To: The Shareholders of ENECO ENERGY LIMITED

Dear Sir/Madam

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMPANY

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with the rationale for, and information relating to the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution, and to seek the approval of Shareholders in respect of the same at the EGM of the Company to be held on 14 June 2019.

The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the accuracy or correctness of any statements or opinions made in this Circular.

2. THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

2.1 Background and Rationale

On 22 March 2017, SGX-ST announced amendments to the Listing Manual (which took effect from 31 March 2018) to, inter alia, enable listed companies to use electronic communications to transmit annual reports and other documents to their shareholders, provided such companies have obtained consent, whether express, deemed or implied, from the relevant shareholder(s).

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles of association or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

The Company is accordingly proposing to amend its Constitution to:

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (i) allow for electronic transmission of documents (including notices, circulars and annual reports) to Shareholders, to promote environmental sustainability and enable greater efficiency and cost savings; and
- (ii) align its Constitution with the prevailing rules of the Listing Manual as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2).

The proposed amendments to the Constitution, struck through for deletions and underlined for insertions, are set out in full in the Appendix to this Circular and are subject to Shareholders' approval by special resolution at the EGM. If approved by Shareholders, the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution will become effective immediately after the EGM.

2.2 Summary of the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution

The following is a summary of the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution, and should be read in conjunction with the Appendix to this Circular.

Regulation 168

It is proposed that Regulation 168 be amended to provide for the electronic transmission of documents (including notices, circulars and annual reports) following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of documents electronically pursuant to Part IV of Chapter 12 of the Listing Manual and Section 387C of the Companies Act, as set out in the Appendix to this Circular. Companies can, subject to certain statutory and Listing Manual safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures where a shareholder has given express, implied or deemed consent for such companies to do so.

The Company regards express consent as being given where a shareholder gives notice in writing to the Company that he consents to having documents transmitted to him via electronic communications.

There is deemed consent ("Deemed Consent") from a shareholder where:

- (i) the Constitution of the issuer:
 - a. provides for the use of electronic communications;
 - b. specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
 - c. specifies that the shareholder will be given an opportunity to elect within a specified period of time, whether to receive such document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy; and
- (ii) the issuer has separately notified the shareholder directly in writing on at least one occasion of the following;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- a. that the shareholder has a right to elect, within a time specified in the notice from the issuer, whether to receive documents in either electronic or physical copies;
- b. that if the shareholder does not make an election, documents will be sent to the shareholder by way of electronic communications;
- c. the manner in which electronic communications will be used is the manner specified in the Constitution of the issuer;
- d. that the election is a standing election, but that the shareholder may make a fresh election at any time; and
- e. until the shareholder makes a fresh election, the election that is conveyed to the issuer last in time prevails over all previous elections as the shareholder's valid and subsisting election in relation to all documents to be sent.

A shareholder has given implied consent ("Implied Consent") where the Constitution of the issuer:

- (i) provides for the use of electronic communications;
- (ii) specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
- (iii) provides that the shareholder shall agree to receive such document by way of such electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such document.

However, Rule 1210 of the Listing Manual provides that an issuer is still required to send certain documents to shareholders by way of physical copies. Such documents are as follows:

- (i) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to physically complete;
- (ii) notice of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred in that notice;
- (iii) notices and documents relating to takeover offers and rights issues; and
- (iv) notices under Rules 1211 and 1212 of the Listing Manual.

Rule 1211 of the Listing Manual provides that where an issuer uses electronic communications to send a document to a shareholder, the issuer shall inform that shareholder as soon as practicable of how to request a physical copy of that document from the issuer. The issuer shall provide a physical copy of that document upon such request.

Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual provides that where an issuer uses website publication as the form of electronic communications, the issuer shall separately provide a physical notification to shareholders notifying them of the following:

- (i) the publication of the document on the website;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (ii) if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available;
- (iii) the address of the website;
- (iv) the place on the website where the document may be accessed; and
- (v) how to access the document.

Relevant provisions of the Companies Act

Under Section 387C of the Companies Act, regulations may be made to exclude any notice or document or any class of notices or documents from the application of Section 387C, provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communications under Section 387C, and provide that a shareholder who is deemed to have consented to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communications may make a fresh election to receive such notice or document as a physical copy and the manner in which the fresh election may be made.

Certain safeguards for the use of the Deemed Consent and Implied Consent regimes are prescribed under Regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations. Regulation 89D of the Companies Regulations provides that notices and documents relating to any take-over offer of the Company and any rights issue by the Company are excluded from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act.

Proposed amendments to Regulation 168

The amended Regulation 168 provides, inter alia, that:

- (i) notice and documents may be sent to Shareholders using electronic communications either to a Shareholder's current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website;
- (ii) for these purposes, a Shareholder is deemed to have agreed to receive such notices and documents by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notices and documents (this is the Implied Consent regime permitted under Section 387C of the Companies Act and Rule 1209(2) of the Listing Manual);
- (iii) notwithstanding sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Directors may, at their discretion, decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notices and documents by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notices and documents by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time (this is the Deemed Consent regime permitted under Section 387C of the Companies Act and Rule 1209(1) of the Listing Manual).

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Regulation 168 further provides that, subject to the Companies Act and the Listing Manual, in the case of service on a website, the Company must give separate notice of the publication of the notice or document on that website and the manner in which the notice or document may be accessed, to Shareholders by any one or more of the following means: (1) sending such notice to them personally or through the post; (2) sending such notice using electronic communications to their current addresses (which may be email addresses); (3) by way of an advertisement in the daily press; and/or (4) by way of announcement on the SGX-ST.

The amendments to Regulation 168 will promote environment sustainability and enable greater efficiency and cost savings in the transmission of documents from the Company to the Shareholders. The Company will comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and the Listing Manual if and when it decides to transmit notices and documents electronically to its Shareholders.

Proposed amendments to Regulation 95

Regulation 95 has been updated to clarify that if a Shareholder submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy is deemed to be revoked at the point when the Shareholder attends the meeting. This is in line with Paragraph 3.3 of Practice Note 7.5 of the Listing Manual.

3. DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION

Having considered the rationale and benefits of the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution, the Directors are of the opinion that the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution is in the best interests of the Company.
