial application of HKFRS 16 (i.e. 1 January 2019). Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 1 Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current

The 2020 Amendments clarify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current, including what is meant by a right to defer settlement and that a right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period. Classification of a liability is unaffected by the likelihood that the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement. The amendments also clarify that a liability can be settled in its own equity instruments, and that only if a conversion option in a convertible liability is itself accounted for as an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification. The 2022 Amendments to further clarify that, among covenants of a liability arising from a loan arrangement, only those with which an entity must comply on or before the reporting date affect the classification of that liability as current or non-current. Additional disclosures are required for non-current liabilities that are subject to the entity complying with future covenants within 12 months after the reporting period. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively with early application permitted. An entity that applies the 2020 Amendments early is required to apply simultaneously the 2022 Amendments, and vice versa. The Group is currently assessing the impact of the amendments and whether existing loan agreements may require revision. Based on a preliminary assessment, the amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7 Supplier Finance Arrangements

Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7 clarify the characteristics of supplier finance arrangements and require additional disclosure of such arrangements. The disclosure requirements in the amendments are intended to assist users of financial statements in understanding the effects of supplier finance arrangements on an entity's liabilities, cash flows and exposure to liquidity risk. Earlier application of the amendments is permitted. The amendments provide certain transition reliefs regarding comparative information, quantitative information as at the beginning of the annual reporting period and interim disclosures. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 21 Lack of Exchangeability

Amendments to HKAS 21 specify how an entity shall assess whether a currency is exchangeable into another currency and how it shall estimate a spot exchange rate at a measurement date when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments require disclosures of information that enable users of financial statements to understand the impact of a currency not being exchangeable. Earlier application is permitted. When applying the amendments, an entity cannot restate comparative information. Any cumulative effect of initially applying the amendments shall be recognised as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained profits or to the cumulative amount of translation differences accumulated in a separate component of equity, where appropriate, at the date of initial application. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

2.2 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at 31 December 2023 and for the year then ended. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (i.e. existing rights that give that Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has, less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

All intra-group balances, transactions, unrealised gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated on consolidation in full.

Total comprehensive income within a subsidiary is attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests even if it results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill) liabilities, any non-controlling interest and the exchange fluctuation reserve; and recognises the fair value of any investment retained and any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

However, when subsidiaries of the Group are disposed and transferred to its associate, the gain or loss resulting from such disposal shall be recognised only to the extent of the portion that has been disposed of to the other investors of the associate.

2.3 Material accounting policies

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of financial position respectively.

The results of subsidiaries are included in the Company's profit or loss to the extent of dividends received and receivable. The Company's investments in subsidiaries that are not classified as held for sale in accordance with HKFRS 5 are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

Impairment losses, and any subsequent reversal of previously recognised impairment losses, are included in the Company's result for the financial year.

(b) Investments in associates and joint venture

Associates are all entities over which the Group has a long term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Investments in associates and joint venture are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

Under the equity method of accounting, the investment is initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. The Group's share of post-acquisition profit or loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in consolidated reserves with a corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the investment. The Group's investments in associates or joint venture include goodwill identified on acquisition. Upon the acquisition of the ownership interest in an associate or a joint venture, any difference between the cost of the investment and the Group's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted for as goodwill. When the Group's share of losses in an associate or a joint venture equal or exceeds its interests in the associates or joint venture (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associates or joint venture.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates or joint venture are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associates and joint venture. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of the associates and joint venture have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

If the ownership interest in an associate or a joint venture is reduced but significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate or joint venture is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate or joint venture and its carrying value and recognises the amount in 'Impairment charges on interest in associates and joint venture' in the profit or loss in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

Gain or losses on dilution of equity interest in associates and joint venture are recognised in the profit or loss.

(c) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method, except for business combinations under common control, in which case merger accounting is applied. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is re-measured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration that is deemed to be an asset or liability is recognised in accordance with HKAS 39 in profit or loss. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognised and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss.

Goodwill is further disclosed in note 2.3(h).

(d) Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for non-financial asset is required (other than deferred tax assets, financial assets and investment properties), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs to sell, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset (e.g., a headquarters building) is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the profit or loss in the period in which it arises, unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is accounted for in accordance with the relevant accounting policy for that revalued asset.

(e) Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and that person
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group;
- or
- (b) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or joint ventures by a person identified in (a); and
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the reporting entity or to the parent of the reporting entity.

(f) Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. When an item of property and equipment is classified as held for sale or when it is part of a disposal group classified as held for sale, it is not depreciated and is accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 5. The cost of an item of property and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Expenditure incurred after items of property and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis to write off the cost or valuation of each item of equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Leasehold land and buildings	2%
Leasehold improvement	20%
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	20%

Where parts of an item of property and equipment have different useful lives, the cost or valuation of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

The carrying amount of an item in property and equipment is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the assets' carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

An item of property and equipment including any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

(g) Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings (including right of use assets) held to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. Such properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at fair value, which reflects market conditions at the end of the reporting period by an external valuer.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair values of investment properties are included in profit or loss in the year in which they arise.

Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in profit or loss in the year of the retirement or disposal.

(h) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value at the date of acquisition. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite. Intangible assets with finite lives are subsequently amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangible assets are not amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is accounted for on a prospective basis.

Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisition of subsidiaries represents the excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identified net assets acquired.

Goodwill (Continued)

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

Goodwill impairment reviews are undertaken annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment. The carrying value of the CGU containing the goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently reversed.

Computer software

Costs associated with maintaining computer software programmes are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group are recognised as intangible assets when the following criteria are met.

- It is technically feasible to complete the software product so that it will be available for use;
- Management intends to complete the software product and use or sell it;
- There is an ability to use or sell the software product;
- It can be demonstrated how the software product will generate probable future economic benefits;
- Adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the software product are available; and
- The expenditure attributable to the software product during its development can be reliably measured.

Directly attributable costs that are capitalised as part of the software product include the software development employee costs and an appropriate portion of relevant overheads. Other development expenditures that do not meet these criteria are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognised as an expense are not recognised as an asset in a subsequent period.

These costs are amortised on the straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 1 to 10 years.

Club memberships

Club memberships are carried at cost less any impairment losses. Cost of club memberships is equivalent to the fair value of consideration to acquire the club memberships. The amortisation of these intangible assets is based on the expected useful lives of these assets.

Patents and licences

Purchased patents and licences are stated at cost less any impairment losses and are amortised on the straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 10 to 15 years.

(i) Leases

Leases are recognised as a right of use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right of use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group uses recent financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

Right of use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs.

Right of use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right of use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life as follows:

Payments associated with short-term leases and all leases of low-value assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less without a purchase option.

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of machinery and equipment (that is those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets to leases of office equipment and laptop computers that are considered to be of low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term (note 13). Initial direct costs incurred in obtaining an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the underlying asset and recognised as expense over the lease term on the same basis as lease income. The respective leased assets are included in the consolidated statement of financial position based on their nature.

