To: The Shareholders of OKP Holdings Limited

Dear Sir/Madam

THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION OF THE COMPANY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Directors are convening the EGM to be held on 26 April 2018 to seek Shareholders' approval by way of a special resolution for the Proposed Adoption of New Constitution.
- 1.2 The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with information relating to and explain the rationale for the Proposed Adoption of New Constitution, and to seek Shareholders' approval for the same at the EGM.

2. PROPOSED ADOPTION OF NEW CONSTITUTION

2.1 Background

The Amendment Act was passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and took effect in two phases on 1 July 2015 and 3 January 2016. The Amendment Act introduced wide-ranging changes to the Companies Act with the aim of reducing regulatory burden on companies, providing greater business flexibility and improving the corporate governance landscape in Singapore. The key changes include the introduction of a multiple proxies regime to allow indirect investors and CPF investors to attend and vote at shareholders' meetings as proxies, provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents, and the merging of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into a single document called the "constitution".

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2.2 Rationale for the New Constitution

By operation of law, the memorandum and articles of association of the Company which were in force immediately before 3 January 2016 are now referred to as the constitution of the Company.

Instead of making alterations throughout the Existing Constitution in order to update and streamline its provisions generally and to be in line with the changes to the regulatory framework, the Company is proposing to adopt the New Constitution in place of the Existing Constitution. The New Constitution will contain provisions that, inter alia, take into account the changes to the Companies Act introduced pursuant to the Amendment Act. The proposed New Constitution also contains updated provisions which are consistent with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual. The New Constitution will also include provisions to address other regulatory changes, namely, the personal data protection regime in Singapore and the enactment of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act (Chapter 178A) of Singapore. The Company is also taking this opportunity to streamline and rationalise certain provisions.

The Proposed Adoption of New Constitution is subject to Shareholders' approval and will be tabled as a special resolution at the EGM.

3. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL PROVISIONS

A summary of the principal provisions of the New Constitution which are significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the New Constitution as new provisions, are set out below. It should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Appendix I. For Shareholders' ease of reference, Appendix II sets out a comparison of the proposed New Constitution against the Existing Constitution, with all additions underlined and deletions marked with a strikethrough.

Unless otherwise defined in this Circular, capitalised terms in this Section 3 of the Circular below shall bear the meanings ascribed to them in the New Constitution.

3.1 Changes due to amendments to the Companies Act

The following Regulations include provisions which are in line with the Companies Act, as amended by the Amendment Act. In line with Section 35 of the Companies Act, all references to "Article" or "Articles" in the Existing Constitution have been amended to "Regulation" or "Regulations".

3.1.1 Memorandum of Association of Existing Constitution

The memorandum of association of the Existing Constitution will be deleted entirely and the relevant provisions thereof consolidated under the New Constitution as a single document. The signatures of the original subscribers to the memorandum of association will be inserted at the end of the New Constitution.

3.1.2 Article 1 of Existing Constitution

Article 1 of the Existing Constitution, which refers to Table A in the Fourth Schedule of the Companies Act prior its amendment by the Amendment Act, will be deleted as Table A has been repealed pursuant to the Amendment Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.1.3 Regulation 1 of New Constitution (Article 2 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 1 is the interpretation section of the New Constitution and includes the following additional or revised provisions:

- (a) a new definition of "Chief Executive Officer" as having the meaning ascribed to "chief executive officer" in the Companies Act, in line with the introduction of provisions relating to chief executive officers by the Amendment Act;
- (b) a new definition of "Constitution" to replace the definition of "Articles", in line with the terminology introduced by the Amendment Act;
- (c) the definition of "Cut-Off Time" amended to mean 72 hours before the time of the relevant General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting to determine the entitlement of Depositors to attend and vote at General Meetings, in line with Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA, and to determine the deadline for the submission of instruments of proxy, in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act;
- (d) a new definition of "Regulations" as the regulations of the Company contained in the New Constitution, replacing the definition of "Articles" in the Existing Constitution;
- (e) a new definition of "writing" to include any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form, whether physical or electronic. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form;
- (f) a revised definition of "Depositor", "Depository", "Depository Agent" and "Depository Register" to make reference to the SFA, following the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA; and
- (g) a new provision stating that the words "current address", "electronic communication", "relevant intermediary" and "treasury shares" shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Companies Act.

