

INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT

US$200,000,000 Floating Rate Catastrophe-Linked Capital at Risk Notes due May 23, 2030

This prospectus supplement (this “Prospectus Supplement”) is issued to provide information with respect to the proposed issuance by International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (“IBRD” or “Issuer”) of Floating Rate Catastrophe-Linked Capital at Risk Notes due May 23, 2030 (the “Notes”). As described herein, if one or more Named Storm Events occur with respect to the Notes, all or a portion of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes may be reduced by one or more Principal Reductions. Any such Principal Reduction would lead to a reduction (possibly to zero) in the interest (except with respect to days prior to the first anniversary of the Issue Date) and the Redemption Amount (if any) payable on the Notes.

This Prospectus Supplement supplements the terms and conditions in, and incorporates by reference, the accompanying Prospectus dated September 24, 2021, and all documents incorporated by reference therein, as supplemented by the Capital at Risk Notes Prospectus Supplement dated September 24, 2021, attached hereto (as so supplemented, the “Prospectus”), and should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus. Unless otherwise defined in this Prospectus Supplement, terms used herein have the same meaning as in the accompanying Prospectus. For a detailed description of the terms of the Notes, see Annex A to this Prospectus Supplement.

Interest on the Notes will accrue on the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes, except that the Risk Margin portion of interest will accrue on the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes from and including the Issue Date, to but excluding the first anniversary of the Issue Date, and thereafter will accrue on the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes (which may be zero). Interest will be payable in arrears on each Specified Interest Payment Date. In the case of a Mandatory Redemption Event, accrued interest will be paid on the Redemption Amount Payment Date, and no further interest will be paid with respect to the Notes.

Application will be made to the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the “SGX-ST”) for permission to deal in, and for listing and quotation of the Notes. Such permission will be granted when the Notes have been admitted to the Official List of the SGX-ST. The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made, opinions expressed or reports contained herein. Approval in-principle from, admission to the Official List of, and the listing and quotation of any securities on, the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Issuer or the Notes. For so long as the Notes are listed on the SGX-ST and the rules of the SGX-ST so require, the Notes will be traded on the SGX-ST in a minimum board lot size of $250,000 or such other amount as may be allowed or required from time to time.

Investing in the Notes is speculative and involves a high degree of risk including the risk of a total loss of principal amount of the Notes. See “Additional Risk Factors” beginning on page PT-22 of this Prospectus Supplement, “Risk Factors” beginning on page 18 of the Prospectus dated September 24, 2021 and “Risk Factors” beginning on page S-3 of the Capital at Risk Notes Prospectus Supplement dated September 24, 2021 for a discussion of certain factors to be considered in connection with an investment in the Notes.

THE NOTES ARE EXEMPTED SECURITIES UNDER THE U.S. SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND THEREFORE THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS. NOTWITHSTANDING THE EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, THE NOTES WILL BE OFFERED AND SOLD ONLY TO INVESTORS WHO (I) ARE “QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYERS” WITHIN THE MEANING OF RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (“RULE 144A”), (II) ARE RESIDENTS OF AND PURCHASING IN, AND WILL HOLD THE NOTES IN, A PERMITTED U.S. JURISDICTION OR A PERMITTED

NON-U.S. JURISDICTION AND (III) MEET THE OTHER REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH UNDER “NOTICE TO INVESTORS” IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT. THE NOTES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RESTRICTIONS DESCRIBED UNDER “NOTICE TO INVESTORS” IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT. EACH PURCHASER OF THE NOTES IN MAKING ITS PURCHASE WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE MADE CERTAIN ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS AS LISTED UNDER “NOTICE TO INVESTORS” IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT.

The Notes will be offered by Aon Securities LLC and Swiss Re Capital Markets Corporation, as initial purchasers and joint managers of the Notes (the “Managers”), subject to receipt and acceptance by the Managers and subject to each Manager’s right to reject any order in whole or in part. The date of this Prospectus Supplement is May 18, 2026.

The rate of interest applicable to the Notes for each day will be a per annum rate equal to Compounded SOFR for the applicable Interest Period (determined as described below) plus the Funding Margin plus the Risk Margin, subject to a minimum per annum rate equal to the Risk Margin. See “Overview—The Notes—Interest—Amounts of interest” and “Overview—The Notes—Interest—Rate of interest”.

For each Interest Period, accrued interest on the Notes will be calculated as the sum of the Daily Interest Amounts for each day in such Interest Period.

The “Daily Interest Amount” for each Calculation Amount for the Notes shall equal:

- (a) for each day from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the first anniversary of the Issue Date, one three hundred sixtieth (1/360) times the sum of (A) and (B):
  - (A) the greater of (x) the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of such Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000 times the sum of (i) Compounded SOFR for such Interest Period and (ii) the Funding Margin and (y) zero (0), and
  - (B) the Risk Margin on such day times US$1,000; and
- (b) for each day on or after the first anniversary of the Issue Date to but excluding the Maturity Date, one three hundred sixtieth (1/360) times the sum of (A) and (B):
  - (A) the greater of (x) the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of such Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000 times the sum of (i) Compounded SOFR for such Interest Period and (ii) the Funding Margin and (y) zero (0); and
  - (B) the Risk Margin on such day times the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of the Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000.

If the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes is reduced to zero (US$0) on any Principal Reduction Date prior to the Specified Interest Payment Date scheduled to occur on May 23, 2027, IBRD must pay the Residual Interest Amount for the Notes on such Principal Reduction Date in addition to the payment of accrued interest with respect to the Interest Period ending on such Principal Reduction Date, and no further interest will be paid with respect to the Notes.

An Extension Event may occur with respect to the Notes, pursuant to which the maturity of the Notes would be extended. If a Partial Extension Notice is provided, the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes would be redeemed in part, on the Scheduled Maturity Date or the relevant Extended Maturity Date at a price equal to 100% of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes to be partially redeemed (together with accrued interest, if any). See “Overview—The Notes—Redemption Terms”

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes will be used as described under “Use of Proceeds”.

IBRD will enter into a Risk Transfer Agreement with the Government of Jamaica with respect to the Notes. If a Principal Reduction occurs with respect to the Notes, IBRD will be obligated to pay to the Government of Jamaica, pursuant to the Risk Transfer Agreement, an amount equal to such Principal Reduction.

It is expected that delivery of the Notes will be made against payment therefor on or about the Issue Date, which will be five (5) business days following May 18, 2026 (the “Trade Date”) (such settlement being referred to as “T+5”). You should note that trading of the Notes on the Trade Date or the next three (3) succeeding business days may be affected by the T+5 settlement. See “Plan of Distribution”.

THE SGX-ST ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CORRECTNESS OF ANY OF THE STATEMENTS MADE, OPINIONS EXPRESSED OR REPORTS CONTAINED HEREIN. IBRD ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT, EXCEPT FOR THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN APPENDIX I ("MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS MODEL DESCRIPTION"), APPENDIX II ("MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS RESULTS") AND THE MOODY'S DATA FILE (COLLECTIVELY, THE "MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT"), AND, TO THE BEST KNOWLEDGE AND BELIEF OF IBRD (WHICH HAS TAKEN ALL REASONABLE CARE TO ENSURE THAT SUCH IS THE CASE), SUCH INFORMATION IS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FACTS AND DOES NOT OMIT ANYTHING LIKELY TO AFFECT THE IMPORT OF SUCH INFORMATION. IBRD EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONTENTS OF ANY EVENT REPORT, AND FOR ANY OTHER ACTION THAT MAY BE TAKEN BY THE EVENT CALCULATION AGENT.

RISK MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS, INC. HAS TAKEN REASONABLE CARE AND IS NOT AWARE OF THE OMISSION OF ANY MAJOR CRITICAL FEATURE LIKELY TO AFFECT THE IMPORT OF SUCH INFORMATION. AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES OFFERED HEREBY INVOLVES A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK. SEE "ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS" HEREIN. THE NOTES ARE SPECULATIVE AND INVESTORS BEAR THE RISK THAT THEY COULD LOSE ALL OR A PORTION OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF, AND INTEREST ON, THE NOTES IF THERE ARE ONE OR MORE NAMED STORM EVENT(S) RESULTING IN PRINCIPAL REDUCTIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE NOTES.

THE NOTES ARE COMPLEX INSTRUMENTS AND ARE INTENDED FOR SALE ONLY TO INVESTORS CAPABLE OF UNDERSTANDING THE RISKS ENTAILED IN SUCH INSTRUMENTS. ALL INVESTORS SHOULD HAVE SUFFICIENT KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE IN FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS MATTERS TO BE CAPABLE OF EVALUATING THE MERITS AND RISKS OF INVESTING IN AND HOLDING THE NOTES. AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES SHOULD BE MADE ONLY BY INVESTORS WHO ARE ABLE AND PREPARED TO BEAR THE SUBSTANTIAL RISKS OF INVESTING THEREIN, INCLUDING A COMPLETE LOSS OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF THE NOTES. POTENTIAL INVESTORS IN THE NOTES ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR FINANCIAL, LEGAL, TAX AND OTHER ADVISORS BEFORE MAKING ANY INVESTMENT DECISION.

THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL OR A SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY ANY SECURITY OTHER THAN THE NOTES OFFERED HEREBY, NOR DOES IT CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL OR A SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY ANY OF THE NOTES, TO ANY PERSON IN ANY JURISDICTION IN WHICH IT IS UNLAWFUL TO MAKE SUCH AN OFFER OR SOLICITATION TO SUCH PERSON. NEITHER THE DELIVERY OF THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT, NOR ANY SALE MADE

THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR ANY U.S. STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS. THE NOTES ARE SUBJECT TO SUBSTANTIAL RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER AS DESCRIBED UNDER “NOTICE TO INVESTORS”.

---

THE NOTES OFFERED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN RECOMMENDED BY ANY UNITED STATES FEDERAL OR STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES COMMISSION, INSURANCE OR OTHER REGULATORY AUTHORITY. FURTHERMORE, THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES HAVE NOT CONFIRMED THE ACCURACY OR DETERMINED THE ADEQUACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

THE NOTES OFFERED HEREBY MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED TO ANY PERSON (I) IN ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION IN THE UNITED STATES OTHER THAN THE PERMITTED U.S. JURISDICTIONS OR (II) IN ANY JURISDICTION OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES OTHER THAN THE PERMITTED NON-U.S. JURISDICTIONS, AND IN EACH CASE, THE NOTES MAY ONLY BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEDGED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED TO INVESTORS THAT ARE “QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYERS” AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A (AND MEET THE OTHER REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH UNDER THE “NOTICE TO INVESTORS” SECTION HEREIN), AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF THE PERMITTED U.S. JURISDICTIONS AND ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF THE PERMITTED NON-U.S. JURISDICTIONS. NONE OF IBRD, ANY MANAGER OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION THAT THE OFFER, SALE, PLEDGE OR TRANSFER OF THE NOTES IS PERMITTED UNDER THE LAW OF ANY PERMITTED U.S. JURISDICTION OR ANY PERMITTED NON-U.S. JURISDICTION.

THERE IS NO MARKET FOR THE NOTES AND THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT A MARKET WILL DEVELOP. NO MANAGER OR ANY AFFILIATE OF ANY MANAGER IS UNDER ANY OBLIGATION TO MAKE A MARKET IN THE NOTES AND, TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH MARKET MAKING IS COMMENCED BY ANY MANAGER OR ANY AFFILIATE OF ANY MANAGER, IT MAY BE DISCONTINUED AT ANY TIME. GIVEN THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES, THE HIGH MINIMUM DENOMINATIONS AND THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER, THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT A SECONDARY TRADING MARKET FOR THE NOTES WILL DEVELOP, AND INVESTORS MUST BE ABLE TO BEAR THE RISKS OF HOLDING THE NOTES UNTIL THEIR REDEMPTION AMOUNT PAYMENT DATE.

THE NOTES ARE NOT OBLIGATIONS OF, AND ARE NOT GUARANTEED BY, ANY PARTY OTHER THAN IBRD. THE OUTSTANDING NOMINAL AMOUNT AND INTEREST RELATING THERETO ARE PAYABLE ONLY BY IBRD.

ONE OR MORE NAMED STORM EVENTS COULD OCCUR AT ANY TIME DURING THE RISK PERIOD OF THE NOTES, RESULTING IN A FULL OR PARTIAL LOSS OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES.

MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT DISCLAIMERS

THE STATISTICAL DATA, MODELING, AND EXPLANATIONS CONTAINED IN THE “MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS MODEL DESCRIPTION” ATTACHED HERETO AS APPENDIX I, THE “MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS RESULTS” ATTACHED HERETO AS APPENDIX II, THE MOODY’S DATA FILE INFORMATION REFERRED TO IN APPENDIX III, AND ACCOMPANYING THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT (JOINTLY REFERRED TO HEREIN AS THE “MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT”), HAVE BEEN PREPARED BY RISK MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS, INC. (“MOODY’S”) AS EXPERTS IN STATISTICAL MODELING AND THE ANALYSIS OF RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH NAMED STORMS. INVESTORS ARE ADVISED THAT THE LOSS CALCULATIONS REPORTED IN THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT ARE BASED ON THE MOODY’S RMS NORTH ATLANTIC HURRICANE MODELS VERSION 25.0, AS IMPLEMENTED IN RISK MODELER 2.0 (THE “RISK MODEL”), AND THEREFORE ARE SUBJECT TO NUMEROUS ASSUMPTIONS, UNCERTAINTIES AND THE INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF ANY STATISTICAL ANALYSIS, AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED HEREIN. ACTUAL LOSS EXPERIENCE WITH RESPECT TO THE OCCURRENCE OF A NAMED STORM EVENT IS INHERENTLY UNPREDICTABLE. INVESTORS ARE URGED TO READ CAREFULLY THE MATERIAL CONTAINED IN THE “MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS MODEL DESCRIPTION” ATTACHED HERETO AS APPENDIX I, THE “MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS RESULTS” ATTACHED HERETO AS APPENDIX II AND UNDER THE CAPTION “ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS—RISKS RELATING TO MOODY’S” FOR A MORE DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF SUCH ASSUMPTIONS, UNCERTAINTIES AND LIMITATIONS. INVESTORS ARE ALSO URGED TO READ CAREFULLY THE MATERIAL UNDER THE CAPTION “ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS—RISKS RELATING TO MOODY’S—MOODY’S RELATIONSHIP WITH THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, AND THE MANAGERS” FOR A DESCRIPTION OF CERTAIN CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN RELATION TO MOODY’S.

THE DATA AND METHODOLOGY DESCRIBED IN THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, AND THE ANALYSES, ESTIMATES AND SERVICES ARE PROVIDED OR TO BE PROVIDED “AS IS” WITHOUT WARRANTY OR ANY GUARANTY OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ALL WARRANTIES ARISING FROM THE COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE) TO THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS, OR OFFEREEES, PURCHASERS OR HOLDERS OF THE NOTES. THESE ANALYSES AND ESTIMATES ARE PROVIDED FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY AND ARE NOT INTENDED TO PROVIDE, NOR SHOULD THEY BE INTERPRETED AS PROVIDING, ANY FACTS REGARDING, OR ANY GUARANTY OR PREDICTION OR FORECAST OF, THE LIKELIHOOD THAT INVESTORS IN THE NOTES WILL RECEIVE PAYMENT THEREON. NOTWITHSTANDING THE ANALYSES, ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS SET FORTH IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT, ONE OR MORE NAMED STORM EVENTS DURING THE RISK PERIOD COULD RESULT IN A REDUCTION IN THE INTEREST PAYABLE ON THE NOTES AND/OR A FULL OR PARTIAL LOSS OF THE OUTSTANDING NOMINAL AMOUNT OF THE NOTES. ANY SUCH NAMED STORM EVENT MAY HAVE CHARACTERISTICS SIMILAR TO OR DIFFERENT FROM THOSE OF SIMULATED EVENTS REPRESENTED IN THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, OR CHARACTERISTICS NOT CONSIDERED IN THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT.

MOODY’S DOES NOT REPRESENT INVESTORS IN THE NOTES OR THEIR INTERESTS IN ANY WAY. MOODY’S DOES NOT SPONSOR, ENDORSE, OFFER OR PROMOTE THE NOTES, NOR DOES IT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, REGARDING THE ADVISABILITY OF INVESTING IN THE NOTES OR THE LEGALITY OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES. MOODY’S IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR AND HAS NOT MADE ANY DECISION OR RECOMMENDATION IN RESPECT OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE STRUCTURE OR PRICING OF THE NOTES, THE RISK MARGIN OR THE INTEREST CALCULATIONS. MOODY’S DOES NOT, AND THE SERVICES RENDERED IN RELATION TO THE NOTES ARE NOT, RECOMMENDATIONS ABOUT THE CORPORATE OR LEGAL STRUCTURE, ASSETS, LIABILITIES OR ACTIVITIES OF ANY OF THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, OR THE MANAGERS. FURTHERMORE, MOODY’S HAS NO OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY IN CONNECTION WITH THE NOTES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE TRADING, MARKETING OR ADMINISTRATION OF THE NOTES, LOSSES, IF ANY, ARISING FROM ANY CHANGES IN THE INTEREST PAYABLE ON THE NOTES AND/OR ANY PAYMENTS, RESPONSIBILITIES OR OTHER OBLIGATIONS RELATED TO THE NOTES OR LIABILITY FOR ANY ADVERSE FINANCIAL RESULT OR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, WHATSOEVER. MOODY’S MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE INFORMATION SET FORTH IN THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT, INCLUDING INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, OR AS TO THE ADEQUACY, COMPLETENESS OR APPROPRIATENESS OF THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT FOR ANY PURPOSE. NONE OF MOODY’S, THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, OR THE MANAGERS SHALL BE LIABLE WHATSOEVER FOR ANY BUSINESS DECISIONS MADE BY INVESTORS BASED ON THE MOODY’S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT. IN NO EVENT SHALL MOODY’S, THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, OR THE MANAGERS OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES, REPRESENTATIVES OR AGENTS BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, OF ANY KIND ARISING FROM AN INVESTOR'S USE OF THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT OR ANY OMISSION THEREFROM.

IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE RISK MODEL, MOODY'S HAS RELIED ON PUBLISHED TECHNICAL PAPERS AND STUDIES, CATALOGS AND OTHER DATA BASED ON PAST METEOROLOGICAL ACTIVITY, AMONG OTHERS, AND HAS SELECTED THOSE THAT IT BELIEVES TO REPRESENT CREDIBLE SCIENTIFIC OPINION ON NAMED STORMS. HOWEVER, SINCE NO SCIENTIFIC CONSENSUS ON MODELS OR RISK PARAMETERS EXISTS, MOODY'S ACKNOWLEDGES (AND INVESTORS IN THE NOTES ARE DEEMED TO ACKNOWLEDGE) THAT OTHER CREDIBLE, PUBLISHED MODELS AND/OR RISK PARAMETERS MAY EXIST THAT, IF USED, COULD PRODUCE MATERIALLY DIFFERENT RESULTS. MOODY'S ALSO HAS NOT VERIFIED THE AUTHENTICITY, ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF ALL THE ORIGINAL DATA IN THE HISTORICAL CATALOGS OR OTHER DATA SOURCES USED TO DEVELOP THE RISK MODEL. THE RISK MODEL DOES NOT PREDICT THE PROBABILISTIC OCCURRENCE OF ANY CATASTROPHIC EVENTS. PRIOR TO INVESTING IN THE NOTES, INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN EXPERT ADVISORS, WHOSE CONCLUSIONS MAY DIFFER FROM THOSE OF MOODY'S.

NO MODEL IS, OR COULD BE, AN EXACT REPRESENTATION OF REALITY. THE RISK MODEL RELIES ON VARIOUS METHODOLOGIES AND ASSUMPTIONS, INCLUDING ASSUMPTIONS ABOUT THE AUTHENTICITY, ACCURACY AND COMPLETENESS OF HISTORICAL DATA, SOME OF WHICH ARE SUBJECTIVE AND SUBJECT TO UNCERTAINTY, AND WHICH MIGHT NOT BE USED IN MODELS DEVELOPED BY OTHER ENTITIES. FURTHERMORE, THERE MAY BE DIFFERENCES IN THE WAY IN WHICH THESE ASSUMPTIONS ARE CONSIDERED BY OTHER FIRMS. THERE CAN BE NO ASSURANCE THAT THE RISK MODEL WILL PROVE TO BE AN ACCURATE ESTIMATION OF THE RISK OF A REDUCTION OF THE PRINCIPAL OF, OR INTEREST ON, THE NOTES. ACCORDINGLY, THE EXPECTED LOSS ESTIMATES AND RELATED PROBABILITIES PRODUCED BY THE RISK MODEL ARE THEMSELVES SUBJECT TO UNCERTAINTY.

A SIGNIFICANT AMOUNT OF UNCERTAINTY AND VARIABILITY EXISTS IN THE METEOROLOGICAL EVENTS BEING ANALYZED, AS WELL AS UNCERTAINTY IN THE ASSUMPTIONS AND PARAMETERS USED IN THE ANALYSIS SET OUT IN THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, ANY ONE OF WHICH ALONE CAN CAUSE MODELED LOSS TO BE SIGNIFICANTLY DIFFERENT FROM THE LOSS ULTIMATELY SUSTAINED IN SPECIFIC EVENTS. SUCH UNCERTAINTIES EXIST IN, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO, ESTIMATES OF NAMED STORM SEVERITY AND FREQUENCY, EVENT INTENSITY, AND EVENT CHARACTERISTICS. CONSIDERABLE UNCERTAINTY EXISTS IN THE RISK MODEL AS WELL AS IN THE PARAMETERS USED THEREIN, ARISING FROM INSUFFICIENT DATA, LIMITED DATA COLLECTION METHODOLOGIES AND TECHNOLOGY.

THE RISK MODEL IS NOT A PERFECT REPRESENTATION OF LIKELIHOOD AND SEVERITY OF NAMED STORMS INCLUDING, AMONGST OTHER REASONS, BECAUSE OF INSUFFICIENT AVAILABLE DATA, LIMITED SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE AND ALTERNATIVE ASSUMPTIONS AS TO EMPIRICAL RELATIONSHIPS, AS WELL AS FROM THE RANDOM NATURE OF NAMED STORMS. THE RISK MODEL CANNOT INCORPORATE ALL SOURCES OF UNCERTAINTY. FURTHERMORE, INCOMPLETENESS AND POTENTIAL INCORRECTNESS OF THE ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGIES USED BY MOODY'S MAY NOT CONSTITUTE AN EXCLUSIVE SET OF REASONABLE ASSUMPTIONS AND MAY NOT BE CORRECT. USE OF ALTERNATIVE ASSUMPTIONS AND/OR MODELS COULD YIELD RESULTS MATERIALLY DIFFERENT THAN THOSE PRODUCED BY MOODY'S. MOODY'S ALSO DID NOT ELICIT FROM OTHER EXPERTS' ALTERNATIVE INTERPRETATIONS OF ITS DATA OR METHODS, NOR DID MOODY'S RESEARCH ALL POTENTIALLY AVAILABLE INTERPRETATIONS OF SUCH DATA AND METHODS ON THE BASIS THAT MOODY'S CONSIDERED ITS OWN INTERPRETATIONS TO BE MORE RELIABLE.

THE ESTIMATED LOSSES AND RELATED PROBABILITIES GENERATED BY THE RISK MODEL ARE NOT NECESSARILY PREDICTIVE OF FUTURE NAMED STORMS. INVESTORS IN THE NOTES SHOULD NOT VIEW THE EXPECTED LOSS ESTIMATES AND RELATED PROBABILITIES GENERATED BY THE RISK MODEL AS NECESSARILY PREDICTING THE LIKELIHOOD OF THE OCCURRENCE DURING THE RISK PERIOD OF ONE OR MORE NAMED STORM EVENTS OF SUFFICIENT SEVERITY TO RESULT IN A REDUCTION OF THE PRINCIPAL OF, OR INTEREST ON, THE NOTES. MOODY'S HAS NOT MADE ANY EFFORT, NOR DOES IT HAVE THE ABILITY TO PREDICT THE OCCURRENCE, FREQUENCY OR SEVERITY OF NAMED STORM EVENTS AFFECTING THE COVERED AREA DURING THE RISK PERIOD. ACCORDINGLY, THE ACTUAL FREQUENCY AND SEVERITY OF NAMED STORM EVENTS COULD DIFFER MATERIALLY FROM THE FREQUENCY AND SEVERITY ESTIMATED BY MOODY'S.

MOODY'S REVIEWS MODEL ASSUMPTIONS FROM TIME TO TIME IN LIGHT OF NEW DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION TO REFINE THE LOSS ESTIMATES AND MODIFY ITS COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE MODELS AS SUCH INFORMATION BECOMES AVAILABLE. FURTHERMORE, TO THE EXTENT THAT MOODY'S BECOMES AWARE OF ISSUES EITHER IN ITS MODELS OR IN THE SOFTWARE EXPRESSION OF THE MODELS WHICH MAY AFFECT THEIR OUTPUT IN UNINTENDED WAYS, IT MAY, DEPENDING ON THE MATERIALITY OF THE ISSUES, COMMUNICATE THEM TO ITS LICENSEES AND ADDRESS THEM IN SUBSEQUENT VERSIONS. MOODY'S EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY OBLIGATION OR DUTY TO UPDATE, MODIFY OR CORRECT THE RISK MODEL. AS SUCH, THE RISK MODEL MAY NOT NECESSARILY REFLECT THE MOST CURRENT MODELS OF MOODY'S AT ANY TIME. ESTIMATES GENERATED BY SUCH REFINED OR MODIFIED MODELS MAY MATERIALLY DIFFER FROM THE ESTIMATES GENERATED BY THE RISK MODEL IN CONNECTION WITH THIS OFFERING. THE USE OF SUCH MODELS IN LIEU OF THE RISK MODEL MIGHT MATERIALLY ALTER THE INFORMATION PROVIDED IN THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT. HOWEVER, NO CHANGES OR UPDATES TO THE ESTIMATES OR INFORMATION PROVIDED IN THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT WILL BE MADE SUBSEQUENT TO THE ISSUE DATE.

THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA AND THE ISSUER MAY USE FOR THEIR OWN RISK MANAGEMENT PURPOSES THEIR OWN INTERNAL MODEL OR THIRD-PARTY VENDOR MODELS, WHICH MAY PRODUCE SIGNIFICANTLY DIFFERENT RESULTS FROM THE RISK MODEL USED TO PRODUCE THE MODELING REFLECTED IN THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT. IN ADDITION, AFFILIATES OF THE MANAGERS MAY PROVIDE REINSURANCE AND INSURANCE BROKERAGE, AND REINSURANCE AND INSURANCE, FOR MANY CLIENTS, INCLUDING THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA AND THE ISSUER. IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS, SUCH AFFILIATES MAY BECOME PRIVY TO CLIENT GENERATED MODEL OUTPUT AND MAY GENERATE OTHER MODEL OUTPUT USING INTERNAL OR THIRD-PARTY VENDOR MODELS. SUCH OUTPUT MAY DIFFER, IN SOME CASES, FROM THE OUTPUT REFLECTED IN THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT. NONE OF THE FOREGOING PARTIES INTENDS TO, AND WILL NOT BE REQUIRED TO, DISCLOSE THE RESULTS OF THOSE MODELS TO ANY PURCHASER OF THE NOTES. ACCORDINGLY, THESE PARTIES MAY HAVE A MATERIALLY DIFFERENT VIEW OF THE RISK OF LOSS TO THE NOTES THAN THE INVESTORS OR MOODY'S.

NONE OF THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS, OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES AND REPRESENTATIVES, OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE DIRECTORS OR OFFICERS, HAS REVIEWED, OR MAKES, OR SHALL BE DEEMED TO MAKE, ANY REPRESENTATION WITH RESPECT TO THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE ADEQUACY, COMPLETENESS, APPROPRIATENESS OR OTHERWISE, OF THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT. THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT IS INCLUDED HEREIN IN RELIANCE UPON MOODY'S AS EXPERTS IN SUCH MATTERS. SEE "EXPERTS." THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT IS, AS NOTED ABOVE, BASED ON CERTAIN ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES OF MOODY'S, A NUMBER OF WHICH ARE CONFIDENTIAL AND PROPRIETARY TO MOODY'S.

WITHOUT INTENDING TO LIMIT THE FOREGOING, IN PARTICULAR, NONE OF THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS, OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES OR REPRESENTATIVES, OR ANY OF THEIR DIRECTORS OR OFFICERS, HAS REVIEWED THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT TO DETERMINE (I) THE REASONABLENESS OF THE ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES USED BY MOODY'S, (II) WHETHER SUCH ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES SHOULD BE SUPPLEMENTED IN ANY WAY THROUGH THE USE OF ALTERNATIVE ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS OR METHODOLOGIES, (III) WHETHER THE ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES USED BY MOODY'S INCLUDE ALL APPROPRIATE FACTORS THAT COULD CONTRIBUTE TO A PAYOUT AMOUNT AND A CORRESPONDING REDUCTION IN THE OUTSTANDING NOMINAL AMOUNT OF THE NOTES, OR (IV) WHETHER THE USE OF ALTERNATIVE ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES, OR THE USE OF A DIFFERENT CATASTROPHE SIMULATION MODEL, COULD YIELD RESULTS MATERIALLY DIFFERENT FROM THOSE GENERATED BY THE RISK MODEL.

BECAUSE OF THE INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF RELYING ON THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT FOR LOSS ESTIMATION, AND BECAUSE OF THE SUBJECTIVE NATURE OF MANY OF MOODY'S ASSUMPTIONS, JUDGMENTS AND METHODOLOGIES IN PREPARING THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT, EACH OF THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS, AND THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES AND REPRESENTATIVES EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR, AND ANY LIABILITY BASED UPON, A FINDING THAT THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT INCLUDES ANY UNTRUE STATEMENT OF A MATERIAL FACT OR THAT THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT OMITTS TO STATE A MATERIAL FACT NECESSARY IN ORDER TO MAKE THE STATEMENTS, IN LIGHT OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THEY ARE MADE, NOT MISLEADING.

MOODY'S PROVIDES CONSULTING SERVICES AND OTHER SERVICES TO THE INSURANCE INDUSTRY. MOODY'S PROVIDES CONSULTING SERVICES TO THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS AND THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES, AND MOODY'S EXPECTS TO CONTINUE TO PROVIDE SUCH SERVICES AND MAY ENGAGE IN OTHER TYPES OF BUSINESS WITH THE ISSUER, THE GOVERNMENT OF JAMAICA, THE MANAGERS, AND THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES IN THE FUTURE. Aggregate Nominal Amount.....	The “Aggregate Nominal Amount” of the Notes will be US$200,000,000. The Aggregate Nominal Amount reflects the initial principal amount of the Notes.
Outstanding Nominal Amount .....	“Outstanding Nominal Amount” means, as of any date, the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes reduced by all Principal Reductions and Partial Repayments, if any, applied to the Notes on or prior to such date; provided, that in no event will the Outstanding Nominal Amount be an amount less than US$0.

Principal Reduction..... “Principal Reduction” means, with respect to the relevant Principal Reduction Date, an amount equal to the lesser of (a) the Outstanding Nominal Amount as of such Principal Reduction Date (without giving effect to any Principal Reduction or Partial Repayment on such date) and (b) (i) the sum of the Payout Amounts in respect of the Notes specified in all Event Reports up to and including the last Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days prior to such Principal Reduction Date, minus (ii) the sum of the Payout Amounts in respect of the Notes specified in all Event Reports up to and including the last Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days prior to the immediately preceding Principal Reduction Date. Any Principal Reduction will be allocated pro rata among the holders of the Notes.

See “—Loss Determination”.

Principal Reduction Date ..... “Principal Reduction Date” means each Specified Interest Payment Date and the Redemption Amount Payment Date.

Redemption Terms

Redemption Amount..... The “Redemption Amount” shall be the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes calculated as of the Redemption Amount Payment Date (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date).

Redemption Amount Payment Date ..... “Redemption Amount Payment Date” means the earliest to occur of the following:

- (1) the Maturity Date;
- (2) the fifth (5th) Business Day following a Mandatory Redemption Notice Date; or
- (3) the thirtieth (30th) day following the day on which a holder of the Notes delivers written notice to IBRD notifying IBRD of such holder’s election to declare all such Notes held by it to be due and payable, subject to adjustment in accordance with the Following Business Day Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Condition 9 (Default) in the Prospectus. The Redemption Amount Payment Date under this clause (3) shall only apply to the Notes to which such notice relates.

Maturity Date; Scheduled Maturity Date; Initial Extension Period; Extension Period; Extended Maturity Date..... “Maturity Date” means the later of the Scheduled Maturity Date and the latest Extended Maturity Date, if any.

“Scheduled Maturity Date” means May 23, 2030 (subject to an earlier Mandatory Redemption Event); provided, however, that if (i) an Extension Notice has been given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) on or prior to the date that is three (3) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date or (ii) (A) a Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to a potential Named Storm Event has been given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date, and (B) no Event Report with respect thereto has been received by IBRD on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date, then the Maturity Date shall be extended beyond the Scheduled Maturity Date automatically to June 23, 2030 (or if such date is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (such period, the “Initial Extension Period”). Thereafter, the Maturity Date shall be further extended automatically to the 23rd day of each subsequent month, but no later than September 23, 2030 (or, in each case, if such date is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (each such one (1) month period, together with the Initial Extension Period, an “Extension Period”) unless (i) all Event Reports with respect to potential Named Storm Events required to be delivered by the Event Calculation Agent under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement are received by IBRD on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the then-applicable Extended Maturity Date or (ii) the Government of Jamaica elects by written notice given to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) on or prior to the date that is three (3) Business Days prior to the then-applicable Extended Maturity Date, not to further extend the Maturity Date, in which case the Maturity Date shall be the then-applicable Extended Maturity Date.

If the Outstanding Nominal Amount is reduced to US$0 on any Principal Reduction Date prior to the Maturity Date, then the Notes will be deemed to be finally redeemed on such Principal Reduction Date at a price of US$0, and no further interest will be paid (other than any Residual Interest Amount and any accrued interest then due).

References herein to the “Extended Maturity Date” mean the last day of the then-applicable Extension Period.

Extension Notice; Full Extension Notice; Partial Extension Notice; Repayment Amount; Partial Repayment .....

“Full Extension Notice” means a written notice given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) (a) stating that such written notice constitutes a Full Extension Notice with respect to the Notes and (b) identifying one or more Named Storm Events and/or potential Named Storm Events for which the maturity of the Notes is being extended.

“Partial Extension Notice” means a written notice given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) (a) stating that such written notice constitutes a Partial Extension Notice with respect to the Notes, (b) identifying one or more Named Storm Events and/or potential Named Storm Events for which the maturity of the Notes is being extended and (c) specifying the portion of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes to be repaid (the “Repayment Amount”) with respect to such Partial Extension Notice.

On the first date (if any) that (i) is either the Scheduled Maturity Date or an Extended Maturity Date (as the case may be) and (ii) falls at least three (3)

Business Days after the date on which the Government of Jamaica delivers a Partial Extension Notice with respect to the Notes:

- (1) the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes shall be reduced by the Repayment Amount specified in such Partial Extension Notice (the “Partial Repayment”); provided, that in no event shall a Partial Repayment reduce the Outstanding Nominal Amount to an amount less than US$0; and
- (2) in addition to the payment of accrued interest with respect to the Interest Period then ending, the following amount shall be paid with respect to the Notes: the lesser of (a) the Repayment Amount and (b) the Outstanding Nominal Amount calculated as of the Scheduled Maturity Date or relevant Extended Maturity Date, as applicable (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction on such date, but without giving effect to any Partial Repayment on such date).

Any Partial Repayment will be allocated pro rata among the holders of the Notes. For the avoidance of doubt, more than one Partial Repayment may occur with respect to the Notes, and a Partial Repayment could reduce the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes to US$0.

Extension Event .....

“Extension Event” means that the maturity of the Notes has been extended pursuant to the definition of “Scheduled Maturity Date”.

The occurrence of an Extension Event will not extend the Risk Period of the Notes.

Mandatory Redemption Event .....

Following the occurrence of a Reporting Source Failure Event, an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event or a Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event (each, a “Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Notes will be subject to automatic redemption in full on the relevant Redemption Amount Payment Date (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date). For the avoidance of doubt, any accrued interest shall also be paid on such relevant Redemption Amount Payment Date and no further interest will be paid with respect to the Notes.

Mandatory Redemption Notice; Mandatory Redemption Notice Date.....

IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of any Reporting Source Failure Event or Event Calculation Agent Failure Event within two (2) Business Days after becoming aware of such Reporting Source Failure Event or Event Calculation Agent Failure Event (each such notice, together with the notice referred to under the definition of “Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event”, a “Mandatory Redemption Notice”). The date on which IBRD gives a Mandatory Redemption Notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) is referred to as the “Mandatory Redemption Notice Date.”

Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event...

A “Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” shall occur if: (i) IBRD receives written notice from the Government of Jamaica, electing to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement based on a “Change of Law” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) or a “Risk Transfer Termination Event” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) with respect to IBRD; or (ii) IBRD elects to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement based on a “Risk Transfer Termination Event” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) with respect to Government of Jamaica or a “Change of Law” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement), in each case by giving written notice of a Mandatory Redemption Event to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica). IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of any Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event no later than three (3) Business Days following such Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event.

See “The Risk Transfer Transaction—The Risk Transfer Agreement”.

Reporting Source Failure Event; Potential Reporting Source Failure; Reporting Source Failure; Calculation Date; Subsequent Calculation Date; Final Public Advisory.....

A “Reporting Source Failure Event” shall be deemed to occur on the earlier of (i) the date on which the Event Calculation Agent, after following the procedures described in the following two paragraphs, gives written notice to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) stating that a Reporting Source Failure has occurred and (ii) the date on which the Government of Jamaica gives written notice of a Reporting Source Failure Event to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent), in each case in accordance with the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

On the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain all of the Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source that are necessary to give an Event Report with respect to the relevant potential Named Storm Event. If the Event Calculation Agent determines that it cannot obtain all such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source on the applicable Calculation Date in accordance with the process specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement (a “Potential Reporting Source Failure”), then on each subsequent Business Day through the earlier of (i) the day that the Event Calculation Agent successfully obtains all Event Parameters and (ii) April 15 of the calendar year immediately following the Date of Occurrence of the relevant Named Storm (or, if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (such period, the “Event Parameters Acquisition Period”), the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source or if not available on that day, from each Back-up Reporting Source in the order of priority outlined in the definition of “Back-up Reporting Source” (with (i) as the highest priority and (v) the lowest).

Additionally, during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period, the Event Calculation Agent will use its reasonable best efforts to identify a replacement Reporting Source that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica. If, prior to the end of such period, the Event Calculation Agent has not obtained such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source or a Back-up Reporting Source pursuant to the procedures specified above, then (x) if it has identified a replacement Reporting Source prior to the end of such period, it will use the data provided by such replacement Reporting Source to provide the Event Report and such replacement Reporting Source will thereafter be a Reporting Source (and will be appended as the last entity in the order of priority in the definition thereof) or (y) if it has not identified a replacement Reporting Source during such period (a “Reporting Source Failure”), it will give written notice to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) stating that a Reporting Source Failure has occurred.

The Reporting Sources currently make their data available at no cost. However, if a Reporting Source charges a fee for its data, the Event Calculation Agent will promptly notify IBRD and the Government of Jamaica in writing of such fee and such Reporting Source shall be disregarded for purposes of the procedures described above unless (i) the Event Calculation Agent has otherwise paid the applicable fee and there is no additional charge to obtain and use the data to determine the Event Parameters or (ii) within three (3) Business Days of receipt of such notice, the Government of Jamaica or IBRD elects in writing to pay the fee required to obtain and use the data. If neither condition (i) nor condition (ii) is satisfied with respect to a Reporting Source, such Reporting Source shall be disregarded for all purposes of the Event Parameters Acquisition Period as if it were not listed among the Reporting Sources, and the Event Calculation Agent shall seek Event Parameters from any remaining available Reporting Sources in accordance with the procedures described above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Event Calculation Agent has not identified a replacement Reporting Source prior to the expiration of thirty (30) Business Days following the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Calculation Agent shall give written notice to IBRD and the Government of Jamaica of its inability to identify a replacement Reporting Source during such period. Following the delivery of such notice by the Event Calculation Agent, the Government of Jamaica may on any Business Day deliver to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent), a written notice stating that a Reporting Source Failure Event has occurred, and the date such notice is received by IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent shall be the date of the Reporting Source Failure Event.

“Calculation Date” means, with respect to a potential Named Storm Event with respect to which the Government of Jamaica has delivered a Notice of Named Storm Event, the earlier of (x) the second day following the publication of the Final Public Advisory (or, if later, the first Business Day following the date on which the Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to such potential Named Storm Event is delivered) and (y) fourteen (14) days following the date on which the Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to such potential Named Storm Event is delivered (or, if such day in clause (x) or (y) is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day).

If the Event Calculation Agent has delivered an Event Report that confirms that a Named Storm Event has occurred and for purposes of such Event Report has used a Calculation Date determined pursuant to clause (y) above, then the date determined pursuant to clause (x) above shall also be a Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event (such date, the “Subsequent Calculation Date”). On the Subsequent Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event, if applicable, the Event Calculation Agent shall prepare and deliver a Subsequent Event Report in accordance with the third paragraph of the definition of “Event Report”. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (i) the Final Public Advisory with respect to such Named Storm Event is deemed, pursuant to the second sentence of the definition of “Final Public Advisory” below, to have been published on the date determined pursuant to clause (y) above or (ii) the Final Public Advisory is published on or prior to the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, then there will be no Subsequent Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event and the Event Calculation Agent shall not prepare a Subsequent Event Report.

Unless specified or otherwise required by the context, references herein to a “Calculation Date” include a Subsequent Calculation Date.

A “Final Public Advisory” with respect to a Named Storm means a tropical cyclone public advisory (or similar “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin) published by the NHC with respect to such Named Storm which states that such public advisory is the final public advisory that will be issued with respect to such Named Storm or otherwise indicates that no further public advisories with respect to such Named Storm will be issued. If no such Final Public Advisory has been published prior to the date that is determined pursuant to clause (y) of the definition of “Calculation Date”, then the Final Public Advisory with respect to such Named Storm shall be deemed to have been published on the later of (a) such date and (b) the date on which the Event Calculation Agent believes the NHC has published its final public advisory with respect to such Named Storm or otherwise believes, in its reasonable judgment, that the Named Storm has ended.

Event Calculation Agent Failure Event; Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure.....

An “Event Calculation Agent Failure Event” shall be deemed to occur on the date on which IBRD has become aware that the Event Calculation Agent has become incapable of performing, or has failed to perform or to observe in any material respect, or otherwise commits a material breach of, any provision of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, and such failure or breach has not been cured to the reasonable satisfaction of IBRD during the period specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement (a “Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure”), and IBRD, after using its reasonable best efforts, has been unable to engage a replacement Event Calculation Agent to perform such duties and obligations that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica and that is not a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica, and meets the requirements of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, within thirty (30) calendar days after such Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure. IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event within two (2) Business Days after becoming aware thereof.

Interest

Amounts of interest.....

For each Interest Period, the amount of interest payable in respect of the Notes will be calculated as the sum of the Daily Interest Amounts for each day in such Interest Period.

The “Daily Interest Amount” for each Calculation Amount shall equal:

- (a) for each day from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the first anniversary of the Issue Date, one three hundred sixtieth (1/360) times the sum of (A) and (B):

(A) the greater of (x) the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of such Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000 times the sum of (i) Compounded SOFR for such Interest Period and (ii) the Funding Margin and (y) zero (0), and

(B) the Risk Margin on such day times US$1,000; and

(b) for each day on or after the first anniversary of the Issue Date to but excluding the Maturity Date, one three hundred sixtieth (1/360) times the sum of (A) and (B):

(A) the greater of (x) the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of such Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000 times the sum of (i) Compounded SOFR for such Interest Period and (ii) the Funding Margin and (y) zero (0); and

(B) the Risk Margin on such day times the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes as of the first day of the Interest Period (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on such date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes times US$1,000.