(j) Investment and other financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income ("OCI"), or through profit or loss), and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or OCI. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI").

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVPL are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is calculated using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss together with foreign exchange gains and losses.
- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in investment income. Interest income from these financial assets is calculated using the effective interest rate method. Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in other income.
- FVPL: Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within investment income in the period in which it arises.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in OCI, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as investment income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVPL are recognised in investment income in the profit or loss as applicable.

Impairment

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition and considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information. The Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

- Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
- Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
- Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

(k) Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments that are traded in active markets is determined by reference to quoted market prices or dealer price quotations (bid price for long positions and ask price for short positions), without any deduction for transaction costs. For financial instruments where there is no active market, the fair value is determined using appropriate valuation techniques. Such techniques include using recent arm's length market transactions; reference to the current market value of another instrument which is substantially the same; a discounted cash flow analysis; and option pricing models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values. Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility.

(l) Derecognition of financial assets

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a "pass-through" arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risk and rewards of ownership of the asset. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognised to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement in the asset. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

(m) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities within the scope of HKFRS 9 are classified as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, other financial liabilities measured at amortised costs, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of other financial liabilities measured at amortised cost, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Other financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

After initial recognition, other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost of other financial liabilities are calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

Other financial liabilities measured at amortised cost are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

(n) Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

(o) Derivative financial instruments

Initial recognition and subsequent measurement

The Group uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps, to hedge its foreign currency risk and interest rate risk, respectively. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of derivatives are taken directly to the statement of profit or loss, except for the effective portion of cash flow hedges, which is recognised in other comprehensive income and later reclassified to profit or loss when the hedged item affects profit or loss.

(p) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset, and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

(q) Insurance and reinsurance contracts classification

The Group issues insurance contracts in the normal course of business, under which it accepts significant insurance risk from its policyholders. As a general guideline, the Group determines whether it has significant insurance risk, by comparing benefits payable after an insured event with benefits payable if the insured event did not occur. Insurance contracts can also transfer financial risk. The Group issues non-life insurance to individuals and businesses. Non-life insurance products offered include property, misc. accident, engineering, marine cargo, specialty, employee compensation, marine hull & machinery, motor vehicles, public liability, credit insurance. These products offer protection of policyholder's assets and indemnification of other parties that have suffered damage as a result of a policyholder's accident.

The Group also issues reinsurance contracts in the normal course of business to compensate other entities for claims arising from one or more insurance contracts issued by those entities.

(r) Insurance and reinsurance contracts accounting treatment

(i) Separating components from insurance and reinsurance contracts

The Group assesses its non-life insurance and reinsurance products to determine whether they contain distinct components which must be accounted for under another HKFRS instead of under HKFRS 17. After separating any distinct components, the Group applies HKFRS 17 to all remaining components of the (host) insurance contract. Currently, the Group's products do not include any distinct components that require separation.

(ii) Level of aggregation

HKFRS 17 requires a Group to determine the level of aggregation for applying its requirements. The level of aggregation for the Group is determined firstly by dividing the business written into portfolios. Portfolios comprise groups of contracts with similar risks which are managed together. Portfolios are further divided based on expected profitability at inception into three categories: onerous contracts, contracts with no significant risk of becoming onerous, and the remainder. This means that, for determining the level of aggregation, the Group identifies a contract as the smallest 'unit', i.e. the lowest common denominator. However, the Group makes an evaluation of whether a series of contracts need to be treated together as one unit based on reasonable and supportable information, or whether a single contract contains components that need to be separated and treated as if they were stand-alone contracts. As such, what is treated as a contract for accounting purposes may differ from what is considered as a contract for other purposes (i.e. legal or management). HKFRS 17 also requires that no group for level of aggregation purposes may contain contracts issued more than one year apart.

The Group applied a full retrospective approach for transition to HKFRS 17. The portfolios are further divided by year of issue and profitability for recognition and measurement purposes. Hence, within each year of issue, portfolios of contracts are divided into three groups, as follows:

- A group of contracts that are onerous at initial recognition (if any)
- A group of contracts that, at initial recognition, have no significant possibility of becoming onerous subsequently (if any)
- A group of the remaining contracts in the portfolio (if any)

The profitability of groups of contracts is assessed by actuarial valuation models that take into consideration existing and new business. The Group assumes that no contracts in the portfolio are onerous at initial recognition unless facts and circumstances indicate otherwise. For contracts that are not onerous, the Group assesses, at initial recognition, that there is no significant possibility of becoming onerous subsequently by assessing the likelihood of changes in applicable facts and circumstances. The Group considers the readily available information from internal reporting and actuarial valuation that captures information about estimates to identify whether a group of contracts are onerous based on.

The Group divides portfolios of reinsurance contracts held applying the same principles set out above, except that the references to onerous contracts refer to contracts on which there is a net gain on initial recognition. For some groups of reinsurance contracts held, a group can comprise a single contract.

(iii) Recognition

The Group recognises a group of reinsurance contracts held it has entered into from the earlier of the following:

- The beginning of the coverage period of the group of reinsurance contracts held. (However, the Group delays the recognition of a group of reinsurance contracts held that provide proportionate coverage until the date any underlying insurance contract is initially recognised, if that date is later than the beginning of the coverage period of the group of reinsurance contracts held; and
- The date the Group recognises an onerous group of underlying insurance contracts if the Group entered into the related reinsurance contract held in the group of reinsurance contracts held at or before that date.

(iv) Contract boundary

The Group includes in the measurement of a group of insurance contracts all the future cash flows within the boundary of each contract in the group. Cash flows are within the boundary of an insurance contract if they arise from substantive rights and obligations that exist during the reporting period in which the Group can compel the policyholder to pay the premiums, or in which the Group has a substantive obligation to provide the policyholder with insurance contract services. A substantive obligation to provide insurance contract services ends when:

- The Group has the practical ability to reassess the risks of the particular policyholder and, as a result, can set a price or level of benefits that fully reflects those risks.

Or

Both of the following criteria are satisfied:

- The Group has the practical ability to reassess the risks of the portfolio of insurance contracts that contain the contract and, as a result, can set a price or level of benefits that fully reflects the risk of that portfolio; and
- The pricing of the premiums up to the date when the risks are reassessed does not take into account the risks that relate to periods after the reassessment date.

A liability or asset relating to expected premiums or claims outside the boundary of the insurance contract is not recognised. Such amounts relate to future insurance contracts.