3.1.4 Regulations 2, 3 and 5 of New Constitution (New Regulations)

Regulations 2, 3 and 5 will be inserted in the New Constitution following the deletion of the memorandum of association in the Existing Constitution.

Following the deletion of the objects clause in the memorandum of association of the Existing Constitution, Regulation 3 provides, inter alia, that subject to the Companies Act and any other written law and the New Constitution, the Company has full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transaction, in line with Section 23 of the Companies Act.

By deleting the existing objects clauses (which sets out an extensive list of the activities which the Company has capacity or power to engage in) and taking advantage of the flexibility afforded by Section 23 of the Companies Act, the Company will have all the powers of a natural person, with full capacity and ability to carry on or undertake any business or activity, and to enter into any transaction. This will facilitate the Company in adapting to the rapidly changing business environment, and to undertake various business activities and enter into business transactions for the benefit of the Company and its Shareholders. The proposed change will also remove any uncertainty as to whether the Company has the power to act in a particular way or to engage in a particular transaction arising from unduly restrictive provisions in the specific objects clauses.

3.1.5 Regulation 7(3) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

Regulation 7(3) is a new provision which provides that new shares may be issued for no consideration. This is in line with the new Section 68 of the Companies Act, which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.1.6 Regulation 14(2) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

Regulation 14(2) is a new provision which provides that the Company may use its share capital to pay any expenses incurred directly in the issue of new shares and such payment shall not be taken as reducing the share capital of the Company. This is in line with Section 67 of the Companies Act, which was inserted pursuant to the Amendment Act.

3.1.7 Regulation 14(3) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

Regulation 14(3) is a new provision which relates to shares issued by the Company for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period. The Company may pay interest on such paid up share capital, except treasury shares, and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of the construction or provision. This is in line with Section 78 of the Companies Act.

3.1.8 Regulation 20 of New Constitution (Article 18 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 20 will be amended to include that every share certificate shall specify the number and class of shares to which it relates, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares. This follows the amendment to Section 123(2) of the Companies Act pursuant to the Amendment Act. Regulation 20 will also be amended to clarify that the share certificate shall bear the autographic or facsimile signatures of one Director and the Secretary or a second Director or some other person appointed by the Directors, and the facsimile signatures may be reproduced by mechanical, electronic or other method approved by the Directors.

3.1.9 Regulation 61(1) of New Constitution (Article 60(1) of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 61(1), which relates to the Company's power to alter its share capital, will be amended as follows:

- (a) sub-paragraph (a) will be amended to be in line with the wording of Section 71(1)(b) of the Companies Act;
- (b) sub-paragraph (c) will be inserted to empower the Company by ordinary resolution, subject to the provisions of the Statutes, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with the new Section 73 of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations; and
- (c) sub-paragraph (d) will be inserted to empower the Company to cancel shares which have not been taken or which have been forfeited, in line with Section 71(1)(e) of the Companies Act.

3.1.10 Regulation 61(2) of New Constitution (Article 60(2) of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 61(2) which relates to the power of the Company to reduce its share capital will be amended to clarify that the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any other undistributable reserve in any manner subject to any requirement under the law. This is in line with Section 78C of the Companies Act.

3.1.11 Regulation 61(3) of New Constitution (Article 60(1)(c) of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 61(3) will be inserted to empower the Company to convert one class of shares into another class of shares by special resolution, instead of by ordinary resolution. This is in line with the new Section 74A of the Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.1.12 Regulation 76 of New Constitution (Article 75 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 76 will be amended to substitute the reference to “accounts” with “financial statements”, and the reference to “report of the Directors” with “Directors’ statement”, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act, as well as to include any other documents required to be attached to the financial statements. A similar amendment has been made in Regulation 11.

3.1.13 Regulation 81(2) of New Constitution (Article 80 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 81(2), which relates to the method of voting at a general meeting where mandatory polling is not required, will be revised to reduce the threshold for eligibility to demand a poll from 10% to 5% of the total voting rights of the members having the right to vote at the meeting, or of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right. This is in line with Section 178 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.

