Keppel Infrastructure Trust appoints new CEO

Singapore, 15 May 2014 – Keppel Infrastructure Fund Management Pte Ltd (KIFM), Trustee Manager of Keppel Infrastructure Trust, is pleased to announce that Mr Khor Un-Hun (许恩瀚), will succeed Mr Thomas Pang Thieng Hwi (冯廷辉) as the Chief Executive Officer of KIFM with effect from today.

As part of the Keppel Group's career development framework for key executives, Mr Thomas Pang will relinquish his role at KIFM and assume his new role as CEO-Designate with Keppel Telecommunications & Transportation Limited also with effect from today.

Mr Khor Poh Hwa (许保华), Chairman of KIFM, said, "The Board will like to express its appreciation of Thomas's contributions to Keppel Infrastructure Trust as the first CEO since its listing in 2010.

"During his tenure, the Trust delivered steady financial results. In addition, the management augmented one of the properties in its portfolio with Singapore's largest solar photovoltaic installation."

On Mr Khor Un-Hun's appointment, Chairman of KIFM, Mr Khor Poh Hwa said, "The Board is confident that Un-Hun's experience in corporate finance and his understanding of capital markets throughout Asia will allow him to spur Keppel Infrastructure Trust's growth with its widened investment mandate."

Mr Khor Un-Hun was appointed Development Director of Keppel Infrastructure Holdings Pte Ltd (KI) in April 2014, where he worked on KI's various business development initiatives.

Prior to joining KI, Mr Khor Un-Hun spent most of his career in banking, during which he was involved in a wide range of mergers and acquisitions, financial advisory, capital markets and debt transactions across different sectors throughout Asia.

He held various positions in the corporate finance teams of Deutsche Bank and ING Bank in Singapore and Hong Kong before becoming Managing Director and Head of Corporate Finance, Asia at ING Bank, where he oversaw the origination and execution of corporate finance transactions in the region. He was also a member of ING Bank's regional management committee.

Mr Khor Un-Hun, 44 years old, holds a Bachelor of Accountancy degree with First Class Honours from Nanyang Technological University and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

About Keppel Infrastructure Trust

Keppel Infrastructure Trust (KIT) is a listed business trust that provides investors with an opportunity to invest in energy and environmental infrastructure assets. KIT's Sponsor, Keppel Infrastructure, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Keppel Corporation Limited. Keppel Infrastructure Fund Management, the Trustee-Manager of KIT, is wholly-owned by Keppel Infrastructure.

KIT has a mandate to invest in Singapore and globally, with a focus on Europe and Asia Pacific. It currently owns Senoko Waste-to-Energy Plant, Keppel Seghers Tuas Waste-to-Energy Plant and Keppel Seghers Ulu Pandan NEWater Plant in Singapore.

Senoko WTE Plant and Keppel Seghers Tuas WTE Plant, together, have the capacity to treat close to half of Singapore's incinerable municipal waste, while Keppel Seghers NEWater Plant is Singapore's second largest NEWater Plant.

KIT was first listed on the Singapore Exchange on 29 June 2010 as K-Green Trust. Following an expansion of its investment mandate, its name was correspondingly changed to Keppel Infrastructure Trust on 16 April 2014.