(s) Measurement – Premium Allocation Approach

	HKFRS 17 Options	Adopted approach
Premium Allocation Approach (PAA) Eligibility	Subject to specified criteria, the PAA can be adopted as a simplified approach to the HKFRS 17 general model	Coverage period of insurance contracts for goods in transit and reinsurance outward contracts for other liabilities, employees' compensation, accident, construction, goods in transit and non-proportional treaty are completely one year or less and so qualifies automatically for PAA. Insurance contracts issued for motor, employees' compensation, other liabilities, property damage, accident, construction, credit and reinsurance outward contracts held for property damage include contracts with coverage period greater than one year. However, there is no material difference in the measurement of the liability for remaining coverage between PAA and the general model, therefore, these qualify for PAA. Proportional treaty outward does not pass the materiality test and require quantitative testing. The result shows max absolute difference between PAA and general model is below 5%, therefore passes the PAA eligibility requirement.
Insurance acquisition cash flows for insurance contracts issued	Where the coverage period of all contracts within a group is not longer than one year, insurance acquisition cash flows can either be expensed as incurred, or allocated, using a systematic and rational method, to groups of insurance contracts (including future groups containing insurance contracts that are expected to arise from renewals) and then amortised over the coverage period of the related group. For groups containing contracts longer than one year, insurance acquisition cash flows must be allocated to related groups of insurance contracts and amortised over the coverage period of the related group.	For all business, insurance acquisition cash flows are allocated to related groups of insurance contracts and amortised over the coverage period of the related group.
Liability for Remaining Coverage (LFRC), adjusted for financial risk and time value of money	Where there is no significant financing component in relation to the LFRC, or where the time between providing each part of the services and the related premium due date is no more than a year, an entity is not required to make an adjustment for accretion of interest on the LFRC.	CPA HK does not have a significant financing component for each group and therefore will not make an adjustment for accretion of interest on the LFRC.

Liability for Incurred Claims, (LFIC) adjusted for time value of money	Where claims are expected to be paid within a year of the date that the claim is incurred, it is not required to adjust these amounts for the time value of money.	For all group/ portfolio of business, the LFIC is adjusted for the time value of money.
Insurance finance income and expense	There is an option to disaggregate part of the movement in LFIC resulting from changes in discount rates and present this in OCI.	For all business, the change in LFIC as a result of changes in discount rates will be captured within profit or loss.

(i) Insurance contracts – initial measurement

The Group applies the premium allocation approach (PAA) to all the insurance contracts that it issues and reinsurance contracts that it holds, as:

- The coverage period of each contract in the group is one year or less, including insurance contract services arising from all premiums within the contract boundary (refer to Note 2.3(r)(iv))

Or

- For contracts longer than one year, the Group has modelled possible future scenarios and reasonably expects that the measurement of the liability for remaining coverage for the group containing those contracts under the PAA does not differ materially from the measurement that would be produced applying the general model. In assessing materiality, the Group has also considered qualitative factors such as the nature of the risk and types of its lines of business.

The Group does not apply the PAA if, at the inception of the group of contracts, it expects significant variability in the fulfilment cash flows that would affect the measurement of the liability for the remaining coverage during the period before a claim is incurred. Variability in the fulfilment cash flows increases with, for example:

- The extent of future cash flows related to any derivatives embedded in the contracts
- The length of the coverage period of the group of contracts

For a group of contracts that is not onerous at initial recognition, the Group measures the liability for remaining coverage as:

- The premiums, if any, received at initial recognition;
- Minus any insurance acquisition cash flows at that date, with the exception of contracts which are one year or less where this is expensed;
- Plus or minus any amount arising from the derecognition at that date of the asset recognised for insurance acquisition cash flows; and
- Any other asset or liability previously recognised for cash flows related to the group of contracts that the Group pays or receives before the group of insurance contracts is recognised.

For each group of business, there is no allowance for time value of money on the liability for remaining coverage as there is no significant financing component existed.

Where facts and circumstances indicate that contracts are onerous at initial recognition, the Group performs additional analysis to determine if a net outflow is expected from the contract. Such onerous contracts are separately grouped from other contracts and the Group recognises a loss in profit or loss for the net outflow, resulting in the carrying amount of the liability for the group being equal to the fulfilment cash flows. A loss component is established by the Group for the liability for remaining coverage for such onerous group depicting the losses recognised. For additional disclosures on the loss component, please refer to Note 2.3(s)(ix).

(ii) Reinsurance contracts held – initial measurement

The Group measures its reinsurance assets for a group of reinsurance contracts that it holds on the same basis as insurance contracts that it issues. However, they are adapted to reflect the features of reinsurance contracts held that differ from insurance contracts issued, for example the generation of expenses or reduction in expenses rather than revenue.

Where the Group recognises a loss on initial recognition of an onerous group of underlying insurance contracts or when further onerous underlying insurance contracts are added to a group, the Group establishes a loss-recovery component of the asset for remaining coverage for a group of reinsurance contracts held depicting the recovery of losses.

The Group calculates the loss-recovery component by multiplying the loss recognised on the underlying insurance contracts and the percentage of claims on the underlying insurance contracts the Group expects to recover from the group of reinsurance contracts held. The Group uses a systematic and rational method to determine the portion of losses recognised on the group to insurance contracts covered by the group of reinsurance contracts held where some contracts in the underlying group are not covered by the group of reinsurance contracts held.

The loss-recovery component adjusts the carrying amount of the asset for remaining coverage.

(iii) Insurance contracts – subsequent measurement

The Group measures the carrying amount of the liability for remaining coverage at the end of each reporting period as the liability for remaining coverage at the beginning of the period:

- Plus premiums received in the period
- Minus insurance acquisition cash flows paid
- Plus any amounts relating to the amortisation of the insurance acquisition cash flows recognised as an expense in the reporting period for the group
- Plus any adjustment to the financing component, where applicable
- Minus the amount recognised as insurance revenue for the services provided in the period
- Minus any investment component paid or transferred to the liability for incurred claims

The Group estimates the liability for incurred claims as the fulfilment cash flows related to incurred claims. The fulfilment cash flows incorporate, in an unbiased way, all reasonable and supportable information available without undue cost or effort about the amount, timing and uncertainty of those future cash flows, they reflect current estimates from the perspective of the Group, and include an explicit adjustment for non-financial risk (the risk adjustment). The Group does not adjust the future cash flows for the time value of money and the effect of financial risk for the measurement of liability for incurred claims that are expected to be paid within one year of being incurred.

Where, during the coverage period, facts and circumstances indicate that a group of insurance contracts is onerous, the Group recognises a loss in profit or loss for the net outflow, resulting in the carrying amount of the liability for the group being equal to the fulfilment cash flows. A loss component is established by the Group for the liability for remaining coverage for such onerous group depicting the losses recognised. For additional disclosures on the loss component, please refer to Note 2.3(s)(ix).

Insurance acquisition cash flows are allocated on a straight-line basis as a portion of premium to profit or loss (through insurance revenue).

(iv) Reinsurance contracts held – subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of reinsurance contracts held follows the same principles as those for insurance contracts issued and has been adapted to reflect the specific features of reinsurance held.

Where the Group has established a loss-recovery component, the Group subsequently reduces the loss-recovery component to zero in line with reductions in the onerous group of underlying insurance contracts in order to reflect that the loss-recovery component shall not exceed the portion of the carrying amount of the loss component of the onerous group of underlying insurance contracts that the entity expects to recover from the group of reinsurance contracts held.

