Singapore, 2 January 2016 – Neo Group, Singapore's leading food catering group, will be donating more than $160,000, the proceeds from its first day of sales in 2016, to six non-profit organisations. To usher in the New Year on a positive note, Neo Group made this unprecedented move to give back to the community. The new initiative, titled "Begin with Love", will be held annually henceforth.

The organisations to receive the majority of these proceeds for 2016 are AWWA, Halogen Foundation Singapore, Cheng Hong Welfare Service Society, Sian Chay Medical Institution, Ren Ci, and the Singapore Thong Chai Medical Institution. The Group is currently in the midst of considering requests from other non-profit organisations. Interested non-profit organisations can submit their requests till the first week of January.

On 1 January 2016, Neo Group delivered over $160,000 worth of orders, exceeding previous years' sales records for the first day of the year by 50% (compared to 2015). The New Year sales included all buffet packages from Neo Group's four catering brands: Neo Garden Catering, Deli Hub Catering, Orange Clove and Best Catering.

Prior to the "Begin with Love" initiative, Neo Group has been regularly advocating for philanthropy through leading by example. Neo Group has reached out to over 50 charities, donating over S$200,000 since the inception of its SEED Fund four years ago. Neo Group's staff are also encouraged to donate to charity, with a dollar-for-dollar match by the founder, chairman and CEO, Mr Neo Kah Kiat. The Group is also known for breaking sales figure records year-on-year. In 2015, Neo Group was listed in the Singapore Book of Records for serving 1,189 events around the island in a single day.

Mr Neo said, "Giving is the expressway to success and we thank our customers for sharing this vision with us. We look forward to begin 2016 on a high – by working hand in hand with our customers to usher in the New Year with a celebration of food, and do our part for those in need. We hope to inspire more companies to also consider helping the less fortunate, for every bit counts when it comes to giving."