Interest Period ..... “Interest Period” means the period from and including the Issue Date to but excluding the first Specified Interest Payment Date, and thereafter each successive period from and including a Specified Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next succeeding Specified Interest Payment Date.

Specified Interest Payment Date(s)..... Interest on the Notes will be payable periodically in arrears on the following dates (“Specified Interest Payment Dates”):

Funding Margin .....	The “ Funding Margin ” is +0.12 per cent. per annum.
Risk Margin .....	The “Risk Margin” is +6.75 per cent. per annum; provided, however: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) the Risk Margin applicable (x) from and including the Issue Date, to but excluding the first day of the Risk Period and (y) from but excluding the last day of the Risk Period, to but excluding the Redemption Amount Payment Date, other than during any Extension Period, is +0.25 per cent. per annum; and</li> <li>(b) the Risk Margin applicable during any Extension Period is +0.10 per cent. per annum.</li> </ul>
Residual Interest Amount .....	If the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes is reduced to zero (US$0) on any Principal Reduction Date prior to the Specified Interest Payment Date scheduled to occur on May 23, 2027, IBRD must pay the Residual Interest Amount on such Principal Reduction Date in addition to the payment of accrued interest with respect to the Interest Period ending on such Principal Reduction Date, and no further interest will be paid with respect to the Notes. The “Residual Interest Amount” means an amount, if any, equal to the sum of the present values, discounted at the Risk Margin (without taking into account the proviso to the definition of “Risk Margin”) on an annual basis, of each of the scheduled payments of accrued interest (but only to the extent such interest would have accrued based on a rate of interest equal to (i) for any day prior to the first anniversary of the Issue Date, the Risk Margin, or (ii) for any day on or after the first anniversary of the Issue Date, zero (0)) that would have been payable with respect to the Notes from and including the Principal Reduction Date on which the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes has been reduced to zero to and including the Specified Interest Payment Date that had been scheduled to occur on May 23, 2027.
Compounded SOFR.....	For any Interest Period, “Compounded SOFR” will be calculated by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date as follows and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the fourth decimal place of a percentage point, with 0.00005 or greater being rounded upwards: $\left( \frac{SOFR\ Index_{End}}{SOFR\ Index_{Start}} - 1 \right) \times \left( \frac{360}{d_c} \right)$ where: “Observation Period” means, in respect of such Interest Period, the period from, and including, the date which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the first date of such Interest Period to, but excluding, the date which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the Specified Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period.

“SOFR Index<sub>Start</sub>” means the SOFR Index value on the day which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the first date of such Interest Period.

“SOFR Index<sub>End</sub>” means the SOFR Index value on the day which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the Specified Interest Payment Date relating to such Interest Period.

“d<sub>c</sub>” means the number of calendar days in the Observation Period relating to such Interest Period.

“SOFR Administrator” means the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as administrator of the secured overnight financing rate (“SOFR”) (or a successor administrator of SOFR).

“SOFR Index” in relation to any U.S. Government Securities Business Day shall be the value published by the SOFR Administrator on its website on or about 3:00 p.m. (New York Time) on such U.S. Government Securities Business Day (the “SOFR Index Determination Time”). Currently, the SOFR Administrator publishes the SOFR Index on its website at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/reference-rates/sofr-averages-and-index>. In the event that the value originally published by the SOFR Administrator on or about 3:00 p.m. (New York Time) on any U.S. Government Securities Business Day is subsequently corrected and such corrected value is published by the SOFR Administrator on the original date of publication, then such corrected value, instead of the value that was originally published, shall be deemed the SOFR Index as of the SOFR Index Determination Time in relation to such U.S. Government Securities Business Day.

To the extent Compounded SOFR is unavailable or is no longer provided following certain events, the applicable replacement will be determined using the alternative methods described in Term 17(xii) of the Final Terms.

Interest Determination Date..... The date which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days before each Specified Interest Payment Date.

U.S. Government Securities Business Day ..... Any day, except for a Saturday, Sunday or a day on which the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association recommends that the fixed income departments of its members be closed for the entire day for purposes of trading in U.S. government securities.

Reset Date..... The first day of each Interest Period.

Loss Determination

General

Named Storm Sub-Area..... “Named Storm Sub-Area” means a portion of the Covered Area formed by the set of coordinates defined in the Moody’s Data File (each such point’s coordinates given in latitude in degrees (+ for north of the equator, - for south of the equator) and longitude in degrees (+ for east of the Greenwich meridian, - for west of the Greenwich meridian)).

Payout Amount..... “Payout Amount” means the Payout Rate multiplied by the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes; provided, however, that the Payout Amount determined for purposes of a Subsequent Event Report with respect to a Named Storm Event will be equal to the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes multiplied by the difference between (x) the Payout Rate determined for purposes of such Subsequent Event Report and (y) the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the Subsequent Event Report is not greater than the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the related initial Event Report, the Payout Amount for purposes of such Subsequent Event Report shall be zero.

Payout Rate..... “Payout Rate” means:
The lesser of (i) 100% and (ii) the sum of all payout percentages arising in respect of all Named Storm Sub-Areas, where a payout percentage for a Named Storm Sub-Area arises from the intersection of such Named Storm Event with such Named Storm Sub-Area. The Payout Rate will be determined based on the Event Parameters or Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters, as the case may be, as of the relevant Event Parameters Date as follows:

If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is greater than Min CP1, 0%;

If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP1 but greater than Min CP2,  $30\% + 70\% \times ((\text{Min CP1} - \text{CCP}) / (\text{Min CP1} - \text{Min CP2}))$ ;

If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP2, 100%.

Where:

“CCP” for a Named Storm Sub-Area means (i) for purposes of an Event Report other than a Subsequent Event Report, the Calculated Central Pressure for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area based on the Event Parameters as of the related Event Parameters Date and (ii) for a Subsequent Event Report, the lower of (A) the Calculated Central Pressure determined in accordance with clause (i) and (B) the Calculated Central Pressure determined solely on the basis of the relevant Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters.

“Min CP1” means the minimum central pressure identified in the “Named Storm Level One” column in the spreadsheet within the Moody’s Data File for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area.

“Min CP2” means the minimum central pressure identified in the “Named Storm Level Two” column in the spreadsheet within the Moody’s Data File for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area.

The Payout Rate will be rounded to the fifth decimal place (if not presented in a percentage format) or third decimal place (if presented in a percentage format).

Events

Date of Occurrence ..... “Date of Occurrence” of a Named Storm means the first date on which the NHC issues a “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin with respect to the Covered Area in connection with such Named Storm; provided that if the NHC does not issue any such “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin within ten (10) calendar days after the date that the Event Calculation Agent believes, in its reasonable judgment, should have been the Date of Occurrence of such Named Storm, then the “Date of Occurrence” for such Named Storm will be the date determined by the Event Calculation Agent in its reasonable judgment to have been the Date of Occurrence of such Named Storm.

Risk Period ..... “Risk Period” means the period beginning 12:00:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the day after the Issue Date to and including the earlier of (a) 11:59:59 p.m., Eastern time, on May 16, 2030 and (b) 11:59:59 p.m., Eastern time, on the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Redemption Amount Payment Date.

Named Storm Event..... “Named Storm Event” means a Named Storm (i) with a Date of Occurrence occurring during the Risk Period and (ii) with a storm track which is confirmed by the Event Calculation Agent to intersect the Covered Area. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Risk Period commences after a Named Storm’s Date of Occurrence, such Named Storm will not be a Named Storm Event, but if a Named Storm’s Date of Occurrence falls within the Risk Period, even if such Named Storm continues after the Risk Period ends, such Named Storm may be a Named Storm Event.

Covered Area..... “Covered Area” means the geographic area around and covering Jamaica that includes all Named Storm Sub-Areas, as described in the Moody’s Data File and shown in the graphic below. For the avoidance of doubt, any space on or within the geographic area described in the Moody’s Data File, will be included in the Covered Area.

Named Storm..... “Named Storm” means a storm or storm system that is, or at any time was, identified by any Reporting Source as a tropical cyclone, tropical depression, tropical storm or a hurricane (or similar term utilized for the same purpose).

Data Collection

Reporting Source; Primary Reporting Source;
Back-up Reporting Source.....

“Reporting Source” means the Primary Reporting Source; provided, that if a Potential Reporting Source Failure occurs in respect of a potential Named Storm Event, then the term “Reporting Source” shall refer to either the Primary Reporting Source or a Back-up Reporting Source as determined by the Event Calculation Agent pursuant to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

“Primary Reporting Source” means the Automated Tropical Cyclone Forecast (“ATCF”) “best-track comma delimited files” (“B-deck”) published by the National Hurricane Center (“NHC”) or any successor thereof.

“Back-up Reporting Source” means the following sources or any successors thereof, in the following order of priority:

the latest available Tropical Cyclone Report (if any);

HURDAT2, as updated by the NHC to include the Event Parameters for the relevant Named Storm Event;

Weather Prediction Center; and

The International Best Track Archive for Climate Stewardship (IBTrACS).

Tropical Cyclone Report.....

Event Parameters .....

“Event Parameters” means, for any Event Report with respect to any potential Named Storm Event, the date, time, latitude in degrees (+ for north of the equator, - for south of the equator), longitude in degrees (+ for east of the Greenwich meridian, - for west of the Greenwich meridian), and Central Pressure associated with each storm track point obtained or determined by the Event Calculation Agent on the related Event Parameters Date, as described in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Latitude values provided in a different reference system will be converted to degrees with positive values north of the equator and negative values south of the equator. Longitude values provided in a different reference system will be converted to degrees with positive values east of the Greenwich meridian and negative values west of the Greenwich meridian. For the avoidance of doubt, the Event Parameters determined as of the Event Parameters Date shall not be revised even if such Event Parameters are revised by the Reporting Source following the Event Parameters Date. Unless otherwise specified or required by the context, references herein to “Event Parameters” include Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters.

Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters.....

“Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters” means, for any Subsequent Event Report with respect to any Named Storm Event, the Calculated Central Pressures and storm track obtained or determined by the Event Calculation Agent on the related Event Parameters Date but only for the period beginning immediately following the Event Parameters Date used for the related initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, as described in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

Event Parameters Date..... “Event Parameters Date” means, for any Event Report with respect to any potential Named Storm Event, the date on which the Event Calculation Agent obtains or determines the Event Parameters in respect of such potential Named Storm Event, which date shall initially be the applicable Calculation Date; provided that, if the Event Calculation Agent is unable to obtain all such Event Parameters on the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Parameters Date shall be the first date during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period on which the Event Calculation Agent obtains or determines such Event Parameters in accordance with the procedures described under the section headed “Reporting Source Failure Event; Potential Reporting Source Failure; Reporting Source Failure; Calculation Date; Subsequent Calculation Date; Final Public Advisory”. Any data revised or released after the related Event Parameters Date will be disregarded by the Event Calculation Agent when determining any Payout Amounts related to the Named Storm Event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as described in the definition of “Subsequent Event Report,” in connection with the provision of a Subsequent Event Report, the Event Calculation Agent will obtain or determine the Event Parameters for the period beginning immediately after the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event.

Calculated Central Pressure; Intersection Point... “Calculated Central Pressure” with respect to any Named Storm Sub-Area means the lowest Central Pressure determined across each instance in which the storm track of a Named Storm intersects such Named Storm Sub-Area, determined as the minimum of (A) the Central Pressure reported at each track point that is located on the boundary of, or within, such Named Storm Sub-Area; and (B) the Central Pressure determined by linear interpolation at each point at which the storm track enters or exits such Named Storm Sub-Area (each such point, an “Intersection Point”), determined in accordance with the procedures set out in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement and the following:

- (i) if a Named Storm Event crosses more than one applicable Named Storm Sub-Area, a Calculated Central Pressure shall be determined independently for each distinct applicable Named Storm Sub-Area;
- (ii) if a Named Storm crosses the same applicable Named Storm Sub-Area more than once, the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area shall be the single lowest value determined across all such crossings in accordance with this definition for such Named Storm Sub-Area and such Named Storm Event;
- (iii) if a reported track point falls exactly on the boundary of a Named Storm Sub-Area, such track point shall be treated as being located within such Named Storm Sub-Area for purposes of clause (A) above and no separate interpolation under clause (B) shall be performed at such track point;
- (iv) if a Central Pressure is determined according to clause (B) above or subclause (iii) above on the shared boundary of one or more Named Storm Sub-Areas, the applicable track point shall be treated as being located within each such Named Storm Sub-Area; and
- (v) if the Reporting Source reports a track point for a Named Storm without an associated Central Pressure, such track point shall be disregarded for all purposes of this definition; and accordingly, for purposes of clause (B), (a) the nearest reported track points on each side of any such disregarded track point shall be treated as consecutively reported track points, and (b) any Intersection Point that would otherwise fall on a segment involving a disregarded track point shall be determined by linear interpolation between those nearest reported track points.

The Calculated Central Pressure shall be rounded to the nearest millibar.

For purposes of preparing a Subsequent Event Report with respect to a Named Storm Event, the Event Calculation Agent will consider the Event Parameters used to prepare the related initial Event Report, without revision for any subsequent updating of such Event Parameters, as well as the Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters, and the Calculated Central Pressure with respect to a Named Storm Sub-Area will be the lower of (i) the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area specified in the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event and (ii) the Calculated Central Pressure determined using only the Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters for such Named Storm Sub-Area.

Distance ..... “Distance” or “D” means the distance in kilometers between two points on the surface of the earth and is calculated as follows:

$$D = R \times 2 \arcsin \sqrt{\alpha}$$

R = 6,378.1 km

$\Delta lat$  = lat1 - lat2

$\Delta lon$  = lon1 - lon2

Where (lon1, lat1) and (lon2, lat2) are the longitude in degrees (+ for east, – for west) and latitude in degrees (+ for north, – for south), respectively, of two points expressed in the “WGS 84” coordinate system, but trigonometric functions require inputs expressed in radians.

Central Pressure ..... “Central Pressure” means the minimum sea-level barometric pressure recorded in millibar units (“mb”) as reported by the Reporting Source for a Named Storm Event. If the Reporting Source reports minimum sea-level barometric pressure Central Pressure in a unit other than millibar, the Event Calculation Agent will convert the minimum sea-level barometric pressure into millibar.

Event Reporting

Notice of Named Storm Event ..... “Notice of Named Storm Event” means a written notice in a form substantially similar to the form attached as Exhibit A to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement given by the Government of Jamaica to the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to IBRD and the Global Agent) stating that a potential Named Storm Event has occurred and requesting the Event Calculation Agent to deliver an Event Report with respect thereto.

Event Report; Subsequent Event Report ..... “Event Report” means, with respect to a potential Named Storm Event, a report substantially similar in form to Exhibit B to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, given to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) by the Event Calculation Agent based on the Event Parameters.

The Event Report for each potential Named Storm Event shall (i) confirm whether such Named Storm Event has or has not occurred or, for a Subsequent Event Report, whether the relevant Named Storm has intersected the Covered Area after the Event Parameters Date for the related initial Event Report, (ii) identify the Date of Occurrence of such potential Named Storm Event, (iii) include a calculation (and its components) of the Payout Amount (which may be zero (US$0)), as applicable, (iv) specify the amount of the Principal Reduction (if any) to be applied to the Notes on the first Principal Reduction Date that is at least five (5) Business Days following the date on which such Event Report is delivered by the Event Calculation Agent, assuming that no further Event Report in respect of such Principal Reduction Date is delivered and treating any concurrently delivered Event Reports as having been delivered sequentially rather than simultaneously and (v) specify the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes (after giving effect to the Principal Reduction, if any, on the relevant Principal Reduction Date, assuming that no further Event Reports in respect of such Principal Reduction Date are delivered and treating any concurrently delivered Event Reports as having been delivered sequentially rather than simultaneously), in each case in accordance with the provisions hereof and of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. The Event Calculation Agent shall deliver such Event Report to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) no later than five (5) Business Days after the Event Parameters Date; provided, that any such report given to IBRD (with a copy thereof to Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) with respect to a potential Named Storm Event at any time after the fifth (5th) Business Day preceding the Redemption Amount Payment Date for the Notes shall not be deemed to be an Event Report.

If a Subsequent Calculation Date exists with respect to a Named Storm Event, then the Event Calculation Agent will prepare and deliver a subsequent Event Report for such Named Storm Event in accordance with the procedures outlined above (such report, a “Subsequent Event Report”); provided, that the Event Calculation Agent shall obtain or determine the Event Parameters only for the period beginning immediately after the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, and all Event Parameters obtained or determined on the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event will remain unchanged for all purposes under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement and the terms of the Notes. Unless otherwise specified or required by the context, references herein to an “Event Report” include a Subsequent Event Report.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure occurs and a replacement Event Calculation Agent is engaged, such replacement may gather the relevant Event Parameters, perform the necessary calculations and produce an Event Report on dates other than as specified herein, and accordingly, the relevant Calculation Date may be adjusted as needed.

All calculations and determinations made by the Event Calculation Agent in an Event Report shall be final and binding on IBRD and holders and beneficial owners of the Notes, absent manifest error that is identified in a written notice received by IBRD prior to the date which is three (3) Business Days following the date on which such Event Report is first made available on the Site. If, prior to the date which is three (3) Business Days following the date on which an Event Report is first made available on the Site, IBRD receives a written notice identifying a potential manifest error in such Event Report, then as soon as practicable, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days following receipt of such notice, IBRD will, in consultation with the Event Calculation Agent, determine whether such potential manifest error constitutes a manifest error. If IBRD determines that such potential manifest error constitutes a manifest error: (i) IBRD will, as soon as reasonably practicable, publish a notice of its determination on the Site, (ii) the relevant Event Report will not be effective, and (iii) no Principal Reduction will occur to the extent attributable to such Event Report. The Event Calculation Agent Agreement will provide that, if IBRD so determines that an Event Report contains a manifest error, the Event Calculation Agent will deliver an amended and restated Event Report to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) as soon as reasonably practicable. Any Principal Reduction or portion thereof that does not occur due to a determination by IBRD that the relevant Event Report contains a manifest error shall occur in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein when such manifest error has been cured by an amended and restated Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent).

Risk Transfer Transaction

Risk Transfer Agreement..... On or prior to the Issue Date, IBRD will enter into a risk transfer agreement with the Government of Jamaica with respect to the Notes (the “Risk Transfer Agreement”). The Risk Transfer Agreement will provide for payments by IBRD to the Government of Jamaica in the amount of any Principal Reduction with respect to the Notes. The Risk Transfer Agreement will impose premium payment obligations on the Government of Jamaica and will provide for certain early termination events. The termination of the Risk Transfer Agreement may result in a redemption of the Notes. See “—The Notes—Redemption Terms—Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” and “The Risk Transfer Transaction”.

Manner of Offering

Transfer Restrictions..... The Notes are being offered, and may be reoffered and sold, only to investors who (i) are “qualified institutional buyers” (“Qualified Institutional Buyers”) as defined in Rule 144A (“Rule 144A”) under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (“Securities Act”), (ii) are residents of, and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction and (iii) meet the other requirements set forth under “Notice to Investors—Representations of Purchasers”.

Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions..... “Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions” means The District of Columbia and all states of the United States, except for the states of Hawaii, Montana and Nevada. No U.S. territory shall be a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction.

Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions ..... “Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions” means Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bahrain, Barbados, Belgium, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands,

The designation of a jurisdiction as a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction relates solely to the characterization of the Notes for certain insurance law purposes.

Specified Denomination ..... The Notes will be issued only in denominations of US$250,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof (the “Specified Denomination”).

The Specified Denomination of the Notes shall remain constant from the Issue Date through the Maturity Date irrespective of any Principal Reduction or Partial Repayment.

(“Moody’s”) shall be appointed as the Event Calculation Agent pursuant to the event calculation agent agreement between Moody’s and IBRD, dated on or prior to the Issue Date (as amended or modified in accordance therewith, the “Event Calculation Agent Agreement”); provided, however, that in case of a Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure, IBRD has the right to appoint another person that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica, and that is not a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica, as the Event Calculation Agent for such purpose, subject to the terms of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Moody’s or any successor or permitted assign under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement is referred to herein as the “Event Calculation Agent”.

“Risk Model” means Moody’s RMS North Atlantic Hurricane Models version 25.0, as implemented in Risk Modeler version 2.0, used to generate the risk analysis in the “Moody’s Expert Risk Analysis Results” attached hereto as Appendix II.

Risk Factors ..... Prospective investors should consider carefully the information set forth under the caption “Additional Risk Factors” herein and all other information set forth in this Prospectus Supplement before making any investment in the Notes.

ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Notes entails significant risks. Investors should read the risks summarized below in connection with, and the risks summarized below are qualified by reference to, the risks described in more detail in the “Risk Factors” section beginning on page 18 of the Prospectus and in the “Risk Factors” section on page S-3 of the Capital at Risk Notes Prospectus Supplement dated September 24, 2021.

An investment in the Notes is speculative and involves a high degree of risk.

The Notes are complex speculative instruments and are intended for sale only to investors capable of understanding and assuming the high risks entailed in such instruments. Potential investors are strongly encouraged to consult with their financial, legal, actuarial and tax advisors before making any investment decision in respect of the Notes.

Noteholders may lose all or a portion of their investment.

The Noteholders could lose all or a portion of the principal of, and interest on, the Notes, if during the Risk Period there are one or more Named Storm Events resulting in Principal Reductions with respect to the Notes. The possibility of the occurrence of one or more Named Storm Events that result in Principal Reductions, and the frequency and severity of any such Named Storm Events, are inherently unpredictable and, therefore, the risk of loss to Noteholders cannot be predicted. Furthermore, holders of the Notes are exposed to the credit risk of IBRD. Any failure of IBRD to make a payment on any Notes, whether due to the creditworthiness of IBRD or for any other reason, may result in a loss to holders of the Notes.

The Notes are linked to the performance of an interest rate index (i.e., Compounded SOFR), as applied to a principal amount that may decrease. Accordingly, the Notes are subject to risks which are not associated with a conventional debt security, which may result in the reduction of the interest and/or principal payable on the Notes.

Interest payable on the Notes is determined by reference to an interest rate index (i.e., Compounded SOFR), as applied to a principal amount that may decrease. An investment in the Notes entails significant risks not associated with investments in conventional debt securities, including the risk that the resulting interest rate will be less than that payable on a fixed rate security issued by IBRD at the same time and that the investor could lose all or a substantial portion of the principal of the Notes. The secondary market for the Notes, if any, will be affected by a number of factors independent of the creditworthiness of IBRD and the value of the applicable interest rate index, including the volatility of such interest rate index, the method of calculating the index, the time remaining to the maturity of the Notes, the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes, market interest rates and the occurrence or expected occurrence of Named Storm Events and any associated Principal Reductions or expected Principal Reductions. The value of the applicable interest rate index should not be taken as an indication of the future performance of such interest rate index during the term of the Notes.

The Secured Overnight Financing Rate differs in important respects from other benchmark rates, and its behavior may not match investor expectations.

On June 22, 2017, the Alternative Reference Rates Committee (“ARRC”) convened by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York identified the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”) as the rate that, in the consensus view of the ARRC, represented best practice for use in certain new U.S. dollar derivatives and other financial contracts. SOFR is a broad measure of the cost of borrowing cash overnight collateralized by U.S. Treasury securities, and has been published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York since April 2018. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has also published historical indicative SOFR from 2014. Investors should not rely on any historical changes or trends in SOFR as an indicator of future changes in SOFR.

SOFR has emerged as the dominant U.S. dollar interest rate benchmark following LIBOR's cessation, and Compounded SOFR has achieved broad market acceptance in the bond markets. The composition and characteristics of SOFR are not the same as those of LIBOR, and SOFR is fundamentally different from LIBOR for two key reasons. First, SOFR is a secured rate, while LIBOR was an unsecured rate. Second, SOFR is an overnight rate, while LIBOR was a forward-looking rate that represented interbank funding over different maturities (e.g., three months). As a result, there can be no assurance that SOFR (including Compounded SOFR) will perform in the same way as LIBOR would have at any time, including, without limitation, as a result of changes in interest and yield rates in the market, market volatility or global or regional economic, financial, political, regulatory, judicial or other events.

SOFR may be more volatile than other benchmark or market rates.

Since the initial publication of SOFR, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in other benchmark or market rates. Although changes in Compounded SOFR generally are not expected to be as volatile as changes in daily levels of SOFR, the return on and value of the Notes may fluctuate more than floating rate securities that are linked to less volatile rates. In addition, the volatility of SOFR has reflected the underlying volatility of the overnight U.S. Treasury repo market. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has at times conducted operations in the overnight U.S. Treasury repo market in order to help maintain the federal funds rate within a target range. There can be no assurance that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York will continue to conduct such operations in the future, and the duration and extent of any such operations is inherently uncertain. The effect of any such operations, or of the cessation of such operations to the extent they are commenced, is uncertain and could be materially adverse to investors in the Notes.

The market for SOFR-linked securities continues to evolve, and trading prices or liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected by market developments.

SOFR is now widely used as a benchmark in U.S. dollar derivatives and floating rate debt securities following the transition away from USD LIBOR. However, market terms for SOFR-linked instruments, such as the spread over the base rate or the method of compounding, continue to evolve. As a result, trading prices of the Notes may differ from those of other SOFR-linked securities that employ different conventions or were issued at different times. Investors in the Notes may not be able to sell the Notes at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a more developed secondary market and may consequently suffer from increased pricing volatility and market risk.

The rate of interest on the Notes is based on Compounded SOFR calculated using the SOFR Index.

For each Interest Period, the interest payable on the Notes is based in part on Compounded SOFR, which is calculated using the SOFR Index published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York according to the specific formula described under Term 17 (“Floating Rate Note Provisions”) of the Final Terms, not the SOFR rate published on or in respect of a particular date during such Interest Period or an arithmetic average of SOFR rates during such period. For this and other reasons, the interest payable on the Notes with respect to any Interest Period will not necessarily be the same as the interest payable on other SOFR-linked investments that use an alternative basis to determine the applicable interest rate. Further, if the SOFR rate in respect of a particular date during an Interest Period is negative, its contribution to the SOFR Index will be less than one, resulting in a reduction to Compounded SOFR used to calculate the interest payable on the Notes on the Specified Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period.

The SOFR Index has been adopted across a range of market instruments; however, the specific formula for calculating Compounded SOFR used in the Notes may not match the conventions used by all market participants. If the market adopts a different calculation method, that could adversely affect the market value of the Notes.

Compounded SOFR with respect to a particular Interest Period will only be capable of being determined near the end of the relevant Interest Period.

The level of Compounded SOFR applicable to a particular Interest Period and, therefore, the amount of interest payable with respect to such Interest Period will be determined on the Interest Determination Date for such Interest Period. Because each such date is near the end of such Interest Period, you will not know the amount of interest payable with respect to a particular Interest Period until shortly prior to the related Specified Interest Payment Date and it may be difficult for you to reliably estimate the amount of interest that will be payable on each such Specified Interest Payment Date.

The SOFR Index may be modified or discontinued and the Notes may bear interest by reference to a rate other than Compounded SOFR, which could adversely affect the value of the Notes.

The SOFR Index is published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York based on data received by it from sources other than IBRD, and IBRD has no control over its methods of calculation, publication schedule, rate revision practices or availability of the SOFR Index at any time. There can be no guarantee that the SOFR Index will not be discontinued or fundamentally altered in a manner that is materially adverse to the interests of investors in the Notes. If the manner in which the SOFR Index is calculated, including the manner in which SOFR is calculated, is changed, that change may result in a reduction in the amount of interest payable on the Notes and the trading prices of the Notes. In addition, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York may withdraw, modify or amend the published SOFR Index or SOFR data in its sole discretion and without notice, and has in the past made various modifications. Compounded SOFR for any Interest Period will not be adjusted for any modifications or amendments to the SOFR Index or SOFR data that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York may publish after Compounded SOFR for that Interest Period has been determined.

If IBRD determines that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred in respect of the SOFR Index or SOFR itself, then the interest payable on the Notes for any Interest Period will no longer be determined by reference to the SOFR Index, but instead will be determined by reference to a different rate, plus a spread adjustment, which is referred to as a “Benchmark Replacement,” as further described under Term 17 (“Floating Rate Note Provisions”) of the Final Terms.

If a particular Benchmark Replacement or Benchmark Replacement Adjustment cannot be determined, then the next-available Benchmark Replacement or Benchmark Replacement Adjustment will apply. These replacement rates and adjustments may be selected, recommended or formulated by (i) the Relevant Governmental Body (such as the ARRC), (ii) the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (“ISDA”) or (iii) in certain circumstances, IBRD itself. In addition, the terms of the Notes expressly authorize IBRD to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes with respect to, among other things, changes to the definition of “Interest Period”, the timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest and other administrative matters. The determination of a Benchmark Replacement, the calculation of the interest payable on the Notes for any Interest Period by reference to a Benchmark Replacement (including the application of a Benchmark Replacement Adjustment), any implementation of Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes and any other determinations, decisions or elections that may be made under the terms of the Notes in connection with a Benchmark Transition Event, could adversely affect the value of the Notes, the return on the Notes and the price at which you can sell such Notes.

In addition, (i) the composition and characteristics of the Benchmark Replacement will not be the same as those of Compounded SOFR, the Benchmark Replacement may not be the economic equivalent of Compounded SOFR, there can be no assurance that the Benchmark Replacement will perform in the same way as Compounded SOFR would have at any time and there is no guarantee that the Benchmark Replacement will be a comparable substitute for Compounded SOFR (each of which means that a Benchmark Transition Event could adversely affect the value of the Notes, the return on the Notes and the price at which you can sell the Notes), (ii) any failure of the Benchmark Replacement to gain market acceptance could adversely affect the Notes, (iii) the Benchmark Replacement may have a very limited history and the future performance of the Benchmark Replacement may not be predicted based on historical performance, (iv) the secondary trading market for Notes linked to the Benchmark Replacement may be limited and (v) the administrator of the Benchmark Replacement may make changes that could change the value of the Benchmark Replacement or discontinue the Benchmark Replacement and has no obligation to consider your interests in doing so.

The Calculation Agent will make determinations with respect to the Notes, and IBRD may exercise subjective discretion with respect to Compounded SOFR or replacements thereof.

The Calculation Agent will make certain determinations with respect to the Notes as further described under Term 17 (“Floating Rate Note Provisions”) of the Final Terms. Any determination, decision or election pursuant to the benchmark replacement provisions will be made by IBRD. Any of these determinations may adversely affect the value of the Notes, the return on the Notes and the price at which you can sell such Notes. Moreover, certain determinations to be made by IBRD may require the exercise of discretion and the making of subjective judgments, such as with respect to Compounded SOFR or the occurrence or non-occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event and any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. These potentially subjective determinations may adversely affect the value of the Notes, the return on the Notes and the price at which you can sell such Notes.

Structural changes to the U.S. Treasury repo market, including the expansion of central clearing, may affect the composition and behavior of SOFR.

SOFR is calculated based on transactions in the U.S. Treasury repurchase agreement (“repo”) market, including tri-party repo, General Collateral Finance repo, and centrally-cleared bilateral repo transactions. The composition of that market is subject to change. In particular, rules adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission require an expanded share of U.S. Treasury repo transactions to be centrally cleared, with compliance deadlines extending into 2026. As a greater volume of repo activity moves into central clearing, the composition of the transaction data underlying SOFR may shift materially. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has stated that it has taken steps to update SOFR’s methodology in anticipation of this transition; however, there can be no assurance that these or any future adjustments will fully offset the effects of such structural changes on SOFR’s level, volatility or behavior. If the composition of the repo market changes significantly, SOFR may behave differently than it has historically, which could adversely affect the amount of interest payable on the Notes, the return on the Notes, and the price at which you can sell the Notes.

The maturity of the Notes may be extended.

In certain circumstances, an Extension Event may occur with respect to all or a portion of the Notes, resulting in one or more Extension Periods for the Notes. In the case of a Partial Extension, interest during the relevant Extension Period will only be payable on that portion of the Notes that has been extended and not on that portion of the Notes that has been redeemed and has not been extended. Whether an Extension Event will occur with respect to all or a portion of the Notes is unpredictable. Interest payable on the Notes during the Extension Periods will no longer include the Risk Margin that was effective prior to the Extension Periods, but rather will include a reduced Risk Margin.

The Notes may be redeemed before the Scheduled Maturity Date, including in circumstances where the Risk Transfer Agreement is terminated.

If a Mandatory Redemption Event occurs with respect to the Notes, the Notes may be redeemed prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date at the Redemption Amount. A Mandatory Redemption Event may result from a Reporting Source Failure Event (as discussed under “Overview—Redemption Terms—Reporting Source Failure Event”) or an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event (as discussed under “Overview—Redemption Terms—Event Calculation Agent Failure Event”).

A Mandatory Redemption Event may also result from a Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event, which may be triggered by certain events with respect to the Risk Transfer Agreement, including by certain defaults of IBRD or the Government of Jamaica thereunder (including, for example, if the Government of Jamaica fails to make a premium payment to IBRD when due), or by changes in applicable laws as described in the Risk Transfer Agreement. See “Overview—Redemption Terms—Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” and “The Risk Transfer Transaction”. Accordingly, any such Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event may result in the early redemption of the Notes.

Under the Risk Transfer Agreement certain amendments to, changes in, issuances of, or clarifications of the laws of Jamaica may constitute a “Change of Law”, and could result in a Mandatory Redemption Event with respect to the Notes. Accordingly, the Government of Jamaica may have the ability to cause a Mandatory Redemption Event to occur in order to reduce its premium payment obligations under the Risk Transfer Agreement.

If the Notes are redeemed prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date, holders of the Notes will not have the opportunity to continue to accrue and be paid interest after the applicable redemption date. Holders may have to reinvest any amount received as a result of such redemption in a lower interest rate environment and may be unable to reinvest any such amount in investments with a yield equal to or greater than the yield of the Notes.

The market for the Notes, if one exists, may be highly volatile, and the liquidity of the Notes may be limited.

There is currently no secondary market for the Notes, and although application will be made to the SGX-ST for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Notes by way of debt issuances to Professional Investors only, one might never develop. No Manager or any of their respective affiliates is under any obligation to make a market in the Notes, and to the extent that such market making is commenced, it may be discontinued at any time. The Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of US$250,000 and integral multiples of US$1,000 in excess thereof.

There can be no assurance that a secondary market will develop for the Notes. Even if a secondary market for the Notes develops, the price for which Noteholders can sell the Notes in the secondary market may exhibit substantial volatility before, during or after the occurrence of any Named Storm Event or potential Named Storm Event.

Any secondary market may not provide significant liquidity and may not continue until the Notes are redeemed. Transaction costs in any secondary market could be high. In addition, if a Named Storm Event (or potential Named Storm Event or other significant natural peril catastrophe) occurs, the liquidity of the Notes may be materially impaired. As a result, the difference between bid and ask prices for the Notes in any secondary market could be substantial. If Noteholders sell their Notes before maturity, such Noteholders may have to do so at a discount from the initial Issue Price, and, as a result, such Noteholders may suffer substantial losses.

The market value of the Notes may also be affected if IBRD or debt issued under IBRD's Global Debt Issuance Facility is downgraded by any nationally recognized statistical rating organization or if the market experiences limited liquidity. The market value of the Notes may also exhibit substantial volatility if a sizeable other material peril event occurs that affects the insurance or reinsurance industry.

The return on the Notes may be lower than the return on a standard debt security of comparable maturity.

The return that a Noteholder will receive on the Notes, which could be negative, may be less than the return such Noteholder could earn on other investments. Even if a Noteholder's return is positive, such Noteholder's return may be less than the return such Noteholder would earn if such Noteholder bought a conventional senior debt security of IBRD with the same maturity date. A Noteholder's investment may not reflect the full opportunity cost to such Noteholder when such Noteholder takes into account factors that affect the time value of money. Unlike conventional debt securities, if one or more Named Storm Events occur with respect to the Notes a Noteholder holds, such Noteholder may not receive full repayment of principal at maturity with respect to such Notes.

Investment in the Notes may not be legal for all investors.

Investors should consult their own legal advisors in determining whether and to what extent the Notes constitute legal investments for such investors and whether and to what extent the Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowings. In addition, financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or regulators in determining the appropriate treatment of the Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

Investors whose investment activities are subject to investment laws and regulations or to review or regulation by certain authorities may be subject to restrictions on investments in certain types of debt securities, which may include the Notes. Investors should review and consider such restrictions prior to investing in the Notes.

Changes in creditworthiness of IBRD's borrowers may affect the financial condition of IBRD.

IBRD makes loans directly to, or guaranteed by, its member countries. Changes in the macroeconomic environment and financial markets in these member countries may affect their creditworthiness and repayments made to IBRD. IBRD's Articles limit its outstanding loans, equity investments and guarantees to the total amount of its subscribed capital, reserves and surpluses.

Various restrictions are applicable to the transfer of the Notes.

The Notes may be reoffered and sold only to investors who (i) are Qualified Institutional Buyers as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, (ii) are residents of, and purchasing and holding the Notes in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction (as defined in "Overview—Manner of Offering—Transfer Restrictions") and (iii) meet the other requirements set forth under "Notice to Investors—Representations of Purchasers" at page PT-47. The Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state or foreign securities laws, and transfers of Notes are subject to substantial contractual and legal restrictions. In particular, a Noteholder may not sell or offer to sell the Notes in or into any state or jurisdiction of the United States other than the Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions or in or into any jurisdiction outside of the United States other than the Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions. See "—Legal interpretations and requirements in Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions and Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions are subject to change" below. Given the risks associated with an investment in the Notes and the restrictions on transfer, investors may have difficulty locating Qualified Institutional Buyers in Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions or Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions willing to purchase Notes from them. Consequently, a Noteholder may not be able to liquidate its investment readily, and the Notes may not be readily accepted as collateral for loans. Prospective investors should proceed on the assumption that they may have to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Notes until their maturity.

Legal interpretations and requirements in Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions and Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions are subject to change.

The laws and regulations of the Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions and the Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions contain broad definitions of the activities that may constitute the conduct of the business of insurance in such jurisdictions. The terms of the Notes are such that they could be construed to constitute insurance or reinsurance contracts in these jurisdictions, insofar as they expose the holders to certain insurance or reinsurance related risks, and accordingly subject the investor to regulation as a provider of insurance or reinsurance coverage.

IBRD has been advised by counsel that, in each of the Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions and Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions, investors in the Notes should not be required solely by reason of such investment to be licensed as an insurer or reinsurer in such state or jurisdiction. This advice is based upon interpretations (either written or oral) received from the staff of the insurance regulatory body or in certain cases local counsel in such states and jurisdictions with respect to securities having similar characteristics to the Notes. Such interpretations were issued years ago (in most cases, more than twenty years ago) and have not been and will not be updated in connection with the offering of the Notes. Insurance regulatory authorities have broad discretionary powers to modify or withdraw regulatory interpretations, and such interpretations and the written advice of counsel received with respect to the laws of the Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions and the Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions are not binding on a court or any third party and may be subject to challenge in administrative or judicial proceedings. There can be no assurance that such interpretations and advice will remain in effect or as to the outcome of any such third-party challenge. Noteholders are not and will not be permitted to transfer Notes into a jurisdiction that is not a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction.

Any person who holds any interest in the Notes, who does not reside and hold such interest in a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction, may be forced to transfer such interest to a person in a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction.

The market for unrated securities is subject to disruptions that could have an adverse effect on the market price of the Notes.

The Notes are not rated. As a result, holders of the Notes bear the risks associated with an investment in unrated debt. Generally, the market for unrated securities has been subject to increased volatility in the prices of such securities and reduced liquidity for the holders of such securities.

Risks Relating to Moody's

THE DISCLAIMERS SET FORTH ON PAGES VII TO X OF THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT REGARDING THE MOODY'S EXPERT RISK ANALYSIS REPORT AND THE RISK MODEL APPLY TO THIS ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS SECTION. THESE ADDITIONAL RISK FACTORS THAT RELATE TO MOODY'S ARE PROVIDED BY MOODY'S AS OF THE DATE HEREOF.

Limitations of Moody's analysis included herein

The data and methodology described in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, and the analyses, estimates and services are provided or to be provided "as is" without warranty or any guaranty of any kind (including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability, of fitness for a particular purpose, title, and non-infringement, and all warranties arising from the course of dealing, usage, or trade practice) to the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers, or offerees, purchasers or holders of the Notes. These analyses and estimates are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to provide, nor should they be interpreted as providing, any facts regarding, or any guaranty or prediction or forecast of, the likelihood that investors in the Notes will receive payment thereon. Notwithstanding the analyses, estimates and assumptions set forth in this Prospectus Supplement, one or more Named Storm Events during the Risk Period could result in a reduction of the principal of, or interest on, the Notes. Any such Named Storm Event may have characteristics similar to or different from those of simulated events represented in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, or characteristics not considered in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report.

Moody's does not represent investors in the Notes or their interests in any way. Moody's does not sponsor, endorse, offer or promote the Notes, nor does it make any representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the advisability of investing in the Notes or the legality of an investment in the Notes. Moody's is not responsible for and has not made any decision or recommendation in respect of the determination of the structure or pricing of the Notes, the Risk Margin or the interest calculations. Moody's does not, and the services rendered in relation to the Notes are not, recommendations about the corporate or legal structure, assets, liabilities or activities of any of the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, or the Managers. Furthermore, Moody's has no obligation or liability in connection with the Notes, including, without limitation, the trading, marketing or administration of the Notes, losses, if any, arising from any changes in the interest payable on the Notes and/or any payments, responsibilities or other obligations related to the Notes or liability for any adverse financial result or any direct, indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages, including lost profits, whatsoever. Moody's makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the information set forth in this Prospectus Supplement, including information contained in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, or as to the adequacy, completeness or appropriateness of the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report for any purpose. None of Moody's, the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, or the Managers shall be liable whatsoever for any business decisions made by the investors based on the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. In no event shall Moody's, the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, or the Managers or any of their respective affiliates, representatives or agents be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, including lost profits, of any kind arising from the investors' use of the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report or any omission therefrom.

In the development of the Risk Model, Moody's has relied on published technical papers and studies, catalogs and other data based on past meteorological activity, among others, and has selected those that it believes to represent credible scientific opinion on Named Storms. However, since no scientific consensus on models or risk parameters exists, Moody's acknowledges (and investors in the Notes are deemed to acknowledge) that other credible, published models and/or risk parameters may exist that, if used, could produce materially different results. Moody's also has not verified the authenticity, accuracy or completeness of all the original data in the historical catalogs or other data sources used to develop the Risk Model.

The Risk Model does not predict the probabilistic occurrence of any catastrophic events. Prior to investing in the Notes, investors should consult their own expert advisors, whose conclusions may differ from those of Moody's.

No model is, or could be, an exact representation of reality. The Risk Model relies on various methodologies and assumptions, including assumptions about the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of historical data, some of which are subjective and subject to uncertainty, and which might not be used in models developed by other entities. Furthermore, there may be differences in the way in which these assumptions are considered by other firms. There can be no assurance that the Risk Model will prove to be an accurate estimation of the risk of a reduction of the principal of, or interest on, the Notes. Accordingly, the expected loss estimates and related probabilities produced by the Risk Model are themselves subject to uncertainty.

A significant amount of uncertainty and variability exists in the meteorological events being analyzed, as well as uncertainty in the assumptions and parameters used in the analysis set out in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, any one of which alone can cause modeled loss to be significantly different from the loss ultimately sustained in specific events. Such uncertainties exist in, but are not limited to, estimates of Named Storm severity and frequency, event intensity, and event characteristics. Considerable uncertainty exists in the Risk Model as well as in the parameters used therein, arising from insufficient data, limited data collection methodologies and technology.

The Risk Model is not a perfect representation of likelihood and severity of Named Storms including, amongst other reasons, because of insufficient available data, limited scientific knowledge and alternative assumptions as to empirical relationships, as well as from the random nature of Named Storms. The Risk Model cannot incorporate all sources of uncertainty. Furthermore, incompleteness and potential incorrectness of the assumptions and methodologies used by Moody's may not constitute an exclusive set of reasonable assumptions and may not be correct. Use of alternative assumptions and/or models could yield results materially different than those produced by Moody's. Moody's also did not elicit from other experts alternative interpretations of its data or methods, nor did Moody's research all potentially available interpretations of such data and methods on the basis that Moody's considered its own interpretations to be more reliable.