3.1.14 Regulation 86(1) of New Constitution (Article 85(1) of Existing Constitution); Regulation 91(2) of New Constitution (New Regulation); Regulation 91(3) of New Constitution (Article 90(2) of Existing Constitution)

These Regulations, which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders and the appointment of proxies, have new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Act. The multiple proxies regime allows “relevant intermediaries”, such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the Central Provident Fund Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:

- (a) in the case of a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with the new Section 181(1D) of the Companies Act;
- (b) save as otherwise provided in the Companies Act, a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder’s proxy instrument appoints more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the proxy instrument. This is in line with the new Section 181(1C) of the Companies Act; and
- (c) the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 (previously 48) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting (the Cut-Off Time). Consequential changes have also been made to make it clear that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with the new Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA.

3.1.15 Regulation 93 of New Constitution (Article 92 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 93 will be amended to permit Shareholders to submit proxy instruments by electronic communication and for the Directors to prescribe the manner in which the instruments may be authorised and the procedures for authenticating instruments submitted by electronic communication.

3.1.16 Regulation 94 of New Constitution (Article 93 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 94 will be amended to extend the cut-off time for the deposit of the proxy instrument and the letter or power of attorney or other authority, where the instrument is signed on behalf of the appointer by an attorney, from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting (the Cut-Off Time). This is in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.1.17 Regulation 105(1) of New Constitution (Article 105(1) of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 105(1), which relates to Directors' declaration of interests, will be amended to extend the obligation of a Director to disclose interests in transactions or proposed transactions with the Company to also apply to a Chief Executive Officer. This is in line with Section 156 of the Companies Act.

3.1.18 Regulation 115 of New Constitution (Article 115 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 115, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business, will be amended to clarify that the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of the Directors. This is in line with Section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Act.

3.1.19 Regulation 117 of New Constitution (Article 117 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 117, which relates to the appointment of additional Directors, will be amended to provide that the Company may appoint any person to be a Director by ordinary resolution. This is in line with the new Section 149B of the Companies Act.

3.1.20 Regulation 131(3) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

Regulation 131(3) will be inserted to clarify that the Company's records may be kept either in hard copy or electronic form in accordance with the Companies Act. This is in line with the new Sections 395 and 396 of the Companies Act.

3.1.21 Regulation 132(4) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

Regulation 132(4) will be inserted to permit the Company to execute any document as a deed in accordance with the Companies Act and without affixing the common seal. This is in line with Section 41B of the Companies Act which prescribes the manner in which a company may execute a document as a deed without affixing a common seal.

3.1.22 Regulations 150 and 151 of New Constitution (Articles 150 and 151 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 150, which relates to the keeping of accounting records, will be amended to provide for the Directors to keep such accounting and other records as are necessary to comply with the Companies Act. Consequential amendments will be made to Regulation 151.

3.1.23 Regulations 152, 153, 154 and 155 of New Constitution (Articles 152, 153, 154 and 155 of Existing Constitution)

References to the Company's "profit and loss account" and "balance sheet" have been updated in Regulations 152, 153, 154 and 155 to substitute them with references to the "financial statements" for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act.

Regulation 154, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Shareholders, additionally provides that such documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings, subject to compliance with the applicable listing rule. This is in line with the new Section 203(2) of the Companies Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this provision, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.1.24 Regulation 159 of New Constitution (Article 159 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 159, which relates to the service of notices to Shareholders, will have new provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to the new Section 387C of the Companies Act. Companies can, subject to certain statutory safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures where a shareholder has given express, implied or deemed consent for the company to do so in accordance with the constitution of the company. The Company regards express consent as being given where a Shareholder gives notice in writing to the Company that he consents to having notices and documents transmitted to him via electronic communications.

Section 387C(2) of the Companies Act provides that a member has given implied consent ("Implied Consent") where the constitution of a company:

- (i) provides for the use of electronic communications;
- (ii) specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
- (iii) provides that the member shall agree to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document.