(v) Insurance acquisition cash flows

Insurance acquisition cash flows arise from the costs of selling, underwriting and starting a group of insurance contracts (issued or expected to be issued) that are directly attributable to the portfolio of insurance contracts to which the group belongs. The Group uses a systematic and rational method to allocate:

(a) Insurance acquisition cash flows that are directly attributable to a group of insurance contracts:

- to that group; and
- to groups that include insurance contracts that are expected to arise from the renewals of the insurance contracts in that group.

- (b) Insurance acquisition cash flows directly attributable to a portfolio of insurance contracts that are not directly attributable to a group of contracts, to groups in the portfolio.

Where insurance acquisition cash flows have been paid or incurred before the related group of insurance contracts is recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position, a separate asset for insurance acquisition cash flows is recognised for each related group.

The asset for insurance acquisition cash flow is derecognised from the consolidated statement of financial position when the insurance acquisition cash flows are included in the initial measurement of the related group of insurance contracts.

(vi) Insurance contracts – modification and derecognition

The Group derecognises insurance contracts when:

- The rights and obligations relating to the contract are extinguished (i.e. discharged, cancelled or expired)

Or

- The contract is modified such that the modification results in a change in the measurement model or the applicable standard for measuring a component of the contract, substantially changes the contract boundary, or requires the modified contract to be included in a different group. In such cases, the Group derecognises the initial contract and recognises the modified contract as a new contract

When a modification is not treated as a derecognition, the Group recognises amounts paid or received for the modification with the contract as an adjustment to the relevant liability for remaining coverage.

(vii) Presentation

The Group has presented separately, in the consolidated statement of financial position, the carrying amount of portfolios of insurance contracts issued that are assets, portfolios of insurance contracts issued that are liabilities, portfolios of reinsurance contracts held that are assets and portfolios of reinsurance contracts held that are liabilities.

Any assets for insurance acquisition cash flows recognised before the corresponding insurance contracts are included in the carrying amount of the related groups of insurance contracts are allocated to the carrying amount of the portfolios of insurance contracts that they relate to.

The Group disaggregates the total amount recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, comprising insurance revenue and insurance service expense, and insurance finance income or expenses.

The Group does not disaggregate the change in risk adjustment for non-financial risk between a financial and non-financial portion and includes the entire change as part of the insurance service result.

The insurance revenue for the period is the amount of expected premium receipts (excluding any investment component) allocated to the period. The Group allocates the expected premium receipts to each period of insurance contract services on the basis of the passage of time. But if the expected pattern of release of risk during the coverage period differs significantly from the passage of time, then the allocation is made on the basis of the expected timing of incurred insurance service expenses.

The Group changes the basis of allocation between the two methods above as necessary, if facts and circumstances change. The change is accounted for prospectively as a change in accounting estimate.

For the periods presented, all revenue has been recognised on the basis of the passage of time.

The Group assumes that no contracts are onerous at initial recognition unless facts and circumstances indicate otherwise. Where this is not the case, and if at any time during the coverage period, the facts and circumstances mentioned in Note 2.3(r)(ii) indicate that a group of insurance contracts is onerous, the Group establishes a loss component as the excess of the fulfilment cash flows that relate to the remaining coverage of the group over the carrying amount of the liability for remaining coverage of the group as determined in Note 2.3(s)(iii). Accordingly, by the end of the coverage period of the group of contracts the loss component will be zero.

(x) Loss-recovery components

As described in Note 2.3(s)(ii) above, where the Group recognises a loss on initial recognition of an onerous group of underlying insurance contracts, or when further onerous underlying insurance contracts are added to a group, the Group establishes a loss-recovery component of the asset for remaining coverage for a group of reinsurance contracts held depicting the expected recovery of the losses.

A loss-recovery component is subsequently reduced to zero in line with reductions in the onerous group of underlying insurance contracts in order to reflect that the loss-recovery component shall not exceed the portion of the carrying amount of the loss component of the onerous group of underlying insurance contracts that the entity expects to recover from the group of reinsurance contracts held.

(xi) Insurance finance income and expense

Insurance finance income or expenses comprise the change in the carrying amount of the group of insurance contracts arising from:

- The effect of the time value of money and changes in the time value of money; and
- The effect of financial risk and changes in financial risk.

The Group makes use of a general fund and there is no direct link between the investment assets backing the insurance contract liabilities. The Group does not disaggregate finance income and expenses into profit or loss and other comprehensive income, but recognise the entire amount in consolidated statement of profit or loss.

(xii) Net income or expense from reinsurance contracts held

The Group presents on the face of the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the income or expense from a group of reinsurance contracts held. The Group treats reinsurance cash flows that are contingent on claims on the underlying contracts as part of the claims that are expected to be reimbursed under the reinsurance contract held, and excludes investment components and commissions from an allocation of reinsurance premiums presented on the face of the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

(t) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term highly liquid deposits with a maturity of generally within three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the consolidated statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term deposits as defined above, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

(u) Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, for example, under an insurance contract, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset, but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the statement of profit or loss net of any reimbursement.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in profit or loss.

(v) Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

(w) Interest income

Interest income from financial assets at FVPL is calculated using coupon rate and included in investment income, see note 5(a) below.

Interest income on financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at FVOCI calculated using the effective interest method is recognised in the statement of profit or loss as part of other income.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset except for financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the impairment loss allowance).

(x) Dividend income

Dividends are received from financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) and at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Dividends are recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right to receive payment is established.

(y) Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary difference;
- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary difference; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with interests in subsidiaries and associates when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry-forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry-forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary difference; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with interests in subsidiaries and associates, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Conversely, previously unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it is probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

(z) Revenue recognition

The Group's main revenue is recognised on the following bases:

- (i) management fee and commission income are recognised over time by reference to stages of completion of the specific transaction and assessed in the basis of actual services provided as a portion of the total service to be provided;
- (ii) rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

(aa) Employee benefits

Bonus plans

The Group operates a bonus plan by which it makes its employees eligible for receiving discretionary bonuses based on the performance of the Group and the respective employee. The expected costs of bonus payments are recognised as a liability when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of services rendered by employees and a reliable estimate of the obligation can be made. Liabilities for bonus plans are expected to be settled within 12 months and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when they are settled.

Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the statement of financial position date. Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

Pension scheme

The Group operates a mandatory provident fund scheme ("MPF Scheme") in Hong Kong. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held in a separate trustee-administered fund. Both the Group and the employees are required to contribute a fixed percentage of the employees' relevant income up to a maximum sum per employee per month. The Group's contributions to the MPF Scheme are expensed as incurred.

The Group also operates a defined contribution retirement benefits scheme under the Occupational Retirement Scheme Ordinance for those employees who are eligible and have elected to participate in the scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the participating employees' basic salaries and are charged to profit or loss as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the scheme. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. When an employee leaves the scheme prior to his/her interest in the Group's employer contributions becoming fully vested, the ongoing contributions payable by the Group may be reduced by the relevant amount of forfeited contributions.