The estimated losses and related probabilities generated by the Risk Model are not necessarily predictive of future Named Storms. Investors in the Notes should not view the expected loss estimates and related probabilities generated by the Risk Model as necessarily predicting the likelihood of the occurrence during the Risk Period of one or more Named Storm Events of sufficient severity to result in a reduction of the principal of, or interest on, the Notes. Moody's has not made any effort, nor does it have the ability to predict the occurrence, frequency or severity of Named Storm Events affecting the Covered Area during the Risk Period. Accordingly, the actual frequency and severity of Named Storm Events could differ materially from the frequency and severity estimated by Moody's.

Certain types of Named Storms that may cause a Payout Amount are not modeled by Moody's.

Certain types of Named Storms that may cause a Payout Amount are not modeled by Moody's. The Risk Model does not include tropical cyclones and other storms that at no point over their life-cycles affect land as a hurricane (i.e., Saffir-Simpson Category 1 or greater), although these types of storms may qualify as Named Storm Events. The Risk Model does not explicitly include the potential interaction of tropical cyclones with non-tropical weather systems, or other tropical systems, which may result in the merging, intensification, or redirection of such storms; however, these effects may be included in the historical data set Moody's uses to calibrate the Risk Model. Accordingly, the actual frequency and severity of Named Storm Events could differ from the frequency and severity estimated by Moody's and such differences may be material.

There are discrepancies between the methodologies employed by the Risk Model in the generation of modeled Event Parameters and the methodologies employed by the Reporting Source in determining observed Event Parameters. These discrepancies include but are not limited to: (i) variations in the reporting frequency of Named Storm events due to the potential reporting of landfall points for Jamaica by the Reporting Source in addition to 6-hourly time intervals; (ii) contrasting approaches to rounding central pressure values; and (iii) the reliance of the Risk Model on historical post-storm analysis data, which may not align with real-time observations reported by the Reporting Source. Such methodological differences could lead to inaccuracies in the Risk Model's estimation of observed Event Parameters, thereby potentially overestimating or underestimating the risk of a partial or total loss of principal of the Notes.

The Event Parameters provided by the applicable Reporting Source as of the Event Parameters Date are binding.

The Payout Amount for any Named Storm Event will be determined based upon the Event Parameters provided solely by the applicable Reporting Source following the procedures outlined in this Prospectus Supplement and the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Such Reporting Source may make available from time to time several different reports or information which may show different levels of accuracy and precision, the use of which could result in the calculation of materially different Payout Amounts. The Primary Reporting Source and the Back-up Reporting Sources do not necessarily report final data, and such data may be, and has in the past been, updated after its initial publication. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Event Parameters as of the applicable Event Parameters Date are used to determine the Payout Amount. Any data released or revised after the Event Parameters Date, except in connection with the provision of a Subsequent Event Report, will be disregarded by the Event Calculation Agent when determining any Payout Amount related to such Named Storm Event.

In the absence of manifest error the Event Parameters as reported by the applicable Reporting Source (including a replacement Reporting Source) are final and binding and the Event Calculation Agent has no obligation to, and will not have an obligation to, undertake any independent assessment of the accuracy of the parameters reported, nor any assessment of whether such parameters have been correctly attributed to a particular Named Storm Event. Moreover, different reporting sources may publish different values for the Event Parameters, the use of which could result in the calculation of materially different Payout Amounts.

The Calculation Date in respect of a Named Storm Event depends in part on when the Government of Jamaica delivers a Notice of Named Storm Event to the Event Calculation Agent. As the Event Calculation Agent will first attempt to obtain the Event Parameters on the applicable Calculation Date, the timing of the delivery of a Notice of Named Storm Event could affect which Event Parameters are used with respect to a Named Storm Event. Accordingly, the Government of Jamaica's decision on when to deliver a Notice of Named Storm Event could affect the Payout Amount calculation in the related Event Report.

The Reporting Sources rely on substantially the same data sources.

In the event of the unavailability of the Primary Reporting Source, the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain the Event Parameters from a Back-up Reporting Source pursuant to the terms of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. The Primary Reporting Source and all of the Back-up Reporting Sources rely on data collected by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration ("NOAA"). Thus, if NOAA ceases to collect the relevant data for any reason, the Event Calculation Agent may be unable to obtain the Event Parameters from any of the Primary Reporting Source or the listed Back-up Reporting Sources.

The Primary Reporting Source or Back-up Reporting Sources may be negatively affected by workforce reductions, staffing shortages, restructuring, or budget constraints.

Various divisions and agencies under NOAA, including the NHC, have experienced significant workforce reductions and restructuring since early 2025, resulting in staffing shortages. Public discussions and policy proposals have raised the possibility of commercializing or further restructuring NOAA and its constituent agencies, including the National Weather Service (of which the NHC is a division). While Congress provided funding for NWS and related agencies for fiscal year 2026 at levels broadly consistent with prior years, significant reductions have been proposed for future budget cycles and previously appropriated funds have been subject to rescission. Any of these developments — including further workforce reductions, restructuring, commercialization, or budget constraints — could impair the ability of the Primary Reporting Source or Back-up Reporting Sources to provide public, no-cost, weather information.

The Event Calculation Agent's determination of the occurrence of a Named Storm Event, which has inherent limitations, will be final and binding absent manifest error.

The procedures to be performed by Moody's in its capacity as Event Calculation Agent will result in a factual determination as to whether a Named Storm Event has occurred resulting in a Payout Amount. The determination will be performed in accordance with the methodologies described in this Prospectus Supplement and as specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. The terms of the Notes provide that all factual determinations made by Moody's, as the Event Calculation Agent, are final and binding, absent manifest error. No separate review or appraisal of the accuracy of the defined methodologies or data used will be performed.

Investors are advised that the determination of whether a Named Storm Event has occurred that results in a partial or total loss of principal of the Notes, is final, regardless of any actual, potential, or theoretical discrepancies between the methodology used by the Event Calculation Agent and any other possible methodology for assessing the same facts, including the selection of any replacement Reporting Source. These inherent limitations are potentially exacerbated by the potential for unreliable data or the unavailability of data.

The Risk Model may not reflect the most current models of Moody's.

Moody's reviews model assumptions from time to time in light of new data and other information to refine the loss estimates and modify its commercially available models as such information becomes available. Furthermore, to the extent that Moody's becomes aware of issues either in its models or in the software expression of the models which may affect their output in unintended ways, it may, depending on the materiality of the issues, communicate them to its licensees and address them in subsequent versions. Moody's expressly disclaims any obligation or duty to update, modify or correct the Risk Model. As such, the Risk Model may not necessarily reflect the most current models of Moody's at any time. Estimates generated by such refined or modified models may materially differ from the estimates generated by the Risk Model in connection with this offering. The use of such models in lieu of the Risk Model might materially alter the information provided in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. However, no changes or updates to the estimates or information provided in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report will be made subsequent to the Issue Date.

The Government of Jamaica and the Issuer and its affiliates may use different models from the Risk Model.

The Government of Jamaica and the Issuer may use for their own risk management purposes their own internal model or third-party vendor models, which may produce significantly different results from the Risk Model used to produce the modeling reflected in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. In addition, affiliates of the Managers may provide reinsurance and insurance brokerage, and reinsurance and insurance, for many clients, including the Government of Jamaica and the Issuer. In the ordinary course of business, such affiliates may become privy to client generated model output and may generate other model output using internal or third-party vendor models. Such output may differ, in some cases, from the output reflected in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. None of the foregoing parties intends to, and will not be required to, disclose the results of those models to any purchaser of the Notes. Accordingly, these parties may have a materially different view of the risk of loss to the Notes than the investors or Moody's.

No Representations are given with respect to the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report.

None of the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers, or any of their respective affiliates and representatives, or any of their respective directors or officers, has reviewed, or makes, or shall be deemed to make, any representation with respect to the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, including, without limitation, the adequacy, completeness, appropriateness or otherwise, of the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. The Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report is included herein in reliance upon Moody's as experts in such matters. See "Experts." The Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report is, as noted above, based on certain assumptions, judgments and methodologies of Moody's, a number of which are confidential and proprietary to Moody's.

Without intending to limit the foregoing, in particular, none of the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers, or any of their respective affiliates or representatives, or any of their directors or officers, has reviewed the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report to determine:

- i. the reasonableness of the assumptions, judgments and methodologies used by Moody's;
- ii. whether such assumptions, judgments and methodologies should be supplemented in any way through the use of alternative assumptions, judgments or methodologies;
- iii. whether the assumptions, judgments and methodologies used by Moody's include all appropriate factors that could contribute to a Payout Amount and a corresponding reduction in the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes; or
- iv. whether the use of alternative assumptions, judgments and methodologies, or the use of a different catastrophe simulation model, could yield results materially different from those generated by the Risk Model.

Because of the inherent limitations of relying on the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report for loss estimation, and because of the subjective nature of many of Moody's assumptions, judgments and methodologies in preparing the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report, each of the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers, and their respective affiliates and representatives expressly disclaims any responsibility for, and any liability based upon, a finding that the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report includes any untrue statement of a material fact or that the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

Moody's relationship with the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, and the Managers.

Moody's provides consulting services and other services to the insurance industry. Moody's provides consulting services to the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers and their respective affiliates, and Moody's expects to continue to provide such services and may engage in other types of business with the Issuer, the Government of Jamaica, the Managers, and their respective affiliates in the future. Moody's currently engages, and may in the future engage, in other types of business with the Government of Jamaica and/or its affiliates, including licensing and consulting arrangements related to the Government of Jamaica's ordinary course activities. Additionally, Risk Management Solutions, Inc. is a subsidiary of Moody's Corporation (NYSE:MCO) and operates as part of the Moody's Analytics business segment, which is operationally and legally separate from Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's Ratings"), the credit rating agency. Moody's Ratings may issue or maintain credit ratings on the transaction parties, including the Government of Jamaica, the Issuer, the Managers, and their affiliates. Neither Risk Management Solutions, Inc., Moody's Ratings, nor Moody's Analytics are directly engaged in providing or underwriting insurance (including reinsurance), nor do they offer professional advice or recommendations relating to the structuring or issuing of securities.

The Issuer has agreed to pay the fees and expenses of Moody's in its capacity as Event Calculation Agent and for services provided in preparation of the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. In addition, the Issuer has agreed to indemnify Moody's in respect of certain claims, losses, and expenses.

Moody's has no direct contractual liability to Noteholders.

Moody's has provided its analyses, expected loss estimates and related probabilities as described in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report. In no event shall Moody's be liable to Noteholders of the Notes for direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, including lost profits, of any kind arising from any use of the information provided by Moody's in the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis Report or in any report provided by Moody's in its capacity as Event Calculation Agent. Noteholders will have no right to enforce or take actions against Moody's or any other right thereunder or in connection therewith. The Issuer's use of the information provided by Moody's, particularly with regard to any disclosure made or omitted in this Prospectus Supplement, is completely within Issuer's sole discretion, and not the responsibility of Moody's.

Change of Law

The structure of the Notes, as well as the structure of the Risk Transfer Agreement, is based on the legal systems and administrative practice in each relevant jurisdiction in effect as at the date of this Prospectus Supplement. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible change in law or to administrative practice in any of the relevant jurisdictions after the date of this Prospectus Supplement, nor can any assurance be given as to whether any such change could adversely affect the ability of IBRD to make payments under the Notes, as to whether any potential investor may acquire or hold a Note in a given jurisdiction, or as to whether the Notes may be subject to prepayment. See also “Additional Risk Factors— The Notes may be redeemed before the Scheduled Maturity Date, including in circumstances where the Risk Transfer Agreement is terminated”.

Conflicts of Interest

The Managers and their respective affiliates are financial institutions, (re)insurance companies or (re)insurance intermediaries engaged, or expected to be engaged in the future, in various activities, which may include insurance and reinsurance, insurance and reinsurance related brokerage, securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities.

Certain of the Managers and their respective affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory, investment banking, insurance and reinsurance and insurance and reinsurance related brokerage services for IBRD (or other entities in the World Bank Group) for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses.

In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Managers and any of their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investment and securities activities may involve securities and instruments of IBRD (or other entities in the World Bank Group), including the Notes.

There may be conflicts of interest relating to the Managers’ (and their respective affiliates’) business activities.

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise as a result of the insurance and reinsurance, insurance and reinsurance related brokerage, securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage services, and any other services, provided by the Managers and any of their respective affiliates to IBRD (or other entities in the World Bank Group) and others, as well as in connection with the investment, trading and brokerage activities of the Managers and any of their respective affiliates. The following briefly summarizes some of these conflicts, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all such conflicts.

The Managers or any of their respective affiliates may from time to time hold the Notes for investment, trading or other purposes.

Furthermore, in the course of providing insurance and reinsurance or insurance or reinsurance related brokerage services, or any other services, a Manager or any of its respective affiliates may become privy to the output of alternative risk models which may differ, possibly materially, from the output reflected in the Moody’s Expert Risk Analysis Report.

If a Manager or any of its respective affiliates becomes a Noteholder, through market-making activity or otherwise, any actions that it takes in its capacity as a Noteholder, including voting, providing consents or otherwise, will not necessarily be aligned with the interests of other Noteholders. To the extent a Manager or any of its respective affiliates makes a market in the Notes (which they are under no obligation to do), they would expect to receive income from the spreads between their bid and offer prices for the Notes. In connection with any such activity, they will have no obligation to take, refrain from taking or cease taking any action with respect to these transactions and activities based on the potential effect on an investor in the Notes. The price at which a Manager or any of its respective affiliates may be willing to purchase the Notes, if they make a market, will depend on market conditions and other relevant factors and may be significantly lower than the Issue Price for the Notes and significantly lower than the price at which they may be willing to sell the Notes.

No investment in the Notes by the Managers or any of their respective affiliates should be regarded as a recommendation to invest in any Notes. Any decisions to invest in the Notes should be based solely on the investor's own evaluation of its financial circumstances, investment objectives, risk tolerance, liquidity needs, regulatory status and any other factors that it deems relevant.

Regulatory Risks

IBRD is not regulated by any regulatory authority.

IBRD is not licensed or authorized under any current securities, commodities, insurance or banking laws of any jurisdiction and has not applied (and does not expect to apply) for any such licenses or authorizations. There can be no assurance, however, that regulatory authorities in one or more jurisdictions would not take a contrary view regarding the applicability of any such laws to IBRD. The taking of a contrary view by any such regulatory authority could have an adverse impact on IBRD or the Noteholders.

Significant aspects of the tax treatment of the Notes are uncertain.

You should consider the tax consequences of investing in the Notes, significant aspects of which are uncertain. See "United States Federal Income Tax Treatment" in this Prospectus Supplement.

THE ISSUER

IBRD is an international organization owned by its 189 member countries, is the largest multilateral development bank in the world and is one of the five institutions of the World Bank Group (WBG). The other institutions of the WBG are the International Development Association (IDA), the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA), and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). Each of these organizations is legally and financially independent from IBRD, with separate assets and liabilities, and IBRD is not liable for their respective obligations. The WBG's shared mission is to eradicate extreme poverty and promote shared prosperity on a livable planet. To fulfill this mission, IBRD provides loans, guarantees, and knowledge sharing through technical assistance for economic reform projects and programs. In addition, IBRD provides or facilitates financing through trust fund partnerships with bilateral and multilateral donors. IBRD's ability to intermediate the funds it raises in international capital markets is important in helping it achieve the development goals of its member countries. IBRD's financial goal is not to maximize profits, but to earn adequate income to ensure its financial strength and sustain its development activities.

IBRD derives its financial strength from its capital base, through the support of its shareholders as well as its financial and risk management policies and practices. Shareholder support takes the form of capital subscriptions from members and their strong record in servicing their debt to IBRD. IBRD's sound financial and risk management policies and practices have enabled it to maintain its capital adequacy, diversify its funding sources, hold a portfolio of liquid investments to meet its financial commitments, and limit its risks – including credit and market risks.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Supporting sustainable development in IBRD's member countries.

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes will be used by IBRD to support the financing of Eligible Sustainable Development Projects through loans to, or guaranteed by, its members.

"Eligible Sustainable Development Projects" means projects, programs and activities in IBRD's member countries designed to achieve positive social and environmental impacts and outcomes in line with IBRD's goals of eliminating extreme poverty and promoting shared prosperity on a livable planet.

Eligible Sustainable Development Projects undergo a rigorous review and internal approval process which integrates IBRD's sustainability policies and environmental and social requirements.

IBRD's sustainable development bond framework ("SDBF"), as published from time to time, describes the process for selecting, evaluating and reporting on Eligible Sustainable Development Projects and contains descriptions and examples of such eligible projects.

The net proceeds from the sale of the Notes are not committed or earmarked for the lending to, or financing of, any particular Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Payments on the Notes are not funded by any Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Prior to use, the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes will be invested by IBRD's Treasury in accordance with IBRD's liquid asset management investment policies. IBRD's administrative and operating expenses are covered entirely by IBRD's various sources of revenue (net income) consisting primarily of net loan revenues and investment income (as more fully described in the Information Statement). The SDBF and the information set forth therein are not a part of, or incorporated by reference into, the Prospectus.

THE RISK TRANSFER TRANSACTION

IBRD is issuing the Notes in order to support its obligation to make certain payments to the Government of Jamaica under the Risk Transfer Agreement upon the occurrence of one or more Named Storm Events during the Risk Period.

The Government of Jamaica

The Government of Jamaica, as a part of its disaster risk financing strategy, is seeking to enter into the Risk Transfer Agreement to mitigate the effects of tropical cyclones, where the severity of such events could potentially exceed its financial capacity.

Specifically, the Government of Jamaica is seeking to enter into the Risk Transfer Agreement with the following primary objectives:

- Complement its financial and risk management strategy in relation to the costs and fiscal strain imposed by the effects of natural catastrophes
- Reduce the fiscal burden associated with the rising impact of climate change, strengthen fiscal resilience, grow and enhance social safety nets and enhance infrastructure resilience

Further, the Government of Jamaica intends to use any proceeds disbursed under the Risk Transfer Agreement to finance emergency responses in accordance with the laws and procedures of the Government of Jamaica.

The Government of Jamaica has also attained the necessary internal approvals and legislative authorization to effect the Risk Transfer Agreement and to support all operations and obligations under such agreement. Such approval is documented in the Estimates of Expenditure that was approved in March 2026.

The Government of Jamaica has no obligations under, and does not guarantee, any of the Notes.

Information relating to the Government of Jamaica has been provided to IBRD by the Government of Jamaica and has not been independently verified by IBRD.

The Risk Transfer Agreement

On or prior to the Issue Date, IBRD will enter into the Risk Transfer Agreement with the Government of Jamaica.

Payments

Under the Risk Transfer Agreement, no later than the Business Day preceding the Issue Date of the Notes, the Government of Jamaica will pay to IBRD a premium payment equal to the aggregate amount of Daily Interest Amount calculated based on the Risk Margin that IBRD would have to pay with respect to the Notes on each Specified Interest Payment Date through (and including) the May 2027 Specified Interest Payment Date, assuming that no Principal Reduction occurs with respect to the Notes.

Prior to April 23, 2027, the Government of Jamaica will be required to pay to IBRD a premium payment equal to the aggregate amount of Daily Interest Amount calculated based on the Risk Margin that IBRD would have to pay with respect to the Notes on each Specified Interest Payment Date through (and including) the May 2028 Specified Interest Payment Date, assuming that no Principal Reduction occurs with respect to the Notes after the date of such premium payment.

Prior to April 21, 2028, the Government of Jamaica will be required to pay to IBRD a premium payment equal to the aggregate amount of Daily Interest Amount calculated based on the Risk Margin that IBRD would have to pay with respect to the Notes on each Specified Interest Payment Date through (and including) the May 2029 Specified Interest Payment Date (which assumes the Notes are extended until such date), assuming that no Principal Reductions occur with respect to the Notes after the date of such premium payment.

Prior to April 23, 2029, the Government of Jamaica will be required to pay to IBRD a premium payment equal to the aggregate amount of Daily Interest Amount calculated based on the Risk Margin that IBRD would have to pay with respect to the Notes on each Specified Interest Payment Date through (and including) the September 2030 Specified Interest Payment Date (which assumes the Notes are extended until such date), assuming that no Principal Reductions occur with respect to the Notes after the date of such premium payment.

Under the Risk Transfer Agreement, following each Principal Reduction Date, IBRD will pay to the Government of Jamaica an amount equal to the Principal Reduction (if any) that occurred on such Principal Reduction Date. Under certain circumstances, the Government of Jamaica may request that IBRD expedite such payment (reduced by a financing charge for expediting such payment).

Change of Law

If the Government of Jamaica or IBRD determines that a “Change of Law”, as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement, has occurred and is continuing, it may elect to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement by giving written notice to the other party. Any such election will give rise to a Mandatory Redemption Event with respect to the Notes. See “Overview—The Notes—Redemption Terms—Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” and “Additional Risk Factors—The Notes may be redeemed before the Scheduled Maturity Date, including in circumstances where the Risk Transfer Agreement is terminated”.

Under the Risk Transfer Agreement, “Change of Law” will mean:

(i) with respect to IBRD (in which case IBRD will be the “Affected Party”): (x) a permanent suspension of IBRD’s operations pursuant to Article VI, Section 5(b) of its Articles of Agreement, or (ii) any amendment to, change in or the issuance of, laws of Jamaica or the United States (including a change in, or the issuance of, any official interpretation, guidance or application thereof), which becomes effective after the date of the Risk Transfer Agreement, and that upon becoming effective would materially and adversely impair IBRD’s ability to perform or would result in material adverse consequences or materially increase the regulatory burden for IBRD if it continued to perform its obligations under the Risk Transfer Agreement, in each case as determined in good faith by IBRD following written advice of counsel (with a copy provided to the Government of Jamaica); and

(ii) with respect to the Government of Jamaica (in which case the Government of Jamaica will be the “Affected Party”): any amendment to, change in or the issuance of, laws of Jamaica or the United States (including a change in, or the issuance of, any official interpretation, guidance or application thereof), which becomes effective after the date of the Risk Transfer Agreement, and that upon becoming effective would (a) in the case of the laws of Jamaica, materially and adversely impair the Government of Jamaica’s ability to receive the benefit of any payment required to be paid to it by IBRD under the Risk Transfer Agreement, and (b) in the case of the laws of the United States, materially and adversely impair the Government of Jamaica’s ability to perform or result in material adverse consequences or materially increase the regulatory burden for the Government of Jamaica if it continued to perform its obligations under the Risk Transfer Agreement, in each case as determined in good faith by the Government of Jamaica following written advice of counsel (with a copy provided to IBRD).

Risk Transfer Termination Event

If a “Risk Transfer Termination Event”, as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement, occurs and is continuing with respect to a party (the “Affected Party”), the other party may elect to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement by written notice to the Affected Party. Any such election will give rise to a Mandatory Redemption Event with respect to the Notes. See “Overview—The Notes—Redemption Terms—Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” and “Additional Risk Factors—The Notes may be redeemed before the Scheduled Maturity Date, including in circumstances where the Risk Transfer Agreement is terminated”.

Under the Risk Transfer Agreement, a “Risk Transfer Termination Event” with respect to each of the Government of Jamaica and IBRD will occur if:

(i) such party fails to pay, when due, any amount required to be paid by it to the other party under the Risk Transfer Agreement, if such failure is not remedied within five (5) Business Days after notice of such failure is given to it by the other party;

(ii) a representation of such party under Section 8.1 of the Risk Transfer Agreement proves to have been incorrect or misleading in any material respect when made; or

(iii) such party (a) materially breaches the Risk Transfer Agreement in a manner that can be cured and fails to cure such breach within five (5) Business Days after notice thereof has been provided to it by the other party or (b) materially breaches the Risk Transfer Agreement in a manner that cannot be cured.

Mandatory Early Termination

If a Mandatory Redemption Event occurs with respect to the Notes, the Risk Transfer Agreement will terminate on the fifth (5th) Business Day following the Redemption Amount Payment Date for the Notes.

Extension

If an Extension Event occurs, the term of the Risk Transfer Agreement will be automatically extended to the date that is five (5) Business Days following the relevant Extended Maturity Date on which the Notes become due and payable.

SUMMARY OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS

The following summaries describe certain material terms of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. The summaries do not purport to be complete or exact and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, all of the provisions of the specific documents, including the definitions therein of certain terms.

Event Calculation Agent Agreement

On or prior to the Issue Date, IBRD will enter into an Event Calculation Agent Agreement with Moody's as the initial Event Calculation Agent, pursuant to which the Event Calculation Agent shall perform certain services. The Event Calculation Agent Agreement will provide that, upon receipt of a Notice of Named Storm Event, the Event Calculation Agent will determine, among other things and in accordance with the procedures specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, the Event Parameters and Payout Amounts.

The appointment of the Event Calculation Agent under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement may not be terminated, and no resignation or removal of the Event Calculation Agent will become effective, until the written acceptance by a replacement Event Calculation Agent appointed in accordance with the Event Calculation Agent Agreement or, if no such replacement Event Calculation Agent has been able to be appointed by IBRD in accordance with the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, until the expiry of the forty-five (45) calendar day period specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Any successor Event Calculation Agent must (i) not be affiliated with IBRD or the Government of Jamaica, (ii) not be a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica and (iii) deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Event Calculation Agent and to IBRD. If IBRD has become aware that the Event Calculation Agent has become incapable of performing, or has failed to perform or to observe in any material respect, or otherwise commits a material breach of, any provision of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, and such failure or breach has not been cured to the reasonable satisfaction of IBRD during the period specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement (a "Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure"), and IBRD, after using its reasonable best efforts, has been unable to engage a replacement Event Calculation Agent to perform such duties and obligations that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica and that is not a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica, and meets the requirements of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, within thirty (30) calendar days after such Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure, an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event shall be deemed to occur.

In consideration for such services rendered, IBRD will be required to pay a fee to the Event Calculation Agent. In addition, IBRD will agree under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement to indemnify the Event Calculation Agent in respect of certain claims, losses and expenses.

The Event Calculation Agent Agreement will be governed under the laws of the State of New York.

The Event Calculation Agent Agreement will be made available on the Site. Access to the Site can be requested from IBRD using the form in Appendix I to Annex A. See "Available Information".

TAXATION

United States Federal Income Tax Treatment

The following is a general description of certain United States federal income tax considerations to a U.S. Holder (as defined in the accompanying Prospectus) that holds the Notes. This summary supplements the section “Tax Matters” in the accompanying Prospectus and is subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth therein. The following applies to you if you are a U.S. Holder, you purchase the Notes in the initial offering, and you hold your Notes as a capital asset for tax purposes. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus Supplement and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

No statutory, judicial or administrative authority directly discusses how the Notes should be treated for United States federal income tax purposes. As a result, the United States federal income tax consequences of your investment in the Notes are highly uncertain and alternative characterizations are possible. Accordingly, we urge you to consult your tax advisor in determining the tax consequences of an investment in the Notes, including the application of state, local or other tax laws and the possible effects of changes in federal or other tax laws.

Treatment as an Investment Unit. The treatment of the Notes for United States federal income tax purposes is uncertain. It would be reasonable to treat the Notes as an investment unit consisting of (i) a non-contingent debt instrument that is issued for the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes bearing interest at a rate of Compounded SOFR plus the Funding Margin (the “Debt Portion”) and (ii) a derivative contract in respect of potential Named Storm Events that we enter into with you under which we will make payments to you equal to the Risk Margin (including any payments of the Residual Interest Amount) in exchange for your agreement to make payments to us in respect of certain Named Storm Events (the “Contract”). The Issuer intends to treat the Notes in this manner, and the discussion below assumes that the Notes will be so treated, except as otherwise specifically noted.

Amounts treated as interest on the Debt Portion would be includible by you in ordinary income in accordance with your regular method of accounting for interest for United States federal income tax purposes. Amounts treated as payments for the Contract would likely be deferred and accounted for upon the sale, redemption or maturity of the Notes or upon the occurrence of a Named Storm Event in the manner described below.

If the Outstanding Nominal Amount of your Note is reduced by a Principal Reduction as a result of a Named Storm Event, you will be deemed to have used a portion of the principal of the Debt Portion to make a payment to IBRD under the Contract with respect to that Named Storm Event. Although it is not entirely clear whether and to what extent you could recognize a loss if the Outstanding Nominal Amount of your Note is reduced by a Principal Reduction during the term of the Note, we believe it is reasonable for you to recognize a loss in such a case to the extent of the excess of the relevant Principal Reduction over the sum of the Contract payments you have previously received in respect of the Note and the maximum amount of Contract payments (if any) you may receive in respect of the Note if you hold your Note until maturity. It is, however, possible that you would be permitted to recognize a loss in respect of the excess of the Principal Reduction over the sum of the Contract payments you have previously received in respect of the Note, without taking into account possible future Contract payments. Please consult your tax advisor regarding such possibility and regarding the United States federal income tax treatment of such loss in general.

A payment received upon a redemption or the maturity of the Notes should be treated as (i) a payment of the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Debt Portion (which would likely not result in the recognition of gain or loss) and (ii) a final settlement of the Contract, which would result in your recognition of gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (x) the sum of (a) the portion of the stated interest payments on your Notes that is treated as attributable to the Contract that have been deferred as described above and (b) the amount of any loss you have previously recognized for tax purposes in respect of the Contract as a result of a Named Storm Event and (y) the sum of all Principal Reductions (if any).

Upon a sale of the Notes, you would be required to apportion the value of the amount you receive between the Debt Portion and the Contract on the basis of the values thereof on the date of the redemption or sale. You would recognize gain or loss with respect to the Debt Portion in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount apportioned to the Debt Portion (minus any amount attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which would be taxable as such) and (ii) your adjusted United States federal income tax basis in the Debt Portion (which would generally be equal to the Outstanding Nominal Amount). Such gain or loss in respect of the Debt Portion should be long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period in your Notes is greater than one year. Long-term capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. Holder is generally taxed at preferential rates.

If the value of the Debt Portion upon the sale of your Notes is in excess of the amount you receive upon such sale, you would likely be treated as having made a payment to the purchaser equal to the amount of such excess in order to extinguish your rights and obligations under the Contract. You should recognize gain or loss in respect of the Contract in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the sum of (a) the portion of the stated interest payments on your Notes that is treated as attributable to the Contract that have been deferred as described above, (b) the amount of any loss you have previously recognized for tax purposes in respect of the Contract as a result of a Named Storm Event and (c) any portion of the sale proceeds that is attributable to the Contract, and (ii) the sum of (a) any amount that you are deemed to pay to the purchaser of the Notes in order to extinguish your rights and obligations under the Contract and (b) the sum of all Principal Reductions (if any).

It is unclear whether the character of any gain or loss that you would recognize in respect of the Contract upon the redemption or maturity of the Notes should be ordinary income or loss, short-term capital gain or loss (even if your holding period in your Note is greater than one year) or long-term capital gain or loss (if your holding period in your Note is greater than one year). In addition, it is unclear whether the character of any gain or loss that you would recognize in respect of the Contract upon a sale of a Note should be short-term capital gain or loss (even if your holding period in your Note is greater than one year) or long-term capital gain or loss (if your holding period in your Note is greater than one year). The deductibility of ordinary or capital losses may be subject to limitations. We urge you to consult your tax advisor regarding the character of any gain or loss that you recognize in respect of the Contract.

Alternative Characterizations. It is possible that the Notes could be treated as a single debt instrument subject to the special tax rules governing contingent debt instruments. If the Notes are so treated, you would be required to accrue interest income over the term of your Notes based upon the yield at which we would issue a non-contingent fixed-rate debt instrument with other terms and conditions similar to your Notes. In addition, you would be required to compute a projected payment schedule for the Notes, and you would be required to include ordinary income or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the projected amount of the payments on your Notes and the actual payments on your Notes. You would recognize gain or loss upon the sale or maturity of your Notes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount you receive at such time and your adjusted basis in the Notes.

Alternatively, you may be required to include the entire amount of the stated interest on your Notes (including the portion attributable to the Risk Margin) in ordinary income at the time that such interest is paid or accrued in accordance with your regular method of accounting for United States federal income tax purposes. There are other possible alternative treatments of your Notes and we urge you to consult your tax advisor as to the tax consequences to you of any such alternative treatments of your Notes.

Information with Respect to Foreign Financial Assets. Owners of “specified foreign financial assets” with an aggregate value in excess of US$50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to file an information report with respect to such assets with their tax returns. “Specified foreign financial assets” may include financial accounts maintained by foreign financial institutions (which may include the Notes), as well as the following, but only if they are held for investment and not held in accounts maintained by financial institutions: (i) stocks and securities issued by non-United States persons, (ii) financial instruments and contracts that have non-United States issuers or counterparties, and (iii) interests in foreign entities. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of this reporting obligation to their ownership of the Notes.

Medicare Tax. A U.S. Holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust that does not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax (the “Medicare tax”) on the lesser of (1) the U.S. Holder’s “net investment income” (or “undistributed net investment income” in the case of an estate or trust) for the relevant taxable year and (2) the excess of the U.S. Holder’s modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of individuals is between US$125,000 and US$250,000, depending on the individual’s circumstances). A U.S. Holder’s net investment income will generally include any income or gain in respect of the Debt Portion and the Contract and its net gains from the disposition of Notes, unless such interest income or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the conduct of a trade or business (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). If you are a U.S. Holder that is an individual, estate or trust, you are urged to consult your tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to your income and gains in respect of your investment in the Notes.

BENEFIT PLAN INVESTOR CONSIDERATIONS

A fiduciary of a pension, profit-sharing or other employee benefit plan subject to the U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”) (each, a “Plan”), should consider the fiduciary standards of ERISA in the context of the Plan’s particular circumstances before authorizing an investment in the Notes. Among other factors, the fiduciary should consider whether the investment would satisfy the prudence and diversification requirements of ERISA and would be consistent with the documents and instruments governing the Plan, and whether the investment would involve a prohibited transaction under ERISA or the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”).

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code prohibit Plans, as well as individual retirement accounts, Keogh plans or any other plans that are subject to Section 4975 of the Code (also “Plans”), from engaging in certain transactions involving “plan assets” with persons who are “parties in interest” under ERISA or “disqualified persons” under the Code with respect to the Plan. A violation of these prohibited transaction rules may result in excise tax or other liabilities under ERISA or the Code for those persons, unless exemptive relief is available under an applicable statutory, regulatory or administrative exemption. Employee benefit plans that are governmental plans (as defined in Section 3(32) of ERISA), certain church plans (as defined in Section 3(33) of ERISA) and non-U.S. plans (as described in Section 4(b)(4) of ERISA) (“Non-ERISA Arrangements”) are not subject to the requirements of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code but may be subject to similar provisions under applicable federal, state, local, non-U.S. or other laws (“Similar Laws”).

The acquisition and holding of the Notes by a Plan or any entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of any Plan’s investment in the entity (a “Plan Asset Entity”) with respect to which the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, the Registrar and Paying Agent, any Manager or any of their respective affiliates is or becomes a party in interest or disqualified person may result in a prohibited transaction under ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, unless the Notes are acquired and held pursuant to an applicable exemption. The U.S. Department of Labor has issued prohibited transaction class exemptions, or “PTCEs”, that may provide exemptive relief if required for direct or indirect prohibited transactions that may arise from the purchase or holding of the Notes. These exemptions include PTCE 84-14 (for certain transactions determined by independent qualified professional asset managers), PTCE 90-1 (for certain transactions involving insurance company pooled separate accounts), PTCE 91-38 (for certain transactions involving bank collective investment funds), PTCE 95-60 (for transactions involving certain insurance company general accounts), and PTCE 96-23 (for transactions managed by in-house asset managers). In addition, ERISA Section 408(b)(17) and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code provide an exemption for the purchase and sale of the Notes; provided that neither the issuer of the Notes nor any of its affiliates have or exercise any discretionary authority or control or render any investment advice with respect to the assets of any Plan involved in the transaction and, if the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, the Registrar and Paying Agent, any Manager or any of their respective affiliates is a “party in interest” to a Plan involved in the transaction, it is solely by reason of providing services to the Plan or having a relationship to a service provider to the Plan, and provided further that the Plan pays no more and receives no less than “adequate consideration” in connection with the transaction (the “service provider exemption”). There can be no assurance that all of the conditions of any such exemptions will be satisfied.

Any purchaser or holder of the Notes or any interest therein will be deemed to have represented by its purchase and holding of the Notes or any interest therein that it either (1) is not a Plan, a Plan Asset Entity or a Non-ERISA Arrangement and is not purchasing the Notes on behalf of or with the assets of any Plan, a Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement or (2) the purchase and holding of the Notes will not constitute a non-exempt prohibited transaction under ERISA or the Code or a similar violation under any applicable Similar Laws.

Due to the complexity of these rules and the penalties that may be imposed upon persons involved in non-exempt prohibited transactions, it is important that fiduciaries or other persons considering purchasing the Notes on behalf of or with the assets of any Plan, a Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement consult with their counsel regarding the availability of exemptive relief under any of the PTCEs listed above, the service provider exemption or the potential consequences of any purchase or holding under Similar Laws, as applicable. Neither this discussion nor anything in this Prospectus Supplement is or is intended to be investment advice directed at any potential purchaser that is a Plan, Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement, or at such purchasers and holders generally, and such purchasers and holders should consult and rely on their counsel and advisors as to whether an investment in the Notes is suitable and consistent with ERISA, the Code and any Similar Laws, as applicable. Purchasers of the Notes have exclusive responsibility for ensuring that their purchase and holding of the Notes do not violate the fiduciary or prohibited transaction rules of ERISA or the Code or any similar provisions of Similar Laws. The sale of any Notes to a Plan, Plan Asset Entity or Non-ERISA Arrangement is in no respect a representation by us or any of our affiliates or representatives that such an investment meets all relevant legal requirements with respect to investments

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Each Manager has agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the Terms Agreement dated May 18, 2026, entered into between the Managers and IBRD, to purchase from IBRD (and IBRD has agreed to sell to the Managers) the principal amount of Notes specified on the cover page.

The purchase price of the Notes payable by the Managers represents the Issue Price of 100% of the Aggregate Nominal Amount thereof. Under the terms and conditions of the Terms Agreement, the Managers are committed to purchase and pay for US$200,000,000 Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes when offered by IBRD. The fees and commissions of the Managers are payable by IBRD. The proceeds of the Notes will be used to pay such fees and expenses, as well as certain other offering related expenses, in each case for which IBRD will be reimbursed by the Government of Jamaica.

Each of the Managers may purchase the Notes for its own account and for the accounts of its affiliates.

The Managers and any of their respective affiliates may from time to time hold Notes for investment, trading or other purposes.

The Managers will agree to offer and sell the Notes at the Issue Price only to investors who, among other things, (i) are Qualified Institutional Buyers, (ii) are residents of, and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction and (iii) otherwise agree to be bound by the transfer restrictions described under “Notice to Investors” herein. The Notes may be reoffered and sold only to investors who (i) are Qualified Institutional Buyers, (ii) are residents of, and purchasing in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction and (iii) otherwise agree to be bound by the transfer restrictions described under “Notice to Investors” herein.

In addition, for the purposes of sections 925A(3) and 925A(4) of the Act, SRCML is informing you that it does not hold, and has never held, an Australian Financial Services Licence. After the Notes are released for sale, the offering prices and other selling terms may from time to time be varied by the Managers. In the future, the Managers and any of their respective affiliates may repurchase and resell the offered Notes in market-making transactions, with resales being made at prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of resale or at negotiated prices.

As part of their regular business, the Managers and any of their respective affiliates may also provide investment banking, commercial banking, asset management, commodity pool operator and financing and financial advisory services and products, insurance and reinsurance, insurance and reinsurance related brokerage to the Issuer and its affiliates, and purchase, hold and sell, both for their respective accounts or for the account of their respective clients, on a principal or agency basis, loans, securities, and other obligations and financial instruments and engage in private equity investment activities. No Manager, nor any of its respective affiliates, will be restricted in their performance of any such services or in the types of debt or equity investments that they may make. In conducting the foregoing activities, they will be acting for their own account or the account of their customers and will have no obligation to act in the interest of IBRD.

Furthermore, IBRD may, from time to time, directly or indirectly own equity or debt of one or more of the Managers or their affiliates. Each Manager or any of its respective affiliates may purchase the Notes for its own account and for the accounts of its affiliates.

IBRD expects that delivery of the Notes will be made against payment therefor on or about May 26, 2026, which will be on or about the fifth (5th) business day following the Trade Date (this settlement cycle being referred to as “T+5”). Trades in the secondary market generally settle in one (1) business day, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Notes on the Trade Date or the next three (3) succeeding business days will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle in T+5, to specify an alternative settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the Notes who wish to trade such Notes on the Trade Date or the next three (3) succeeding business days should consult their own advisor.

The Notes are a new issue of securities with no established trading market. IBRD has been advised by the Managers that they intend to make a market in the Notes but are not obligated to do so and may discontinue market making at any time without notice. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of the trading market for the Notes.

Settlement for the Notes will be made in immediately available funds.

No action has been or will be taken by IBRD, the Managers or any broker-dealer affiliates of the Managers that would permit a public offering of the Notes or possession or distribution of this Prospectus Supplement or the accompanying Prospectus in any jurisdiction, other than the United States, where action for that purpose is required. No offers, sales or deliveries of the Notes, or distribution of this Prospectus Supplement or the accompanying Prospectus, may be made in or from any jurisdiction except in circumstances which will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and will not impose any obligations on IBRD, the Managers or any broker-dealer affiliates of either IBRD or the Managers.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS

Because of the following restrictions, investors are advised to consult legal counsel before making any purchase, offer, resale, pledge or other transfer of the Notes.

The Notes are exempted securities under the Securities Act, and therefore the Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act. Notwithstanding the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, the Notes are being offered and sold only to, and may be reoffered, sold or otherwise transferred only to, investors who (i) are Qualified Institutional Buyers, (ii) are residents of, and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction and (iii) otherwise agree to be bound by the transfer restrictions described under this “Notice to Investors” section.

Each purchaser of the Notes must comply with all applicable laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers or sells Notes or possesses or distributes this Prospectus Supplement or any part of it and must obtain any consent, approval or permission required by such purchaser for the purchase, offer or sale by such purchaser of Notes under the laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers or sales, and none of IBRD, the Managers, the Global Agent or any of their respective officers, directors, agents or affiliates will have any responsibility therefor.

Insurance Laws

Because the Notes may be categorized as risk-linked securities, it is possible that in some jurisdictions, purchasers of the Notes may become subject to regulation as providers of insurance or reinsurance.

Euroclear Actions with Respect to the Notes

The Global Agent will request that Euroclear include the risk-linked securities (“RLS”) descriptor in its securities database in order to indicate that sales are limited to purchasers who are residents of and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions or Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions and that the RLS restrictions will be further explained in the New Issues Acceptance Guide.

Clearstream Actions with Respect to the Notes

The Global Agent will direct Clearstream to reference “RLS” in the security name as it appears in the Clearstream securities database in order to indicate that sales are limited to purchasers who are residents of and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, Permitted U.S. Jurisdictions or Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdictions.

Bloomberg Screens, Etc.

IBRD will from time to time request applicable third-party vendors to include on screens maintained by such vendors appropriate legends regarding risk-linked securities restrictions on the Notes. Without limiting the foregoing, the Managers will request that Bloomberg, L.P. include the following on each Bloomberg screen containing information about the Notes at the bottom of the “Security Display” page describing the Notes: “GRLS. SEE OM—ONLY QIB/PERMITTED JURISDICTIONS.”

Legends

The Issuer will not remove the legend set forth below in “—Representations of Purchasers” at any time.

LIMITATIONS OF THE MOODY'S RMS MODELS

This Moody's Expert Risk Analysis is subject to the "Moody's Disclaimers" and "Additional Risk Factors" sections set forth in the Prospectus Supplement to which it is appended (the "Prospectus Supplement"). For the purposes of this Moody's Expert Risk Analysis, all capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Prospectus Supplement, unless otherwise specified herein.

The technology and data used in providing this information are based on the scientific data, mathematical and empirical models, and experience of meteorologists, hydrologists and wind engineers, amongst others. As with any model of complex physical systems, particularly those with low frequencies of occurrence and potentially high severity outcomes, the actual losses from catastrophic events may differ from the results of simulation analyses.