Section 387C(3) of the Companies Act further provides that a member has given deemed consent ("Deemed Consent") where:

- (i) the constitution of the company provides for the use of electronic communications;
- (ii) the constitution of the company specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used;
- (iii) the constitution of the company specifies that the member will be given an opportunity to elect within a specified period of time (the "specified time"), whether to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy; and
- (iv) the member was given an opportunity to elect whether to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications or as a physical copy, and he failed to make an election within the specified time.

Regulation 159(3) provides that notices and documents may be sent to Shareholders using electronic communications to a Shareholder's current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website prescribed by the Company from time to time or in such manner as such Shareholder expressly consents to by giving notice in writing to the Company. Regulation 159(4) provides that a Shareholder shall be implied to have agreed to receiving notices and documents by way of electronic communications as set out in Regulation 159(3) and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act or the listing rules of the Exchange.

Regulation 159(5) further provides that, notwithstanding Regulation 159(4), the Directors may decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act or the listing rules of the Exchange.

Regulation 159(6) additionally provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. Regulation 159(7) provides for Shareholders to be separately notified where a notice or document is served by making it available on a website.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The insertion of the new provisions in Regulation 159 will enable greater efficiency and cost savings in the transmission of documents from the Company to Shareholders. However, Shareholders who are not supportive of the new regime of electronic transmissions may choose to vote against the Proposed Adoption of New Constitution.

Under the new Section 387C of the Companies Act, regulations may be made to exclude any notice or document or any class of notices or documents from the application of the Section, provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communications under the Section, and provide that a member who is deemed to have consented to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communications may make a fresh election to receive such notices or documents as a physical copy. Certain safeguards for the use of electronic communications are prescribed under Regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations. Under Regulation 89D of the Companies Regulations, notices and documents relating to any take-over offer of the company or to any rights issue by the company are excluded from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act and therefore cannot be transmitted by way of electronic communications.

The SGX-ST has amended Chapter 12 of the Listing Manual to permit the use of electronic communications to transmit documents, including circulars and annual reports, to shareholders, but shareholders may request for a physical copy of the documents from the issuer. However, Rule 1210 of the Listing Manual requires an issuer to send the following documents to shareholders by way of physical copies:

- (a) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to complete;
- (b) notice of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred in that notice;
- (c) notices and documents relating to takeover offers and rights issues;
- (d) notices under Rule 1211 of the Listing Manual to inform shareholders of how to request a physical copy of a document that has been sent to shareholders by electronic communications; and
- (e) if the issuer uses website publication as the form of electronic communications, notices under Rule 1212 of the Listing Manual to inform shareholders of (i) the publication of the document on the website, (ii) if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available, (iii) the address of the website; (iv) the place on the website where the document may be accessed, and (v) how to access the document.

The Company will comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and the Listing Manual if and when it decides to transmit notices and documents electronically to its Shareholders.

3.1.25 Regulation 171 of New Constitution (Article 172 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 171, which relates to the indemnification of Directors and other officers of the Company, has been expanded to permit the Company, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Statutes, to indemnify a Director against losses to be incurred by him in the execution of his duties. This is in line with the new Sections 163A and 163B of the Companies Act, which permit a company to lend, on specified terms, funds to a director for meeting expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending court proceedings or regulatory investigations.

3.2 Amendments for consistency with the Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

The following Regulations have been amended for consistency with the rules of the Listing Manual prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.2.1 Regulation 8 of New Constitution (Article 7 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 8, which relates to the issue of preference shares, will be updated to specify that the total number of issued preference shares shall not exceed the total number of issued ordinary shares, in line with paragraph (1)(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

3.2.2 Regulation 22(4) of New Constitution (Article 20(4) of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 22(4), which relates to replacement share certificates, will be amended to provide that such certificates may be given on payment of such sum not exceeding S$2 (previously S$1) as the Directors may from time to time require. This is in line with paragraph (1)(g) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

3.2.3 Regulation 59 of New Constitution (Article 58 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 59, which relates to the grant to the Directors of a general authority to issue new shares or convertible securities, will be amended so that the limits of the authority are not specified in the Regulation but left to be determined by the prevailing limits and manner of calculation as may be prescribed by the SGX-ST. This will allow the Company to take advantage of any concessions which may be announced by the SGX-ST from time to time. For instance, the SGX-ST had announced on 13 March 2017 that companies are permitted to seek a general mandate for an issue of pro-rata renounceable rights shares of up to 100% of their share capital.