Employees of Group's subsidiaries that operate in Chinese Mainland are covered by various defined contribution pension plans. The Group makes and accrues contributions on a monthly basis to the pension plans, which are mainly sponsored by the related government authorities that are responsible for the pension liability to retired employees. Under such plans, the Group has no other significant legal or constructive obligations for retirement benefits beyond the said contributions, which are expensed as incurred. Certain employees are also provided with group life insurance but the amounts involved are insignificant.

Hong Kong Employment Ordinance long service payments

The Group is obligated to make long service payment to qualifying employees in Hong Kong with a minimum of 5 years' employment period upon retirement or termination of employment under certain circumstances, in accordance with Hong Kong Employment Ordinance (the "Employment Ordinance"). Long service payment is calculated based on the last monthly salary of the employee and the number of years of service. There are provisions under the Employment Ordinance permitting employers to offset employees' long service payment against the accrued benefits attributable to employers' contributions to the MPF Scheme. In 2022, the Employment and Retirement Schemes Legislation (Offsetting Arrangement) (Amendment) Bill 2022 (the "Amendment Bill") was enacted, such that the Group can no longer use accrued benefits arising from MPF mandatory employer contributions to offset employees' long service payment accrued as from the transition date (i.e. 1 May 2025). The enactment of the Amendment Bill is treated as a plan amendment. Except for the statutory right to offset as described above, the long service payment benefits are unfunded. The Group is liable to make such payments in the event that such a termination of employment meets the circumstances specified in the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance.

(ab) Share-based payments

The Group participates in an equity-settled, share-based compensation scheme ("Long-term Service Plan") set up by its ultimate holding company, under which the Group receives services from certain employees as consideration for equities of the ultimate holding company as set out in note 39.

The amount paid to the scheme is presented as "Subscription in share award scheme" and deducted from total equity. Subscription in the share award scheme is credited when services are received during the vesting period and debited as general and administrative expenses.

The awardees are entitled to the equities of the ultimate holding company upon meeting all vesting conditions.

Where the employee's entitlement to the share award scheme is forfeited due to a service condition not met, the expense is reversed to reflect the best available estimate of the amount of share award scheme expected to vest.

(ac) Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which are the Group's presentation currency and the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions are initially recorded using the functional currency rates prevailing at the date of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the reporting date. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in profit or loss, with the exception of those in respect of monetary items that provide an effective hedge for a net investment in a foreign operation. These are recognised in other comprehensive income until the disposal of the net investment, at which time they are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e. translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries and associates are currencies other than the Hong Kong dollar. As at the reporting date, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into the presentation currency of the Group at the exchange rates prevailing at the reporting date, and their statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve, except to the extent that the differences are attributable to non-controlling interests. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount in the reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated cash flow statement, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries and associates are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries and associates which arise throughout the year are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate. Currency translation differences arising are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(ad) Structured entities

A structured entity is an entity that has been designed so that voting or similar rights are not the dominant factor in deciding who controls the entity, such as when any voting rights relate to administrative tasks only and the relevant activities are directed by means of contractual arrangements. A structured entity often has some or all of the following features or attributes; (a) restricted activities, (b) a narrow and well-defined objective, such as to provide investment opportunities for investors by passing on risks and rewards associated with the assets of the structured entity to investors, (c) insufficient equity to permit the structured entity to finance its activities without subordinated financial support and (d) financing in the form of multiple contractually linked instruments to investors that create concentrations of credit or other risks (tranches).

The Group considers all of their investments in funds ("Investee Funds") under the Group's management or advisory to be investments in unconsolidated structured entities. The Group invests in Investee Funds whose objective is to achieve long term capital growth. The Investee Funds finance their operations by issuing redeemable units which are puttable at the holder's option and entitles the holder to a proportional stake in the respective fund's net assets. The Group holds redeemable units in each of their Investee Funds.

The change in fair value of each Investee Funds is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the Group in "Investment Income".

3 Significant accounting judgement and estimates

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements and estimates that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

Fair value of financial instruments determined using valuation techniques

The Group has significant unlisted equities, debts, funds, convertible promissory note and derivatives with the net amount of HK$29,900,946,048 (2022: HK$30,368,957,235). The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques.

Fair value, in the absence of an active market, is estimated by using valuation techniques, applying currently applicable and sufficiently available data, and the valuation techniques supported by other information, mainly include market approach and income approach, reference to recent arm's length transactions, current market value of another instrument which substantially the same, and by using the discounted cash flow analysis and option pricing models.

When using valuation techniques to determine the fair value of financial instruments, the Group would choose the input value in consistent with market participants, considering the transactions of related assets and liabilities. All related observable market parameters are considered in priority, including interest rate, foreign exchange rate, commodity prices and share prices or index. When related observable parameters are unavailable or inaccessible, the Group uses unobservable parameters including enterprise value to sales ratio, price to book ratio and discount rate and makes estimates for credit risk, market volatility and liquidity adjustments.

Using different valuation techniques and parameter assumptions may lead to significant difference of fair value estimation. Valuation techniques are disclosed in note 40.

The fair value of convertible promissory notes is determined using binomial model and discounted cash flow method. Valuation technique requires the Group to make significant judgement in estimating future cash flows, to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows, spot price, and estimating volatility of future market price of the underlying share.

Measurement of the expected credit loss ("ECL") allowance

The measurement of the expected credit loss allowance for financial assets measured at amortised cost and FVOCI is an area that requires the use of complex models and significant assumptions about future economic conditions and credit behaviour. Explanation of the inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques used in measuring ECL is further detailed in note 41.

A number of significant judgements are also required in applying the accounting requirements for measuring ECL, such as:

- Determining criteria for significant increase in credit risk;
- Choosing appropriate models and assumptions for the measurement of ECL;
- Establishing groups of similar financial assets for the purposes of measuring ECL

Insurance and reinsurance contracts

The Group applies the PAA to simplify the measurement of insurance contracts. When measuring liabilities for remaining coverage, the PAA is broadly similar to the Group's previous accounting treatment under HKFRS 4. However, when measuring liabilities for incurred claims, the Group now discounts cash flows that are expected to occur more than one year after the date on which the claims are incurred and includes an explicit risk adjustment for non-financial risk.

i. Liability for remaining coverage

Insurance acquisition cash flows

The insurance acquisition cash flows are allocated to related groups of insurance contracts recognised in the statement of financial position (including those groups that will include insurance contracts expected to arise from renewals), where groups are not eligible to recognise an expense immediately. An asset for insurance acquisition cash flows is recognised for acquisition cash flows incurred before the related group of insurance contracts has been recognised.

The effect of electing to recognise insurance acquisition cash flows as an expense when incurred for a group of insurance contracts is to increase the liability for remaining coverage and reduce the likelihood of any subsequent onerous contract loss. There would be an increased charge to profit or loss on incurring the expense, offset by an increase in profit released over the coverage period.

Release of liability for remaining coverage

The release of liability for remaining coverage into insurance revenue is based on expected premiums, where for reinsurance contracts issued this implies estimation of premiums for all insurance service provided, including those not yet reported by the ceding companies.