MOODY'S MODELING OVERVIEW

This section describes in general terms the Moody's modeling process for a number of catastrophe risk perils, including the Moody's RMS North Atlantic Hurricane Models version 25.0 ("the North Atlantic Hurricane Models").

Analytical and statistical models for quantifying catastrophe risk have become a key component in how insurance and reinsurance companies manage the risk of natural disasters. Moody's has developed its models based on certain analytical, engineering and empirical techniques. Given the nature of natural catastrophes, the Moody's methodology behind these models incorporates established principles of meteorology, seismology, wind and earthquake engineering, and other related fields to model the frequency, severity and physical characteristics of natural catastrophes. To estimate the losses resulting from such catastrophes, Moody's has developed a computer program and certain related utilities that provide a mathematical representation of catastrophes and that simulate the ultimate damage and insured losses to exposure based on these events.

The figure below summarizes the data and processes used to model the financial loss from catastrophe events within Moody's commercially available models.

(Sections in grey are not relevant to the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis for the Notes)

Moody's has incorporated its models in its proprietary software known as Risk Modeler 2.0. The descriptions and results of each model are particular to the version specified. This document describes the models released in Risk Modeler 2.0.

The Moody's property loss models consist of three main elements:

1. Model Data defining the events, site hazards (for example, distance to coast for hurricane, topography for surge, soil type for earthquake) and details about the building stock vulnerability.
2. Analytical modules including stochastic, hazard, vulnerability and financial analysis components, as described below.
3. Exposure data describing the properties of the exposure analyzed, the type of analysis to be performed, exposure location, building information and details of insurance coverage.

Regardless of the type of peril, the models follow a general modeling structure consisting of four major modules.

1. Stochastic Module: simulates thousands of hypothetical events, each uniquely identified by its location, physical characteristics and rate of occurrence, to provide a more representative reflection of physically plausible combinations of key event parameters, such as hurricane track location, central pressure, and maximum sustained wind speed, earthquake epicenter location and magnitude, than could be obtained from the sparse catalog of historical events.

2. Hazard Module: determines an event's intensity of effect at a given location given the parameters of the event and its interaction with the site conditions.
3. Vulnerability Module: generates an estimate of the Mean Damage Ratio ("MDR") to a specific exposure at a specific location as a function of the hazard, as well as an uncertainty distribution around the mean reflecting uncertainty in estimation of the hazard and resulting damage. The MDR is the repair cost of a location represented as a percentage of the value of that location.
4. Financial Analysis Module: applies the MDR and the related uncertainty generated by the Vulnerability Module for each event to estimate the distribution of losses by location and in the aggregate for a given set of exposure data.

The models can be used to perform both "deterministic" and "probabilistic" analyses. For a deterministic analysis, the models produce a loss estimate for a single catastrophic event and a probability of occurrence is not associated with the event. For a probabilistic analysis, each of the models generates thousands of hypothetical catastrophic stochastic events and estimates the financial loss that could result from each such catastrophic stochastic event. Results of a probabilistic analysis are provided in the form of a probability distribution, also called an "occurrence exceedance probability distribution," which provides a spectrum of possible losses and the related probabilities of exceedance for a given set of insurance exposures or contracts. The resulting loss distribution is not a prediction of future losses, but is solely intended to be illustrative of the range of possible losses and the likelihood of occurrence of these losses thereof.

In each model, the first module (Stochastic Module), to the extent relevant, consists of a peril-specific implementation, discussed in further detail herein. Note that the Payout Rate applicable for the Notes will be calculated on the basis of a Named Storm's track and central pressure only, which are part of the Stochastic Module. The Hazard Module, Vulnerability Module, and the Financial Analysis Module, are not relevant to this Moody's Expert Risk Analysis and are therefore only briefly explained in this section. Because of the parametric trigger, the Notes also do not feature any Exposure Data.

MOODY'S RMS MODEL VERSIONS

Moody's maintains a constantly evolving program of model updates, in which adjustments may be made to models throughout their lifetime, with such updates implemented in the latest commercially released version of Risk Modeler, or on occasion, via the application of software patches. Throughout the commercial lifetime of a model, such changes may include but are not limited to:

- Adjustments to the stochastic event set underlying the model
- Adjustments to event rates to maintain a time-dependent view of risk
- Adjustments to vulnerability assumptions as a result of newly acquired claims information or improved scientific understanding
- Updates to geographical data including address classification systems and geocoding information
- Alterations to financial modeling assumptions

The descriptions that follow, except where explicitly stated otherwise, are of the North Atlantic Hurricane Models, last updated in 2025, as implemented in Risk Modeler 2.0. The North Atlantic Hurricane Models are commercially available within Risk Modeler 2.0 and Moody's RiskLink® version 25 software.

Further details on the North Atlantic Hurricane Models, applicable to the Named Storm Sub-Areas and the Moody's Expert Risk Analysis, as well as information relating to historical events, are provided in the sections that follow.

NON-MODELED RISKS

There may be losses not directly related to the catastrophe perils modeled by Moody's that may impact the Notes, possibly materially. See "Additional Risk Factors – Limitations of Moody's analysis included herein", "Additional Risk Factors – Certain types of Named Storms that may cause a Payout Amount are not modeled by Moody's".

Additionally, the methodologies used by the Reporting Source in order to produce Event Parameters may not exactly replicate methodologies used within the North Atlantic Hurricane Models. See "Additional Risk Factors – Methodologies used by the Moody's Models do not exactly replicate the methodologies used by the Reporting Source for determining observed Event Parameters".

Furthermore, there could potentially be differences between the data used to build and calibrate the Moody's RMS North Atlantic Hurricane Models as compared with the data that will be used within the post-event process due to the timing for when the Named Storm Event Parameters will be obtained following on from the occurrence of a Named Storm. See “Additional Risk Factors - The Event Parameters provided by the applicable Reporting Source as of the Event Parameters Date are binding”.

Scope of the North Atlantic Hurricane Models

The North Atlantic Hurricane Models do not include modeled storms that at no point over their life-cycles affect land as a hurricane (i.e., Category 1 or greater), although these types of storms may qualify as Named Storm Events under the Notes. For example, tropical storms that never reach hurricane strength are not included in the North Atlantic Hurricane Models, nor are events that reach hurricane strength but weaken to tropical storm strength prior to impacting land.

In rare cases, it is possible that the track of a tropical storm can meet with a concurrent tropical or extra-tropical storm. This most often results in merging, and intensification, of the two low pressure systems into a single storm. Less commonly, the result is a change of direction of either one or both of the storms. The precise results of such interactions depend on factors such as the size of two cyclones, their strength, their distance from each other and the prevailing atmospheric conditions around them. The potential effect of interaction and merging between two storm systems is not explicitly included in the North Atlantic Hurricane Models. However, such storm interactions are implicitly included in the North Atlantic Hurricane Models to the extent that their impact on catalogued tropical cyclones is reflected in the historical record as recorded in HURDAT2. Furthermore, the North Atlantic Hurricane Models explicitly include the impacts of tropical cyclones transitioning into extra-tropical cyclones.

NORTH ATLANTIC HURRICANE MODELS

Overview of Atlantic Basin Hurricanes

Hurricanes are a class of tropical cyclones that occur in the Atlantic, the Eastern Pacific, and the Central Pacific basins; tropical cyclones that originate in other regions of the world are referred to as typhoons and cyclones. All tropical cyclones are intense, cyclonic wind systems that develop over tropical waters. Tropical cyclones develop from tropical depressions—which are non-frontal closed-circulation regions of localized low-pressure—in the presence of favorable environmental conditions, such as low wind shear and warm sea-surface temperatures (“SSTs”). The process of cyclonic atmospheric depression generally starts in regions where the SSTs are greater than 80° F (26.5° C).

North Atlantic tropical cyclones often develop from low-pressure atmospheric disturbances—known as easterly waves—that form near the coast of West Africa and are carried westward across the Atlantic Ocean by the prevailing atmospheric flow. In addition, hurricanes can also form in the Caribbean Sea, the subtropical and tropical northern Atlantic Ocean, and the Gulf of Mexico. These regions in which hurricanes can form are collectively referred to as the Atlantic Basin.

The structure of a hurricane is distinguished by the eye, which is surrounded by high walls of thick clouds and rotating winds. Hurricane winds normally increase in velocity toward the center of the storm. However, wind velocity is rarely symmetrical around the storm track. Generally, for the tropical cyclones of the Northern Hemisphere in which the circulation is rotating counter-clockwise, the right side of the storm (as viewed in the same direction as the hurricane’s forward motion) experiences higher velocity winds than the left side. In addition to intense winds, hurricanes often create heavy to torrential precipitation and internal, localized wind vortices resembling tornadoes, which may locally affect the extent of resulting damage. Hurricanes typically range from 100 to 700 miles (160 to 1,100 km) in diameter. The farther north a hurricane moves, the more likely it is to encounter the mid-latitude jet-stream. When this occurs, the system becomes more asymmetric, with strong winds largely on the right-hand-side of the system and covering a broader region than in a hurricane. These systems are undergoing extra-tropical transition and are known as transitioning storms.

When hurricanes make landfall, they can cause loss of life, extensive damage to buildings, their contents, and other infrastructure, as well as crop and forest destruction and water contamination. In addition to wind- and rain-related damage, hurricanes also produce effects known as storm surge. Storm surge refers to the rising ocean water levels along coastlines affected by a hurricane that can cause widespread flooding. The storm surge level at a site is dependent on-site elevation and distance to the coast, hurricane strength, the storm path, tides, and the contours of the ocean and bay bottoms.

The Atlantic and Gulf coasts of the United States are primarily exposed to hurricane risk from June to November. The southern coastal states tend to be impacted by more frequent and intense hurricanes than the northeastern states. The most active months for hurricanes are August to October, when the Atlantic Basin experiences its peak SSTs, fueling storm formation.

Hurricane intensity, which can be measured by a number of factors, is related to the difference between the low barometric pressure within the eye of the hurricane and the ambient pressure under normal atmospheric conditions outside of the hurricane structure. In the U.S., the National Hurricane Center (“NHC”), an agency of the U.S. National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (“NOAA”), monitors the formation and progression of all tropical storm systems that threaten U.S. lives and property.

A tropical cyclone is termed a hurricane by the NHC when its sustained winds reach 74 mph (125 km/h). The NHC uses the Saffir-Simpson scale to classify hurricanes based on an overall category represented by a value from 1 to 5, with Category 1 being the least intense and Category 5 being the most intense. In general, damage rises by about a factor of four for every category increase. The NHC assigns a Saffir-Simpson category to each hurricane based on several types of data obtained from measurements and observations, and updates the categorization every six hours, or every three hours when close to landfall.

The last major update to the Saffir-Simpson scale occurred in early 2010. Central pressure and storm surge were removed as components of the categories. The central pressure was used during the 1970s and 1980s as a proxy for the winds, as accurate wind speed intensity measurements from aircraft reconnaissance were not routinely available for hurricanes until 1990. Storm surge was also quantified by category in the earliest published versions of the scale dating back to 1972. However, hurricane size (extent of hurricane-force winds), local bathymetry (depth of near-shore waters), topography, the hurricane’s forward speed and angle to the coast also affect the surge that is produced. Storm surges, such as caused by Ike in 2008 and Katrina in 2005, amongst others, were substantially outside of the ranges suggested in the original scale—and thus the NHC removed storm surge from the Saffir-Simpson scale, which is now a wind-only specific scale.

HURRICANE MODELING

Geographic Scope of Model

The North Atlantic Hurricane Models are based around a basin-wide event set in the Atlantic Ocean. Modeled regions therefore include countries that are adjacent or near to this ocean basin, as shown in Figure 2. The U.S. Hurricane Model includes 22 states on the Gulf of Mexico and eastern U.S. coastline. Although Hawaii is in the Pacific Ocean, it is included in the U.S. Hurricane Model because many domestic U.S. insurance companies operate in all states. The countries and territories covered in the Caribbean Hurricane Model are shown in Figure 3.

Stochastic Module

Stochastic Storm-Track Generation

The stochastic module consists of a set of thousands of stochastic events that represent more than 100,000 years of hurricane activity. Moody's scientists have used state-of-the-art modeling technologies to develop a stochastic event set made of events that are physically realistic and span the range of all possible storms that could occur in the coming years.

The North Atlantic Hurricane Models include modeled storms that affect land as a hurricane at some point over their life-cycle (i.e. Category 1 or greater). However, storms that never reach hurricane strength are not included in the model, nor are events that reach hurricane strength but weaken to tropical storm strength prior to impacting land.

At the heart of the stochastic module is a statistical track model that relies on advanced statistical techniques (Hall & Jewson 2007<sup>1</sup>) to extrapolate the HURDAT2 catalog (Landsea and Franklin, 2013<sup>2</sup>), an updated version of the original HURDAT dataset (Jarvinen et al., 1984<sup>3</sup>), and generate a set of stochastic tracks having similar statistical characteristics to the HURDAT2 historical tracks. Stochastic tracks are simulated from genesis (starting point) to lysis (last point) using a semi-parametric statistical track model that is based on historical data. Simulated hurricane tracks provide the key drivers of risk, including landfall intensity, landfall frequency, and landfall correlation.

Track genesis location is sampled from a spatial Poisson process. The intensity field is derived from historical genesis locations, weighed according to their distance from site. The length scale involved in the smoothing process is optimized through cross validation to avoid both over fitting and unrealistic genesis points. Once the location of the first track point has been simulated, the central pressure (used as a measure of storm intensity) is sampled from the observed distribution of genesis central pressure. Then the track is simulated forward in time with a six-hour increment,  $\Delta t$ , using the following equations (Hall & Jewson 2007<sup>1</sup>):

where  $u$  and  $v$  are the zonal and meridional components of the translational speed sampled from Gaussian distributions with spatially varying means, variances, autocorrelations, and cross correlations. The  $\Delta p_c$  variable is the six-hourly change in central pressure. When the storm center is located over water, the model for  $\Delta p_c$  is a local linear regression with predictors that include the previous change in central pressure and the zonal and meridional components of the translational speed. When the storm center is located over land,  $\Delta p_c$  is computed using the filling rate associated with the landfall of interest (Colette et al., 2010<sup>4</sup>). At each time step, central pressure is constrained to fall within the local Maximal Potential Intensity (Emanuel 1986<sup>5</sup>) (when over water) and the local far field pressure.

Moody's scientists have also used the best elements of numerical modeling in an effort to complement the historical records in areas where historical data is sparse. Because historical landfall details are generally poorly known, Moody's has used a bogusing technique (Kurihara et al., 1993<sup>6</sup>) to generate thousands of synthetic (or "bogus") storms. These synthetic storms inform the Moody's inland filling model and transitioning storm wind field model (Colette et al., 2010<sup>4</sup>). To prevent biases from this methodology, the model has been thoroughly tested and validated against the limited historical records. Separate models of inland filling have been derived for the U.S. Gulf Coast, the Florida Peninsula, the Atlantic Seaboard, the Caribbean, and Central America, and the method also allows for "re-intensification" in some cases in Florida.

Eventually, tracks are terminated by sampling a logistic regression model at each time step. The model has various predictors including the difference between far field pressure and central pressure, making storms more likely to vanish when this difference is small.

Although central pressure is the main intensity variable in the model, Moody's also derives a maximum wind time series ("Vmax") that is similar to the HURDAT Vmax time series when the storm is over water but different when the storm is over land as our modeled time series provides an equivalent overwater Vmax. The Vmax model is a linear regression with pressure difference, and latitude as predictors. Note that only overwater HURDAT points are used to fit the regression.

The last step is a calibration process to ensure that simulated landfall frequencies are in agreement with the historical record. Target landfall rates are computed on a set of linear segments, or Moody’s gates), as shown in Figure 4. For the North American mainland, these segments closely follow the coastline, while for the larger Caribbean islands the gates form a box around the island. This ensures that bypassing storms that can still cause damage inland are properly captured in the calibration.

Moody’s applies a smoothing technique on the historical landfall rates, which uses long coastal segments, obtained by extending each Moody’s gate in both directions and keeping the orientation constant. Historical storms that cross an extended gate contribute to the landfall rate at the corresponding original segment. The extent of these contributions depends on the distance between the crossing and the original Moody’s gate. This smoothing technique is widely used in the scientific community to reduce the local under-sampling or over-sampling issues associated with the limited historical records (117 years). The stochastic set is then adjusted toward these targets using methods such as selecting the optimum intensity time series among several candidates.

Each of these events has a frequency of occurrence given by its mean Poisson rate. Because event frequencies were calibrated against history (HURDAT2 1900–2022), this set of Poisson rates represents the Moody’s baseline model and this rate set is called the “Moody’s RMS historical rate set.” Table 1 summarizes the main parameters in the stochastic module, with a brief description of the corresponding models and data used to inform them. Note that forward speed, heading, central pressure, and Vmax are time-stepping parameters.

Stochastic Event Rates

The rate of hurricane landfall in the North Atlantic region is governed by complex, fluctuating atmospheric forcing mechanisms. These are modeled by Moody's in two different views, the long-term rate ("LTR") view assesses hurricane activity in terms of the long-term historical average, whereas the medium-term rate ("MTR") view represents a forecast of likely hurricane activity on a regionalized five-year forward-looking timeframe.

Average Annual Landfall Rates Per Region

The following figures summarize the modeled landfall rates for the LTR model (historical rate set). The computation is done by selecting only the most intense landfall that each storm experiences in the region of interest (regions are defined in Figure 4). Intensity at landfall is based on the maximum wind speed (1 minute sustained at 10 meters) of the storm at the six-hourly point before landfall. These rates were calculated using the May 2023 vintage of the HURDAT2 dataset, the official historical record hurricane activity provided by the NHC. The May 2023 vintage of HURDAT2 covers the years 1900 – 2022. Compared to the version of HURDAT2 used for the version 23 LTRs, the May 2023 vintage includes the addition of the 2021 and 2022 seasons of North Atlantic Basin hurricane activity, containing 10 hurricanes that made landfall in the North Atlantic domain and as part of the ongoing HURDAT2 Reanalysis Project, updates to historical tracks and wind intensities for 10 storms occurring between 1966 and 1970 (with older HURDAT2 vintages containing reanalysis data up to 1965). Overall, observed Category 1–5 and Category 3–5 landfall rates exhibit minor changes for the U.S. Category 1–5 landfall rates exhibit net zero change for the U.S. overall, while Category 3–5 landfall rates exhibit minor reductions. This is due to the addition of only two major hurricane landfalls (Ian, Ida), balanced with the addition of non-major hurricane landfalls in the 2021–2022 data (Ian's landfall in the Southeast U.S., Nicholas, Nicole), and net reductions in major hurricane landfall counts due to the reanalyzed storms. The regional mean landfall frequency for version 25 of the North Atlantic Hurricane Models is outlined in Table 2.

Medium-Term Rates

After 2005, the insurance industry recognized the need for a forward-looking view of risk that captured the time-varying nature of hurricane activity and reflected the expected risk over the next few years. Since past hurricane data indicates periods of higher and lower activity that can last up to several decades, the traditional long-term historical average is not the most appropriate measure of risk for the near future, and Moody's began building new models of future activity that better represented the risk.

Frequency of activity is largely dependent on local SST, atmospheric stability, and wind shear with higher SSTs increasing frequency but conversely higher atmospheric stability and wind shear acting to decrease frequency, though not fully compensating for the increase. Beginning in 1995, the Atlantic Basin entered a phase of multi-decadal variability highly conducive to hurricane development. However, other research suggests that the Atlantic may have shifted back into an inactive phase in the last 5-7 years, driven by changes in the Atlantic multidecadal oscillation ("AMO"), an index widely accepted as a driver of historically observed periods of higher and lower hurricane frequency. On the other hand, different methodologies exist to quantify the AMO, and some versions of this index do not show this most recent shift.

As of the release date of version 25 of the North Atlantic Hurricane Models, the scientific debate on the state of the Atlantic Basin, and the drivers of Atlantic annual and multidecadal variability remains open. Moody's continues to reflect the current range of theories by using 13 rate forecasting models, each informed by different assumptions on the state of the Atlantic Basin, to develop the MTR forecast.

In recognition of this cyclical frequency in the Atlantic Basin, which is not well-described by the average of the long-term historical record, Moody's introduced a new concept, the medium-term activity, into cat modeling in 2006 and implemented this then-new view of risk into RiskLink 6.0, considering the needs of the wider insurance industry. The medium-term rates deliver a probabilistic estimate of the annual average number of landfalls to be expected over the next five years and the distribution of those landfalls within the regions covered by the North Atlantic Hurricane Models.

Since Moody's introduced the concept of medium-term rates in 2006, there has been ever-increasing scientific consensus on multidecadal modes of natural variability in the Atlantic as well as publications about human induced climate trends and how these may impact tropical cyclone activity. The methodology for determining the medium-term rates has evolved over time, reflecting the increasing scientific understanding and consensus. The methodology is linked to the physical state of SSTs and effects on atmospheric wind shear. The use of medium-term rates does not automatically imply elevated activity rates; depending on the state of the system, the medium-term rates could be above or below average. Thus, if Moody's had been undertaking a five-year probabilistic forecast during the 1940s and 1950s, Moody's would similarly have been indicating higher activity than the historical average—just as through the 1970s and 1980s, when SSTs were cooler, Moody's would have been indicating lower activity.

Since 2011, Moody's has used a variety of statistical techniques to weigh and combine the outputs from a selection of 13 forecasting models according to their skill in predicting historical periods of activity and inactivity. While some of these models forecast rates higher than the long-term average, others forecast rates lower than the long-term average. This mix reflects the ongoing debate about the current phase of the AMO. Modelers performed 60 100,000-year track-model simulations to produce 60 sets of five-year average SST conditions used for simulations. They then select the weighted combination of models that is best able to estimate SSTs in out-of-sample hindcast tests and use this selection to forecast the 2025-2029 SSTs, with a bespoke regionalization developed for each model. Medium-term rates are reviewed each year and represent the Moody's view of the most likely average annual rate for the next five years. The version 25 medium-term rate methodology is the same as in version 23 except for a minor methodological update to two of the 13 statistical models. The underlying scientific theory behind these two models remains unchanged but we have improved their representation of the anthropogenic signal and climate variability.

The MTR Forecast of the North Atlantic Hurricane Models was updated in version 25 to reflect up to date HURDAT2 and sea-surface temperature data. The HURDAT2 vintage used in the version 25 MTR forecast was released in May 2024 and includes hurricane data for seasons 1851 through 2023, and a reanalysis of historical data up to the 1970 period. In addition, Moody's modelers manually added the 2024 season to the record to consider more recent Atlantic hurricane activity. SST data includes the latest analysis in areas of the Atlantic and Indo-Pacific regions.

The SST forecast for the Atlantic and Indo-Pacific regions is slightly higher from 2025—2029 than the 2023—2027 period used in version 23. Despite increases in forecast SSTs in both regions for version 25, the Atlantic forecast SSTs increase more than the Indo-Pacific SSTs. This reflects the more favorable conditions for Atlantic tropical cyclone formation in the version 25 MTRs relative to the version 23 MTRs. The overall medium-term rate forecast for both Category 1–5 and Category 3–5 rates is above the long-term average across all U.S. and non-U.S. regions, indicating that near-term conditions remain more favorable for tropical cyclone genesis and intensification relative to the long-term climatological average. As with previous medium-term rate forecasts, rate impacts relative to the long-term average vary by U.S. region due to the regionalization component of the MTR methodology creating a spatial distribution of landfalls that differs from climatological expectations.

Medium-term rates are not a prediction or forecast of whether investors in the Notes will receive payment thereon. Rather, the Moody's MTR set reflects a forward-looking probabilistic view of risk.

Moody's Risk Analysis Methodology

Modeled Payout Rates

The Moody's risk analysis methodology is designed to estimate the probability of Named Storms causing various levels of Payout Rates as a result of the occurrence of one or more Named Storm Events, as reported by the applicable Reporting Source. The Primary Reporting Source is the Automated Tropical Cyclone Forecast (ATCF) "best-track comma delimited files" (B-deck) published by the United States National Hurricane Center ("NHC") or any successor thereof ("Reporting Source").

The Moody's risk analysis is conducted by determining the modeled Payout Rates that would result from each modeled stochastic event within the North Atlantic Hurricane Models by considering the modeled Event Parameters associated with each stochastic event in relation to the definition of Named Storm Events and Named Storm Payout Rates.

Named Storm Sub-Areas

Figure 1 shows the Covered Area that is comprised of all Named Storm Sub-Areas. The Covered Area and the Named Storm Sub-Areas are detailed in the Moody's Data File for the Notes.

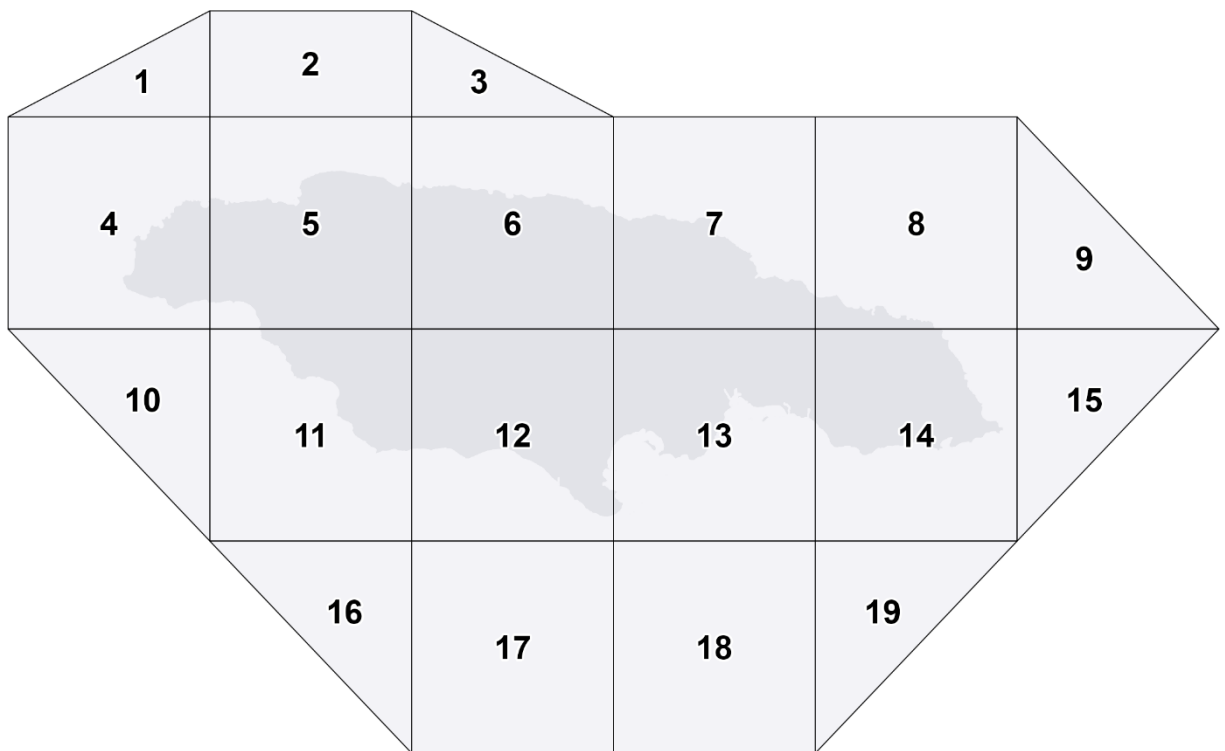

Figure 2 summarizes the modeled Named Storm Sub-Areas Min CP1 and Min CP2 Named Storm Levels for the Notes. Each Named Storm Sub-Area Min CP1 and Min CP2 values are detailed in the Moody's Data File for the Notes.

Named Storm Payout Rates

Each Named Storm Sub-Area has two distinct levels of minimum central pressure, Min CP1 and Min CP2. The Payout Rate is calculated based on the Calculated Central Pressure (CCP), Min CP1, and Min CP2 (see Figure 2) as follows:

- If the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area is greater than Min CP1
- If the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP1 but greater than Min CP2:

- $30\% + 70\% \times ((\text{Min CP1} - \text{CCP}) / (\text{Min CP1} - \text{Min CP2}))$ ;
- If the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP2:
  - 100%.

Moody's Stochastic Event Set – Modeling Observed Named Storm Event Parameters

The North Atlantic Hurricane Models stochastic event set is a set of uniquely defined hurricane events, generated from advanced statistical techniques and extrapolation of the HURDAT2 catalog. Storms that never reach hurricane strength are not included in the model, nor are events that reach hurricane strength but weaken to tropical storm strength prior to impacting land.

Stochastic tracks are simulated from genesis (starting point) to lysis (last point). Once the location of the first track point has been simulated, the track is simulated forward in time with a 6-hour increment. At each point the central pressure is calculated, derived from the initial central pressure at genesis and a function of the 6-hourly change in central pressure<sup>1</sup>.

Modeling of Named Storm Events

To be considered as a modeled Named Storm Event, the modeled stochastic Named Storm track must intersect<sup>2</sup> or contact the boundary of the Covered Area.

Determination of Modeled Named Storm Event Calculated Central Pressure

Moody's has used the North Atlantic Hurricane Models to determine the Payout Rate for each stochastic Named Storm Event as outlined in the steps below:

- i. Determine the specific stochastic Named Storm Events that intersect a Named Storm Sub-Area.
- ii. For each such stochastic Named Storm Event and Named Storm Sub-Area, the modeled Calculated Central Pressure is the lowest central pressure in millibars across each instance in which the storm track of such Named Storm Event intersects such Named Storm Sub-Area, determined as the minimum of:
  - a. The modeled central pressure at each track point that is located on the boundary of, or within, such Named Storm Sub-Area; and
  - b. The central pressure determined by linear interpolation at each point at which the storm track enters or exits the Named Storm Sub-Area.

The modeled Calculated Central Pressure is rounded to the nearest millibar<sup>3</sup>. If a stochastic Named Storm Event intersects a Named Storm Sub-Area more than once, then the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area is the single lowest value across all intersections.

- iii. Create an event index table for each Named Storm Sub-Area containing all stochastic Named Storm Events where the track path intersects or contacts the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area, including each event's respective modeled Calculated Central Pressure and associated payout percentage arising from the intersection of such stochastic Named Storm Event with such Named Storm Sub-Area.

Calculation of Modeled Loss to the Notes

The risk analysis was conducted using simulation data taken from Risk Modeler 2.0 and is based on pre-simulated stochastic Named Storm Event data generated by Monte Carlo simulation. The simulation data is constructed from a random sampling of event occurrences based on a Poisson frequency distribution and seasonality distribution of tropical storms in the North Atlantic basin. The simulation is based on the stochastic event rates from the North Atlantic Hurricane Models, using long-term rates (“LTR”).

The event index table for Named Storm Events (consisting of the Calculated Central Pressure and associated payout percentage for each combination of Named Storm Sub-Area and stochastic Named Storm Event) and the pre-compiled simulated risk profile for North Atlantic Hurricane (as available in Risk Modeler 2.0) were inputs into the modeling procedure, which consisted of the following steps:

- i. For each modeled Named Storm Event in the simulated Risk Period, determine which Named Storm Sub-Areas intersect with such Named Storm Event and determine the Payout Rate.
  - a. For cases where the modeled Named Storm Event intersects only one Named Storm Sub-Area, the Payout Rate is the payout percentage associated with that Named Storm Sub-Area and stochastic Named Storm Event.
  - b. For cases when the modeled Named Storm Event intersects multiple Named Storm Sub-Areas, the Payout Rate is the lesser of 100% and the sum of the payout percentages associated with each intersected Named Storm Sub-Area and that stochastic Named Storm Event.
- ii. Repeat this simulation procedure for one hundred thousand modeled iterations, each containing four years spanning the duration of the Risk Period.

For cases where multiple Named Storm Events occur in the Risk Period, Payout Amounts are capped to ensure the sum of Payout Amounts in a simulated Risk Period does not exceed the Outstanding Nominal Amount. The resulting time-series is used to determine the relevant probabilities and expected loss statistics of the Notes.

The summary results from these procedures are presented in the following sections. They are for informational purposes only and are not a prediction of future loss experience of the Notes. The actual loss to the Notes may vary significantly.

Contribution to One-Year Modeled Expected Loss

Table 4 and Figure 3 provide the contribution to the one-year modeled expected loss for the Notes by Named Storm Sub-Area. For Named Storm Events impacting more than one Named Storm Sub-Area, the contribution to the one-year modeled expected loss is determined by allocating the Payout Rate for that event proportionally, based on the ratio of the payout percentages for each Named Storm Sub-Area to the Payout Rate. The order in which Named Storm Sub-Areas are intersected by a Named Storm Event is not considered.

Table 7 provides the contribution to the one-year modeled expected loss for the Notes by storm category and whether the storm makes landfall or is just bypassing. The Saffir-Simpson category has been assigned based on the category associated with the maximum modeled one-minute sustained wind speed from (1) any 6-hourly stochastic track points within the Covered Area, and (2) the interpolated one-minute sustained wind speed as the track enters and exits the Covered Area. A Named Storm Event is landfalling if its modeled track intersects with the island of Jamaica. Conversely, a Named Storm Event is bypassing if its modeled track does not intersect with the island of Jamaica.

Table 9 shows the conditional occurrence distribution of industry losses from Named Storm Events for the United States (excluding Puerto Rico), several regions within the United States, and Puerto Rico. The occurrence distribution is conditional on the modeled Named Storm Event causing a non-zero Payout Amount. The occurrence exceedance probability distribution is given by region for the applicable industry loss threshold. For example, given there is a modeled Named Storm Event that causes a non-zero Payout Amount to the Notes, there is a 22.29% probability of that modeled Named Storm Event also causing an industry loss in the United States in excess of $10 billion.

Illustrative Stochastic Risk Periods

Table 10 provides the Named Storm Sub-Area, Calculated Central Pressure, modeled payout percentages, modeled Payout Rate, and corresponding cumulative Principal Reduction for Named Storm Events in certain illustrative stochastic Risk Periods. Note that only combinations of Named Storm Event and Named Storm Sub-Area that cause a Principal Reduction are shown. The illustrative sample has been selected to demonstrate how modeled Named Storm Events within the simulated versions of the Risk Period result in principal erosion. This sample is illustrative, and as such no direct inference should be made about how the sample relates to other simulated Risk Periods that contribute to the modeled expected loss.

<sup>7</sup> Modeled industry losses for the United States and the regional groupings specified that include only U.S. States (not including Puerto Rico) are based on insured losses from wind and includes default Moody's leakage assumptions for the secondary peril of storm surge, in consistency with Moody's default view of Named Storm industry risk. Industry insured loss is based on all lines of business from the Moody's U.S. Hurricane Industry Loss Curves 2025 and include post-loss amplification.

Illustrative Historical Events

Table 11 shows selected historical Named Storms with their modeled Calculated Central Pressure, along with the Principal Reduction which would have resulted to the Notes. Historical Named Storms were included in Table 11 if they either caused a modeled Principal Reduction or impacted the Covered Area as Saffir-Simpson category 3 or higher. Figure 4 shows a corresponding map of the historical Named Storms modeled to have caused a Principal Reduction to the Notes, with the central pressure of the storm track points shown in millibar.

Storm tracks and Calculated Central Pressure are produced using the Moody's RMS' catalogue of reconstructed Tropical Cyclones in the North Atlantic basin for the period from 1851 to 2021. Historical track data from 2021 onward was taken from the NHC's HURDAT2 database, as published on April 4, 2026 to include the 2025 hurricane season.

Historical event reconstructions in the North Atlantic Hurricane Models are constructed from the HURDAT2 dataset published by the NHC and Moody's own analysis of track location and intensity parameters. The Moody's historical event reconstruction set was initially built from the HURDAT2 dataset as available in 2008 and has not been subsequently updated except for tracks impacting the United States. As a result, some of the revisions to the HURDAT2 dataset introduced by the NHC since 2008 may not be reflected in the Moody's historical track set. More broadly, historical event reconstructions are not meant to provide a precise re-enactment of the historical experience, as significant uncertainty exists in the estimation of tropical storm intensity for historical Named Storms. For example, the lack of consistent reporting of central pressure recordings for older (pre-1979) storms in the HURDAT2 dataset makes it necessary to estimate these values from relationships based on wind speed characteristics.

The completeness of the HURDAT2 record itself introduces further limitations. Prior to the routine availability of geostationary satellite imagery from the mid-1970s onwards, storms that remained offshore and did not encounter a ship or a coastline could go entirely undetected or have their tracks only partially reconstructed. Therefore, the historical record for earlier periods may misrepresent the true frequency of North Atlantic storms, and the track geometry of observed events is subject to greater positional uncertainty between observation points. Similarly, while aircraft reconnaissance has provided valuable in-situ measurements of storm structure, the frequency and spatial coverage of reconnaissance missions has varied considerably across the historical record, limiting the precision of both track and central pressure estimates for storms occurring outside periods of systematic flight operations.

The uncertainty surrounding physical characteristics of older storms within HURDAT2 is illustrated by the continued updates and ongoing revisions to historical storm information due to ongoing HURDAT2 reanalysis. The NHC has made significant modifications to historical storm parameters as a result of their continued research and review process, and these ongoing revisions will continue to be reflected in future updates to the HURDAT2 dataset.

While these illustrative historical Named Storms represent a selection of some of the largest documented historical events affecting the region, they do not constitute a complete historical record and should not be interpreted statistically as an indication of loss probabilities.

Summary of Procedures with Respect to Event Reports

Upon receipt of a Notice of Named Storm Event from the Government of Jamaica, the Event Calculation Agent shall perform the procedures summarized below for calculating any related Payout Rate, Payout Amount, Principal Reduction, Outstanding Nominal Amount, and for issuing an Event Report:

1. Determine the Event Parameters Date;
2. Determine the Reporting Source;
3. Obtain the Event Parameters from the Reporting Source;
4. Confirm that a Named Storm Event has occurred;
5. Determine the Calculated Central Pressure;
6. Calculate the Payout Rate, Payout Amount, Principal Reduction, and Outstanding Nominal Amount;
7. Issue an Event Report;
8. If applicable, prepare and deliver a Subsequent Event Report.

Step 1 – Determine the Event Parameters Date

Following receipt of a Notice of a potential Named Storm Event from the Government of Jamaica, the Event Calculation Agent shall determine the Event Parameters Date for the applicable Named Storm Event.

In the event of a Named Storm, the Event Parameters Date shall be:

- (a) the Calculation Date; or
- (b) if the Event Calculation Agent is not able to access the Event Parameters on the Calculation Date, then the first date during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period on which the Event Calculation Agent obtains or determines all Event Parameters necessary to give an Event Report with respect to the relevant potential Named Storm Event from the Primary Reporting Source or, if applicable pursuant to Step 2, a Back-up Reporting Source or replacement Reporting Source. Any data revised or released after the related Event Parameters Date will be disregarded by the Event Calculation Agent when determining any Payout Amounts related to the Named Storm Event

The Calculation Date means, with respect to a potential Named Storm Event for which the Government of Jamaica has delivered a Notice of Named Storm Event, the earlier of (i) the second day following the publication of the Final Public Advisory with respect to such Named Storm and (ii) fourteen (14) calendar days following the date on which the Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to such potential Named Storm Event is delivered (or, if such day in clause (i) or (ii) is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day).

If the Event Calculation Agent has delivered an Event Report that confirms that a Named Storm Event has occurred and for purposes of such Event Report has used a Calculation Date determined pursuant to clause (ii) of the definition of “Calculation Date” above, then the date determined pursuant to clause (i) of the definition of “Calculation Date” above shall also be a Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event (such date, the “Subsequent Calculation Date”), subject to the limitations on Subsequent Event Reports described under Step 8 below.

Step 2 – Determine Reporting Source and Attempt to Obtain Event Parameters

On the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Calculation Agent shall attempt to obtain from the Primary Reporting Source all Event Parameters necessary to give an Event Report with respect to the relevant potential Named Storm Event. If the Event Calculation Agent cannot obtain all such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source on the applicable Calculation Date, then during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain all necessary Event Parameters from the applicable Primary Reporting Source and each applicable Back-up Reporting Source, until the earlier of

- (i) the day on which the Event Calculation Agent successfully obtains all Event Parameters; and

- (ii) the expiration of the Event Parameters Acquisition Period.

Step 3 – Obtain Event Parameters from the Reporting Source

The Event Calculation Agent shall obtain the date, time, location, and Central Pressure associated with each storm track point on the date it determines it is able to obtain all relevant Event Parameters from a Reporting Source in accordance with Step 2 above (such date, the “Event Parameters Date” for the applicable Event Report).

Step 4 – Confirmation of Named Storm Event

The Event Calculation Agent shall use the Event Parameters obtained in Step 3 and the Date of Occurrence for the potential Named Storm Event to determine whether such potential Named Storm Event is a Named Storm Event.

Step 5 – Determine the Calculated Central Pressure

The Calculated Central Pressure with respect to any Named Storm Sub-Area means the lowest Central Pressure determined across each instance in which the storm track of such Named Storm intersects such Named Storm Sub-Area, determined as the minimum of (A) the Central Pressure reported at each track point that is located on the boundary of, or within, such Named Storm Sub-Area; and (B) the Central Pressure determined by linear interpolation at each Intersection Point at which the storm track enters or exits such Named Storm Sub-Area.

If a Named Storm Event intersects more than one applicable Named Storm Sub-Area, a Calculated Central Pressure shall be determined independently for each distinct applicable Named Storm Sub-Area. If a Named Storm intersects the same applicable Named Storm Sub-Area more than once, the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area shall be the single lowest value across all such crossings.

Step 6 – Calculate the Payout Rate, Payout Amount, Principal Reduction, and Outstanding Nominal Amount

With respect to each Named Storm Sub-Area that the Named Storm Event intersects, the Event Calculation Agent shall use the Calculated Central Pressure from Step 5 and the Min CP1 and Min CP2 information contained in the Moody’s Data File to determine the applicable payout percentage for that Named Storm Sub-Area.

The Payout Rate will be the lesser of (i) 100% and (ii) the sum of all payout percentages arising in respect of all Named Storm Sub-Areas intersected by the Named Storm Event. Based on the Payout Rate as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall determine the Payout Amount and the Outstanding Principal Amount.

Step 7 – Issue an Event Report

The Event Calculation Agent shall deliver an Event Report to IBRD (with a copy to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent). The Event Report shall set out the results of the procedures carried out by the Calculation Agent for such Named Storm Event using the applicable Event Parameters as of the applicable Event Parameters Date, including its determination of:

- (i) whether a Named Storm Event has occurred;
- (ii) the Date of Occurrence of such Named Storm Event; and
- (iii) the Payout Amount, the Principal Reduction, and the Outstanding Nominal Amount.

Step 8 – If Applicable, Prepare and Deliver a Subsequent Event Report

If a Subsequent Calculation Date exists with respect to a Named Storm Event, the Event Calculation Agent will determine whether the storm track of such Named Storm Event intersected the Covered Area after the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, and the Event Calculation Agent shall prepare and deliver a Subsequent Event Report for such Named Storm Event in accordance with Steps 2–7 above; provided that when obtaining Event Parameters for the Subsequent Event Report, the Event Calculation Agent shall obtain or determine only the Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters (i.e., Calculated Central Pressures and storm track for the period beginning immediately following the Event Parameters Date used for the initial Event Report), and all Event Parameters from the initial Event Report shall remain unchanged for all other purposes.

The “Scheduled Maturity Date” shall be May 23, 2030 (subject to an earlier Mandatory Redemption pursuant to Term 26(iii)); provided, however, that if (i) an Extension Notice has been given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) on or prior to the date that is three (3) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date or (ii) (A) a Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to a potential Named Storm Event has been given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date, and (B) no Event Report with respect thereto has been received by IBRD on or prior to the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date, then the Maturity Date shall be extended beyond the Scheduled Maturity Date automatically to June 23, 2030 (or if such date is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (such period, the “Initial Extension Period”). If the Outstanding Nominal Amount is reduced to US$0 on any Principal Reduction Date prior to the Maturity Date, then the Notes will be deemed to be finally redeemed on such Principal Reduction Date at a price of US$0, and no further interest will be paid (other than any Residual Interest Amount then due pursuant to Term 26(ii) and any accrued interest then due pursuant to Term 17).