3.2.4 Regulation 67 of New Constitution (Article 66 of Existing Constitution)

In line with Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Manual, Regulation 67 will be amended to state that, where required by the listing rules of the Exchange, all general meetings shall be held in Singapore, unless such requirement is waived by the Exchange.

3.2.5 Regulation 72 of New Constitution (Article 71 of Existing Constitution)

Regulation 72 will be amended to clarify that the period of notice to convene a general meeting shall be exclusive of both the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and the day on which the general meeting is to be held, in line with paragraph (7) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.

3.2.6 Regulation 81(1) of New Constitution (New Regulation)

For such purpose and notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 148, the Directors shall (i) capitalise and apply out of the amount standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or any amount standing to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution as the Directors may determine, such sum as may be required to pay up in full the appropriate number of shares for allotment and distribution to and among the holders of the elected shares on such basis, or (ii) apply the sum which would otherwise have been payable in cash to the holders of the elected shares towards payment of the appropriate number of shares of the relevant class for allotment and distribution to and among the holders of the elected shares on such basis.
- 139(2). The shares of the relevant class allotted pursuant to the provisions of Regulation 139(1) shall rank pari passu in all respects with the shares of that class then in issue save only as regards participation in the dividend which is the subject of the election referred to above (including the right to make the election referred to above) or any other distributions, bonuses or rights paid, made, declared or announced prior to or contemporaneous with the payment or declaration of the dividend which is the subject of the election referred to above, unless the Directors shall otherwise specify.

APPENDIX I – PROPOSED NEW CONSTITUTION

- 139(3). The Directors may, on any occasion when they resolve as provided in Regulation 139(1), determine that rights of election under that paragraph shall not be made available to the persons who are registered as holders of shares in the Register or (as the case may be) in the Depository Register, or in respect of shares, the transfer of which is registered, after such date as the Directors may fix subject to such exceptions as the Directors think fit, and in such event the provisions of Regulation 139 shall be read and construed subject to such determination.
- 139(4). The Directors may, on any occasion when they resolve as provided in Regulation 139(1), further determine that:-
- (a) no allotment of shares or rights of election for shares under Regulation 139(1) shall be made available or made to Members whose registered addresses entered in the Register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register is outside Singapore or to such other Members or class of Members as the Directors may in their sole discretion decide and in such event the only entitlement of the Members aforesaid shall be to receive in cash the relevant dividend resolved or proposed to be paid or declared; and
 - (b) no allotment of shares or rights of election for shares under Regulation 139(1) shall be made available or made to a person, or any persons, if such allotment or rights of election would in the opinion of the Directors cause such person, or such persons, to hold or control voting shares in excess of any shareholding or other limits which may from time to time be prescribed in any Statute, without the approval of the applicable regulatory or other authority as may be necessary.
- 139(5). Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Regulation, if at any time after the Directors' resolution to apply the provisions of Regulation 139(1) in relation to any dividend but prior to the allotment of shares pursuant thereto, the Directors shall consider that by reason of any event or circumstance (whether arising before or after such resolution) or by reason of any matter whatsoever it is no longer expedient or appropriate to implement that proposal, the Directors may at their discretion and as they deem fit in the interest of the Company and without assigning any reason therefor, cancel the proposed application of Regulation 139(1).
- 139(6). The Directors may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to the provisions of Regulation 139(1), with full power to make such provisions as they think fit in the case of shares of the relevant class becoming distributable in fractions (including, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Constitution, provisions whereby, in whole or in part, fractional entitlements are disregarded or rounded up or down).

Where requisite, a proper contract shall be filed in accordance with Section 63 of the Act, and the Directors may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend, and such appointment shall be effective. Any person registered in the Register or in the Depository Register, as the case may be, as the holder or joint holder of any share or is entitled jointly to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder may give effectual receipts for dividends, bonuses, other moneys payable or properties distributable and payment on account of dividends on or in respect of such shares.