Onerous groups

For groups of contracts that are onerous, the liability for remaining coverage is determined by the fulfilment cash flows. Any loss-recovery component is determined with reference to the loss component recognised on underlying contracts and the recovery expected on such claims from reinsurance contracts held.

Time value of money

For each group of business, there is no allowance for time value of money on the liability for remaining coverage as there is no significant financing component existed.

ii. Liability for incurred claims

The ultimate cost of outstanding claims is estimated by using a range of standard actuarial claims projection techniques, such as Chain Ladder and Bornheutter-Ferguson methods.

The main assumption underlying these techniques is that a Group's past claims development experience can be used to project future claims development and hence ultimate claims costs. These methods extrapolate the development of paid and incurred losses, average costs per claim (including claims handling costs), and claim numbers based on the observed development of earlier years and expected loss ratios. Historical claims development is mainly analysed by accident years, but can also be further analysed by geographical area, as well as by significant business lines and claim types. Large claims are usually separately addressed, either by being reserved at the face value of loss adjuster estimates or separately projected in order to reflect their future development. In most cases, no explicit assumptions are made regarding future rates of claims inflation or loss ratios. Instead, the assumptions used are those implicit in the historical claims development data on which the projections are based. Additional qualitative judgement is used to assess the extent to which past trends may not apply in future, (e.g., to reflect one-off occurrences, changes in external or market factors such as public attitudes to claiming, economic conditions, levels of claims inflation, judicial decisions and legislation, as well as internal factors such as portfolio mix, policy features and claims handling procedures) in order to arrive at the estimated ultimate cost of claims that present the probability weighted expected value outcome from the range of possible outcomes, taking account of all the uncertainties involved.

Some of the insurance contracts that have been written in the property line of business permit the Group to sell property acquired in settling a claim. The Group also has the right to pursue third parties for payment of some or all costs. Estimates of salvage recoveries and subrogation reimbursements are considered as an allowance in the measurement of ultimate claims costs.

Other key circumstances affecting the reliability of assumptions include variation in interest rates, delays in settlement and changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

iii. Discount rates

Insurance contract liabilities are calculated by discounting expected future cash flows at a risk free rate. Risk free rates are determined by reference to the yields of highly liquid exchange fund bills & notes and Hong Kong government bonds.

Discount rates applied for discounting of future cash flows are listed below:

Spot
Rate	4.49%	3.90%	3.84%	3.57%	3.68%	4.03%

iv. Risk adjustment for non-financial risk

The risk adjustment for non-financial risk is the compensation that the Group requires for bearing the uncertainty about the amount and timing of the cash flows of groups of insurance contracts. The risk adjustment reflects an amount that an insurer would rationally pay to remove the uncertainty that future cash flows will exceed the expected value amount.

The Group has estimated the risk adjustment using a confidence level (probability of sufficiency) approach at the 75th percentile. That is, the Group has assessed its indifference to uncertainty for all product lines (as an indication of the compensation that it requires for bearing non-financial risk) as being equivalent to the 75th percentile confidence level less the mean of an estimated probability distribution of the future cash flows. The Group has estimated the probability distribution of the future cash flows, and the additional amount above the expected present value of future cash flows required to meet the target percentiles.

Leases – Estimating the incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in a lease, and therefore, it uses an incremental borrowing rate ("IBR") to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right of use asset in a similar economic environment. The IBR therefore reflects what the Group "would have to pay", which requires estimation when no observable rates are available (such as for subsidiaries that do not enter into financing transactions) or when it needs to be adjusted to reflect the terms and conditions of the lease (for example, when leases are not in the subsidiary's functional currency). The Group estimates the IBR using observable inputs (such as market interest rates) when available and is required to make certain entity-specific estimates (such as the subsidiary's stand-alone credit rating).

4. Operating Segment Information

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their business activities and has two reportable operating segments as follows:

- (a) the insurance segment engages in the provision of underwriting of general insurance; and
- (b) the investment segment engages in investment holding and other businesses.

Management monitors the results of its operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit/ (loss), which is a measure of profit/ (loss) before tax from existing operations.

Intersegment transactions are conducted with reference to the terms used for transactions with third parties.

The directors of the Group also receive emoluments from its ultimate holding company. No apportionment has been made as the directors consider that it is impracticable to apportion this amount between their services to the Group and their services to the Group's parent company. In addition, the directors' services to the Group only occupy an insignificant amount of their time as compared to their service to the ultimate holding company.

Certain directors are entitled to share-based payments set up by Ping An Insurance (Group) Company of China, Ltd. Details of share-based payments are set out in note 39.

Directors' material interests in transactions, arrangements or contracts

No significant transactions, arrangements and contracts in relation to the Group's business to which the Group was a party and in which a director of the Group had a material interest, whether directly or indirectly, subsisted at the end of the year or at any time during the year.

12 Income tax

For the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, the provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been calculated in accordance with the two-tiered profits tax rates regime. Under the two-tiered profits tax rates regime, the first HK$2 million of assessable profits of a qualifying corporation of the Group will be taxed at 8.25%, and assessable profits above HK$2 million of the qualifying corporation will be taxed at 16.5%. The assessable profits of the other entities of the Group in Hong Kong not qualifying for the two-tiered profits tax rates regime will continue to be taxed at the flat rate of 16.5%. Taxes on profits assessable elsewhere have been calculated at the rates of tax prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates, based on existing legislation, interpretations and practices in respect thereof.

Impairment test for goodwill

Goodwill is allocated to the Group's CGUs that are expected to benefit from business combination which primarily arises from acquisition of Tenshindo Co., Ltd, a subsidiary of the Group. Impairment testing is performed annually on goodwill allocated to the CGUs identified by comparing their recoverable amount to their carrying amount as at the end of the reporting period.

The recoverable amount of a CGU is determined based on higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal calculation. These calculations use cash flow projections based on financial budget covering a five-year period. The cash flow projections over the five-year period are based on financial forecasts using an estimated average revenue growth rate of 30.9% (2022: 19.0%) and average operating margin of 14.1% (2022: 10.1%). Cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated in perpetuity using a stable growth rate of 0% (2022: 0%). The discount rate used is approximately 12.6% (post-tax) (2022: 12.2%) and reflects market assessments of the time value and the specific risks relating to the industry.

The insurance contract liabilities are refined on a regular ongoing process as claims experience develops, certain claims are settled and further claims are reported. Liabilities for incurred claims are also discounted for the time value of money.

The measurement process primarily includes projection of future claims costs through a combination of actuarial and statistical projection techniques such as the Incurred and Paid Claim Development methods, Bornhuetter-Ferguson method, Expected Loss Ratio method and Frequency-Severity method. Liabilities for incurred claims are separately analysed by class of business. The claims projection assumptions are generally intended to provide a best estimate of the most likely or expected outcome.

Assumptions

The principal assumption underlying the estimates is that the Group's past claims development experience can be used to project future claim development. This includes assumptions in respect of average claim costs, claims handling costs and claim numbers for each accident year. Judgement is used to assess the extent to which external factors such as judicial decisions and government legislation affect the estimates.

Other key assumptions include settlement practice and expected loss ratios.