References herein to the “Extended Maturity Date” mean the last day of the then-applicable Extension Period.

“Partial Extension Notice” means a written notice given by the Government of Jamaica to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent) (a) stating that such written notice constitutes a Partial Extension Notice with respect to the Notes, (b) identifying one or more Named Storm Events and/or potential Named Storm Events for which the maturity of the Notes is being extended and (c) specifying the portion of the Outstanding Nominal Amount to be

- (1) the Outstanding Nominal Amount shall be reduced by the Repayment Amount specified in such Partial Extension Notice (the “Partial Repayment”); provided, that in no event shall a Partial Repayment reduce the Outstanding Nominal Amount to an amount less than US$0; and
- (2) in addition to the payment of accrued interest with respect to the Interest Period then ending, the following amount shall be paid for each Calculation Amount: US$1,000 multiplied by the fraction of which the numerator is the lesser of (a) the Repayment Amount and (b) the Outstanding Nominal Amount (as defined in Term 26(iv)) calculated as of the Scheduled Maturity Date or relevant Extended Maturity Date, as applicable (after giving effect to any Principal Reductions on such date, but without giving effect to any Partial Repayment on such date) and of which the denominator is the Aggregate Nominal Amount.

Any Partial Repayment shall be applied to the outstanding Notes on a pro rata basis. For the avoidance of doubt, more than one Partial Repayment may occur, and a Partial Repayment could reduce the Outstanding Nominal Amount to US$0.

Subject to the Compounded SOFR Fallback Provisions below, for any Interest Period, “Compounded SOFR” will be calculated by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date as follows and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the fourth decimal place of a percentage point, with 0.00005 or greater being rounded upwards:

where:

“Observation Period” means, in respect of such Interest Period, the period from, and including, the date which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the first date of such Interest Period to, but excluding, the date which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the Specified Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period.

“SOFR Index<sub>Start</sub>” means the SOFR Index value on the day which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the first date of such Interest Period.

“SOFR Index<sub>End</sub>” means the SOFR Index value on the day which is five (5) U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the Specified Interest Payment Date relating to such Interest Period.

“SOFR Administrator” means the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as administrator of the secured overnight financing rate (“SOFR”) (or a successor administrator of SOFR).

Currently, the SOFR Administrator publishes the SOFR Index on its website at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/reference-rates/sofr-averages-and-index>. In the event that the value originally published by the SOFR Administrator on or about 3:00 p.m. (New York Time) on any U.S. Government Securities Business Day is subsequently corrected and such corrected value is published by the SOFR Administrator on the original date of publication, then such corrected value, instead of the value that was originally published, shall be deemed the SOFR Index as of the SOFR Index Determination Time in relation to such U.S. Government Securities Business Day.

Compounded SOFR Fallback Provisions:

SOFR Index Unavailable:

If a SOFR Index<sub>Start</sub> or SOFR Index<sub>End</sub> is not published on the associated Interest Determination Date and a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have not occurred with respect to SOFR Index or SOFR, “Compounded SOFR” means, for the applicable Interest Period for which such index is not available, the rate of return on a daily compounded interest investment calculated by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for SOFR Averages, and definitions required for such formula, published on the SOFR Administrator’s website at <https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/reference-rates/additional-information-about-reference-rates>. For the purposes of this provision, references in the SOFR Averages compounding formula and related definitions to “calculation period” shall be replaced with “Observation Period” and the words “that is, 30-, 90-, or 180- calendar days” shall be removed. If the daily SOFR (“SOFR<sub>i</sub>”) does not so appear for any day, “i” in the Observation Period, SOFR<sub>i</sub> for such day “i” shall be SOFR published in respect of the first preceding U.S. Government Securities Business Day for which SOFR was published on the SOFR Administrator's website.

Effect of a Benchmark Transition Event:

If IBRD determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, IBRD will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time.

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by IBRD pursuant to this section, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

- (1) will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;
- (2) will be made in the sole discretion of IBRD; and
- (3) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documentation relating to the Notes described herein, shall become effective without consent from the holders of the Notes or any other party.

“Benchmark” means, initially, SOFR Index; provided that if IBRD determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to SOFR Index (or the published daily SOFR used in the calculation thereof) then “Benchmark” means the applicable Benchmark Replacement for the SOFR Index; and provided further that if IBRD determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof), then “Benchmark” means the applicable Benchmark Replacement for the then-current Benchmark.

“Benchmark Replacement” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by IBRD as of the Benchmark Replacement Date.

(1) the sum of: (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

(2) the sum of: (a) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or

(3) the sum of: (a) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by IBRD as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (b) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

Provided that, if a Benchmark Replacement Date has occurred with regard to the daily published component used in the calculation of a Benchmark, but not with regard to the Benchmark itself, “Benchmark Replacement” means the references to the alternatives determined in accordance with clauses (1), (2) or (3) above for such daily published components.

“Benchmark Replacement Adjustment” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by IBRD as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

(1) the spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;

(2) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or

(3) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by IBRD giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof) with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time.

“Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors, and other administrative matters) that IBRD decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if IBRD decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if IBRD determines that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as IBRD determines is reasonably necessary); provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, if a Benchmark Replacement Date has occurred with regard to the daily published component used in the calculation of a Benchmark, but not with regard to the Benchmark itself, “Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” shall also mean that IBRD may calculate the Benchmark Replacement for such Benchmark in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating such Benchmark last in effect prior to Benchmark Replacement Date affecting such component, substituting the affected component with the relevant Benchmark Replacement for such component.

“Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(1) in the case of clause (1) or (2) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the later of (a) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (b) the date on which the administrator of the Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(2) in the case of clause (3) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the later of (x) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (y) the first date on which such Benchmark (or such component) is no longer representative per such statement or publication.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination.

“Benchmark Transition Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

(1) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(2) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the

administrator for the Benchmark, which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

(3) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing (A) that such Benchmark (or its component) is no longer, or as of a specified future date will no longer be, capable of being representative, or is non-representative, of the underlying market and economic reality that such Benchmark (or its component) is intended to measure as required by applicable law or regulation and as determined by the regulatory supervisor in accordance with applicable law or regulation and (B) that the intention of that statement or publication is to engage contractual triggers for fallbacks activated by pre-cessation announcements by such supervisor (howsoever described) in contracts.

“ISDA Definitions” means the 2006 ISDA Definitions published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. or any successor thereto, as amended or supplemented from time to time, or any successor definitional booklet for interest rate derivatives published from time to time.

“ISDA Fallback Adjustment” means the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be determined upon the occurrence of an index cessation event with respect to the Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof).

“ISDA Fallback Rate” means the rate that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be effective upon the occurrence of an index cessation date with respect to the Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof) for the applicable tenor excluding the applicable ISDA Fallback Adjustment.

“Reference Time” with respect to any determination of the Benchmark (or the daily published component used in the calculation thereof) means (1) if the Benchmark is SOFR Index, the SOFR Index Determination Time, and (2) if the Benchmark is not SOFR Index, the time determined by IBRD after giving effect to the Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes.

“Relevant Governmental Body” means the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or any successor thereto.

“Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement” means the Benchmark Replacement excluding the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

26. Other final terms: Applicable

(i) Event Calculation Agent: Risk Management Solutions, Inc. (“Moody’s”) shall be appointed as the Event Calculation Agent pursuant to the event calculation agent agreement between Moody’s and IBRD, dated on or prior to the Issue Date (as amended or modified in accordance therewith, the “Event Calculation Agent Agreement”); provided, however, that in case of a Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure, IBRD has the right to appoint another person that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica, and that is not a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica, as the Event Calculation Agent for such purpose, subject to the terms of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Moody’s or any successor or permitted assign under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement is referred to herein as the “Event Calculation Agent”.

“Risk Model” means Moody’s RMS North Atlantic Hurricane Models version 25.0, as implemented in Risk Modeler version 2.0, used to generate the risk analysis in the “Moody’s Expert Risk Analysis Results” attached to the Prospectus Supplement as Appendix II.

ALL CALCULATIONS AND DETERMINATIONS MADE BY THE EVENT CALCULATION AGENT IN AN EVENT REPORT SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON IBRD AND HOLDERS AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF THE NOTES, ABSENT MANIFEST ERROR THAT IS IDENTIFIED IN A WRITTEN NOTICE RECEIVED BY IBRD PRIOR TO THE DATE WHICH IS THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS FOLLOWING THE DATE ON WHICH SUCH EVENT REPORT IS FIRST MADE AVAILABLE ON THE SITE (AS DEFINED IN TERM 26(VI)).

(ii) Payment of Residual Interest Amount: If the Outstanding Nominal Amount is reduced to zero (US$0) on any Principal Reduction Date prior to the Specified Interest Payment Date scheduled to occur on May 23, 2027, IBRD shall pay the Residual Interest Amount on such Principal Reduction Date in addition to the payment of accrued interest with respect to the Interest Period ending on such Principal Reduction Date, and no further interest will be paid.

“Residual Interest Amount” means an amount, if any, equal to the sum of the present values, discounted at the Risk Margin (without taking into account the proviso to the definition of “Risk Margin”) on an annual basis, of each of the scheduled payments of accrued interest (but only to the extent such interest would have accrued based on a rate of interest equal to (i) for any day prior to the first anniversary of the Issue Date, the Risk Margin, or (ii) for any day on or after the first anniversary of the Issue Date, zero (0)) that would have been payable with respect to the Notes from and including the Principal Reduction Date on which the Outstanding Nominal Amount has been reduced to zero to and including the Specified Interest Payment Date that had been scheduled to occur on May 23, 2027.

(iii) Mandatory Redemption:

Following the occurrence of a Reporting Source Failure Event, an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event or a Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event (each, a “Mandatory Redemption Event”), the Notes will be subject to automatic redemption in full on the relevant Redemption Amount Payment Date, at an amount per Calculation Amount equal to the Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount calculated as of the Redemption Amount Payment Date (after giving effect to any Principal Reductions and/or Partial Repayment on such date) in accordance with this Term 26(iii). For the avoidance of doubt, accrued interest calculated in accordance with Term 17 shall also be paid on such Redemption Amount Payment Date, and no further interest will be paid with respect to the Notes.

IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of any Reporting Source Failure Event or Event Calculation Agent Failure Event within two (2) Business Days after becoming aware of such Reporting Source Failure Event or Event Calculation Agent Failure Event (each such notice, together with the notice referred to under the definition of “Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event”, a “Mandatory Redemption Notice”). The date on which IBRD gives a Mandatory Redemption Notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) is referred to as the “Mandatory Redemption Notice Date.”

A “Reporting Source Failure Event” shall be deemed to occur on the earlier of (i) the date on which the Event Calculation Agent, after following the procedures described in the following two paragraphs, gives written notice to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) stating that a Reporting Source Failure has occurred and (ii) the date on which the Government of Jamaica gives written notice of a Reporting Source Failure Event to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent), in each case in accordance with the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

The Reporting Sources currently make their data available at no cost. However, if a Reporting Source charges a fee for its data, the Event Calculation Agent will promptly notify IBRD and the Government of Jamaica in writing of such fee and such Reporting Source shall be disregarded for purposes of the procedures described above unless (i) the Event Calculation Agent has otherwise paid the applicable fee and there is no additional charge to obtain and use the data to determine the Event Parameters or (ii) within three (3) Business Days of receipt of such notice, the Government of Jamaica or IBRD elects in writing to pay the fee required to obtain and use the data. If neither condition (i) nor condition (ii) is satisfied with respect to a Reporting Source, such Reporting Source shall be disregarded for all purposes of the Event Parameters Acquisition Period as if it were not listed among the Reporting Sources, and the Event Calculation Agent shall seek Event Parameters from any remaining available Reporting Sources in accordance with the procedures described above.

On the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain all of the Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source that are necessary to give an Event Report with respect to the relevant potential Named Storm Event. If the Event Calculation Agent determines that it cannot obtain all such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source on the applicable Calculation Date in accordance with the process specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement (a “Potential Reporting Source Failure”), then on each subsequent Business Day through the earlier of (i) the day that the Event Calculation Agent successfully obtains all Event Parameters and (ii) April 15 of the calendar year immediately following the Date of Occurrence of the relevant Named Storm (or, if such day is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day) (such period, the “Event Parameters Acquisition Period”), the Event Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source or if not available on that day, from each Back-up Reporting Source in the order of priority outlined in the definition of “Back-up Reporting Source” (with (i) as the highest priority and (v) the lowest).

Additionally, during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period, the Event Calculation Agent will use its reasonable best efforts to identify a replacement Reporting Source that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica. If, prior to the end of such period, the Event Calculation Agent has not obtained such Event Parameters from the Primary Reporting Source or a Back-up Reporting Source pursuant to the procedures specified above, then (x) if it has identified a replacement Reporting Source prior to the end of such period, it will use the data provided by such replacement Reporting Source to provide the Event Report and such replacement Reporting Source will thereafter be a Reporting Source (and will be appended as the last entity in the order of priority in the definition thereof) or (y) if it has not identified a replacement Reporting Source during such period (a “Reporting Source Failure”), it will give written notice to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) stating that a Reporting Source Failure has occurred.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Event Calculation Agent has not identified a replacement Reporting Source prior to the expiration of thirty (30) Business Days following the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Calculation Agent shall give written notice to IBRD and the Government of Jamaica of its inability to identify a replacement Reporting Source during such period. Following the delivery of such notice by the Event Calculation Agent, the Government of Jamaica may on any Business Day deliver to IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to the Global Agent), a written notice stating that a Reporting Source Failure Event has occurred, and the date such notice is received by IBRD and the Event Calculation Agent shall be the date of the Reporting Source Failure Event.

“Calculation Date” means, with respect to a potential Named Storm Event with respect to which the Government of Jamaica has delivered a Notice of Named Storm Event, the earlier of (x) the second day following the publication of the Final Public Advisory (or, if later, the first Business Day following the date on which the Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to such potential Named Storm Event is delivered) and (y) fourteen (14) days following the date on which the Notice of Named Storm Event with respect to such potential Named Storm Event is delivered (or, if such day in clause (x) or (y) is not a Business Day, the next succeeding Business Day).

If the Event Calculation Agent has delivered an Event Report that confirms that a Named Storm Event has occurred and for purposes of such Event Report has used a Calculation Date determined pursuant to clause

(y) above, then the date determined pursuant to clause (x) above shall also be a Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event (such date, the “Subsequent Calculation Date”). On the Subsequent Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event, if applicable, the Event Calculation Agent shall prepare and deliver a Subsequent Event Report in accordance with the third paragraph of the definition of “Event Report”. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (i) the Final Public Advisory with respect to such Named Storm Event is deemed, pursuant to the second sentence of the definition of “Final Public Advisory” below, to have been published on the date determined pursuant to clause (y) above or (ii) the Final Public Advisory is published on or prior to the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, then there will be no Subsequent Calculation Date with respect to such Named Storm Event and the Event Calculation Agent shall not prepare a Subsequent Event Report.

Unless specified or otherwise required by the context, references herein to a “Calculation Date” include a Subsequent Calculation Date.

A “Final Public Advisory” with respect to a Named Storm means a tropical cyclone public advisory (or similar “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin) published by the NHC with respect to such Named Storm which states that such public advisory is the final public advisory that will be issued with respect to such Named Storm or otherwise indicates that no further public advisories with respect to such Named Storm will be issued. If no such Final Public Advisory has been published prior to the date that is determined pursuant to clause (y) of the definition of “Calculation Date”, then the Final Public Advisory with respect to such Named Storm shall be deemed to have been published on the later of (a) such date and (b) the date on which the Event Calculation Agent believes the NHC has published its final public advisory with respect to such Named Storm or otherwise believes, in its reasonable judgment, that the Named Storm has ended.

An “Event Calculation Agent Failure Event” shall be deemed to occur on the date on which IBRD has become aware that the Event Calculation Agent has become incapable of performing, or has failed to perform or to observe in any material respect, or otherwise commits a material breach of, any provision of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, and such failure or breach has not been cured to the reasonable satisfaction of IBRD during the period specified in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement (a “Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure”), and IBRD, after using its reasonable best efforts, has been unable to engage a replacement Event Calculation Agent to perform such duties and obligations that is reasonably satisfactory to, and unaffiliated with, each of IBRD and the Government of Jamaica and that is not a provider of catastrophe insurance, reinsurance, or similar risk transfer for the Government of Jamaica, and meets the requirements of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, within thirty (30) calendar days after such Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure. IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of an Event Calculation Agent Failure Event within two (2) Business Days after becoming aware thereof.

A “Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event” shall occur if: (i) IBRD receives written notice from the Government of Jamaica, electing to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement based on a “Change of Law”

(as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) or a “Risk Transfer Termination Event” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) with respect to IBRD; or (ii) IBRD elects to terminate the Risk Transfer Agreement based on a “Risk Transfer Termination Event” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement) with respect to Government of Jamaica or a “Change of Law” (as defined in the Risk Transfer Agreement), in each case by giving written notice of a Mandatory Redemption Event to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica). IBRD shall give notice to the Global Agent (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica) of any Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event no later than three (3) Business Days following such Risk Transfer Transaction Termination Event.

The “Risk Transfer Agreement” shall mean the risk transfer agreement dated as of May 18, 2026, entered into between IBRD and the Government of Jamaica (as amended or otherwise modified from time to time), pursuant to which IBRD has agreed to make payments to the Government of Jamaica based on the occurrence of Named Storm Events.

(iv) Redemption Amount of the Notes and Principal Reductions: “Redemption Amount per Calculation Amount” shall be US$1,000 times the fraction the numerator of which is the Outstanding Nominal Amount (after giving effect to any Principal Reduction and/or Partial Repayment on the Redemption Amount Payment Date) and the denominator of which is the Aggregate Nominal Amount.

“Principal Reduction” means, with respect to the relevant Principal Reduction Date, an amount equal to the lesser of (a) the Outstanding Nominal Amount as of such Principal Reduction Date (without giving effect to any Principal Reduction or Partial Repayment on such date) and (b) (i) the sum of the Payout Amounts specified in all Event Reports up to and including the last Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days prior to such Principal Reduction Date, minus (ii) the sum of the Payout Amounts specified in all Event Reports up to and including the last Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days prior to the immediately preceding Principal Reduction Date. Any Principal Reduction shall be applied to the outstanding Notes on a pro rata basis.

“Outstanding Nominal Amount” means, as of any date, the Aggregate Nominal Amount reduced by all Principal Reductions and Partial Repayments, if any, applied on or prior to such date; provided, that in no event will the Outstanding Nominal Amount be an amount less than US$0.

“Principal Reduction Date” means each Specified Interest Payment Date and the Redemption Amount Payment Date.

“Redemption Amount Payment Date” means the earliest to occur of the following:

- (1) the Maturity Date;
- (2) the fifth (5th) Business Day following a Mandatory Redemption Notice Date (as defined in Term 26(iii)); or

- (3) the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the day on which a Noteholder delivers written notice to IBRD notifying IBRD of such Noteholder's election to declare all Notes held by it to be due and payable, in accordance with the provisions of Condition 9, subject to adjustment in accordance with the Business Day Convention specified above in Term 17(iii); provided, that any Redemption Amount Payment Date occurring under this clause (3) will apply only to the Notes held by such Noteholder to which such notice relates.

“Risk Period” means the period beginning 12:00:00 a.m., Eastern time, on the day after the Issue Date to and including the earlier of (a) 11:59:59 p.m., Eastern time, on May 16, 2030 and (b) 11:59:59 p.m., Eastern time, on the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Redemption Amount Payment Date.

- (v) Additional Definitions Applicable to the Redemption Amount of the Notes and Principal Reductions:

“Moody’s Data File” means the supplemental data file provided by Moody’s in connection with the Notes, which has been made available on the Site.

“Back-up Reporting Source” means the following sources or any successors thereof, in the following order of priority:

- (i) the latest available Tropical Cyclone Report (if any);
- (ii) the ATCF “guidance comma delimited files” (“A-deck”) published by the NHC;
- (iii) HURDAT2, as updated by the NHC to include the Event Parameters for the relevant Named Storm Event;
- (iv) Weather Prediction Center; and
- (v) The International Best Track Archive for Climate Stewardship (IBTrACS).

“Calculated Central Pressure” with respect to any Named Storm Sub-Area means the lowest Central Pressure determined across each instance in which the storm track of a Named Storm intersects such Named Storm Sub-Area, determined as the minimum of (A) the Central Pressure reported at each track point that is located on the boundary of, or within, such Named Storm Sub-Area; and (B) the Central Pressure determined by linear interpolation at each point at which the storm track enters or exits such Named Storm Sub-Area (each such point, an “Intersection Point”), determined in accordance with the procedures set out in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement and the following:

- (i) if a Named Storm Event crosses more than one applicable Named Storm Sub-Area, a Calculated Central Pressure shall be determined independently for each distinct applicable Named Storm Sub-Area;
- (ii) if a Named Storm crosses the same applicable Named Storm Sub-Area more than once, the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area shall be the single lowest value determined across all such crossings in accordance with this definition for such Named Storm Sub-Area and such Named Storm Event;

- (iii) if a reported track point falls exactly on the boundary of a Named Storm Sub-Area, such track point shall be treated as being located within such Named Storm Sub-Area for purposes of clause (A) above and no separate interpolation under clause (B) shall be performed at such track point;
- (iv) if a Central Pressure is determined according to clause (B) above or subclause (iii) above on the shared boundary of one or more Named Storm Sub-Areas, the applicable track point shall be treated as being located within each such Named Storm Sub-Area; and
- (v) if the Reporting Source reports a track point for a Named Storm without an associated Central Pressure, such track point shall be disregarded for all purposes of this definition; and accordingly, for purposes of clause (B), (a) the nearest reported track points on each side of any such disregarded track point shall be treated as consecutively reported track points, and (b) any Intersection Point that would otherwise fall on a segment involving a disregarded track point shall be determined by linear interpolation between those nearest reported track points.

The Calculated Central Pressure shall be rounded to the nearest millibar.

For purposes of preparing a Subsequent Event Report with respect to a Named Storm Event, the Event Calculation Agent will consider the Event Parameters used to prepare the related initial Event Report, without revision for any subsequent updating of such Event Parameters, as well as the Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters, and the Calculated Central Pressure with respect to a Named Storm Sub-Area will be the lower of (i) the Calculated Central Pressure for such Named Storm Sub-Area specified in the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event and (ii) the Calculated Central Pressure determined using only the Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters for such Named Storm Sub-Area.

“Central Pressure” means the minimum sea-level barometric pressure recorded in millibar units (“mb”) as reported by the Reporting Source for a Named Storm Event. If the Reporting Source reports minimum sea-level barometric pressure Central Pressure in a unit other than millibar, the Event Calculation Agent will convert the minimum sea-level barometric pressure into millibar.

“Date of Occurrence” of a Named Storm means the first date on which the NHC issues a “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin with respect to the Covered Area in connection with such Named Storm; provided that if the NHC does not issue any such “watch”, “warning”, advisory or bulletin within ten (10) calendar days after the date that the Event Calculation Agent believes, in its reasonable judgment, should have been the Date of Occurrence of such Named Storm, then the “Date of Occurrence” for such Named Storm will be the date determined by the Event Calculation Agent in its reasonable judgment to have been the Date of Occurrence of such Named Storm.

“Distance” or “D” means the distance in kilometers between two points on the surface of the earth and is calculated as follows:

$$D = R \times 2 \arcsin \sqrt{\alpha}$$

$$R = 6,378.1 \text{ km}$$

$$\Delta lat = lat1 - lat2$$

$$\Delta lon = lon1 - lon2$$

Where (lon1, lat1) and (lon2, lat2) are the longitude in degrees (+ for east, – for west) and latitude in degrees (+ for north, – for south), respectively, of two points expressed in the “WGS 84” coordinate system, but trigonometric functions require inputs expressed in radians.

“Event Report” means, with respect to a potential Named Storm Event, a report substantially similar in form to Exhibit B to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement, given to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) by the Event Calculation Agent based on the Event Parameters.

The Event Report for each potential Named Storm Event shall (i) confirm whether such Named Storm Event has or has not occurred or, for a Subsequent Event Report, whether the relevant Named Storm has intersected the Covered Area after the Event Parameters Date for the related initial Event Report, (ii) identify the Date of Occurrence of such potential Named Storm Event, (iii) include a calculation (and its components) of the Payout Amount (which may be zero (US$0)), as applicable, (iv) specify the amount of the Principal Reduction (if any) to be applied to the Notes on the first Principal Reduction Date that is at least five (5) Business Days following the date on which such Event Report is delivered by the Event Calculation Agent, assuming that no further Event Report in respect of such Principal Reduction Date is delivered and treating any concurrently delivered Event Reports as having been delivered sequentially rather than simultaneously and (v) specify the Outstanding Nominal Amount of the Notes (after giving effect to the Principal Reduction, if any, on the relevant Principal Reduction Date, assuming that no further Event Reports in respect of such Principal Reduction Date are delivered and treating any concurrently delivered Event Reports as having been delivered sequentially rather than simultaneously), in each case in accordance with the provisions hereof and of the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. The Event Calculation Agent shall deliver such Event Report to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) no later than five (5) Business Days after the Event Parameters Date; provided, that any such report given to IBRD (with a copy thereof to Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) with respect to a potential Named Storm Event at any time after the fifth (5th) Business Day preceding the Redemption Amount Payment Date for the Notes shall not be deemed to be an Event Report.

If a Subsequent Calculation Date exists with respect to a Named Storm Event, then the Event Calculation Agent will prepare and deliver a subsequent Event Report for such Named Storm Event in accordance with the procedures outlined above (such report, a “Subsequent Event Report”); provided, that the Event Calculation Agent shall obtain or determine the Event Parameters only for the period beginning immediately after the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, and all Event Parameters obtained or determined on the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event will remain unchanged for all purposes under the Event Calculation Agent Agreement and the terms of the Notes. Unless otherwise specified or required by the context, references herein to an “Event Report” include a Subsequent Event Report.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Potential Event Calculation Agent Failure occurs and a replacement Event Calculation Agent is engaged, such replacement may gather the relevant Event Parameters, perform the necessary calculations and produce an Event Report on dates other than as specified herein, and accordingly, the relevant Calculation Date may be adjusted as needed.

All calculations and determinations made by the Event Calculation Agent in an Event Report shall be final and binding on IBRD and holders and beneficial owners of the Notes, absent manifest error that is identified in a written notice received by IBRD prior to the date which is three (3) Business Days following the date on which such Event Report is first made available on the Site (as defined under Term 26(vi)). If, prior to the date which is three (3) Business Days following the date on which an Event Report is first made available on the Site, IBRD receives a written notice identifying a potential manifest error in such Event Report, then as soon as practicable, but in no event later than two (2) Business Days following receipt of such notice, IBRD will, in consultation with the Event Calculation Agent, determine whether such potential manifest error constitutes a manifest error. If IBRD determines that such potential manifest error constitutes a manifest error: (i) IBRD will, as soon as reasonably practicable, publish a notice of its determination on the Site, (ii) the relevant Event Report will not be effective, and (iii) no Principal Reduction will occur to the extent attributable to such Event Report. The Event Calculation Agent Agreement will provide that, if IBRD so determines that an Event Report contains a manifest error, the Event Calculation Agent will deliver an amended and restated Event Report to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent) as soon as reasonably practicable. Any Principal Reduction or portion thereof that does not occur due to a determination by IBRD that the relevant Event Report contains a manifest error shall occur in accordance with the Conditions set forth herein when such manifest error has been cured by an amended and restated Event Report delivered by the Event Calculation Agent to IBRD (with a copy thereof to the Government of Jamaica and the Global Agent).

“Named Storm” means a storm or storm system that is, or at any time was, identified by any Reporting Source as a tropical cyclone, tropical depression, tropical storm or a hurricane (or similar term utilized for the same purpose).

“Named Storm Sub-Area” means a portion of the Covered Area formed by the set of coordinates defined in the Moody’s Data File (each such point's coordinates given in latitude in degrees (+ for north of the equator, - for south of the equator) and longitude in degrees (+ for east of the Greenwich meridian, - for west of the Greenwich meridian)).

“Named Storm Event” means a Named Storm (i) with a Date of Occurrence occurring during the Risk Period and (ii) with a storm track which is confirmed by the Event Calculation Agent to intersect the Covered Area. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Risk Period commences after a Named Storm's Date of Occurrence, such Named Storm will not be a Named Storm Event, but if a Named Storm's Date of Occurrence falls within the Risk Period, even if such Named Storm continues after the Risk Period ends, such Named Storm may be a Named Storm Event.

“Event Parameters” means, for any Event Report with respect to any potential Named Storm Event, the date, time, latitude in degrees (+ for north of the equator, - for south of the equator), longitude in degrees (+ for east of the Greenwich meridian, - for west of the Greenwich meridian), and Central Pressure associated with each storm track point obtained or determined by the Event Calculation Agent on the related Event Parameters Date, as described in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement. Latitude values provided in a different reference system will be converted to degrees with positive values north of the equator and negative values south of the equator. Longitude values provided in a different reference system will be converted to degrees with positive values east of the Greenwich meridian and negative values west of the Greenwich meridian. For the avoidance of doubt, the Event Parameters determined as of the Event Parameters Date shall not be revised even if such Event Parameters are revised by the Reporting Source following the Event Parameters Date. Unless otherwise specified or required by the context, references herein to “Event Parameters” include Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters.

“Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters” means, for any Subsequent Event Report with respect to any Named Storm Event, the Calculated Central Pressures and storm track obtained or determined by the Event Calculation Agent on the related Event Parameters Date but only for the period beginning immediately following the Event Parameters Date used for the related initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event, as described in the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

“Event Parameters Date” means, for any Event Report with respect to any potential Named Storm Event, the date on which the Event Calculation Agent obtains or determines the Event Parameters in respect of such potential Named Storm Event, which date shall initially be the applicable Calculation Date; provided that, if the Event Calculation Agent is unable to obtain all such Event Parameters on the applicable Calculation Date, the Event Parameters Date shall be the first date during the Event Parameters Acquisition Period on which the Event Calculation Agent obtains or determines such Event Parameters in accordance with the procedures described under Term 26(iii). Any data revised or released after the related Event Parameters Date will be disregarded by the Event Calculation Agent when determining any Payout Amounts related to the Named Storm Event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as described in the definition of “Subsequent Event Report,” in connection with the provision of a Subsequent Event Report, the Event Calculation Agent will obtain or determine the Event Parameters for the period beginning immediately after the Event Parameters Date for the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event.

“Payout Amount” means the Payout Rate multiplied by the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes; provided, however, that the Payout Amount determined for purposes of a Subsequent Event Report with respect to a Named Storm Event will be equal to the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes multiplied by the difference between (x) the Payout Rate determined for purposes of such Subsequent Event Report and (y) the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the initial Event Report with respect to such Named Storm Event. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the Subsequent Event Report is not greater than the Payout Rate determined for purposes of the related initial Event Report, the Payout Amount for purposes of such Subsequent Event Report shall be zero.

“Payout Rate” means:

The lesser of (i) 100% and (ii) the sum of all payout percentages arising in respect of all Named Storm Sub-Areas, where a payout percentage for a Named Storm Sub-Area arises from the intersection of such Named Storm Event with such Named Storm Sub-Area. The Payout Rate will be determined based on the Event Parameters or Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters, as the case may be, as of the relevant Event Parameters Date as follows:

- If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is greater than Min CP1, 0%;
- If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP1 but greater than Min CP2,  $30\% + 70\% \times ((\text{Min CP1} - \text{CCP}) / (\text{Min CP1} - \text{Min CP2}))$ ;
- If the CCP for such Named Storm Sub-Area is less than or equal to Min CP2, 100%.

Where:

“CCP” for a Named Storm Sub-Area means (i) for purposes of an Event Report other than a Subsequent Event Report, the Calculated Central Pressure for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area based on the Event Parameters as of the related Event Parameters Date and (ii) for a Subsequent Event Report, the lower of (A) the Calculated Central Pressure determined in accordance with clause (i) and (B) the Calculated Central Pressure determined solely on the basis of the relevant Subsequent Event Report Event Parameters.

“Min CP1” means the minimum central pressure identified in the “Named Storm Level One” column in the spreadsheet within the Moody’s Data File for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area.

“Min CP2” means the minimum central pressure identified in the “Named Storm Level Two” column in the spreadsheet within the Moody’s Data File for the applicable Named Storm Sub-Area.

The Payout Rate will be rounded to the fifth decimal place (if not presented in a percentage format) or third decimal place (if presented in a percentage format).

“Reporting Source” means the Primary Reporting Source; provided, that if a Potential Reporting Source Failure occurs in respect of a potential Named Storm Event, then the term “Reporting Source” shall refer to either the Primary Reporting Source or a Back-up Reporting Source as determined by the Event Calculation Agent pursuant to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement.

“Notice of Named Storm Event” means a written notice in a form substantially similar to the form attached as Exhibit A to the Event Calculation Agent Agreement given by the Government of Jamaica to the Event Calculation Agent (with a copy thereof to IBRD and the Global Agent) stating that a potential Named Storm Event has occurred and requesting the Event Calculation Agent to deliver an Event Report with respect thereto.

“Covered Area” means the geographic area around and covering Jamaica that includes all Named Storm Sub-Areas, as described in the Moody’s Data File and shown in the graphic below. For the avoidance of doubt, any space on or within the geographic area described in the Moody’s Data File, will be included in the Covered Area.

“Primary Reporting Source” means the Automated Tropical Cyclone Forecast (“ATCF”) “best-track comma delimited files” (“B-deck”) published by the National Hurricane Center (“NHC”) or any successor thereof.

“Tropical Cyclone Report” means a report issued by the NHC containing meteorological statistics, post-event analysis best track and other information about a Named Storm.

IBRD reserves the right to apply such security procedures and other procedures with respect to access to the Site as IBRD deems appropriate. - (i) The purchaser is purchasing or otherwise acquiring the Notes for its own account or for a beneficial owner for which such person is acting as fiduciary or agent with complete investment discretion and with authority to bind such other person (the purchaser, and each such beneficial owner, collectively, the “Purchaser”), and not with a view to any public resale or distribution thereof.
- (ii) Notwithstanding the exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, the Notes may not be resold or transferred except to a Qualified Institutional Buyer (within the meaning of Rule 144A) that is a resident of and purchasing in, and will hold the Notes in, a Permitted U.S. Jurisdiction or a Permitted Non-U.S. Jurisdiction.

- (vi) The Purchaser will provide notice of these transfer restrictions to any subsequent transferees and agrees not to act as a swap counterparty or other type of intermediary whereby any other party will acquire an economic or beneficial interest in the Notes or reoffer, resell, pledge or otherwise transfer the Notes (or any beneficial interests therein) to any person except to a person that (x) meets all of the requirements in this “Notice to Investors—Representations of Purchasers” and (y) agrees not to subsequently transfer the Notes (or any beneficial interest therein) except in accordance with these transfer restrictions.

(viii) The Purchaser has had access to such financial and other information concerning IBRD and the Notes as it has deemed necessary in connection with its decision to purchase the Notes. The Purchaser (i) has been given the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers from IBRD concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Notes and other matters pertaining to an investment in the Notes, (ii) has been given the opportunity to request and review such additional information necessary to evaluate the merits and risks of a purchase of the Notes and to verify the accuracy of or to supplement the information contained in the Prospectus Supplement dated May 18, 2026 (the “Prospectus Supplement”), relating to US$200,000,000 Floating Rate Catastrophe-Linked Capital at Risk Notes due May 23, 2030 to the extent IBRD possesses such information and (iii) has received all documents and information reasonably necessary to make an investment decision, subject to contractual restrictions on IBRD’s ability to disclose confidential information. The Purchaser understands the terms, conditions and risks of the Notes and that the Notes involve a high degree of risk as described in the Prospectus Supplement, including possible loss of the Purchaser’s entire investment. The Purchaser has not relied upon any advice or recommendation of IBRD, any Manager, the Event Calculation Agent or any of their respective affiliates, and is making its own investment decision based upon its own judgment and upon the advice of such professional advisors, either employed or independently retained by the Purchaser, as it has deemed necessary to consult. It has not relied on any other version of the Prospectus Supplement other than the final version thereof in making its investment decision with respect to the Notes. The Purchaser acknowledges that no person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations concerning IBRD or the Notes other than those contained in the Prospectus Supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein and, if given or made, such other information or representations have not been relied upon. The Purchaser acknowledges that it has reviewed the Prospectus Supplement and the documents incorporated by reference herein, including the section “Additional Risk Factors” and the legends in the forward part of the Prospectus Supplement. The Purchaser has determined that it has the legal power, authority and right to purchase the Notes. The Purchaser understands that there is no assurance that a secondary market for the Notes will develop, the fair market value of the Notes may reflect a substantial discount from the Purchaser’s initial investment and substantial volatility in light of certain events, and that the Notes may trade at a value other than that which may be inferred from the current levels of interest rates, due to other factors including, but not limited to, expectations of the future levels of interest rates and the occurrence of certain Named Storm Events.

(ix) The Purchaser or other holder of a Note (A) is not (i) an “employee benefit plan” as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), that is subject to Title I of ERISA, (ii) a “plan” as defined in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), that is subject to Section 4975 of the Code, (iii) an entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of any such employee benefit plan’s or plan’s investment in the entity (collectively (i), (ii) and (iii), the “Plans”), or (iv) any other plan that is subject to any U.S. federal, U.S. state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to the provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code (“Similar Plan”) and is not purchasing an interest in the Notes on behalf of, or with “plan assets” of, any such Plan or Similar Plan; or (B) is acting on behalf of or purchasing a Note (or any beneficial interest therein) with the assets of such a Plan or Similar Plan and such Purchaser’s or other holder’s purchase, holding and subsequent disposition of such interest in the Notes is exempt by reason of Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code or prohibited transaction class exemption 96-23, 95-60, 91-38, 90-1 or 84-14 or another applicable administrative or statutory exemption (or in the case of any such Similar Plan, a comparable exemption applicable to the transaction). If the Purchaser is making the representations set forth in clause (B) above, the person making the decision to purchase such Notes is making such representations on behalf of such Purchaser both in their individual capacity as well as their fiduciary capacity and further represents that in connection with such purchase, such person has determined that in connection with such transaction the Purchaser will receive no less, and pay no more, than adequate consideration as provided in Section 408(b)(17) of ERISA and Section 4975(d)(20) of the Code.

(x) The Purchaser agrees, prior to the sale by such Purchaser of any Notes, to provide any potential purchaser that is a permitted transferee the opportunity to review any Available Information received by the Purchaser prior to the date of such sale.

(xi) The Purchaser (if other than the Managers) acknowledges that IBRD, each Manager and other persons will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgements, representations and agreements deemed to have been made by its purchase of an interest in Notes are no longer accurate, it will promptly notify IBRD and each Manager.

Investors are strongly urged to have these representations and agreements reviewed by their counsel prior to making any decision to invest in the Notes.

SUMMARY

What are IBRD's Capital at Risk Notes?

Capital at Risk Notes are a type of debt securities that IBRD may issue pursuant to the Facility. However, an investment in Capital at Risk Notes entails significant risks that are different from those associated with an investment in a conventional debt security issued by IBRD pursuant to its Facility. Capital at Risk Notes may result in the loss of your entire investment, with no payment of any type made to you at maturity.

Each issue of Capital at Risk Notes will have different interest rates, interest payment dates and maturity dates, and may include provisions for early redemption. The terms of each Capital at Risk Note will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

What investment risks are involved?

The Capital at Risk Notes are designed to be highly speculative and sophisticated investments. Capital at Risk Notes contain one or more embedded derivatives that determine, in whole or in part, the interest amounts and the amount, if any, payable at maturity. The types of events or underliers to which the Capital at Risk Notes will be linked, however, may be significantly more complex than common types of structured notes offered to the public.

Investors should have sufficient knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the merits and risks of investing in a particular Capital at Risk Note, as well as access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate such merits and risks, including underlier and derivative risk, in the context of their financial situation.

You should consult the information set forth under the captions "Risk Factors" beginning on page S-3 of this Supplement and page 11 of the accompanying Prospectus for a description of the risk factors involved in purchasing Capital at Risk Notes. In addition, the applicable Final Terms of a particular issue of Capital at Risk Notes may include additional risk factors relating to such issue.

Are Capital at Risk Notes rated?

The security ratings in respect of the Facility will not apply to Capital at Risk Notes. Capital at Risk Notes may not be assigned any security rating or, if rated, they may have a lower security rating than the Facility due to the risk of loss of principal. Whether or not a particular issue of Capital at Risk Notes has an assigned security rating, investors should be aware that the terms of the Capital at Risk Notes will create a substantial risk. You may lose some or all of your investment regardless of any assigned security rating. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. In addition, you also will be subject to IBRD's credit risk.

RISK FACTORS

The following risk factors must be read together with the “Risk Factors” beginning on page 11 of the accompanying Prospectus. Prospective investors also should refer to and carefully consider the applicable Final Terms for each particular issue of Capital at Risk Notes, which will describe additional risks associated with such Capital at Risk Notes.

Your investment may result in a loss

You cannot be assured that IBRD will make any payment to you on the Capital at Risk Notes at maturity. The payment at maturity on the Capital at Risk Notes will depend on the features of the particular issue of Capital at Risk Notes as described in the applicable Final Terms. Because of these features, the amount of cash you receive at maturity may be more or less than the amount you invested in the Capital at Risk Notes. Accordingly, you may lose some or all of your investment. There may not be a minimum amount that IBRD will pay at maturity; therefore, you may lose your entire investment in the Capital at Risk Notes.

Your yield may be lower than the yield on a standard debt security of comparable maturity

The yield that you will receive on your Capital at Risk Notes, which could be negative, may be less than the return you could earn on other investments. Even if your yield is positive, your yield may be less than the yield you would earn if you bought a conventional senior debt security of IBRD with the same maturity date. Your investment may not reflect the full opportunity cost to you when you take into account factors that affect the time value of money. Unlike conventional senior debt securities, you may not receive full repayment of principal at maturity.

At the time the terms of your Capital at Risk Notes are set, they may be worth less than the issue price

Capital at Risk Notes contain one or more embedded derivatives that determine, in whole or in part, the interest amounts and the amount, if any, payable at maturity. The estimated value of the Capital at Risk Notes at the time the terms of the Capital at Risk Notes are set on the trade date may be less than the issue price. This difference may be because of fees, costs, differences in derivatives pricing and other factors. The applicable Final Terms for your Capital at Risk Notes will explain any such difference in issue price and estimated value and the reasons therefor if applicable to your Capital at Risk Notes.

There may not be an active trading market for the Capital at Risk Notes

Capital at Risk Notes may not be listed or displayed on any securities exchange or any electronic communications network. There can be no assurance that a liquid trading market will develop. Even if a secondary market for the Capital at Risk Notes were to develop, it may not provide significant liquidity and transaction costs in any secondary market could be high. As a result, the difference between bid and asked prices for Capital at Risk Notes in any secondary market could be substantial. If you sell your Capital at Risk Notes before maturity, you may have to do so at a discount from the initial issue price, and, as a result, you may suffer substantial losses.

Notes will be sold through one or more Dealers (as defined in “Plan of Distribution”) appointed by IBRD, or directly by IBRD itself.

This Prospectus is not a prospectus for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the “Prospectus Regulation”) and has not been reviewed or approved by any competent authority under the Prospectus Regulation. This Prospectus is not a prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Regulation as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”) (the “UK Prospectus Regulation”) and has not been approved by the competent authority within the meaning of the UK Prospectus Regulation. Application has been made for Notes issued under the Facility to be admitted to the official list of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (the “Official List”) and to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. References in this Prospectus to Notes being “listed” (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to the Official List and admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange’s regulated market. This Prospectus constitutes a voluntary alleviated base prospectus for the purpose of Part III of the Luxembourg law dated 16 July 2019 on Prospectuses for Securities. The Facility provides that Notes may be listed on such other or further stock exchange(s) as may be agreed between IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) in relation to each issue. Unlisted Notes may also be issued pursuant to the Facility. The applicable Final Terms in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether and on which exchange such Notes will be listed or whether such Notes will be unlisted. This Prospectus replaces the prospectus dated May 28, 2008 in relation to the Facility, except in relation to Notes issued prior to the date hereof.