Sensitivities

The provision for insurance contract liabilities is sensitive to the above key assumptions. The sensitivity of certain variables like legislative change, uncertainty in the estimation process, etc., is not possible to quantify. Furthermore, because of delays that arise between occurrence of a claim and its subsequent notification and eventual settlement, the outstanding claim provisions are not known with certainty at the end of the reporting period.

Consequently, the ultimate liabilities will vary as a result of subsequent developments. Differences resulting from re-assessment of the ultimate liabilities are recognised in subsequent years' consolidated financial statements.

(b) Reinsurance - Terms, assumption and methods

The Group limits its exposure to loss within insurance operations through participation in reinsurance arrangements. The majority of the business ceded is placed on a proportional basis with retention limits varying by product line and territory. The Group also purchases reinsurance to protect it from single large claims and from aggregation of claims arising from a single event. The amount of the Group's retention under such arrangements is determined by the Group having regard to the Group's risk appetite and available capital. During the year, the Group entered into a loss portfolio transfer reinsurance agreement with Ping An Property & Casualty Insurance Company of China, Ltd., the fellow subsidiary, to transfer outstanding losses occurring in respects of specific classes of business prior to 1 January 2023. Amounts recoverable from reinsurers are estimated in a manner consistent with the assumptions used for ascertaining the underlying policy benefits and are presented in the statement of financial position as reinsurance assets.

Even though the Group may have reinsurance arrangements, it is not relieved of its direct obligations to its policyholders and thus a credit exposure exists with respect to reinsurance ceded, to the extent that any reinsurers is unable to meet its obligations assumed under such reinsurance agreements.

The Group leases its investment properties as lessor under operating lease arrangements. The terms of the leases also require the tenants to pay security deposits.

(a) Financial instruments in level 1

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the statement of financial position date. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. The quoted market prices used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price.

(b) Financial instruments in level 2

The fair value of financial instruments not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Specific valuation technique used to value financial instruments include recent transaction price and quoted market prices from dealer or custodian.

(c) Financial instruments in level 3

If one or more of the significant input is not based on observable market data, the investment is included in level 3.

Notes:

- (a) Net asset value of the investment refers to the Group's share of the reported asset and liability position of the investment as provided by the fund administrator. The Group has determined that the reported net asset value represents fair value at the end of the reporting period.
- (b) Accrued method is the fair value of the underlying financial assets adjusted for earned or settled cash flow up to the end of the reporting period.
- (c) An increase in enterprise value to sales ratio would result in an increase in the fair value of ordinary shares.
- (d) An increase in price to book ratio would result in an increase in the fair value.

Valuation processes and techniques by the Group

The Group's management reviews the valuations performed by the independent valuer for financial reporting purpose. Discussion of the valuation process and results are held between management and the independent valuer at least once a year, in line with the Group's annual reporting dates. As at 31 December 2023, the fair value of a debt security included in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss amounting to HK$2,497,608,807 (2022: HK$2,808,632,548) has been determined by an independent valuer.

As at the end of the year the management:

- Verifies all major inputs to the independent valuation report;
- Assesses valuations movement; and
- Holds discussion with the independent valuer.

Transfer

The Group's policy is to recognise transfer of assets and liabilities between Level 1 and Level 2 at their fair values as at the end of each reporting period, consistent with the date of the determination of fair value. Assets are transferred out of Level 1 when they are no longer transacted with sufficient frequency and volume in an active market. No asset measured at fair value was transferred from Level 1 to Level 2 during the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: nil). Conversely, assets are transferred from Level 2 to Level 1 when transaction volume and frequency are indicative of an active market. During the year ended 31 December 2023, there were no (2022: nil) transfers of assets from Level 2 to Level 1.

During the year ended 31 December 2023, there were no (2022: nil) transfers of assets from Level 3 to Level 2.

The Group transferred HK$1,041,804,527 equity investment (2022: HK$nil debt investments, unlisted equity and fund investments) from Level 3 to Level 1 during the year because such investment has been listed.

The Group transferred HK$3,309,153,621 debt investments, unlisted equity and fund investments (2022: HK$6,560,812,325 debt investments, unlisted equity and fund investments) from Level 2 to Level 3 during the year because observable transactions for such investments are no longer available.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

41 Financial and insurance risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise convertible promissory note, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, investments measured at amortised cost, loans to fellow subsidiaries and associates, deposits and other receivables, derivative assets and liabilities, time deposits, cash and cash equivalents, bonds payable, interest-bearing bank and other borrowings, amounts due from and to group entities, and other payables and accruals. The main purpose of these financial instruments is to raise finance for the Group's operations, strategic investments and to manage its working capital. The Group has various financial assets such as insurance receivables, investments and cash and short-term deposits, which arise directly from its operations.

The Group also enters into derivative transactions, including principally forward currency contracts, currency swap contracts, total return swap contracts and interest rate swap contracts. The purpose is to manage the currency risks arising from the Group's operations and its sources of finance.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are insurance risk, interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk, other price risk and liquidity risk. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks which are summarised below.

Insurance risk

The insurance business of the Group comprises general insurance contracts. The risk under an insurance contract is the risk that an insured event will occur including the uncertainty of the amount and timing of any resulting claim. The principal risk the Group faces under such contracts is that the actual claims payments exceed the carrying amount of insurance contract liabilities. This is influenced by the frequency of claims, severity of claims, the timing of payments and the possibility of legal developments that increase the exposure of the insurer.

The variability of risks is improved by diversification of risk of loss to a large portfolio of insurance contracts as a more diversified portfolio is less likely to be affected across the board by change in any subset of the portfolio, as well as unexpected outcomes. The variability of risks is also improved by careful selection and implementation of underwriting strategy and guidelines as well as the use of reinsurance arrangements. Further details are included in note 35.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value/future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Floating rate instruments expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk, whereas fixed rate instruments expose the Group to fair value interest risk.

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's listed and unlisted debt securities.

Foreign currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rates. The Group has significant investments and financing outside Hong Kong denominated mainly in USD, RMB, GBP and EUR for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: USD, RMB, GBP and EUR). The Hong Kong dollar is pegged to the USD and therefore there is no significant currency risk arising from the financial assets and liabilities denominated in USD. As a result, the Group's consolidated statement of financial position can be affected significantly by movements in the above major currencies exchange rates. The Group seeks to manage their foreign currency risk by entering into derivative contracts to hedge the foreign exchange risk exposure.

As at 31 December 2023, the monetary exposure in HKD are mainly JPY, GBP and EUR with the amount approximately HK$494 million, HK$500 million and HK$998 million respectively (2022: JPY, GBP and EUR with the amount approximately HK$1,076 million, HK$643 million and HK$711 million respectively). As at 31 December 2023, a 5% increase/ (decrease) in the estimated reasonable possible shift of the exchange rates of JPY, GBP and EUR would result in approximately HK$26 million, HK$25 million and HK$50 million increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax for the year respectively (2022: HK$56 million, HK$34 million and HK$36 million for JPY, GBP and EUR respectively).

Credit risk

(a) Credit risk management

The Group is exposed to credit risk if counterparties fail to make payments as they fall due in respect of:

- loans to associates, fellow subsidiaries, a related company and third parties
- debt investments carried at amortised cost
- debt investments carried at FVOCI
- debt investments carried at FVPL
- derivatives and convertible promissory note carried at FVPL
- deposits and other receivables
- amounts due from the ultimate holding company
- amounts due from fellow subsidiaries
- time deposits
- cash and cash equivalent

While deposits, amounts due from the ultimate holding company, amounts due from fellow subsidiaries, time deposits and cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of HKFRS 9, management considers the expected credit loss impairment allowance was immaterial.

Financial assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. Loans are written off after all the necessary procedures have substantially been completed and the amount of the loss has been determined. Where loans have been written off, the Group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Expected credit loss

The Group formulates the credit losses of financial assets measured at amortised cost and FVOCI using ECL models according to HKFRS 9 requirements.

Parameters of ECL model

The parameters and assumptions involved in ECL model are described below.

The Group considers the credit risk characteristics of different financial instruments when determining if there is significant increase in credit risk. For financial instruments with or without significant increase in credit risk, lifetime or 12-month expected credit losses are provided respectively. The expected credit loss is the result of discounting the product of Exposure at Default ("EAD"), Probability of Default ("PD") and Loss given Default ("LGD").

i) Exposure at Default ("EAD"): EAD is based on the amounts the Group expects to be owed at the time of default, over the next 12 months or over the remaining lifetime.

ii) Probability of Default ("PD"): The PD represents the likelihood of a borrower defaulting on its financial obligation, either over the next 12 months (12M PD), or over the remaining lifetime ("Lifetime PD") of the obligation.

iii) Loss given Default ("LGD"): LGD represents the Group's expectation of the extent of loss on a defaulted exposure. LGD varies by type of counterparty, type and seniority of claim and availability of collateral or other credit support. LGD is expressed as a percentage loss per unit of exposure at the time of default ("EAD"). LGD is calculated on a 12-month or lifetime basis.

The Lifetime PD is developed by applying a maturity profile to the current 12M PD. The maturity profile looks at how defaults develop on a portfolio from the point of initial recognition throughout the Lifetime. The maturity profile is based on historical observed data and is assumed to be the same across all assets within a portfolio and credit grading band. This is supported by historical analysis.

Judgement of significant increase in credit risk ('SICR')

Under HKFRS 9, when considering the impairment stages for financial investments, the Group evaluates the credit risk at initial recognition and also whether there is any significant increase in credit risk for each reporting period.

The Group considers various reasonable supporting information to judge if there is significant increase in credit risk, including the forward-looking information, when determining the ECL staging for financial investments. Major factor being considered include regulatory and operating environment, internal and external credit ratings, solvency, and operational capabilities. The Group could base on individual financial instruments or portfolios of financial instruments with similar credit risk characteristics to determine ECL staging by comparing the credit risks of the financial instruments at the reporting date with initial recognition.

The Group set quantitative and qualitative criteria to judge whether the credit risk has SICR after initial recognition. The judgement criteria mainly includes the PD changes of the debtors, changes of credit risk categories and other indicators of SICR, etc.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a SICR on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forwarding-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- External credit rating (as far as available)
- Actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the borrower's ability to meet its obligations
- Actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the borrower
- Significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same borrower
- Significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of third-party guarantees or credit enhancements
- Significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the borrower, including changes in the payment status of borrowers in the Group and changes in the operating results of the borrower

A default on a financial asset is presumed when the counterparty fails to make contractual payments within 90 days of when they fall due.

The definition of credit-impaired assets

Under HKFRS 9, in order to determine whether credit impairment occurs, the defined standards adopted by the Group are consistent with the internal credit risk management objectives for relevant financial assets, while considering quantitative and qualitative indicators. When the Group assesses whether the financial assets has been credit impaired, the following factors would be considered:

- The lender gives the debtor concessions for economic or contractual reasons due to the debtor's financial difficulties, where such concessions are normally reluctant to be made by the lender;
- The debtor has significant financial difficulties;
- The debtor is likely to go bankrupt or other financial restructuring;
- The active market for financial assets disappears because of financial difficulties

It may not be possible to identify a single discrete event. Instead, the combined effect of several events may have caused financial assets to become credit impaired.

Forward-looking information

The determinations of 12 months and the lifetime EAD, PD and LGD also incorporates forward-looking information. The Group has performed historical data analysis and identified the key macroeconomic variables associated with credit risk and expected credit losses for each portfolio. The Group has developed macroeconomic forward looking adjustment model by establishing a pool of macro-economic indicators, preparing data, filtering model factors and adjusting forward-looking elements, and the indicators include gross domestic product ("GDP") fluctuation ratio, customer price index ("CPI") fluctuation ratio, PMI and other macroeconomic variables. Through regression analysis, the relationship among these economic indicators in history with EAD, PD and LGD is determined, and the EAD, PD, LGD are then determined through forecasting economic indicator.

Sensitivity analysis

Changes in these input parameters used in the model, macroeconomic variables of the forward-looking forecast, assumptions, and judgments will have an impact on the significant increase in credit risk and the measurement of expected credit losses. The Group does not anticipate that this impact on consolidated financial statements is material.

A summary of the assumptions underpinning the Group's expected credit loss model is as follows:

Category	Group definition of category	Basis for recognition of expected credit loss provision	Basis for calculation of interest revenue
Stage 1	A financial instrument that is not credit-impaired on initial recognition is classified in "Stage 1" and has its credit risk continuously monitored by the Group.	12 month expected losses. Where the expected lifetime of an asset is less than 12 months, expected losses are measured at its expected lifetime.	Gross carrying amount
Stage 2	If a significant increase in credit risk ("SICR") since initial recognition is identified but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired, the financial instrument is moved to "Stage 2".	Lifetime expected losses	Gross carrying amount
Stage 3	If the financial instrument is credit-impaired, the financial instrument is then moved to "Stage 3".	Lifetime expected losses	Amortised cost carrying amount (net of credit allowance)

No significant changes to estimation techniques or assumptions were made during the reporting period.

The Group internally grades the financial instruments based on the credit quality and risk characteristics. The credit rating of the financial instruments could further be classified as "low risk", "medium risk", "high risk" and "default" according to the internal rating scale. "Low risk" means that the asset quality is good, there is sufficient evidence to show that the asset is not expected to have default, or there is no reason to suspect that the asset had incurred default. "Medium risk" means that the asset quality is acceptable or there are factors revealing potential negative impact on the asset quality, but there is no sufficient reason to suspect that the asset had incurred default. "High risk" means that there is factors revealing significant adverse impact on the asset quality, and there are reasons to suspect that the asset had incurred default. The criteria of "default" are consistent with those of "credit-impaired".

The following table contains an analysis of the credit risk exposure of main financial assets for which an ECL allowance is recognised. The carrying amount of financial assets below also represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk on these assets.