Notes of any particular issue will be in registered form, bookentry form or bearer form, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. Notes in bearer form may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons as part of their primary distribution. Notes will be issued in the denominations specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Each particular issue of Notes will initially be represented by a global note (the “Global Note”) or global certificate (the “Global Certificate”) or, in the case of Notes cleared and settled through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, by uncertificated bookentry notes. If the Global Notes are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in new global note (“NGN”) form, the Global Notes will be delivered on or prior to the issue date of the relevant Tranche (as defined in “Summary and Overview of the Facility”) to a common safekeeper (the “Common Safekeeper”) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) and Clearstream Banking, SA (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”). If a Global Certificate is held under the New Safekeeping Structure (the “NSS”), the Global Certificate will be delivered on or prior to the issue date of the relevant Tranche to a Common Safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Global Notes which are not issued in NGN form (“CGN”) and Global Certificates which are not held under the NSS will be deposited on the issue date of the relevant Tranche with a common depository on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (the “Common Depository”).

The Facility has been rated AAA by S&P Global Ratings and Aaa by Moody’s Investors Service, Inc. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Prospective investors should have regard to the factors described under the section headed “Risk Factors” in this Prospectus.

The date of this Prospectus is September 24, 2021.

The distribution of this Prospectus or any Final Terms and the offering or sale of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by IBRD and any Dealer to inform themselves about and to observe any such restriction. For a description of certain restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes and on the distribution of this Prospectus or any Final Terms, see “Plan of Distribution”.

MiFID II product governance / target market — The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “MiFID Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a “manufacturer” in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance / target market — The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate.

Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a “manufacturer” in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

Neither this Prospectus nor any Final Terms constitutes an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of, IBRD or any Dealer to subscribe for, or purchase, any Notes. Neither this Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Facility should be considered as a recommendation by IBRD or any of the Dealers that any potential investor should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of IBRD.

THE NOTES ARE NOT OBLIGATIONS OF ANY GOVERNMENT.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the stabilizing manager(s) (the “Stabilizing Manager(s)”) (or any person acting on behalf of any Stabilizing Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilization may not necessarily occur. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche. Any stabilization action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilizing Manager(s) (or any person acting on behalf of any Stabilizing Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

In this Prospectus, unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires, references to “€”, “EUR” and “euro” are to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of the European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union, references to “pounds”, “sterling”, “£” and “GBP” are to the lawful currency of the United Kingdom, references to “yen” are to the lawful currency of Japan and references to “U.S. dollars”, “$” and “U.S.$” are to United States dollars.

Incorporation by Reference

The IBRD Information filed with the Commission or any stock exchange on which Notes are listed and any supplements (other than Final Terms) or amendments to this Prospectus circulated by IBRD from time to time shall be deemed to be incorporated in, and to form part of, this Prospectus, and references to “this Prospectus” shall mean this document and any documents incorporated by reference in, and forming part of, this document, except, and to the extent, any such document is superseded or modified by any subsequent document incorporated by reference in, and forming part of, this Prospectus. Documents incorporated by reference in, and forming part of, this document may not have been submitted to the same review and clearance procedures to which this Prospectus has been submitted as of the date hereof by any stock exchange or regulatory authority referred to herein.

IBRD will, in the event of any material change in the financial position of IBRD which is not reflected in this Prospectus, prepare an amendment or supplement to this Prospectus or publish a new prospectus for use in connection with any subsequent issue and listing of Notes by IBRD.

If the terms of the Facility are modified or amended in a manner which would make this Prospectus inaccurate or misleading in any material respect, IBRD will prepare a new prospectus.

Any statement contained in a document which is incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for the purpose of this Prospectus to the extent that a statement contained herein modifies or supersedes such earlier statement (whether expressly, by implication or otherwise). Any statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Prospectus.

Copies of documents incorporated by reference in this Prospectus may be obtained (without charge) from the registered office of IBRD, the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange at www.bourse.lu, and the website of IBRD (<http://www.worldbank.org/debtsecurities/>).

Forward-looking Statements

This Prospectus includes “forward-looking statements”. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this Prospectus, including, without limitation, those regarding IBRD’s financial position, strategy, plans, policies, practices and objectives for future operations, are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of IBRD to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding IBRD’s present and future strategies and the environment in which IBRD will operate in the future. Among the important factors that could cause IBRD’s actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, among others, macro-economic conditions, investment from member countries and non-performance by borrowers. Additional factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially include, but are not limited to, those discussed under “Risk Factors”. These forward-looking statements speak only as at the date of this Prospectus. IBRD expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement contained herein to reflect any change in IBRD’s expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

FINAL TERMS

IBRD will prepare in respect of each particular issue of Notes a final terms document (each a “Final Terms”) which will contain the terms of, pricing details for, and settlement and clearance procedures relating to, such issue of Notes and such other information or disclosure as IBRD considers appropriate. A Final Terms may set out the full text of the terms and conditions of a particular issue of Notes if IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) consider it necessary or appropriate.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Supporting sustainable development in IBRD's member countries

The net proceeds from the sale of Notes will be used by IBRD to finance Eligible Sustainable Development Projects.

“Eligible Sustainable Development Projects” means projects, programs and activities in IBRD's member countries designed to achieve positive social and environmental impacts and outcomes in line with IBRD's twin goals of eliminating extreme poverty and promoting shared prosperity.

Eligible Sustainable Development Projects undergo a rigorous review and internal approval process which integrates IBRD's sustainability policies and environmental and social requirements.

IBRD's sustainable development bond framework (“SDBF”), as published from time to time, describes the process for selecting, evaluating and reporting on Eligible Sustainable Development Projects and contains descriptions and examples of such eligible projects.

The net proceeds from the sale of any Tranche of Notes are not committed or earmarked for the lending to, or financing of, any particular Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Returns on Notes are not linked to the performance of any particular Eligible Sustainable Development Projects. Prior to use, the net proceeds from the sale of Notes will be invested by IBRD's Treasury in accordance with IBRD's liquid asset management investment policies. IBRD's administrative and operating expenses are covered entirely by IBRD's various sources of revenue (net income) consisting primarily of net loan revenues and investment income (as more fully described in the IBRD Information). The SDBF and the information set forth therein are not a part of, or incorporated by reference into, this Prospectus.

SUMMARY AND OVERVIEW OF THE FACILITY

Any decision to invest in any Notes should be based on a consideration of this Prospectus as a whole, including the documents incorporated by reference, by any investor. Words and expressions defined or used in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" shall have the same meaning in this summary.*

Under IBRD's Articles, the Notes and payments thereon are not subject to any tax by a member (a) which tax discriminates against the Notes solely because they were issued by IBRD or (b) if the sole jurisdictional basis for the tax is the place or currency in which the Notes are issued, made payable or paid, or the location of any office or place of business maintained by IBRD. Also, under the Articles, IBRD is not under any obligation to withhold or pay any tax imposed by any member country on payments on the Notes. Accordingly, payments on the Notes will be made to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (the "Fiscal Agent"), the Global Agent and/or any other Paying Agent (as defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Notes") without deduction in respect of any such tax.

However, tax withholding requirements may apply to payments made by financial intermediaries acting in any capacity other than as IBRD's Fiscal Agent, Global Agent or Paying Agent.

Certificates representing Registered Notes that are registered in the name of a nominee of one or more clearing systems are referred to as "Global Certificates".

Specified Denominations ..... The Specified Denomination(s) with respect to the relevant Notes will be specified in the Final Terms.

Listing ..... As specified in the applicable Final Terms, a Series of Notes may be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market. Ratings ..... The Facility has been rated AAA by S&P Global Ratings ("S&P") and Aaa by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"). As defined by S&P, an "AAA" rating means that the capacity of IBRD to meet its financial commitment on its obligations is extremely strong. As defined by Moody's, an "Aaa" rating means that IBRD's ability to meet its financial obligations is judged to be of the highest quality, subject to the lowest level of credit risk.

A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

The Standard Provisions and the Global Agency Agreement are governed by the laws of the State of New York. The Deed of Covenant is governed by English law. The Fiscal Agency Agreement is governed by United States Federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with such Federal law, the laws of the State of New York.

Selling Restrictions ..... The sale and delivery of Notes, and the distribution of offering material relating to the Notes, are subject to certain restrictions in the United States and in certain other jurisdictions as set forth in this Prospectus and as may be set forth in the applicable Final Terms. In particular, the Notes are not required to be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933. Bearer Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons in connection with their primary distribution. See "Plan of Distribution".

Clearing Systems ..... It is expected that Notes will be accepted for clearance through one or more clearing systems as specified in the applicable Final Terms. On or before the issue date for each Tranche of Bearer Notes, if the relevant Global Note is a CGN, unless otherwise agreed among IBRD, the Global Agent and the relevant Dealer, IBRD will deposit (i) a Temporary Global Note representing Bearer Notes (except in the case of a targeted bearer issuance) or (ii) a Permanent Global Note or Definitive Bearer Notes in the case of a targeted bearer issuance with the Common Depositary, or any other clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms.

On or before the issue date for each Tranche of Registered Notes, if the relevant Global Certificate is not intended to be held under the NSS, unless otherwise agreed among IBRD, the Global Agent and the relevant Dealer, IBRD will deposit the relevant Global Certificate representing Registered Notes with a custodian or common depositary for Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg, DTC or any other clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms, which Global Certificates will be registered in the name of a nominee of the Common Depositary or of DTC or such other clearing system.

RISK FACTORS

The following section does not describe all the risks (including those relating to each prospective investor's particular circumstances) with respect to an investment in the Notes of a particular series, including the interest rate, exchange rate or other indices, relevant specified currencies, calculation formulae, and redemption, option and other rights associated with such Notes or when the investor's currency is other than the Specified Currency of issue or in which the payment of such Notes will be made. Prospective investors should refer to and carefully consider the applicable Final Terms for each particular issue of Notes, which may describe additional risks associated with such Notes. The risks in the following section and the applicable Final Terms are provided as general information only. IBRD disclaims any responsibility to advise prospective investors of such risks as they exist at the date of this Prospectus or Final Terms or as such risks may change from time to time. Prospective investors should consult their own financial and legal advisors about risks associated with an investment in an issue of Notes. Certain Notes are complex financial instruments and may not be suitable for all investors. Prospective investors should have the financial status and sufficient knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the information contained in this Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms and the merits and risks of investing in a particular issue of Notes in the context of their financial position and particular circumstances. Prospective investors should have the ability and expertise, and/or access to the appropriate analytical resources, to analyze such investment, to evaluate the sensitivity of such investment to changes in economic conditions, interest rate, exchange rate or other indices, the relevant calculation formulae, the redemption, option and other rights associated with such investment, and other factors which may have a bearing on the merits and risks of such investment, and the suitability of such investment in such investor's particular circumstances. In addition, prospective investors should have the financial capacity to bear the risks associated with any investment in such Notes and should review, among other things, the most recent audited and unaudited financial statements of IBRD incorporated by reference into this Prospectus when deciding whether or not to purchase any Notes. Words and expressions defined or used in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" shall have the same meaning in this section.

Notes are subject to exchange rate and exchange control risks if the investor's currency is different from the Specified Currency

Notes may be denominated or payable in one of a number of currencies. For investors whose financial activities are denominated principally in a currency (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency or where principal of, premium (if any) or interest on Notes is payable by reference to a Specified Currency index other than an index relating to the Investor's Currency, an investment in the Notes entails significant risks that are not associated with a similar investment in a security denominated in that Investor's Currency.

Such risks include, without limitation, the possibility of significant changes in the rate of exchange between the Specified Currency and the Investor's Currency and the possibility of the imposition or modification of exchange controls by the country of the Specified Currency or the Investor's Currency. Such risks generally depend on economic and political events over which IBRD has no control. Fluctuations in any particular exchange rate that have occurred in the past are not necessarily indicative, however, of fluctuations that may occur in the future. Depreciation of the Specified Currency against the Investor's Currency would result in a decrease in the Investor's Currency equivalent yield on a Note denominated in that Specified Currency, in the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable at maturity of such Note and generally in the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of such Note. An appreciation of the Specified Currency against the Investor's Currency would have the opposite effect. In addition, depending on the specified terms of a Note denominated in, or the payment of which is related to the value of, one or more currencies, changes in exchange rates relating to any of the currencies involved may result in a decrease in such Note's effective yield and, in certain circumstances, could result in a reduction of the amount to be repaid upon redemption to less than the nominal amount of the Notes.

Governments have imposed from time to time, and may in the future impose, exchange controls which could affect exchange rates as well as the availability of a Specified Currency at the time of payment of principal, premium (if any) or interest in respect of a Note. Even if there are no actual exchange controls, it is possible that the Specified Currency for payment on any particular Note may not be available when payments on such Note are due. In particular, Condition 7(i) of the Notes provides for IBRD to make payments in U.S. dollars in certain circumstances in respect of a Note with a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars.

The amount of principal, premium (if any) and/or interest may be subject to adjustment by reference to an index or formula, which may reduce the interest amount payable in respect of the relevant interest period and/or reduce the amount to be repaid upon redemption to less than the nominal amount of such Notes

IBRD may issue Notes on terms that the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date and/or premium (if any) and/or the amount to be repaid upon redemption of the Notes will be calculated by reference to an index or formula as specified in the applicable Final Terms (each an “Applicable Index”) or contain features such as embedded options, caps or floors (“Structured Notes”). An investment in Structured Notes issued by IBRD entails risks (which may be significant) not associated with an investment in a conventional debt security issued by IBRD. Such risks may include, without limitation, the possibility that an Applicable Index may be subject to significant changes, that changes in an Applicable Index may not correlate with changes in interest rates or exchange rates generally or with changes in other indices, that two or more indices or formulae that may be expected to move in tandem or in any other relation to each other may unexpectedly converge or diverge or otherwise not move as expected, that the resulting interest rate may be less than that payable on a conventional debt security issued by IBRD at the same time or that no interest may be payable, that the repayment of principal may occur at times other than that expected by the investor, that the repayment of principal may be less than the nominal amount of the Notes (whether payable at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise), that the amount of premium based on appreciation rights payable may be substantially less than anticipated or that no such premium is payable, that Structured Notes may have more volatile performance results, and that the effects of currency devaluations and the imposition or modification of exchange controls by authorities with jurisdiction over a relevant currency (as discussed under “Risk Factors — Notes are subject to exchange rate and exchange control risks if the investor’s currency is different from the Specified Currency”) may be greater for Structured Notes than for conventional debt securities issued by IBRD. Such risks generally depend on a number of factors, including financial, economic and/or political events over which IBRD has no control. In addition, if an Applicable Index used to determine the amount of interest payable contains a spread or margin multiplier or if the Applicable Index used to determine the principal, premium (if any) or interest payable is subject to some other leverage factor, the effect of any change in such Applicable Index on the principal, premium (if any) or interest may be magnified. If an Applicable Index includes, or is subject to, a maximum (“cap”) or minimum (“floor”) interest rate limitation, the interest or principal payable on such Structured Note may be less than that payable on a conventional debt security issued by IBRD at the same time. Two issues of Structured Notes issued at the same time and with interest rates determined by reference to the same Applicable Index and otherwise comparable terms may have different interest rates and yields when issued and thereafter if the frequency of interest rate adjustments for each issue is different. Fluctuations in any particular interest rate, currency, currency unit, exchange rate or such other index that have occurred in the past are not necessarily indicative, however, of fluctuations that may occur in the future.

The timing of changes in the level of an Applicable Index may affect the actual yield to an investor, even if the average level is consistent with the investor’s expectation. In general, the earlier a change in the level of an Applicable Index occurs, the greater the effect on an investor’s yield. This is especially the case with Structured Notes providing for repayment of principal at one or more times prior to maturity. As a result, the effect on an investor’s yield of an Applicable Index level that is lower (or higher) during earlier periods than the rate anticipated by the investor may not be offset by a later equivalent increase (or reduction).

Any optional redemption feature of Notes is likely to affect the market value of such Notes. During any period in which such Notes are subject to redemption at the option of IBRD, their market value generally will not rise substantially above the redemption price because of the increased likelihood of redemption by IBRD, and this also may be true prior to any such period. IBRD may be expected to redeem such Notes in circumstances where IBRD's cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on such Notes. At such times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate which is as high as the interest rate on such Notes, and such reinvestment might only be at a significantly lower rate. Investors should consider the related reinvestment risk in light of other investments that may be available to such investors. A partial redemption of an issue of Notes also may adversely affect liquidity for the remaining outstanding Notes of such issue.

Prospective investors should consult their own financial and legal advisors about risks associated with an investment in an issue of Structured Notes. Structured Notes may be complex financial instruments and may not be suitable for all investors.

There may be no secondary market for Notes and, even if there is, the value of Notes will be subject to changes in market conditions

Notes may not have an established trading market when issued. There can be no assurance of a secondary market for any Notes or the liquidity of such market if one develops. Consequently, investors may not be able to sell their Notes readily or at prices that will enable them to realize a yield comparable to that of similar instruments, if any, with a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Structured Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or other market risks, that are designed for specific investment objectives, or strategies or that have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors, which may have a more limited secondary market and less or no liquidity and may experience more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severe adverse effect on the market value of Structured Notes.

Depending upon the type of Notes, market conditions and other factors, investors seeking to sell relatively small or relatively large amounts of Notes may not be able to do so at prices comparable to those that may be available to other investors.

The secondary market for an issue of Notes also will be affected by a number of other factors independent of the creditworthiness of IBRD and the value of any Applicable Index. These factors may include the complexity and volatility of such Applicable Index, the method of calculating the principal, premium (if any) or any interest to be paid in respect of such Notes, the time remaining to the maturity of such Notes, the outstanding amount of such Notes, any amortization or optional redemption features of such Notes, the amount of other securities linked to any Applicable Index, the amount of such Notes being sold in the secondary market from time to time, any legal restrictions limiting demand for such Notes, the availability of comparable securities, and the level, direction and volatility of market interest rates generally. Such factors will also affect the market value of the Notes.

No investor should purchase Notes unless such investor understands and is able to bear the risk that certain Notes may not be readily saleable, that the value of Notes will fluctuate over time, and that such fluctuations may be significant and could result in significant losses to such investor. This is particularly the case for investors whose circumstances may not permit them to hold the Notes until maturity.

In addition to the foregoing considerations, the following additional considerations, among others, relate to the Notes indicated below.

The market value of Notes bearing interest at a Floating Rate with caps or floors generally is more volatile than that of Notes bearing interest at a Floating Rate linked to the same Applicable Index without caps or floors, especially when the Applicable Index approaches the cap or floor. Similarly, the prices of Notes bearing interest at a Floating Rate with an Applicable Index containing a rate multiplier or other leverage factor greater than one generally are more volatile than those for Notes bearing interest at a Floating Rate linked to the same Applicable Index without such a rate multiplier or other leverage factor.

In the case of Notes bearing interest at a Floating Rate with an interest rate equal to a fixed rate less a rate based upon the Applicable Index, the interest rate will vary in the opposite direction of changes in such Applicable Index. The prices of such Notes typically are more volatile than those of conventional floating rate debt securities issued by IBRD based on the same Applicable Index (and with otherwise comparable terms). This increased volatility is due to the fact that an increase in the Applicable Index not only decreases the interest rate (and consequently the value) of such Note, but also reflects an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the value of such Note.

In the case of Notes that bear interest at a rate that IBRD may elect to convert from a Fixed Rate to a Floating Rate, or from a Floating Rate to a Fixed Rate, the ability of IBRD to convert the interest rate will affect the secondary market and the value of such Notes since IBRD may be expected to elect such conversion when it would be expected to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing to IBRD. If IBRD elects to convert from a Fixed Rate to a Floating Rate, the Margin may be lower (if being added to the Applicable Index) or higher (if being subtracted from the Applicable Index) than prevailing spreads or margins at the time of such conversion on other floating rate securities issued by IBRD with comparable maturities using the same Applicable Index, and the interest rate at any time may be lower than that payable on other securities of IBRD. Conversely, if IBRD elects to convert from a Floating Rate to a Fixed Rate, the Fixed Rate may be lower than prevailing interest rates on other securities of IBRD.

The prices at which zero coupon instruments, such as Zero Coupon Notes, interest components and, in certain cases, principal components, trade in the secondary market tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do such prices for conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities. This also is generally true in the case of other instruments issued at a substantial discount or premium from the nominal amount payable on such instruments, such as Notes issued at a substantial discount to their nominal amount or Notes issued with significantly above-market interest rates. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such instruments, the greater their price volatility as compared to that for conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors seeking exposure to assets with certain sustainability characteristics

While the net proceeds from the sale of Notes will be used by IBRD to finance Eligible Sustainable Development Projects, the Notes may not satisfy an investor's requirements where such investor seeks to invest in assets with certain sustainability characteristics. In particular, no assurance is given by IBRD that the use of such proceeds for any Eligible Sustainable Development Projects will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates.

No assurance is or can be given to investors that any projects or uses the subject of, or related to, any Eligible Sustainable Development Projects will meet any or all investor expectations regarding such "sustainable" or other equivalently-labelled performance objectives or that any adverse environmental, social and/or other impacts will not occur during the implementation by the borrower or any other implementing entity of any projects or uses the subject of, or related to, any Eligible Sustainable Development Projects.

Furthermore, it should be noted that there is currently no clearly-defined definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, a "sustainable" or an equivalently-labelled project or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular project to be defined as "sustainable" or such other equivalent label and if developed in the future, Notes may not comply with any such definition or label.

There can be no assurance that the net proceeds from the sale of any particular Tranche of Notes will be totally or partially disbursed for Eligible Sustainable Development Projects within the term of such Notes. Not all Eligible Sustainable Development Projects will be completed within the specified period or with the results or outcome as originally expected or anticipated by IBRD and some planned Eligible Sustainable Development Projects might not be completed at all.

Each potential purchaser of the Notes should determine for itself the relevance of the information contained in this Prospectus regarding the use of proceeds and its purchase of the Notes should be based upon such investigation as it deems necessary.

The regulation and reform of “benchmarks” may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”

Reference rates or indices (including interest rate benchmarks) which are used to determine the amounts payable under financial instruments or the value of such financial instruments (“Benchmarks”) are the subject of national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause a Benchmark to perform differently than it has done in the past, to be discontinued or to disappear, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, any Notes linked to, referencing, or otherwise dependent (in whole or in part) upon, a Benchmark.

Any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of Benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a Benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have (without limitation) the following effects on certain Benchmarks: (i) discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to a Benchmark; (ii) triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in a Benchmark; (iii) reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility or level of the relevant Benchmark; and/or (iv) leading to the disappearance of a Benchmark. Any of the above changes, or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to, referencing, or otherwise dependent (in whole or in part) upon, a Benchmark.

Investors should be aware that, if a Benchmark were discontinued or otherwise unavailable, the rate of interest on Notes which are linked to or which reference such Benchmark will be determined for the relevant period by the fallback provisions applicable to such Notes as set forth in the applicable Final Terms. Such fallback provisions can be applied without consent of the Noteholders and could have unexpected commercial consequences, and there can be no assurance that, due to the particular circumstances of each Noteholder, any such determination will be favorable to each Noteholder. Moreover, any of the above matters or any other significant change to the setting or existence of any relevant Benchmark could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, such Notes.

The emergence of alternatives to a Benchmark may also cause such Benchmark to perform differently than in the past, or there could be other consequences which cannot be predicted, each of which could have a material adverse effect on the value of, and return on, any Notes linked to or referencing such Benchmark. The development of alternatives to a Benchmark may result in Notes linked to or referencing such Benchmark performing differently than would otherwise have been the case if the alternatives to such Benchmark had not developed.

Investors should consult their own independent advisors and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the Benchmarks reforms in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a Benchmark.

Investment in Notes may not be legal for all investors

Investors should consult their own legal advisors in determining whether and to what extent Notes constitute legal investments for such investors and whether and to what extent Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowings. In addition, financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or regulators in determining the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

Investors whose investment activities are subject to investment laws and regulations or to review or regulation by certain authorities may be subject to restrictions on investments in certain types of debt securities, which may include Notes. Investors should review and consider such restrictions prior to investing in Notes.

Investors may need to purchase more Notes to ensure that they hold an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations

In relation to any issue of Bearer Notes which have a denomination consisting of the minimum Specified Denomination plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of the minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a nominal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a Definitive Bearer Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a nominal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

Credit ratings assigned to IBRD and the Facility do not reflect all risks affecting the Notes

The credit ratings assigned to IBRD and the Facility do not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes issued under the Facility. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be raised or withdrawn by the credit rating agency at any time.

The Notes will be obligations of IBRD. No other company or entity will be responsible for payments under the Notes

The Notes are to be issued by IBRD. The Notes will not be guaranteed by any other company or entity. No other entity or company will be responsible for payments under the Notes or liable to holders of the Notes in the event IBRD defaults under the Notes.

Any decline in IBRD's credit ratings may affect the value of the Notes

IBRD's credit ratings are an assessment of its ability to pay its obligations, including those on the offered Notes. Consequently, actual or anticipated declines in IBRD's credit ratings may affect the value of the Notes.

Changes in creditworthiness of IBRD's borrowers may affect IBRD's financial condition

IBRD makes loans directly to, or guaranteed by, IBRD's member countries. Changes in the macroeconomic environment and financial markets in these member countries may affect those countries' creditworthiness and repayments made to IBRD. If these loans are not repaid for any reason, IBRD's ability to repay the Notes may be adversely affected.

Change of law

The Conditions of the Notes are based on English law or laws of the State of New York in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Notes. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or laws of the State of New York or administrative practice after the date of issue of the relevant Notes.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions (the “Conditions” and each a “Condition”) that, subject to completion and amendment and as supplemented or varied in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Final Terms, will apply to the Notes referred to in such Final Terms. If Notes are to be printed in definitive form, these Conditions as so completed, amended, supplemented or varied (and subject to simplification by the deletion of non-applicable provisions) shall be endorsed on the Definitive Bearer Notes (as defined below) or on the Certificates (as defined below) relating to such Registered Notes (as defined below). All capitalized terms used and not defined in these Conditions will have the meaning ascribed to them in the Final Terms. References in these Conditions to “Notes” are to the Notes of one Series only, not to all Notes that may be issued under the Facility.

The Registered Notes (as defined in Condition 1(a)) and the Bearer Notes (as defined in Condition 1(a)) are issued in accordance with an amended and restated global agency agreement dated as of September 24, 2021 (as amended and supplemented from time to time, the “Global Agency Agreement”) and made between IBRD and Citibank, N.A., London Branch (the “Global Agent”, which expression shall include any successor global agent under the Global Agency Agreement) and, in the case of Registered Notes and Bearer Notes governed by English law, with the benefit of a Deed of Covenant (as amended or supplemented as at the Issue Date, the “Deed of Covenant”) dated as of September 24, 2021 executed by IBRD in relation to the Notes. The original executed Deed of Covenant is held by the Global Agent. The Global Agency Agreement includes forms of the Notes (other than Fed Bookentry Notes (as defined in Condition 1(a)) and the receipts (if any) for the payment of instalments of principal (the “Receipts”) relating to Notes in bearer form of which the principal is payable in instalments, the coupons (if any) attaching to interest-bearing Notes in bearer form (the “Coupons”) and the talons (if any) for further Coupons relating to such Notes (the “Talons”). Copies of the Global Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant, in electronic form, are available for inspection by beneficial owners of Notes upon reasonable request and during normal business hours from the Issuer, the Global Agent, the Registrar and the Paying Agents (each as defined below) (subject to provision of proof of holding and identity in a form satisfactory to the Issuer, the Global Agent, the Registrar and any Paying Agent, as the case may be). The Global Agency Agreement provides for the appointment of other agents, including a calculation agent (the “Calculation Agent”, which expression shall mean in respect of any issue of Notes any other calculation agent appointed in respect of such issue pursuant to the Global Agency Agreement or another agreement and designated as such on such Notes), an exchange agent (the “Exchange Agent”), one or more paying agents (together with the Global Agent, the “Paying Agents”), one or more transfer agents (together, the “Transfer Agents”) and a registrar (the “Registrar”). The Global Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Exchange Agent, the Registrar, the Transfer Agents, the Paying Agents and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York are together referred to herein as the “Agents”. The Noteholders (as defined below) and the holders of the Coupons (if any) and, where applicable, Talons (the “Couponholders”) and the holders of the Receipts are bound by and deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all of the provisions of the Global Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant and the Final Terms, which are applicable to them.

The Fed Bookentry Notes are issued in accordance with a uniform fiscal agency agreement dated as of July 20, 2006 (as amended and supplemented from time to time, the “Fiscal Agency Agreement”) and made between IBRD and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, as fiscal and paying agent (the “Fiscal Agent”). IBRD will make available copies of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, in electronic form, for inspection upon reasonable request and during normal business hours.

In these Conditions, “Noteholder” means the bearer of any Bearer Note and the Receipts relating to it or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for Fed Bookentry Notes or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered, and “holder” (in relation to a Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon) means the bearer of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon or, in relation to a Fed Bookentry Note, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or, in relation to a Registered Note, the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered, as the case may be.

For Notes which are not Definitive Bearer Notes, Fed Bookentry Notes or individually certificated Registered Notes represented by Certificates (each as defined in Condition 1(a)), references in these Conditions to terms specified on a Note or specified hereon shall be deemed to include references to terms specified in the applicable final terms issued in respect of a particular issue of Notes of which such Note forms a part (each a “Final Terms”) and which will be attached to such Note. For Notes which are Fed Bookentry Notes, references in these Conditions to terms specified on a Fed Bookentry Note or specified hereon shall be deemed to be references to the Final Terms applicable to such Fed Bookentry Note.

These Conditions may be amended, modified or varied in relation to any Series of Notes by the terms of the applicable Final Terms in relation to such Series. All capitalized terms that are not defined in these Conditions will have the meanings given to them in the applicable Final Terms.

1. Form, Denomination, Title and Specified Currency

(a) Form: Each issue of Notes of which this Note forms a part (the “Notes”) is issued as:

- (i) registered notes (“Registered Notes”) in the nominal amount of a Specified Denomination (as defined in Condition 1(b));
- (ii) uncertificated bookentry notes (“Fed Bookentry Notes”) in the nominal amount of a Specified Denomination; or
- (iii) bearer notes (“Bearer Notes”) in the nominal amount of a Specified Denomination, as specified on such Note, and these Conditions must be read accordingly. An issue of Notes may comprise Bearer Notes only, Registered Notes only, or Fed Bookentry Notes only.

Bearer Notes may be issued in global form (“Global Notes”) and/or definitive bearer form (“Definitive Bearer Notes”). Definitive Bearer Notes are serially numbered and are issued with Coupons (and, where appropriate, a Talon) attached, except in the case of Notes that do not bear interest, in which case references to interest (other than in relation to interest due after the Maturity Date), Coupons and Talons in these Conditions are not applicable. Any Definitive Bearer Note the nominal amount of which is redeemable in instalments is issued with one or more Receipts attached.

Registered Notes are represented by registered certificates (“Certificates”) in global and/or definitive form. Except as provided in Condition 2(c), one Certificate (including Certificates in global form) representing the aggregate nominal amount of Registered Notes held by the same holder will be issued to such holder, unless more than one Certificate is required for clearance and settlement purposes. Each Certificate will be numbered serially with an identifying number, which will be recorded in the register (the “Register”) kept by the Registrar.

(b) Denomination: “Specified Denomination” means the denomination or denominations specified on such Note.

(c) Title:

- (i) Title to Registered Notes shall pass by registration in the Register in accordance with the provisions of the Global Agency Agreement, or otherwise in accordance with applicable law.
- (ii) IBRD may deem and treat the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, in respect of all Fed Bookentry Notes, as the absolute owner thereof for all purposes whatsoever notwithstanding any notice to the contrary and all payments to or on the order of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and such registered owner, respectively, shall be valid and effective to discharge the liability of IBRD with respect to such Fed Bookentry Notes to the extent of the sum or sums so paid. As custodian of Fed Bookentry Notes, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York may deem and treat other Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and Holding Institutions (as defined below) located in the Second Federal Reserve District holding any Fed Bookentry Notes as the absolute owner thereof for all purposes whatsoever notwithstanding any notice to the contrary; and all payments to or on the order of such Federal Reserve Banks or Branches or Holding Institutions, as the case may be, shall be valid and effective to discharge the liability of IBRD with respect to such Fed Bookentry Notes to the extent of the sum or sums so paid. A “Holding Institution” is a depository or other designated institution that has an appropriate bookentry account with a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch.

- (iii) Title to Bearer Notes and the Receipts, Coupons and Talons shall pass by delivery.
- (iv) IBRD, the Global Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registrar and the Transfer Agents shall be entitled to deem and treat the registered holder of any Registered Note, or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York for Fed Bookentry Notes, or the bearer of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon, to be the absolute owner thereof for the purpose of making payments and for all other purposes, whether or not such Registered Note, Fed Bookentry Note, or Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest therein, any writing thereon (or on the Certificate representing it) or any notice of any previous theft or loss thereof (or of the related Certificate), and all payments on a Note or Coupon to such holder shall be deemed valid and effectual to discharge the liability of IBRD in respect of such Note or Coupon to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

(d) Specified Currency: The Specified Currency of any Note is as specified hereon. Subject as provided in Condition 7(i), all payments of principal and interest in respect of a Note shall be made in one or more Specified Currencies.

2. Transfers of Notes; No Exchange of Notes

(a) Transfer of Registered Notes:

- (i) Subject as provided in Condition 2(g), a Registered Note may be transferred in whole or in part in a Specified Denomination upon the surrender of the Certificate representing such Registered Note to be transferred, together with the form of transfer endorsed on such Certificate duly completed and executed, at the specified office of the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. In the case of a transfer of only part of such a Registered Note represented by one Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Certificate shall be issued to the transferor in respect of the balance not transferred. Each new Certificate to be issued upon transfer of such a Registered Note represented by such Certificate will be mailed to such address as may be specified in such form of transfer at the risk of the holder entitled to the new Certificate in accordance with the customary procedures of such Registrar or Transfer Agent.
- (ii) Registered Notes may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes or Fed Bookentry Notes.

(b) Transfer of Fed Bookentry Notes: Fed Bookentry Notes may be transferred between Holding Institutions, in Federal Reserve Districts where the respective Federal Reserve Banks have adopted appropriate procedures, in accordance with such procedures. Fed Bookentry Notes may not be exchanged for Registered Notes or Bearer Notes.

(c) Partial Exercise of Options or Partial Redemption in Respect of Registered Notes: In the case of a partial redemption (in respect of an exercise of IBRD’s or the Noteholder’s option or otherwise) of Registered Notes represented by a single Certificate, a new Certificate in respect of the balance of the interest in any such Registered Notes not redeemed shall be issued to the holder to reflect the exercise of such option. In the case of a partial exercise of an option (other than in respect of optional redemption), one or more new Certificates may be issued to the relevant holders reflecting such exercise. New Certificates shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Certificates to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent.

(d) No Exchange of Bearer Notes: Bearer Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes of another Specified Denomination. Bearer Notes may not be exchanged for Registered Notes.

(e) Delivery of New Certificates and Notes: New Certificate(s) or Note(s) issued upon any transfer, partial redemption or partial exercise of options in accordance with this Condition 2 shall be mailed by uninsured post at the risk of the holder entitled to the new Certificate or Note to such address as may be so specified in the request for transfer or in the redemption exercise notice delivered by the holder requesting such transfer or partial redemption, to the relevant Transfer Agent or Registrar, as the case may be (in respect of Registered Notes), or (if no address is so specified) as appears in the Register, or otherwise in accordance with the customary procedures of the relevant Transfer Agent, the Registrar or the Fiscal Agent, as the case may be, unless such holder requests otherwise and pays in advance to the Transfer Agent, or the Registrar, as the case may be, the costs of such other method of delivery and/or such insurance as it may specify.

(f) Transfer Free of Charge: Registrations of transfers of Certificates shall be effected without charge by or on behalf of IBRD, the Registrar or the Transfer Agents, provided that the transferor or holder shall bear the expense of the issue and delivery of any Registered Note and shall make any payment of any tax or other governmental charges that may be imposed in relation to it (or the giving of such indemnity as the Registrar or the relevant Transfer Agent may require).

(g) Closed Periods: No transfer of a Registered Note will be effected (i) on the day immediately preceding the due date for any payment of principal, redemption amount or premium (if any) in respect of that Note, (ii) during the notice period immediately preceding any date on which Notes may be called for redemption by IBRD at its option pursuant to Condition 6(d), (iii) after any such Note has been called for redemption or (iv) during the period starting on the day immediately preceding any Record Date and ending on (and including) any such Record Date (as defined in Condition 7(a)).

(h) Provisions Concerning Transfers: All transfers of Registered Notes and entries on the Register will be made in accordance with the relevant procedures of the Registrar. A copy of the relevant procedures will be made available during normal business hours by the Registrar to any holder of a Registered Note upon reasonable request.

3. Status

The Notes constitute direct, unsecured obligations of IBRD ranking pari passu, without any preference among themselves, with all its other obligations that are unsecured and unsubordinated.

THE NOTES ARE NOT OBLIGATIONS OF ANY GOVERNMENT.

4. Negative Pledge

As long as any of the Notes shall be outstanding and unpaid, but only up to the time all amounts of principal and interest have been paid to the Global Agent or the Fiscal Agent, as the case may be, IBRD will not cause or permit to be created on any of its property or assets any mortgage, pledge or other lien or charge as security for any bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness at any time issued, assumed or guaranteed by IBRD for money borrowed (other than any purchase money mortgage, or other pledge or lien, on property purchased by IBRD as security for all or any part of the purchase price thereof, any lien arising in the ordinary course of business, or any extension or renewal of any of the foregoing), unless the Notes shall be secured by such mortgage, pledge or other lien or charge equally and ratably with such other notes, bonds or evidences of indebtedness.

5. Interest

(a) Interest on Fixed Rate Notes: Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from and including the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(j). Such Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified hereon.

(b) Interest on Floating Rate Notes and Index Linked Interest Notes:

(i) Interest Payment Dates:

Each Floating Rate Note and Index Linked Interest Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from and including the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 5(j). Such Interest Payment Date(s) is/are either specified hereon as Specified Interest Payment Dates or, if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified hereon, Interest Payment Date shall mean each date which falls the number of months or other period specified hereon as the Interest Period after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

(ii) Rate of Interest for Floating Rate Notes:

(A) The Rate of Interest in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined in the manner specified hereon. If either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate/Reference Bank Determination are specified hereon, the provisions below relating to either ISDA Determination or Screen Rate/Reference Bank Determination shall apply.

(B) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (B), "ISDA Rate" for an Interest Accrual Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (x) the Floating Rate Option is as specified hereon;
- (y) the Designated Maturity is a period specified hereon; and
- (z) the relevant Reset Date is the first day of that Interest Accrual Period unless otherwise specified hereon.

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (B), "Floating Rate", "Calculation Agent", "Floating Rate Option", "Designated Maturity", "Reset Date" and "Swap Transaction" have the meanings given to those terms in the ISDA Definitions.

(C) Screen Rate/Reference Bank Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where Screen Rate/Reference Bank Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent at or about the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in respect of such Interest Accrual Period in accordance with the following:

- (x) if the Primary Source for Floating Rate is a Page, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be:
  - (I) the Relevant Rate (where such Relevant Rate on such Page is a composite quotation or is customarily supplied by one entity); or
  - (II) the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates of the persons whose Relevant Rates appear on that Page, in each case appearing on such Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date;

- (y) if the Primary Source for the Floating Rate is Reference Banks or if sub-paragraph (x)(I) applies and no Relevant Rate appears on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date or if sub-paragraph (x)(II) applies and fewer than two Relevant Rates appear on the Page at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the Relevant Rates that each of the Reference Banks is quoting to leading banks in the Relevant Financial Centre at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent; and
- (z) if paragraph (y) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are so quoting Relevant Rates, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage), as communicated to the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered deposits in respect of a Representative Amount of the Specified Currency in the Relevant Financial Centre by leading banks at or about the Relevant Time on the date on which such banks would customarily quote such rates for a period commencing on the Effective Date for a period equivalent to the Specified Duration; except that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be the Rate of Interest determined on the previous Interest Determination Date (after readjustment for any difference between any Margin, Rate Multiplier or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest applicable to the preceding Interest Accrual Period and to the relevant Interest Accrual Period).

(iii) Rate of Interest for Index Linked Interest Notes:

In the case of Index Linked Interest Notes where the Rate of Interest and/or the Interest Amount, as the case may be (whether on any Interest Payment Date, early redemption, maturity or otherwise), falls to be determined by reference to an index and/or a formula, the Rate of Interest and/or the Interest Amount, as the case may be, shall be determined in accordance with such index and/or formula in the manner specified hereon (the “Index” and/or the “Formula”, respectively).

(c) Zero Coupon Notes: Where a Note the Interest Basis of which is specified to be Zero Coupon is repayable prior to the Maturity Date and is not paid when due, the amount due and payable prior to the Maturity Date shall be the Early Redemption Amount of such Note. As from the Maturity Date, the Rate of Interest for any overdue principal of such a Note shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortization Yield (as described in Condition 6(c)(ii)).

(d) Dual Currency Notes: In the case of Dual Currency Notes, if the rate or amount of interest falls to be determined by reference to a Rate of Exchange or a method of calculating Rate of Exchange, the rate or amount of interest payable shall be determined in the manner specified hereon.

(e) Partly-paid Notes: In the case of Partly-paid Notes (other than Partly-paid Notes which are Zero Coupon Notes), interest will accrue as aforesaid on the paid-up nominal amount of such Notes and otherwise as specified hereon.

(f) Business Day Convention: If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day that is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is (A) the Floating Rate Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (x) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (y) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (B) the Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day, (C) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day, or (D) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

(g) Accrual of Interest: Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note on the due date for redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment is improperly withheld or refused, in which event interest shall continue to accrue (both before and after judgment) at the Rate of Interest in the manner provided in this Condition 5 to the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8).

(h) Margin, Maximum/Minimum Rates of Interest, Instalment Amounts and Redemption Amounts:

- (i) If any Margin is specified hereon (either (x) generally, or (y) in relation to one or more Interest Accrual Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Rates of Interest, in the case of (x), or the Rates of Interest for the specified Interest Accrual Periods, in the case of (y), calculated in accordance with (b) above by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting (if a negative number) the absolute value of such Margin subject always to the next paragraph.
- (ii) If any Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest, Instalment Amount or Redemption Amount is specified hereon, then any Rate of Interest, Instalment Amount or Redemption Amount shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be.

(i) Rounding: For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified), (x) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 of a percentage point being rounded up), (y) all figures shall be rounded to seven significant figures (provided that if the eighth significant figure is 5 or greater, the seventh significant figure shall be rounded up) and (z) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with half a unit being rounded up), except in the case of yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest yen. For these purposes “unit” means the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country(ies) of such currency.

(j) Calculations: The amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the product of the Rate of Interest, the Calculation Amount specified hereon, and the Day Count Fraction for such Interest Accrual Period, unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is applicable to such Interest Accrual Period, in which case the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Note for such Interest Accrual Period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). Where any Interest Period comprises two or more Interest Accrual Periods, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Interest Amounts payable in respect of each of those Interest Accrual Periods. In respect of any other period for which interest is required to be calculated, the provisions above shall apply except that the Day Count Fraction shall be for the period for which interest is required to be calculated. If the Calculation Amount is not specified hereon, the Calculation Amount shall equal the minimum Specified Denomination.

(k) Determination and Publication of Rates of Interest, Interest Amounts, Final Redemption Amounts, Early Redemption Amounts, Optional Redemption Amounts and Instalment Amounts: The Calculation Agent shall, as soon as practicable on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, obtain any quotation or make any determination or calculation, determine such rate and calculate the Interest Amounts for the relevant Interest Accrual Period, calculate the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount or Instalment Amount, obtain such quotation or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Rate of Interest and the Interest Amounts for each Interest Accrual Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date and, if required to be calculated, the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount or any Instalment Amount to be notified to the Global Agent, Fiscal Agent, IBRD, each of the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information and, if the Notes are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange or other relevant authority so require, such exchange (or listing agent as applicable) or other relevant authority as soon as possible after their determination but, unless otherwise specified hereon, in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange of a Rate of Interest and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 5(f), the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under Condition 9, the accrued interest and the Rate of Interest payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition but no publication of the Rate of Interest or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made. The determination of any rate or amount, the obtaining of each quotation and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent(s) shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

6. Redemption, Purchase and Options

(a) Final Redemption: Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided below, each Note shall be finally redeemed on the Maturity Date specified hereon at its Final Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided, is its nominal amount) or, in the case of a Note falling within paragraph (b) below, its final Instalment Amount.

(b) Redemption by Instalments: Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided in this Condition 6, each Note that provides for Instalment Dates and Instalment Amounts shall be partially redeemed on each Instalment Date at the related Instalment Amount specified hereon. The outstanding nominal amount of each such Note shall be reduced by the Instalment Amount (or, if such Instalment Amount is calculated by reference to a proportion of the nominal amount of such Note, such proportion) for all purposes with effect from the related Instalment Date, unless payment of the Instalment Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8) relating to such Instalment Amount.

(c) Early Redemption Amounts:

(i) Notes Other than Zero Coupon Notes:

The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Note (other than Notes described in (ii) below), upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 9, shall be the Final Redemption Amount unless otherwise specified hereon.

(ii) Zero Coupon Notes:

- (A) The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note, upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 9, shall be the Amortized Face Amount (calculated as provided below) of such Note unless the Early Redemption Amount is linked to an index and/or a formula, or unless otherwise specified hereon.
- (B) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (C) below, the Amortized Face Amount of any such Note shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date discounted at a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortization Yield (which, if none is specified hereon, shall be such rate as would produce an Amortized Face Amount equal to the Issue Price of the Notes if they were discounted back to their Issue Price on the Issue Date) compounded annually.
- (C) If the Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 9 is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortized Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (B) above, except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8). The calculation of the Amortized Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph shall continue to be made (both before and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, after judgment) until the Relevant Date, unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date together with any interest that may accrue in accordance with Condition 5(c).

Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction specified hereon.

(d) Redemption at the Option of IBRD: If Call Option is specified hereon, IBRD may, on giving not less than 10 nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) redeem all or, if so provided, some, of the Notes on any Optional Redemption Date. Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their Optional Redemption Amount specified hereon (which may be the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 6(c) above)), together with interest accrued to the Optional Redemption Date. Any such redemption or exercise must relate to Notes of a nominal amount at least equal to the Minimum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon and no greater than the Maximum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon.

All Notes in respect of which any such notice is given shall be redeemed on the Optional Redemption Date specified in such notice in accordance with this Condition.

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes other than Fed Bookentry Notes, the notice to Noteholders shall also contain the certificate numbers of the Definitive Bearer Notes, or in the case of Registered Notes shall specify the nominal amount of Registered Notes drawn and the holder(s) of such Registered Notes, to be redeemed, which shall have been drawn in such place and in such manner as may be fair and reasonable in the circumstances, taking account of prevailing market practices, subject to compliance with any applicable laws and stock exchange or other relevant authority requirements. So long as the Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange and the rules of that stock exchange so require, IBRD shall, once in each year in which there has been a partial redemption of the Notes, cause to be published either on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) or in a newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg or as specified by such other stock exchange a notice specifying the aggregate nominal amount of Notes outstanding and a list of the Notes drawn for redemption but not surrendered. In the case of a partial redemption of Fed Bookentry Notes, each such Note will be redeemed in the amount of its pro rata share of the aggregate amount of such partial redemption and thereafter shall be treated as being outstanding as to its unredeemed balance.

(e) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders: If Put Option is specified hereon, IBRD shall, at the option of the holder of any such Note, upon the holder of such Note giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to IBRD (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date(s) at its Optional Redemption Amount specified hereon (which may be the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 6(c) above)), together with interest accrued to but excluding the date fixed for redemption.

In the case of a Note which is not a Fed Bookentry Note, to exercise such option the holder must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Note (together with (in the case of Definitive Bearer Notes) all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly completed option exercise notice ("Exercise Notice") in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable) within the notice period. In the case of a Fed Bookentry Note, if the holder wishes to exercise such option, the holder must give notice thereof to IBRD through the relevant Holding Institution. No Note or Certificate so deposited and option exercised may be withdrawn (except as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Global Agency Agreement) without the prior consent of IBRD.

(f) Partly-paid Notes: Partly-paid Notes will be redeemed, whether at maturity, early redemption or otherwise, in accordance with the provisions of this Condition and the provisions specified hereon.

(g) Purchases: IBRD may at any time purchase or otherwise acquire Notes in the open market or otherwise. Notes purchased or otherwise acquired by IBRD may be held or resold or, at the discretion of IBRD, surrendered to the Global Agent for cancellation (together with (in the case of Definitive Bearer Notes) any unmatured Coupons, unexchanged Talons or Receipts attached thereto or purchased therewith) or (in the case of Fed Bookentry Notes) cancelled. If purchases are made by tender, tenders must be made available to all Noteholders of the same Series alike.

(h) Cancellation: All Notes purchased by or on behalf of IBRD may be cancelled, in the case of Registered Notes, by surrendering the Certificate representing such Notes to the Registrar, and in the case of Bearer Notes, by surrendering each such Note (together with (in the case of Definitive Bearer Notes) all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and all unexchanged Talons) to the Global Agent and, in each case, if so surrendered, shall, together with all Notes redeemed by IBRD, be cancelled forthwith (together with all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons attached thereto or surrendered therewith) and, in the case of Fed Bookentry Notes, by cancellation by IBRD. Any Notes so surrendered for cancellation or cancelled may not be reissued or resold and the obligations of IBRD in respect of any such Notes shall be discharged.

7. Payments

(a) Registered Notes:

- (i) Payments of principal (which for the purposes of this Condition 7(a) shall include final Instalment Amounts but not other Instalment Amounts) in respect of Registered Notes shall be made against surrender of the relevant Certificates at the specified office of any of the Transfer Agents or of the Registrar and in the same manner provided in paragraph (ii) below.
- (ii) Subject to Condition 7(a)(iii), interest (which for the purpose of this Condition 7(a) shall include all Instalment Amounts other than final Instalment Amounts) on Registered Notes shall be paid to the person shown on the Register at the close of business on the day before the due date for payment thereof (unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms) (the "Record Date"). Payments of interest on each Registered Note shall be made in the relevant currency by check drawn on a Financial Institution and mailed to the holder (or to the first-named of joint holders) of such Note at its address appearing in the Register. Upon application by the holder to the specified office of the Registrar or any Transfer Agent before the Record Date, such payment of interest may be made by transfer to an account in the relevant currency maintained by the payee with a Financial Institution. "Financial Institution" means a bank in the principal financial centre for such currency or, in the case of euro, in a city in which banks have access to the TARGET System.

- (iii) Registered Notes held through The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") will be paid as follows:
- (A) if the Specified Currenc(y/ies) for payment is(are) U.S. dollars, payments of principal, premium (if any), and/or interest will be made in accordance with Conditions 7(a)(i) and (ii); or
  - (B) if the Specified Currenc(y/ies) for payment is(are) a currency other than U.S. dollars, payments of principal and interest will be made by the Global Agent in the relevant currency by wire transfer of same day funds to the designated account in such currency of DTC participants entitled to receive the relevant payment who have made an irrevocable election prior to 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the fifteenth calendar day prior to the due date for payment thereof (the "DTC Record Date"). In the case of DTC participants entitled to receive the relevant payments but who have not elected to receive payments in such currency, the Global Agent shall pay such amounts to the Exchange Agent and the Exchange Agent, after converting amounts in such currency into U.S. dollars as necessary to make payments in U.S. dollars, will deliver U.S. dollar amounts in same day funds to DTC for payment through its settlement system to such DTC participants. The Global Agency Agreement sets out the manner in which such conversions or such elections are to be made.
- (iv) Noteholders will not be entitled to any interest or other payment for any postponed payment resulting from the application of Condition 7(i), if the Noteholder is late in surrendering its Certificate (if required to do so), or if its Certificate cannot be surrendered to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent that is open for business on the day of such surrender or if a check mailed in accordance with this Condition 7(a) arrives after the due date for payment.

(b) Fed Bookentry Notes:

- (i) Payments of principal and interest on the Notes will be payable at a designated office or agency of IBRD in New York City in U.S. dollars to the holder on the Fed Bookentry Record Date (as defined below), provided that, at IBRD's option, principal and interest in respect of Fed Bookentry Notes may be paid by credit to a Federal Reserve Bank or branch account of Holding Institutions holding such Fed Bookentry Notes. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York, 33 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10045, will act as the Fiscal Agent for the Notes pursuant to the Fiscal Agency Agreement. The "Fed Bookentry Record Date" for the purpose of payment of interest or principal on the Fed Bookentry Notes shall be as of the close of business at the Fiscal Agent on the day preceding the due date for payment thereof. If any such day is not a day on which the Fiscal Agent is open for business, the Fed Bookentry Record Date shall be the next preceding day on which the Fiscal Agent is open for business.
- (ii) Noteholders will not be entitled to any interest or other payment for any delay after the due date if any date for payment is not a day on which the Fiscal Agent is open for business, and the Noteholder will not be entitled to payment until the next following day on which the Fiscal Agent is open for business.

(c) Bearer Notes:

- (i) Payments of principal and interest in respect of Definitive Bearer Notes shall, subject as mentioned below, be made against presentation and surrender of the relevant Receipts (in the case of payments of Instalment Amounts other than on the due date for redemption and provided that the Receipt is presented for payment together with its relative Note), Notes (in the case of all other payments of principal and, in the case of interest, as specified in Condition 7(f)(vi)) or Coupons (in the case of interest, except as specified in Condition 7(f)(vi)), as the case may be, at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States by a check payable in the relevant currency drawn on, or, at the option of the holder, by transfer to an account denominated in such currency with, a Financial Institution.

- (ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Specified Currency of any Bearer Notes or payments thereunder are otherwise to be made in U.S. dollars, payments in respect thereof may be made at the specified office of any Paying Agent in New York City in the same manner as aforesaid if (A) IBRD shall have appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment of the amounts on the Notes in the manner provided above when due, (B) payment in full of such amounts at all such offices is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on payment or receipt of such amounts, and (C) such payment is then permitted by United States law.
- (iii) Payments of principal, premium (if any) and interest in respect of Bearer Notes represented by a Global Note in CGN (as defined in the Global Agency Agreement) form will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to Definitive Bearer Notes and otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant Global Note against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such Global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent. A record of which payment made against presentation or surrender of such Global Note in CGN form, distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made on such Global Note by such Paying Agent and such record shall be prima facie evidence that the payment in question has been made. If the Global Note is in NGN (as defined in the Global Agency Agreement) form, IBRD shall procure that details of each such payment shall be entered pro rata in the records of the relevant clearing system and in the case of payments of principal, the nominal amount of the Notes recorded in the records of the relevant clearing system and represented by the Global Note will be reduced accordingly. Payments under the Global Note in NGN form will be made to its holder. Each payment so made will discharge IBRD's obligations in respect thereof. Any failure to make the entries in the records of the relevant clearing system shall not affect such discharge.

(d) Payments Subject to Law: All payments are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives. No commission or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders or Couponholders in respect of such payments.

(e) Appointment of Agents: The Fiscal Agent, the Global Agent, the Paying Agent, the Registrar, the Exchange Agent, the Transfer Agent and the Calculation Agent initially appointed by IBRD and their respective specified offices are listed below. The Fiscal Agent, the Global Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Exchange Agent, the Transfer Agents and the Calculation Agent(s) act solely as agents of IBRD and do not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any Noteholder or Couponholder. IBRD reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of the Fiscal Agent, the Global Agent, any other Paying Agent, the Registrar, the Exchange Agent, any Transfer Agent, any Calculation Agent or any other agent and to appoint a substitute Fiscal Agent or Global Agent and/or additional or other Paying Agents, Registrars, Exchange Agents, Transfer Agents, Calculation Agents or any other agent, provided that IBRD shall at all times maintain (i) a Fiscal Agent with respect to Fed Bookentry Notes, (ii) a Global Agent with respect to Bearer Notes and Registered Notes, (iii) for Registered Notes, a Registrar and one or more Transfer Agents, at least one of which has its specified office in a major European city, (iv) for Bearer Notes, at least one Paying Agent in a major European city, and (v) one or more Calculation Agent(s) if specified hereon. Any such variation, termination or change shall only take effect (other than in the case of insolvency, when it shall be of immediate effect) after not less than 30 days' prior notice thereof shall have been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 12 and provided further that neither the resignation nor removal of any Agent shall take effect, except in the case of insolvency as aforesaid, until a new Agent replacing such Agent has been appointed in accordance with the terms of the Global Agency Agreement.

In addition, IBRD shall appoint a Paying Agent in New York City in respect of any Bearer Notes the Specified Currency of which is U.S. dollars or payments in respect of which are otherwise to be made in U.S. dollars in the circumstances described in Condition 7(c)(ii).

Notice of any such change or any change of any specified office shall promptly be given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 12.

(f) Unmatured Coupons and Receipts and Unexchanged Talons:

- (i) Upon the due date for redemption of Bearer Notes which comprise Fixed Rate Notes (other than Dual Currency Notes or Index Linked Interest Notes), they should be surrendered for payment together with all unexpired Coupons (if any) relating thereto, failing which an amount equal to the face value of each missing unexpired Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, that proportion of the amount of such missing unexpired Coupon that the sum of principal so paid bears to the total principal due) shall be deducted from the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount or Optional Redemption Amount, as the case may be, due for payment. Any amount so deducted shall be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of such missing Coupon within a period of 10 years from the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8) for the payment of such principal (whether or not such Coupon has become void pursuant to Condition 8).
- (ii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note comprising a Floating Rate Note, Dual Currency Note or Index Linked Interest Note, any unexpired Coupon relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of such Coupon.
- (iii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, any unexpired Talon relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no Coupon shall be delivered in respect of such Talon.
- (iv) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note that is redeemable in instalments, any Receipt relating to such Note having an Instalment Date falling on or after such due date (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of such Receipt.
- (v) Where any Bearer Note that provides that the relative unexpired Coupons are to become void upon the due date for redemption of those Notes is presented for redemption without all unexpired Coupons, and where any Bearer Note is presented for redemption without any unexpired Talon relating to it, redemption shall be made only against the provision of such indemnity as IBRD may require.
- (vi) If the due date for redemption of any Note is not a due date for payment of interest, interest accrued from the preceding due date for payment of interest or the Interest Commencement Date, as the case may be, shall only be payable against presentation (and surrender if appropriate) of the relevant Bearer Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be. Interest accrued on a Note that only bears interest after its Maturity Date shall be payable on redemption of such Note against presentation of the relevant Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be.

(g) Talons: On or after the Interest Payment Date for the final Coupon forming part of a Coupon sheet issued in respect of any Bearer Note, the Talon forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Global Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet (and if necessary another Talon for a further Coupon sheet) (but excluding any Coupons that may have become void pursuant to Condition 8).

(h) Non-Business Days: If any date for payment in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon is not a business day, the holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following business day nor to any interest or other sum in respect of such postponed payment. Solely if so specified hereon, in the event that the next following business day falls into the next calendar month, such date for payment shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding business day. For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of interest or other payment will not be adjusted as a result of a change in such date for payment. In this paragraph, “business day” means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the relevant place of presentation, in such jurisdictions as shall be specified as “Financial Centres” hereon and:

- (i) (in the case of a payment in a currency other than euro) where payment is to be made by transfer to an account maintained with a bank in the relevant currency, on which foreign exchange transactions may be carried on in the relevant currency in the principal financial centre of the country of such currency; or
- (ii) (in the case of a payment in euro) which is a TARGET Business Day.

(i) Currency of Payment: If any payment in respect of this Note is payable in a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars that is no longer used by the government of the country issuing such currency for the payment of public and private debts or used for settlement of transactions by public institutions in such country or within the international banking community, or in a Specified Currency that is not expected to be available, when any payment on this Note is due as a result of circumstances beyond the control of IBRD, IBRD shall be entitled to satisfy its obligations in respect of such payment by making such payment in U.S. dollars on the basis a U.S. dollar/Specified Currency exchange rate determined by the Calculation Agent on the second Business Day prior to such payment, or if the Calculation Agent determines that no such exchange rate is available on such second Business Day, on the basis of the exchange rate most recently available prior to such second Business Day. In making such determinations, the Calculation Agent will act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner having taken into account all available information that it deems relevant. Any payment made under such circumstances in such other currency or U.S. dollars will constitute valid payment, and will not constitute a default in respect of this Note.

8. Prescription

Other than for Notes, Receipts and Coupons governed by the laws of the State of New York, claims against IBRD for payment in respect of the Notes, Receipts and Coupons (which for this purpose shall not include Talons) shall be prescribed and become void unless made within ten years (in the case of principal) or five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect thereof. As used in these Conditions, “Relevant Date” in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon means the date on which payment in respect of it first becomes due or (if any amount of the money payable is improperly withheld or refused) the date on which payment in full of the amount outstanding is made or (if earlier) the date seven days after that on which notice is duly given to the Noteholders that, upon further presentation of the Note (or surrender of the relative Certificate), Receipt or Coupon being made in accordance with the Conditions, such payment will be made, provided that payment is in fact made upon such presentation or surrender. References in these Conditions to (i) “principal” shall be deemed to include any premium payable in respect of the Notes, all Instalment Amounts, Final Redemption Amounts, Early Redemption Amounts, Optional Redemption Amounts, Amortized Face Amounts and all other amounts in the nature of principal payable pursuant to Condition 6 or any amendment or supplement to it and (ii) “interest” shall be deemed to include all Interest Amounts and all other amounts payable pursuant to Condition 5 or any amendment or supplement to it.

9. Default

If IBRD shall default in the payment of the principal of, or interest on, or in the performance of any covenant in respect of a purchase fund or sinking fund in, any bonds, notes (including the Notes), or similar obligations which have been issued, assumed or guaranteed by IBRD, and such default shall continue for a period of 90 days, then at any time thereafter and during the continuance of such default any Noteholder may deliver or cause to be delivered to IBRD at its principal office in Washington, District of Columbia, United States of America, written notice that such Noteholder elects to declare all Notes held by it (the serial or other identifying numbers and denominations of which shall be set forth in such notice) to be due and payable, and on the thirtieth day after such notice shall be so delivered to IBRD the Notes shall become due and payable at their Early Redemption Amount specified on such Notes plus accrued interest calculated in accordance with Condition 5, unless prior to that time all such defaults previously existing shall have been cured.

10. Replacement of Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons and Talons

If a Note, Certificate, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced, subject to applicable laws and regulations, and the rules and regulations of relevant stock exchanges and clearing systems, at the specified office of the Global Agent in London (in the case of Bearer Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons), and of the Registrar in London (in the case of Certificates), or such other Paying Agent or Transfer Agent, as the case may be, as may from time to time be designated by IBRD for the purpose and notice of whose designation is given to Noteholders, in each case on payment by the claimant of the fees and costs incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence, security and indemnity (which may provide, inter alia, that if the allegedly lost, stolen or destroyed Note, Certificate, Receipt, Coupon or Talon is subsequently presented for payment or, as the case may be, for exchange for further Coupons, there shall be paid to IBRD on demand the amount payable by IBRD in respect of such Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons or further Coupons) and otherwise as IBRD may require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Certificates, Receipts, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

11. Further Issues and Amendments

(a) Further Issues: IBRD may from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders create and issue further notes either having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date and the first payment of interest thereon) and so that such further issue shall be consolidated and form a single series with the outstanding securities of any series (including the Notes) or upon such terms as IBRD may determine at the time of their issue. References in these Conditions to the Notes include (unless the context requires otherwise) any other securities issued pursuant to this Condition and forming a further Tranche of Notes of the same Series as the Notes.

(b) Amendments: These Conditions and the Notes may be amended or supplemented by IBRD and the Global Agent, without the consent of the holder of any Note, for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, manifest error or of correcting or supplementing any provision contained herein or therein which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provision contained herein or therein; provided, however, that IBRD shall only permit any such modification if to do so could not reasonably be expected to be materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders in the sole opinion of IBRD.

12. Notices

(a) Notices to Holders of Registered Notes: Notices to holders of Registered Notes will be mailed to them at their respective addresses in the Register. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been validly given to the holders of such Registered Notes on the fourth weekday (being a day other than a Saturday or a Sunday) after the date of such mailing.

(b) Notices to Holders of Bearer Notes: Unless otherwise specified hereon, notices to the holders of Bearer Notes shall be valid if published in a daily newspaper having general circulation in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) or Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or if published on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website (www.bourse.lu). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been validly given on the date of such publication. Notices will, if published more than once or on different dates, be deemed to have been given on the date of the first publication in such source as provided above. Holders of Coupons, Receipts and Talons shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to the holders of Bearer Notes in accordance with this Condition 12.

(c) Delivery to Clearing System: Until such time as any definitive Notes are issued, there may, so long as all the Notes or certificate(s) representing the Notes is or are held in its or their entirety on behalf of DTC or Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other applicable clearing system, be substituted, in relation only to the relevant Series of Notes, for such notification as set out in (a) and (b) above, the delivery of the relevant notice to DTC or to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or to any other applicable clearing system for communication by them to the holders of the Notes. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders on the day (or such other period thereafter as may be specified hereon) on which such notice was given to DTC or to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or to any other applicable clearing system.

(d) Listing Requirements: In addition to (a), (b) and (c) above, if and for so long as any Notes are listed on a stock exchange, all notices to Noteholders will be published in accordance with the rules of such stock exchange. If such Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, such notices shall be published either on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

(e) Notices via Agents: Except as set out in Condition 9, notices to be given by any holder of the Notes (other than Fed Bookentry Notes) shall be in writing and given by lodging the same, together with the relative Note or Certificate, with the Global Agent or the Fiscal Agent, as the case may be. In the case of Bearer Notes, so long as any of such Notes are represented by a Global Note, such notice may be given by any holder of a Note to the Global Agent via Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Global Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

13. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

In respect of any Notes, Receipts and Coupons governed by English law, unless specified otherwise in the Notes, no person shall have any right to enforce any term or condition of the Notes under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

14. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Service of Process

(a) Governing Law: The Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York or English law, or such other governing law, as specified hereon. The governing law of Partly-paid Notes shall not be the laws of the State of New York.

(b) Jurisdiction: With respect to any legal action or proceedings (“Proceedings”) in the courts of England arising out of or in connection with any Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons, IBRD irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.

(c) Service of Process: IBRD irrevocably appoints its special representative at Millbank Tower, 12th Floor, 21-24 Millbank, London SW1P 4QP, England as its agent in England to receive, for it and on its behalf, service of process in any Proceedings in England. If IBRD no longer maintains a special representative in England or if for any reason such process agent ceases to be able to act as such or no longer has an address in London, IBRD irrevocably agrees to appoint a substitute process agent and shall immediately notify Noteholders of such appointment in accordance with Condition 12. Nothing shall affect the right to serve process in any manner permitted by law.

FORM OF NOTES AND SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Words and expressions defined or used in “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” shall have the same meaning in this section.

IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) shall agree on the form of Notes to be issued in respect of any issue of Notes. The form may be registered, bookentry or bearer and will be specified in the applicable Final Terms. Notes payable in certain Specified Currencies may only be issued in global form.

Registered Notes

Each Tranche of Registered Notes sold in primary distribution entirely to investors in the United States may, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, initially be represented by a single Certificate in registered global form (a “Global Certificate”) deposited on its Issue Date with Citibank, N.A., London Branch (the “Custodian”) as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, DTC (a “DTC Global Certificate”).

Each Tranche of Registered Notes sold in primary distribution entirely to investors outside the United States may, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, initially be represented by a Global Certificate and (a) in the case of a Tranche held under the NSS and intended to be cleared through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, delivered to the Common Safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg; (b) in the case of a Tranche not held under the NSS and intended to be cleared through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, deposited with the Common Depositary on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg; or (c) in the case of a Tranche intended to be cleared through a clearing system other than, or in addition to, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, or delivered outside a clearing system, registered as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Each Tranche of Registered Notes sold in primary distribution both within the United States and outside the United States may, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, initially be represented by one or more Global Certificates. A DTC Global Certificate in respect of Notes sold within the United States or Notes sold both within the United States and outside the United States may be deposited on its Issue Date with the Custodian as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, DTC. The same or one or more other Global Certificates in respect of Notes sold outside the United States may be deposited on its or their Issue Date with the Custodian as custodian for, and registered in the name of a nominee of, DTC or with, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Custodian as custodian or depositary for the relevant clearing system(s) agreed between IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) and specified in the applicable Final Terms. One or more Global Certificates in respect of Notes sold both within the United States and outside the United States may be deposited on its or their Issue Date with, and registered in the name of a nominee of, the Common Depositary or Common Safekeeper for Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or the relevant clearing system(s) agreed between IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) and specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Registered Notes may, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, initially be issued in definitive registered form represented by Certificates registered in the names of the beneficial owners thereof. Otherwise, Certificates registered in the names of beneficial owners will only be available, in the case of Registered Notes initially represented by Global Certificates (other than Notes in certain Specified Currencies), in certain circumstances described below. Certificates to be issued at the request of a beneficial owner in respect of such owner’s Notes will be issued at the expense of such owner.

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, interests in a Global Certificate will be exchangeable for definitive Certificates registered in the names of the beneficial owners thereof only if such exchange is permitted by applicable law and (i) in the case of a DTC Global Certificate, DTC notifies IBRD that it is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depositary with respect to the DTC Global Certificate, or ceases to be a “clearing agency” registered under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or is at any time no longer eligible to act as such and IBRD is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days of receiving notice of such ineligibility on the part of DTC; or (ii) in the case of any other Global Certificate, if the clearing system(s) through which it is cleared and settled is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or does in fact do so; or (iii) if principal in respect of any Note is not paid when due, by the Noteholder giving notice to the Global Agent of its election for such exchange. In such circumstances, IBRD will cause sufficient Certificates to be executed and delivered as soon as practicable (and in any event within 45 days of the occurrence of such circumstances) to the Registrar for completion, authentication and delivery to the relevant Noteholder(s). A person having an interest in a Global Certificate must provide the Registrar with a written order containing instructions and such other information as IBRD and the Registrar may require to complete, execute and deliver such Certificates. Registered Notes shall not be exchangeable for Bearer Notes.

If so specified in the applicable Final Terms, interests in a Global Certificate may be exchanged for, or transferred to transferees who wish to take delivery thereof in the form of, interests in a DTC Global Certificate, and interests in a DTC Global Certificate may be exchanged for, or transferred to transferees who wish to take delivery thereof in the form of, interests in a Global Certificate. Any such exchange or transfer shall be made in accordance with the rules and operating procedures of DTC, Euroclear, and Clearstream, Luxembourg, and in compliance with the provisions of Clauses 5 and 7 of the Global Agency Agreement.

DTC has advised IBRD that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of Registered Notes (including, without limitation, the presentation of DTC Global Certificates for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in whose account with DTC interests in DTC Global Certificates are credited and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate nominal amount of the relevant DTC Global Certificates as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, in the circumstances described above, DTC will surrender the relevant DTC Global Certificates in exchange for Certificates registered in the name(s) of beneficial owners of Registered Notes.

Except as described above, so long as a DTC Global Certificate is deposited with DTC or its custodian, Certificates registered in the name(s) of beneficial owners of Registered Notes will not be eligible for clearing or settlement through DTC or any other clearing system.

Fed Bookentry Notes

On initial issue, all Notes denominated and payable in U.S. dollars which will be cleared and settled through the Federal Reserve Banks will be issued in uncertificated bookentry form only through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and held by Holding Institutions designated by the relevant Dealer(s). After initial issue, all Fed Bookentry Notes will continue to be held by such Holding Institutions unless an investor arranges for the transfer of its Fed Bookentry Notes to another Holding Institution.

Bearer Notes

Except as provided below, each Tranche of Bearer Notes with a maturity at issue of more than one year will initially be represented by a Temporary Global Note without Coupons, which (i) in the case of Bearer Notes in NGN form, will be delivered to the Common Safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg on or prior to the relevant Issue Date or (ii) in the case of Bearer Notes in CGN form, will be deposited with a Common Depositary on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg on the relevant Issue Date. Interests in a Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable on or after the Exchange Date (as defined below) in whole or in part for interests in a Permanent Global Note without Coupons or, if and to the extent specified in the applicable Final Terms, for Bearer Notes in definitive form.

Initial Issue of Notes

If the Global Notes or the Global Certificates are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be), the Global Notes or the Global Certificates will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a Common Safekeeper. Depositing the Global Notes or the Global Certificates with the Common Safekeeper does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognized as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue, or at any or all times during which the Notes are outstanding. Such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

Global Notes which are issued in CGN form and Global Certificates which are not held under the NSS may be delivered on or prior to the original Issue Date of the Tranche to a Common Depository.

If a Global Note is in CGN form, upon the initial deposit of the Global Note with a Common Depository or registration of Registered Notes in the name of any nominee of a Common Depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and delivery of the relative Global Certificate to the Common Depository, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg will credit each subscriber with a nominal amount of Notes equal to the nominal amount thereof for which it has subscribed and paid. If the Global Note is in NGN form, the nominal amount of the Notes shall be the aggregate amount from time to time entered in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg. The records of such clearing system shall be conclusive evidence of the nominal amount of Notes represented by the Global Note and a statement issued by such clearing system at any time shall be conclusive evidence of the records of the relevant clearing system at that time.

Notes that are initially deposited with the Common Depository may also be credited to the accounts of subscribers with (if indicated in the applicable Final Terms) other clearing systems through direct or indirect accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg held by such other clearing systems. Conversely, Notes that are initially deposited with any other clearing system may similarly be credited to the accounts of subscribers with Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or other clearing systems.

Upon the initial deposit of a Global Certificate in respect of, and registration of, Registered Notes in the name of a nominee of DTC and delivery of the relevant Global Certificate to the Custodian, DTC will credit each participant with a nominal amount of Notes equal to the nominal amount thereof for which it has subscribed and paid.

Summary of Provisions relating to Notes while in Global Form

Each Global Note or Global Certificate will contain provisions which apply to the Notes while they are in global form, some of which supplement the Conditions of the Notes set out in this Prospectus. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Exchange: A Temporary Global Note is exchangeable in whole or in part (free of charge to the holder) on or after the Exchange Date, for either interests in a Permanent Global Note representing Bearer Notes (if the Global Note is in CGN form, or if the Global Note is in NGN form, IBRD will procure that details of such exchange be entered pro rata in the records of the relevant clearing system) or, if and to the extent specified in the applicable Final Terms, Definitive Bearer Notes, in each case upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership by the relevant clearing system in the form set out in the Global Agency Agreement. If one or more Temporary Global Notes are exchanged for Definitive Bearer Notes, such Definitive Bearer Notes shall be issued in Specified Denominations of the minimum Specified Denomination only.

A Permanent Global Note (other than for Notes denominated in certain Specified Currencies) is exchangeable in whole (free of charge to the holder) for Definitive Bearer Notes if the Permanent Global Note is held on behalf of a clearing system and such clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or does in fact do so, by such holder giving notice to IBRD or the Global Agent. On or after any Exchange Date, the holder of a Permanent Global Note may surrender the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Global Agent. In exchange for the Permanent Global Note, IBRD will deliver, or cause the delivery of, an equal aggregate nominal amount of duly executed and authenticated Definitive Bearer Notes (having attached to them all Coupons and Talons in respect of interest which has not already been paid on the Permanent Global Note and security-printed in accordance with any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements), each in or substantially in the form attached to the Global Agency Agreement. On exchange in full of the Permanent Global Note, IBRD will, if the holder so requests, ensure that it is cancelled and returned to the holder.

“Exchange Date” means a day falling, in the case of exchange of a Temporary Global Note for a Permanent Global Note or Definitive Bearer Notes, not less than 40 days from the Issue Date (irrespective of whether such day is a business day) and on which banks are open for business in the city in which the specified office of the Global Agent is located and, if applicable, in the cities in which the relevant clearing systems are located.

Payments: Prior to the Exchange Date, payments on a Temporary Global Note will be made only against certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership by the relevant clearing system. On or after the Exchange Date, no payments will be made on the Temporary Global Note unless exchange for interests in a Permanent Global Note (or, if specified in the applicable Final Terms, for Definitive Bearer Notes) is improperly withheld or refused. Payments under the Permanent Global Note in CGN form will be made to its holder against presentation for endorsement and, if no further payment is to be made, surrender of the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Global Agent or such other Paying Agent as shall have been provided in a notice to the Noteholders for such purpose. If the Permanent Global Note is in CGN form, a record of each payment so made will be endorsed in the appropriate schedule to the Permanent Global Note, which endorsement will be prima facie evidence that such payment has been made. If the Permanent Global Note is in NGN form, IBRD shall procure that details of each such payment shall be entered pro rata in the records of the relevant clearing system and in the case of payments of principal, the nominal amount of the Notes recorded in the records of the relevant clearing system and represented by the Permanent Global Note will be reduced accordingly. Payments under the Permanent Global Note in NGN form will be made to its holder. Each payment so made will discharge IBRD’s obligations in respect thereof. Any failure to make the entries in the records of the relevant clearing system shall not affect such discharge.

Notices: If and for so long as a Global Note or a Global Certificate is deposited with a depository or Common Depository or Common Safekeeper for Euroclear, Clearstream Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, notices to Noteholders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to that clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders. In addition, if and so long as any Notes are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of that exchange so require, notices shall be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Prescription: Other than for Notes governed by the laws of the State of New York, claims against IBRD for principal and interest in respect of a Global Note or a Global Certificate will become prescribed unless such Note is presented for payment within the number of years from the appropriate Relevant Date (as described in Condition 8) as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Purchase and cancellation: Cancellation of any Global Note or Global Certificate which IBRD elects to be cancelled following its purchase will be effected by reduction in the nominal amount of such Note.

Default: The holder of a Global Note or a Global Certificate may cause the such Note or a portion of it to become due and repayable in circumstances described in Condition 9 by stating in the notice to IBRD the nominal amount of Notes which is being declared due and repayable. Following the giving of notice of an event of default, the holder of a Global Note or a Global Certificate which is governed by English law and executed as a deed poll may elect that the such Note becomes void as to a specified portion and that the persons entitled to such portion as accountholders with a clearing system acquire direct enforcement rights against IBRD under the Deed of Covenant.

Redemption at the option of IBRD: No drawing of Notes will be required under Condition 6(d) in the event that IBRD exercises its call option set forth in that Condition while an issue of Notes is represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate in respect of less than the aggregate nominal amount of such Notes then outstanding. In these circumstances, the relevant clearing systems will allocate the redemption of Notes as between holders (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg on a pro rata basis as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion).

Redemption at the option of a Noteholder: Any Noteholder's option set out in Condition 6(e) to require IBRD to redeem Notes may be exercised by the holder of a Global Note or a Global Certificate giving notice to IBRD or the Global Agent of the nominal amount of such Notes in respect of which the option is exercised and, where the Permanent Global Note is in CGN form, presenting the Permanent Global Note for endorsement of exercise within the time limits specified in Condition 6(e). Where the Permanent Global Note is in NGN form, IBRD shall procure that details of such exercise shall be entered pro rata in the records of the relevant clearing system and the nominal amount of the Notes recorded in those records will be reduced accordingly.

Nominal amount: Where the Permanent Global Note is in NGN form, or the Global Certificate is held under the NSS, IBRD shall procure that any exchange, payment, cancellation, exercise of any option or any right under the Notes, as the case may be, in addition to the circumstances set out above shall be entered in the records of the relevant clearing systems and upon any such entry being made, in respect of payments of principal, the nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate shall be adjusted accordingly.

Partly-paid Notes

The provisions relating to partly-paid Notes ("Partly-paid Notes") are not set out in this Prospectus, but will be contained in the applicable Final Terms and thereby in the Global Notes or the Global Certificates. Partly-paid Notes governed by the laws of the State of New York will not be issued. While any instalments of the subscription moneys due from the holder of Partly-paid Notes are overdue, no interest in a Global Note or a Global Certificate representing such Notes may be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for Definitive Bearer Notes (as the case may be). If any Noteholder fails to pay any instalment due on any Partly-paid Notes within the time specified, IBRD may forfeit such Notes and shall have no further obligation to their holder in respect of them.

CLEARANCE AND SETTLEMENT

Introduction

The Facility has been designed so that Notes may be held through one or more international and domestic clearing systems, principally, the bookentry systems operated by the Federal Reserve and by DTC in the United States, and by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg in Europe. Electronic securities and payment transfer, processing, depository and custodial links have been established among these systems and others, either directly or indirectly through custodians and depositories, which enable Notes to be issued, held and transferred among the clearing systems across these links. Special procedures have been established among the Global Agent, the Fiscal Agent and these clearing systems to facilitate clearance and settlement of certain Notes traded across borders in the secondary market. Cross-market transfers of Notes denominated in certain currencies and issued in global form (as described below) may be cleared and settled using these procedures on a delivery against payment basis. Cross-market transfers of Notes in other than global form may be cleared and settled in accordance with other procedures established for this purpose among the Global Agent, the Fiscal Agent and the relevant clearing systems.

The relationship between IBRD and the holder of a Registered Note, a Fed Bookentry Note or a Bearer Note is governed by the terms and conditions of that Note. The holder of a Global Note or a Global Certificate will be one or more clearing systems. The beneficial interests in Notes held by a clearing system will be in bookentry form in the relevant clearing system or a depository or nominee on its or their behalf. Each clearing system has its own separate operating procedures and arrangements with participants or accountholders which govern the relationship between them and the relevant clearing system and to which IBRD is not and will not be a party. IBRD will not impose fees payable by any holder with respect to any Notes held by one or more clearing systems; however, holders of beneficial interests in Notes may incur fees payable in respect of the maintenance and operation of the bookentry accounts in which Notes are held.

Each of the persons shown in the records of DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg, or any other specified clearing system as the holder of a Note represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate must look solely to such clearing system for his share of each payment made by IBRD to the bearer of such Global Note or the registered holder of the Registered Notes represented by such Global Certificate, as the case may be, and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Notes or Global Certificates, subject to and in accordance with the respective rules and procedures of such clearing system. Such persons shall have no claim directly against IBRD in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and such obligations of IBRD will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Note or the registered holder of the Registered Notes represented by such Global Certificate, as the case may be, in respect of each amount so paid.

Citibank, N.A., London Branch (“Citibank”) is the Global Agent for Notes held through DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and such other clearing systems as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is the fiscal and paying agent for U.S. dollar denominated Notes issued in the United States and held through the bookentry system operated by the Federal Reserve Banks.

The Global Agent and Paying Agents

Citibank will act as the Global Agent for Notes issued under the Facility (except for Fed Bookentry Notes). Citibank has direct custodial and depository linkages with, and (unless otherwise provided in the applicable Final Terms) will act as custodian for Global Notes or Global Certificates held by DTC to facilitate issue, transfer and custody of Notes in DTC, while Citibank Europe plc acts as the Common Depository or Common Safekeeper for Global Notes or Global Certificates held by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. As necessary (and as more fully described below), Citibank will act as Registrar, Transfer Agent, Exchange Agent and Paying Agent and, from time to time, Calculation Agent for the Notes as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. In acting under the Global Agency Agreement and in connection with the Notes, no Agent shall have any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust with any of the holders of the Notes.

The Clearing Systems

Federal Reserve Bookentry System

The Federal Reserve Banks operate the Federal bookentry system which provides bookentry holding and settlement for all U.S. dollar denominated securities issued by the U.S. government, certain of its agencies and international organizations (including IBRD) in which the United States is a member. The system enables specified depositories and other institutions with an appropriate account with a Federal Reserve Bank or Branch (“Holding Institutions”) to hold, make payments and transfer securities and funds through the Federal Reserve Bank’s Fedwire electronic funds transfer system.

DTC

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, and is a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a “clearing agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC holds securities for DTC participants and facilitates the clearance and settlement of transactions between DTC participants through electronic bookentry changes in accounts of DTC participants.

Euroclear

Euroclear is incorporated in Belgium. Euroclear holds securities for participating organizations and facilitates multicurrency clearance and settlement of securities transactions between its and Clearstream, Luxembourg’s accountholders through electronic bookentry changes in accounts of its accountholders.

Clearstream, Luxembourg

Clearstream, Luxembourg is incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg as a professional depository. Clearstream, Luxembourg holds securities for its participating organizations and facilitates multicurrency clearance and settlement of securities transactions between its and Euroclear’s accountholders through electronic bookentry changes in accounts of its accountholders.

Other Clearing Systems

Any other clearing system which IBRD, the Global Agent and the relevant Dealer(s) agree shall be available for a particular issue of Notes will be described in the applicable Final Terms, together with the clearance and settlement procedures for such clearing system.

Clearance and Settlement Procedures — Primary Distribution

Introduction

Distribution of Notes will be through one or more of the clearing systems described above or any other clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms. Payment for Notes will be on a delivery versus payment or delivery free of payment basis, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s) shall agree whether global clearance and settlement procedures or specific clearance and settlement procedures should be available for any issue of Notes, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. Clearance and settlement procedures may vary according to the Specified Currency of issue. The customary clearance and settlement procedures are described under the specific clearance and settlement procedures below. Application will be made to the relevant clearing system(s) for the Notes of the relevant issue to be accepted for clearance and settlement and the applicable clearance numbers will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Global clearance and settlement of Notes denominated in certain Specified Currencies will take place through those clearing systems specified in the applicable Final Terms. The procedures expected to be followed are those which relevant clearing systems have established to clear and settle single global issues in the Specified Currency and will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Fed Bookentry Notes

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York will take delivery of and hold Fed Bookentry Notes as record owner and custodian for other Federal Reserve Banks and for Holding Institutions located in the Second Federal Reserve District. Holding Institutions located in other Federal Reserve Districts can hold Fed Bookentry Notes through their respective Federal Reserve Banks or Branches.

The aggregate holdings of Fed Bookentry Notes of each Holding Institution will be reflected in the bookentry account of such Holding Institution with its Federal Reserve Bank or Branch. The Notes may be held of record only by Holding Institutions, which are entities eligible to maintain bookentry accounts with the Federal Reserve Banks. A Holding Institution may not be the beneficial holder of a Note. Beneficial holders will ordinarily hold the Notes through one or more financial intermediaries, such as banks, brokerage firms and securities clearing organizations. Each Holding Institution, and each other intermediate holder in the chain to the ultimate beneficial holder, will have the responsibility of establishing and maintaining accounts for its customers having interests in Fed Bookentry Notes.

Federal Reserve Banks will be responsible only for maintaining the bookentry accounts of Holding Institutions, effecting transfers on their books and ensuring that payments from IBRD, through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, are credited to appropriate Holding Institutions. With respect to Fed Bookentry Notes, Federal Reserve Banks will act only on the instructions of Holding Institutions for which they maintain such Fed Bookentry Notes. The Federal Reserve Banks will not record pledges of Fed Bookentry Notes.

Registered Notes

(i) DTC

Registered Notes which are to be cleared and settled through DTC will be represented by a DTC Global Certificate. DTC participants acting on behalf of DTC investors holding Registered Notes through DTC will follow the delivery practices applicable to DTC's Same-Day Funds Settlement System. Registered Notes will be credited to DTC participants' securities accounts following confirmation of receipt of payment to IBRD on the relevant Issue Date.

(ii) Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg

Registered Notes which are to be cleared and settled through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be represented by one or more Global Certificates registered in the name of a nominee of the Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Investors holding Registered Notes through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will follow the settlement procedures applicable to conventional eurobonds. Registered Notes will be credited to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg participants' securities clearance accounts either on the Issue Date or on the settlement day following the relevant Issue Date against payment in same day funds (for value on the relevant Issue Date).

Bearer Notes

IBRD will make applications to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for acceptance in their respective bookentry systems of any issue of Bearer Notes. Customary clearance and settlement procedures for each such clearing system applicable to bearer eurobonds denominated in the Specified Currency will be followed, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Clearance and Settlement Procedures — Secondary Market Transfers

Transfers of Registered Notes

Transfers of interests in a Global Certificate within the various clearing systems which may be clearing and settling interests therein will be made in accordance with the usual rules and operating procedures of the relevant clearing system applicable to the Specified Currency and the nature of the transfer. Further details concerning such rules and procedures may be set forth in the applicable Final Terms.

For issues that are cleared and settled through both DTC and another clearing system, because of time zone differences, in some cases the securities account of an investor in one clearing system may be credited during the settlement processing day immediately following the settlement date of the other clearing system and the cash account will be credited for value on the settlement date but may be available only as of the day immediately following such settlement date.

The laws of some states in the United States require that certain persons take physical delivery in definitive form of securities. Consequently, the ability to transfer interests in a DTC Global Certificate to such persons may be limited. Because DTC can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants, the ability of a person having an interest in a DTC Global Certificate to pledge such interest to persons or entities that do not participate in DTC, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be affected by the lack of a definitive security in respect of such interest.

Transfers of Fed Bookentry Notes

Transfers of Fed Bookentry Notes between Holding Institutions can be made through the Federal Reserve Communications System.

Transfers of Bearer Notes

Transfers of interests in a Temporary Global Note or a Permanent Global Note and of Definitive Bearer Notes held by a clearing system will be made in accordance with the normal euromarket debt securities operating procedures of the relevant clearing system.

General

Although DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have established procedures to facilitate transfers of beneficial interests in Notes in global form among participants and accountholders of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of IBRD, the Global Agent or any other agent will have responsibility for the performance by DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

Pre-issue Trades Settlement

It is expected that delivery of Notes will be made against payment therefor on the relevant Issue Date, which could be more than three business days following the date of pricing. Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Commission under the Exchange Act, trades in the United States secondary market generally are required to settle within two business days of pricing (T+2), unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade Notes in the United States on the date of pricing or the next succeeding business days until the relevant Issue Date will be required, by virtue of the fact the Notes initially will settle beyond T+2, to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Settlement procedures in other countries will vary. Purchasers of Notes may be affected by such local settlement practices and purchasers of Notes who wish to trade Notes between the date of pricing and the relevant Issue Date should consult their own advisor.

TAX MATTERS

The following is a summary of the provisions of the Articles concerning taxation of the Notes and of certain anticipated United States federal income, withholding and estate tax consequences resulting from the ownership of the Notes. This summary addresses only U.S. federal income taxation and does not cover all of the possible tax consequences that may be relevant to you in light of your individual circumstances, including foreign, state or local tax consequences, and tax consequences arising under the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income or the alternative minimum tax. This summary is not intended as tax advice to any person. It addresses only holders who are initial purchasers of the Notes at the initial offering price and hold the Notes as capital assets for tax purposes, and does not address special classes of holders, such as dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, banks, tax-exempt entities, life insurance companies, persons holding Notes as part of a wash sale for tax purposes, as a hedge or hedged against interest rate or currency risks or as part of a straddle or conversion transaction for tax purposes, or U.S. Holders (as defined below) whose functional currency for tax purposes is not the U.S. dollar. Investors who purchase Notes at a price other than the offering price should consult their tax advisor as to the possible applicability to them of the amortizable bond premium or market discount rules.

This section deals only with Notes that (a) are due to mature 30 years or less from the date on which they are issued, (b) do not reference the performance of United States equities and (c) are treated as issued in registered form for United States federal income tax purposes. For this purpose, unless otherwise stated in the applicable Final Terms, Registered Notes and Fed Bookentry Notes will be treated as issued in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and Bearer Notes will not be treated as issued in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The relevant tax consequences of owning Notes that do not satisfy these criteria will be discussed in the applicable Final Terms.

This section is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations under the Code, published rulings and court decisions, all as in effect as at the date of this Prospectus. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

If an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds the Notes, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the tax treatment of the partnership. A partner in a partnership holding the Notes should consult its tax advisor with regard to the United States federal income tax treatment of an investment in the Notes.

Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisors concerning the application of the United States federal income, withholding and estate tax laws, as well as the possible application of the tax laws of any other jurisdiction, to their particular situation.

Tax Status — General

The Notes and the interest thereon generally will be subject to taxation, including United States federal income taxation. Under the Articles, however, the Notes and the interest thereon are not subject to any tax by a member country of IBRD (i) which tax discriminates against the Notes solely because they were issued by IBRD, or (ii) if the sole jurisdictional basis for the tax is the place or currency in which the Notes are issued, made payable or paid, or the location of any office or place of business maintained by IBRD. The imposition of United States federal income tax in the manner described herein is not inconsistent with the Articles.

Tax Status — United States

The United States Treasury Department has issued to IBRD rulings dated May 4, 1988 and May 5, 1989 (the “Rulings”) regarding certain United States federal tax consequences of the receipt of interest on securities issued by IBRD. The Rulings provide that interest paid by IBRD on such securities, including payments attributable to accrued original issue discount, constitutes income from sources without the United States.

Because, under the Rulings, interest and original issue discount on the Notes is treated as income from sources without the United States, interest paid by IBRD would ordinarily not be subject to United States federal income tax, including withholding tax, if paid to a nonresident alien individual (or foreign partnership, estate or trust not subject to United States federal income tax on a net income basis on income or gain from a Note) or to a foreign corporation, whether or not such person is engaged in trade or business in the United States. However, absent any special statutory or treaty exception, such income would be subject to United States federal income tax in the following cases: (a) such interest is derived by such person in the active conduct of a banking, financing or similar business within the United States, and such interest is attributable to an office or other fixed place of business of such person within the United States or (b) such person is a foreign corporation taxable as an insurance company carrying on a United States insurance business to which such interest is attributable.

U.S. Holders

This subsection describes the tax consequences to a U.S. Holder. You are a U.S. Holder if you are a beneficial owner of a Note and you are, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a citizen or resident of the United States,
- a domestic corporation,
- an estate whose income is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source, or
- a trust if a United States court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

If you are not a U.S. Holder, this subsection does not apply to you and you should consult your own tax advisor concerning the consequences of owning the Notes in your particular circumstances under the Code and the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

Payments of Interest

Except as described below in the case of interest on a discount Note that is not qualified stated interest, each as defined below under “— Original Issue Discount — General”, or as described in the following sentence, you will be taxed on any interest on your Note, whether payable in U.S. dollars or a foreign currency, as ordinary income at the time you receive the interest or when it accrues, depending on your method of accounting for tax purposes. However, the portion of the first interest payment on your Note that represents a return of pre-issuance accrued interest (if any) will not be treated as an interest payment for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will accordingly not be includible in income. If your Note is denominated in a foreign currency, then you will recognize United States source ordinary gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the U.S. dollar value of the pre-issuance accrued interest on the date of receipt and the U.S. dollar value of such amount on the date that the Note was issued.

Interest paid by IBRD on the Notes and original issue discount, if any, accrued with respect to the Notes (as described below under “— Original Issue Discount”) are generally income from sources outside the United States and will generally be “passive” income for purposes of the rules regarding the foreign tax credit allowable to a U.S. Holder.

Foreign Currency Notes — Cash Basis Taxpayers. If you are a taxpayer that uses the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting for tax purposes and you receive an interest payment that is denominated in, or determined by reference to, a foreign currency, you would recognize income equal to the U.S. dollar value of the interest payment, based on the exchange rate in effect on the date of receipt, regardless of whether you actually convert the payment into U.S. dollars.

Foreign Currency Notes — Accrual Basis Taxpayers. If you are a taxpayer that uses an accrual method of accounting for tax purposes, you may determine the amount of income that you recognize with respect to an interest payment denominated in, or determined by reference to, a foreign currency by using one of two methods. Under the first method, you would determine the amount of income accrued based on the average exchange rate in effect during the interest accrual period or, with respect to an accrual period that spans two taxable years, that part of the period within the taxable year.

If you elect the second method, you would determine the amount of income accrued on the basis of the exchange rate in effect on the last day of the accrual period, or, in the case of an accrual period that spans two taxable years, the exchange rate in effect on the last day of the part of the period within the taxable year. Additionally, under this second method, if you receive a payment of interest within five business days of the last day of your accrual period or taxable year, you may instead translate the interest accrued into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate in effect on the day that you actually receive the interest payment. If you elect the second method it would apply to all debt instruments that you hold at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and to all debt instruments that you subsequently acquire. You may not revoke this election without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service.

When you actually receive an interest payment, including a payment attributable to accrued but unpaid interest upon the sale or retirement of your Note, denominated in, or determined by reference to, a foreign currency for which you accrued an amount of income, you will recognize ordinary income or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the exchange rate that you used to accrue interest income and the exchange rate in effect on the date of receipt, regardless of whether you actually convert the payment into U.S. dollars.

Original Issue Discount

General. If you own a Note, other than a short-term Note with a term of one year or less, it would be treated as a discount Note issued at an original issue discount (“OID”) if the amount by which the Note’s stated redemption price at maturity exceeds its issue price is more than a de minimis amount. Generally, a Note’s issue price will be the first price at which a substantial amount of Notes included in the issue of which the Note is a part is sold to persons other than bond houses, brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents, or wholesalers. A Note’s stated redemption price at maturity is the total of all payments provided by the Note that are not payments of qualified stated interest. Generally, an interest payment on a Note is qualified stated interest if it is one of a series of stated interest payments on a Note that are unconditionally payable at least annually at a single fixed rate, with certain exceptions for lower rates paid during some periods, applied to the outstanding principal amount of the Note. There are special rules for floating rate Notes that are discussed under “— Floating Rate Notes”.

In general, your Note is not a discount Note if the amount by which its stated redemption price at maturity exceeds its issue price is less than the de minimis amount of  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1 percent of its stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to its maturity. Your Note would have de minimis OID if the amount of the excess is less than the de minimis amount. If your Note has de minimis OID, you would include the de minimis amount in income as stated principal payments are made on the Note, unless you make the election described below under “— Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount”. You can determine the includible amount with respect to each such payment by multiplying the total amount of your Note’s de minimis OID by a fraction equal to the amount of the principal payment made divided by the stated principal amount of the Note.

Generally, if your discount Note matures more than one year from its date of issue, you would include OID in income before you receive cash attributable to that income. The amount of OID that you would include in income is calculated using a constant-yield method, and generally you would include increasingly greater amounts of OID in income over the life of your Note. More specifically, you can calculate the amount of OID that you would include in income by adding the daily portions of OID with respect to your discount Note for each day during the taxable year or portion of the taxable year that you hold your discount Note. You can determine the daily portion by allocating to each day in any accrual period a pro rata portion of the OID allocable to that accrual period. You may select an accrual period of any length with respect to your discount Note and you may vary the length of each accrual period over the term of your discount Note. However, no accrual period may be longer than one year and each scheduled payment of interest or principal on the discount Note must occur on either the first or final day of an accrual period.

You can determine the amount of OID allocable to an accrual period by:

- multiplying your discount Note's adjusted issue price at the beginning of the accrual period by your Note's yield to maturity, and then
- subtracting from this figure the sum of the payments of qualified stated interest on your Note allocable to the accrual period.

You must determine the discount Note's yield to maturity on the basis of compounding at the close of each accrual period and adjusting for the length of each accrual period. Further, you determine your discount Note's adjusted issue price at the beginning of any accrual period by:

- adding your discount Note's issue price and any accrued OID for each prior accrual period, and then
- subtracting any payments previously made on your discount Note that were not qualified stated interest payments.

If an interval between payments of qualified stated interest on your discount Note contains more than one accrual period, then, when you determine the amount of OID allocable to an accrual period, you would allocate the amount of qualified stated interest payable at the end of the interval, including any qualified stated interest that is payable on the first day of the accrual period immediately following the interval, pro rata to each accrual period in the interval based on their relative lengths. In addition, you would increase the adjusted issue price at the beginning of each accrual period in the interval by the amount of any qualified stated interest that has accrued prior to the first day of the accrual period but that is not payable until the end of the interval. You may compute the amount of OID allocable to an initial short accrual period by using any reasonable method if all other accrual periods, other than a final short accrual period, are of equal length.

The amount of OID allocable to the final accrual period is equal to the difference between:

- the amount payable at the maturity of your Note, other than any payment of qualified stated interest, and
- your Note's adjusted issue price as of the beginning of the final accrual period.

Acquisition Premium. If you purchase your Note for an amount that is less than or equal to the sum of all amounts, other than qualified stated interest, payable on your Note after the purchase date but is greater than the amount of your Note's adjusted issue price, as determined above under "— General", the excess is acquisition premium. If you do not make the election described below under "— Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount", then you would reduce the daily portions of OID by a fraction equal to:

- the excess of your adjusted basis in the Note immediately after purchase over the adjusted issue price of the Note, divided by

- the excess of the sum of all amounts payable, other than qualified stated interest, on the Note after the purchase date over the Note's adjusted issue price.

Pre-Issuance Accrued Interest. An election may be made to decrease the issue price of your Note by the amount of pre-issuance accrued interest if:

- a portion of the initial purchase price of your Note is attributable to pre-issuance accrued interest,
- the first stated interest payment on your Note is to be made within one year of your Note's issue date, and
- the payment would equal or exceed the amount of pre-issuance accrued interest.

If this election is made, a portion of the first stated interest payment would be treated as a return of the excluded pre-issuance accrued interest and not as an amount payable on your Note.

Notes Subject to Contingencies Including Optional Redemption. Your Note is subject to a contingency if it provides for an alternative payment schedule or schedules applicable upon the occurrence of a contingency or contingencies, other than a remote or incidental contingency, whether such contingency relates to payments of interest or of principal. In such a case, you would determine the yield and maturity of your Note by assuming that the payments would be made according to the payment schedule most likely to occur if:

- the timing and amounts of the payments that comprise each payment schedule are known as of the issue date, and
- one of such schedules is significantly more likely than not to occur.

If there is no single payment schedule that is significantly more likely than not to occur, other than because of a mandatory sinking fund, you would include income on your Note in accordance with the general rules that govern contingent payment obligations. These rules will be discussed in the applicable Final Terms.

Notwithstanding the general rules for determining yield and maturity, if your Note is subject to contingencies, and either you or we have an unconditional option or options that, if exercised, would require payments to be made on the Note under an alternative payment schedule or schedules, then:

- in the case of an option or options that we may exercise, we would be deemed to exercise or not exercise an option or combination of options in the manner that minimizes the yield on your Note, and
- in the case of an option or options that you may exercise, you would be deemed to exercise or not exercise an option or combination of options in the manner that maximizes the yield on your Note.

If both you and we hold options described in the preceding sentence, those rules would apply to each option in the order in which they may be exercised. You would determine the yield on your Note for the purposes of those calculations by using any date on which your Note may be redeemed or repurchased as the maturity date and the amount payable on such date in accordance with the terms of your Note as the principal amount payable at maturity.

If a contingency, including the exercise of an option, actually occurs or does not occur contrary to an assumption made according to the above rules then, except to the extent that a portion of your Note is repaid as a result of this change in circumstances and solely to determine the amount and accrual of OID, you would redetermine the yield and maturity of your Note by treating your Note as having been retired and reissued on the date of the change in circumstances for an amount equal to your Note's adjusted issue price on that date.

Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount. You may elect to include in gross income all interest that accrues on your Note using the constant-yield method described above under "— General", with the modifications described below. For purposes of this election, interest will include stated interest, OID, de minimis OID, market discount, de minimis market discount and unstated interest, as adjusted by any amortizable bond premium, described below under "— Notes Purchased at a Premium," or acquisition premium.

If you make this election for your Note, then, when you apply the constant-yield method:

- the issue price of your Note would equal your cost,
- the issue date of your Note would be the date you acquired it, and
- no payments on your Note would be treated as payments of qualified stated interest.

Generally, this election will apply only to the Note for which you make it; however, if the Note has amortizable bond premium, you would be deemed to have made an election to apply amortizable bond premium against interest for all debt instruments with amortizable bond premium, other than debt instruments the interest on which is excludible from gross income, that you hold as of the beginning of the taxable year to which the election applies or thereafter. Additionally, if you make this election for a market discount Note, you would be treated as having made the election discussed below under “— Market Discount” to include market discount in income currently over the life of all debt instruments having market discount that you acquire on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies. You may not revoke any election to apply the constant-yield method to all interest on a Note or the deemed elections with respect to amortizable bond premium or market discount Notes without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service.

Floating Rate Notes. Your Note would be a floating rate Note if:

- your Note’s issue price does not exceed the total noncontingent principal payments by more than the lesser of:
  - 0.015 multiplied by the product of the total noncontingent principal payments and the number of complete years to maturity from the issue date, or
  - 15 percent of the total noncontingent principal payments; and
- your Note provides for stated interest, compounded or paid at least annually, only at:
  - one or more qualified floating rates,
  - a single fixed rate and one or more qualified floating rates,
  - a single objective rate, or
  - a single fixed rate and a single objective rate that is a qualified inverse floating rate; and
- the value of any floating rate on any date during the term of your Note is set no earlier than three months prior to the first day on which that value is in effect and no later than one year following that first day.

Your Note would have a floating rate that is a qualified floating rate if:

- variations in the value of the rate can reasonably be expected to measure contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds in the currency in which your Note is denominated; or
- the rate is equal to such a rate either:
  - multiplied by a fixed multiple that is greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35, or
  - multiplied by a fixed multiple greater than 0.65 but not more than 1.35, and then increased or decreased by a fixed rate.

If your Note provides for two or more qualified floating rates that are within 0.25 percentage points of each other on the issue date or can reasonably be expected to have approximately the same values throughout the term of the Note, the qualified floating rates together constitute a single qualified floating rate.

Your Note would not have a qualified floating rate, however, if the rate is subject to certain restrictions (including caps, floors, governors, or other similar restrictions) unless such restrictions are caps, floors or governors that are fixed throughout the term of the Note or such restrictions are not reasonably expected to significantly affect the yield on the Note.

Your Note would have a floating rate that is a single objective rate if:

- the rate is not a qualified floating rate, and
- the rate is determined using a single, fixed formula that is based on objective financial or economic information that is not within the control of or unique to the circumstances of the issuer or a related party.

Your Note would not have a floating rate that is an objective rate, however, if it is reasonably expected that the average value of the rate during the first half of your Note's term would be either significantly less than or significantly greater than the average value of the rate during the final half of your Note's term.

An objective rate as described above is a qualified inverse floating rate if:

- the rate is equal to a fixed rate minus a qualified floating rate, and
- the variations in the rate can reasonably be expected to inversely reflect contemporaneous variations in the cost of newly borrowed funds.

Your Note would also have a single qualified floating rate or an objective rate if interest on your Note is stated at a fixed rate for an initial period of one year or less followed by either a qualified floating rate or an objective rate for a subsequent period, and either:

- the fixed rate and the qualified floating rate or objective rate have values on the issue date of the Note that do not differ by more than 0.25 percentage points, or
- the value of the qualified floating rate or objective rate is intended to approximate the fixed rate.

In general, if your floating rate Note provides for stated interest at a single qualified floating rate or objective rate, or one of those rates after a single fixed rate for an initial period, all stated interest on your Note is qualified stated interest. In this case, the amount of OID, if any, is determined by using, in the case of a qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate, the value as of the issue date of the qualified floating rate or qualified inverse floating rate, or, for any other objective rate, a fixed rate that reflects the yield reasonably expected for your Note.

If your floating rate Note does not provide for stated interest at a single qualified floating rate or a single objective rate, and also does not provide for interest payable at a fixed rate other than a single fixed rate for an initial period, you generally would determine the interest and OID accruals on your Note by:

- determining a fixed rate substitute for each floating rate provided under your floating rate Note,
- constructing the equivalent fixed rate debt instrument, using the fixed rate substitute described above,
- determining the amount of qualified stated interest and OID with respect to the equivalent fixed rate debt instrument, and
- adjusting for actual floating rates during the applicable accrual period.

When you determine the fixed rate substitute for each floating rate provided under the floating rate Note, you generally will use the value of each floating rate as of the issue date or, for an objective rate that is not a qualified inverse floating rate, a rate that reflects the reasonably expected yield on your Note.

If your floating rate Note provides for stated interest either at one or more qualified floating rates or at a qualified inverse floating rate, and also provides for stated interest at a single fixed rate other than at a single fixed rate for an initial period, you generally would determine interest and OID accruals by using the method described in the previous paragraph. However, your floating rate Note would be treated, for purposes of the first three steps of the determination, as if your Note had provided for a qualified floating rate, or a qualified inverse floating rate, rather than the fixed rate. The qualified floating rate, or qualified inverse floating rate, that replaces the fixed rate must be such that the fair market value of your floating rate Note as of the issue date approximates the fair market value of an otherwise identical debt instrument that provides for the qualified floating rate, or qualified inverse floating rate, rather than the fixed rate.

Short-Term Notes. In general, if you are an individual or other cash basis U.S. Holder of a short-term Note, you are not required to accrue OID, as specially defined below for the purposes of this paragraph, for U.S. federal income tax purposes unless you elect to do so (although it is possible that you may be required to include any stated interest in income as you receive it). If you are an accrual basis taxpayer, a taxpayer in a special class, including, but not limited to, a regulated investment company, common trust fund, or a certain type of pass-through entity, or a cash basis taxpayer who so elects, you would be required to accrue OID on short-term Notes on either a straight-line basis or under the constant-yield method, based on daily compounding. If you are not required and do not elect to include OID in income currently, any gain you realize on the sale or retirement of your short-term Note would be ordinary income to the extent of the accrued OID, which would be determined on a straight-line basis unless you make an election to accrue the OID under the constant-yield method, through the date of sale or retirement. However, if you are not required and do not elect to accrue OID on your short-term Notes, you would be required to defer deductions for interest on borrowings allocable to your short-term Notes in an amount not exceeding the deferred income until the deferred income is realized.

When you determine the amount of OID subject to these rules, you must include all interest payments on your short-term Note, including stated interest, in your short-term Note's stated redemption price at maturity.

Foreign Currency Discount Notes. If your discount Note is denominated in, or determined by reference to, a foreign currency, you would determine OID for any accrual period on your discount Note in the foreign currency and then translate the amount of OID into U.S. dollars in the same manner as stated interest accrued by an accrual basis U.S. Holder, as described under “— U.S. Holders — Payments of Interest”. You may recognize ordinary income or loss when you receive an amount attributable to OID in connection with a payment of interest or the sale or retirement of your Note.

Market Discount

You would be treated as if you purchased your Note, other than a short-term Note, at a market discount, and your Note would be a market discount Note if:

- you purchase your Note for less than its issue price as determined above under “Original Issue Discount — General” and
- the difference between the Note's stated redemption price at maturity or, in the case of a discount Note, the Note's revised issue price, and the price you paid for your Note is equal to or greater than  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1 percent of your Note's stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to the Note's maturity. To determine the revised issue price of your Note for these purposes, you generally add any OID that has accrued on your Note to its issue price.

If your Note's stated redemption price at maturity or, in the case of a discount Note, its revised issue price, exceeds the price you paid for the Note by less than  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1 percent of the Note's stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to the Note's maturity, the excess constitutes de minimis market discount, and the rules discussed below are not applicable to you.

You must treat any gain you recognize on the maturity or disposition of your market discount Note as ordinary income to the extent of the accrued market discount on your Note. Alternatively, you may elect to include market discount in income currently over the life of your Note. If you make this election, it would apply to all debt instruments with market discount that you acquire on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies. You may not revoke this election without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service. If you own a market discount Note and do not make this election, you would generally be required to defer deductions for interest on borrowings allocable to your Note in an amount not exceeding the accrued market discount on your Note until the maturity or disposition of your Note.

If you own a market discount Note, the market discount would accrue on a straight-line basis unless an election is made to accrue market discount using a constant-yield method. If you make this election, it would apply only to the Note with respect to which it is made and you may not revoke it. You would, however, not include accrued market discount in income unless you elect to do so as described above.

Notes Purchased at a Premium

If you purchase your Note for an amount in excess of its principal amount (or, in the case of a discount Note, in excess of the sum of all amounts payable on the Note after the acquisition date (other than payments of qualified stated interest)), you may elect to treat the excess (after excluding the portion of the purchase price attributable to pre-issuance accrued interest) as amortizable bond premium. If you make this election, you would reduce the amount required to be included in your income each accrual period with respect to interest on your Note by the amount of amortizable bond premium allocable to that accrual period, based on your Note's yield to maturity.

If the amortizable bond premium allocable to an accrual period exceeds your interest income from your Note for such accrual period, such excess is first allowed as a deduction to the extent of interest included in your income in respect of the Note in previous accrual periods and is then carried forward to your next accrual period. If the amortizable bond premium allocable and carried forward to the accrual period in which your Note is sold, retired or otherwise disposed of exceeds your interest income for such accrual period, you would be allowed an ordinary deduction equal to such excess.

If your Note is denominated in, or determined by reference to, a foreign currency, you would compute your amortizable bond premium in units of the foreign currency and your amortizable bond premium would reduce your interest income in units of the foreign currency. Gain or loss recognized that is attributable to changes in exchange rates between the time your amortized bond premium offsets interest income and the time of the acquisition of your Note is generally taxable as ordinary income or loss.

If you make an election to amortize bond premium, it would apply to all debt instruments, other than debt instruments the interest on which is excludible from gross income, that you hold at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies or that you thereafter acquire, and you may not revoke it without the consent of the Internal Revenue Service. See also "Original Issue Discount — Election to Treat All Interest as Original Issue Discount".

Purchase, Sale and Retirement of the Notes

Your tax basis in your Note will generally be the U.S. dollar cost, as defined below, of your Note, adjusted by:

- adding any OID or market discount previously included in income with respect to your Note, and then
- subtracting any payments on your Note that are not qualified stated interest payments (such as any pre-issuance accrued interest that you previously received) and any amortizable bond premium to the extent that such premium either reduced interest income on your Note or gave rise to a deduction on your Note.

If you purchase your Note with foreign currency, the U.S. dollar cost of your Note would generally be the U.S. dollar value of the purchase price on the date of purchase. However, if you are a cash basis taxpayer, or an accrual basis taxpayer if you so elect, and your Note is traded on an established securities market, as defined in the applicable Treasury regulations, the U.S. dollar cost of your Note would be the U.S. dollar value of the purchase price on the settlement date of your purchase.

You will generally recognize gain or loss on the sale or retirement of your Note equal to the difference, if any, between (a) the amount you realize on the sale or retirement (other than any amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be treated as interest payments except to the extent that such amounts are a return of pre-issuance accrued interest) and (b) your adjusted tax basis in your Note. If your Note is sold or retired for an amount in foreign currency, the amount you realize would be the U.S. dollar value of such amount on the date the Note is disposed of or retired, except that in the case of a Note that is traded on an established securities market, as defined in the applicable Treasury regulations, a cash basis taxpayer, or an accrual basis taxpayer that so elects, would determine the amount realized based on the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency on the settlement date of the sale.

You will recognize capital gain or loss when you sell or retire your Note, except to the extent:

- described above under “— Original Issue Discount — Short-Term Notes” or “— Market Discount”, or
- attributable to changes in exchange rates as described below.

Capital gain of individual taxpayers from the sale or retirement of Notes held for more than one year may be eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of a capital loss is subject to significant limitations.

You must treat any portion of the gain or loss that you recognize on the sale or retirement of a Note as ordinary income or loss to the extent attributable to changes in exchange rates. However, you take exchange gain or loss into account only to the extent of the total gain or loss you realize on the transaction.

Exchange of Amounts in Other Than U.S. Dollars

If you receive foreign currency as interest on your Note or on the sale or retirement of your Note, your tax basis in the foreign currency would equal its U.S. dollar value when the interest is received or at the time of the sale or retirement. If you purchase foreign currency, you generally would have a tax basis equal to the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency on the date of your purchase. If you sell or dispose of a foreign currency, including if you use it to purchase Notes or exchange it for U.S. dollars, any gain or loss recognized generally would be ordinary income or loss.

Notes Subject to Special Rules

The applicable Final Terms will discuss the special U.S. federal income tax rules that apply to Notes that have a variable redemption amount, Notes that are subject to the special tax rules governing contingent payment debt instruments, Notes that provide for instalment payments, Partly-paid Notes, Dual Currency Notes, or any other Notes that have features that could cause the Notes to be subject to United States federal income tax rules that differ from those described above.

Information with Respect to Foreign Financial Assets

A U.S. Holder that owns “specified foreign financial assets” with an aggregate value in excess of $50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to file an information report with respect to such assets with its tax returns. “Specified foreign financial assets” may include financial accounts maintained by foreign financial institutions, as well as the following, but only if they are held for investment and not held in accounts maintained by financial institutions: (a) stocks and securities issued by non-United States persons,

(b) financial instruments and contracts that have non-United States issuers or counterparties, and (c) interests in foreign entities. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the application of this reporting requirement to their ownership of the Notes.

Treasury Regulations Requiring Disclosure of Reportable Transactions

Treasury regulations require United States taxpayers to report certain transactions that give rise to a loss in excess of certain thresholds (a “Reportable Transaction”). Under these regulations, if the Notes are denominated in a foreign currency, a U.S. Holder that recognizes a loss with respect to the Notes that is characterized as an ordinary loss due to changes in currency exchange rates (under any of the rules discussed above) would be required to report the loss on Internal Revenue Service Form 8886 (Reportable Transaction Statement) if the loss exceeds the thresholds set forth in the regulations. For individuals and trusts, this loss threshold is $50,000 in any single taxable year. For other types of taxpayers and other types of losses, the thresholds are higher. You should consult with your tax advisor regarding any tax filing and reporting obligations that may apply in connection with acquiring, owning and disposing of the Notes.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Under the Articles, IBRD is not under any obligation to withhold or pay any tax imposed by any member on the interest on the Notes. The Rulings confirm that neither IBRD nor an agent appointed by it as principal for the purpose of paying interest on securities issued by IBRD is required to withhold tax on interest paid by IBRD. Payments of interest and accrued original issue discount on the Notes will therefore be made to the Global Agent or the Fiscal Agent, as applicable, without deduction in respect of any such tax.

Brokers, trustees, custodians and other intermediaries within the United States are subject to the reporting and backup withholding requirements with respect to certain payments on the Notes received by them for the account of certain non-corporate United States persons, and foreign persons receiving payments on the Notes within the United States may be required by such intermediaries to establish their status in order to avoid information reporting and backup withholding of tax by such intermediaries in respect of such payments. Foreign persons receiving payments on the Notes outside the United States through foreign brokers, trustees, custodians or other intermediaries (including Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg participants) generally are not required to establish their status as foreign persons in order to avoid information reporting and backup withholding of tax. If, however, such broker, trustee, custodian or other intermediary is (a) a controlled foreign corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) a foreign person 50 percent or more of whose gross income is effectively connected with a United States trade or business for a specified three-year period, or (c) a foreign partnership, if at any time during its tax year, one or more of its partners are U.S. persons (as defined in U.S. Treasury regulations) who in the aggregate hold more than 50 percent of the income or capital interest in the partnership or if, at any time during its tax year, such foreign partnership is engaged in a United States trade or business, information reporting (but not backup withholding) may apply to such payments.

You generally may obtain a refund of any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules that exceed your income tax liability by filing a refund claim with the Internal Revenue Service.

United States Federal Estate Tax

In the case of United States federal estate tax, the Rulings determined that, unless an applicable death tax convention with a foreign country provides otherwise, securities of IBRD are deemed to be situated without the United States for purposes of the United States federal estate tax and are not includible in the value of the gross estate for purposes of such tax in the case of the estate of a nonresident of the United States who is not a citizen of the United States.

CURRENCY CONVERSIONS

Payments for Notes

Investors will be required to pay for Notes in the applicable Specified Currency. Each Dealer may, under certain terms and conditions, arrange for the conversion of the Investor's Currency into the Specified Currency to enable investors whose financial activities are denominated principally in the Investor's Currency to pay for the Notes in the Specified Currency. Each such conversion will be made by such Dealer (in this respect acting as principal and not as an agent of IBRD) on such terms and subject to such conditions, limitations and charges as such Dealer may from time to time establish in accordance with its regular foreign exchange practices, and subject to any applicable laws and regulations. All costs of conversion will be borne by such investors of the Notes.

Payments on Notes

Payments in respect of such Notes will be made in the Specified Currency for principal, premium (if any) and/or interest payments as specified in the applicable Final Terms. Currently, there are limited facilities in the United States for the conversion of U.S. dollars into foreign currencies and vice versa. In addition, most banks in the United States do not currently offer non-U.S. dollar denominated checking or savings account facilities in the United States. Accordingly, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, payments in respect of Notes in a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars will be made to an account outside the United States.

Noteholders holding interests in a DTC Global Note denominated in a Specified Currency other than U.S. dollars ("DTC Noteholders") will receive payments in U.S. dollars, unless they elect to receive such payments in the Specified Currency. In the event that a DTC Noteholder shall not have made such election payments to such DTC Noteholder will be converted to U.S. dollars by the Exchange Agent. The U.S. dollar amount in respect of any payment to be paid to a DTC Noteholder who did not make a timely election to receive payment in the Specified Currency will be based on the Exchange Agent's spot rate for the purchase of U.S. dollars with the aggregate amount of the Specified Currency payable to all DTC Noteholders receiving U.S. dollar payments, for settlement on the applicable Payment Date, at a time and date immediately preceding such Payment Date, unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms. If such spot rate is not available, the Exchange Agent will obtain a bid quotation from a leading foreign exchange bank in London or New York City selected by the Exchange Agent for such purchase. All costs of any such conversion into U.S. dollars will be borne by the relevant DTC Noteholder by deduction from such payments. If no spot rate or bid quotation is available, the Exchange Agent will make payments in the Specified Currency to Noteholders who were expecting to receive U.S. dollars, provided that such payment will only be made to such a Noteholder if and when the Exchange Agent has been notified of the Specified Currency account to which such payment should be made.

A DTC Noteholder may elect to receive payment of the principal and premium (if any) of, or interest with respect to, the Notes in the Specified Currency (other than U.S. dollars) by notifying DTC by the DTC Record Date of (i) such holder's election to receive all or a portion of such payment in the Specified Currency for value the relevant due date for interest payment or final redemption, as the case may be, and (ii) wire transfer instructions to an account denominated in the Specified Currency with respect to any payment to be made in the Specified Currency. Such election shall be made by the Noteholder holding its interest in a DTC Global Note and any such election in respect of that payment shall be irrevocable. An indirect DTC participant must notify the DTC Noteholder through which it is holding its interest in a DTC Global Note of such election and wire transfer instructions by the DTC Record Date. DTC will notify the Global Agent of such election and wire transfer instructions and of the amount of the Specified Currency, prior to 5:00 p.m. New York time on the fifth DTC Business Day following the DTC Record Date. If complete instructions are received by the DTC participant and forwarded by the DTC participant to DTC, and by DTC to the Global Agent, on or prior to such dates, the DTC Noteholder will receive payment in the Specified Currency outside of DTC. Otherwise, only U.S. dollar payments will be made by the Exchange Agent. Payments in the Specified Currency (other than U.S. dollars) outside DTC will be made by wire transfer of same day funds in accordance with the relevant wire transfer instructions for value the relevant payment date.

Dealers

The Facility provides for the appointment of dealers in respect of any particular issue of Notes (all such dealers together, the “Dealers”). There are no sponsoring dealers with respect to the Facility. Notes may be issued through Dealers acting as principal on a syndicated or non-syndicated basis, or on an agency basis. IBRD may itself directly issue and sell notes to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Standard Provisions

Notes may be sold from time to time by IBRD to or through any one or more Dealers and by IBRD itself. The arrangements under which the Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by IBRD to or through Dealers are set out in the Standard Provisions dated as of September 24, 2021 (as amended or supplemented from time to time, the “Standard Provisions”). The Standard Provisions will be incorporated by reference into the agreement by which Dealers are appointed in respect of a particular issue of Notes.

Any agreement for the sale of Notes will, inter alia, make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the method of distribution of the Notes, the price at which such Notes will be purchased by any Dealer and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) which are payable or allowable by IBRD in respect of such purchase. In addition, each placement of Notes is subject to certain conditions, including the condition that there shall not have occurred any national or international calamity or development, crisis of a political or economic nature, or change in the money or capital markets in which the Notes are being offered, the effect of which on such financial markets shall be such as in the judgment of the relevant Dealer(s) or IBRD materially adversely affects the ability of the relevant Dealer(s) to sell or distribute the Notes, whether in the primary market or in respect of dealings in the secondary market.

Sales Restrictions

No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction by any Dealer or IBRD that would permit a public offering of any of the Notes, or possession or distribution of this Prospectus, or any part thereof including any Final Terms, or any other offering or publicity material relating to the Notes, in such jurisdiction. The relevant Dealer(s) (and IBRD in connection with sales of Notes on its own behalf) will, to the best of its knowledge, comply with all relevant laws, regulations and directives in each jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers, sells, or delivers Notes or has in its possession or distributes this Prospectus, or any part thereof including any Final Terms, or any such other material, in all cases at its own expense.

No Dealer is authorized to make any representation or use any information in connection with the issue, offering and sale of the Notes other than as contained in this Prospectus, the applicable Final Terms or such other information relating to IBRD and/or the Notes which IBRD has authorized to be used.

Selling restrictions may be modified by the agreement of IBRD and the relevant Dealer(s). Selling restrictions may also be added in respect of a particular issue of Notes. Any such modification or addition will be set out in the Final Terms issued in respect of each issue of Notes to which such modification or addition relates or in a supplement to this Prospectus.

United States

Under the provisions of Section 15(a) of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act, as amended, Notes are exempted securities within the meaning of Section 3(a)(2) of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 3(a)(12) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Bearer Notes issued by IBRD will be issued in compliance with United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the “TEFRA D Rules”) unless, under exceptional circumstances, (i) the applicable Final Terms state that Notes are issued in compliance with United States Treasury Regulations

Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the “TEFRA C Rules”) or (ii) the Notes are issued other than in compliance with the TEFRA D Rules or the TEFRA C Rules but in circumstances in which the Notes will not constitute “registration required obligations” under the United States Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 (“TEFRA”), which circumstances will be referred to in the applicable Final Terms as a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable.

Bearer Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations. Accordingly, under U.S. federal tax laws and regulations, Bearer Notes (including Temporary Global Notes and Permanent Global Notes) with a maturity of more than one year may not be offered or sold during the restricted period (as defined in United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(7)) within the United States or to United States persons (each as defined below) other than to an office located outside the United States of a United States financial institution (as defined in United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.165-12(c)(1)(iv)), purchasing for its own account or for resale or for the account of certain customers, that provides a certificate stating that it agrees to comply with the requirements of Section 165(j)(3)(A), (B) or (C) of the Code, and the United States Treasury Regulations thereunder, or to certain other persons described in United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(1)(iii)(B). Moreover, such Bearer Notes may not be delivered in connection with their sale during the restricted period within the United States. Any distributor (as defined in United States Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(4)) participating in the offering or sale of Bearer Notes with a maturity of more than one year must agree that it will not offer or sell during the restricted period any such Bearer Notes within the United States or to United States persons (other than the persons described above), it will not deliver in connection with the sale of such Bearer Notes during the restricted period any such Bearer Notes within the United States and it has in effect procedures reasonably designed to ensure that its employees and agents who are directly engaged in selling the Bearer Notes are aware of the restrictions on offers and sales described above. No Bearer Notes (other than a Temporary Global Note and certain Bearer Notes described in the following paragraph) with a maturity of more than one year may be delivered, nor may interest be paid on any such Bearer Note, until the person entitled to receive such Bearer Note or such interest furnishes a written certificate to the effect that the relevant Bearer Note (i) is owned by a person that is not a United States person, (ii) is owned by a United States person that is a foreign branch of a United States financial institution purchasing for its own account or for resale, or is owned by a United States person who acquired the Bearer Note through the foreign branch of such a financial institution and who holds the Bearer Note through such financial institution on the date of certification, provided, in either case, that such financial institution provides a certificate to IBRD or the distributor selling the Bearer Note to it, within a reasonable time of selling the Bearer Note, stating that it agrees to comply with the requirements of Section 165(j)(3)(A), (B) or (C) of the Code and the United States Treasury Regulations thereunder, or (iii) is owned by a financial institution for purposes of resale during the restricted period. A financial institution described in clause (iii) of the preceding sentence (whether or not also described in clause (i) or (ii)) must certify that it has not acquired the Bearer Note for purposes of resale directly or indirectly to a United States person or to a person within the United States. In the case of a Note represented by a Permanent Global Note, such certification must be given in connection with notation of a beneficial owner’s interest therein.

A Bearer Note will not be subject to the certification requirements described in the preceding paragraph if the Bearer Note is sold during the restricted period and all of the following conditions are satisfied: (i) the interest and principal with respect to the Bearer Note are denominated only in the currency of a single foreign country; (ii) the interest and principal with respect to the Bearer Note are payable only within that foreign country; (iii) the Bearer Note is offered and sold in accordance with practices and documentation customary in that foreign country; (iv) the distributor of the Bearer Note agrees to use reasonable efforts to sell the Bearer Note within that foreign country; (v) the Bearer Note is not listed, or the subject of an application for listing, on an exchange located outside that foreign country; (vi) the U.S. Internal Revenue Service has designated the foreign country as a foreign country in which certification under Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(3)(i) is not permissible; (vii) the issue of the Bearer Note is subject to guidelines or restrictions imposed by governmental, banking or securities authorities in that foreign country; and (viii) more than 80 per cent., by value, of the Bearer Notes included in the offering of which the Bearer Note is a part are sold to non-distributors by distributors maintaining an office located in that foreign country. Bearer Notes that are convertible into U.S. dollar denominated debt obligations or which are otherwise linked by their terms to the U.S. dollar are not eligible for the certification exemption described in this paragraph. The only foreign countries that have been designated as foreign countries in which certification under Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(3)(i) is not permissible are Switzerland and Germany.

Each Temporary Global Note, Permanent Global Note or Bearer Note with a maturity of more than one year, and any Talons and Coupons relating to such Bearer Notes, will bear the following legend:

“Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.”

As used herein, “United States person” means any citizen or resident of the United States, any corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized in or under the laws of the United States and any estate or trust the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, and “United States” means the United States of America (including the states thereof and the District of Columbia) and its possessions. Other terms used herein have the meanings given to them by the Code and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder.

Selling restrictions applicable to the United States may be modified or supplemented by the agreement of IBRD and the relevant Dealer or Dealers following a change in the relevant law, regulation or directive. Any such modification or supplement will be set out in the applicable Final Terms issued in respect of a particular issue of Notes to which it relates or in a supplement to the Prospectus.

United Kingdom

Each Dealer will be required to represent, warrant and agree that it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Japan

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended, the “Financial Instruments and Exchange Act”). Accordingly, each Dealer has represented and agreed that it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell any Notes in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan (which term as used herein means any person resident in Japan, including any corporation or other entity organized under the laws of Japan), or to others for re-offering or re-sale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and other relevant laws and regulations of Japan.

Related Derivatives Transactions

In connection with the issuance of Notes, IBRD may enter into negotiated currency and/or interest rate swap or other financial derivative transactions. IBRD’s counterparty in any such derivative transaction may be an institution that is also acting as Dealer with respect to the Notes, or an affiliate of a Dealer. Payments to be made and received by IBRD under any such derivative transaction may be calculated on the basis of the amounts payable by IBRD under the Notes and the proceeds payable to IBRD in connection with the sale of the Notes, either before or after deduction of the commissions described in the related Final Terms. However, IBRD’s rights and obligations under any such derivative transaction will be wholly independent of its rights and obligations under the Notes, and the holders of the Notes will have no interest in any such derivative transaction or any payment to which IBRD may be entitled thereunder. In addition, the hedging activities undertaken by a counterparty to a related derivative transaction may have an effect on the value or return of the related Notes.

VALIDITY OF THE NOTES

The validity of the Notes will be passed on by the Senior Vice President and Group General Counsel, or a Deputy General Counsel or the Chief Counsel, Finance, of IBRD and by Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (as to Notes governed by New York law) and Linklaters LLP (as to Notes governed by English law), counsel to the Dealers, each of which, with respect to certain matters, will rely upon counsel to IBRD. It is expected that the validity of Notes governed by the law of any other jurisdiction will be passed on by counsel to the relevant Dealers at the time of issue.

The opinions of counsel to IBRD, Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and Linklaters LLP will be conditioned upon, and subject to certain assumptions regarding, future action required to be taken by IBRD and the Fiscal Agent or the Global Agent in connection with the issuance and sale of any particular Note, the specific terms of Notes and other matters which may affect the validity of Notes but which cannot be ascertained on the date of such opinions.
