

Fraser's Property Announces Strategic Leadership Update in Thailand

BANGKOK, 10 SEPTEMBER 2025

Fraser's Property Limited ("Fraser's Property", and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") today announced a strategic leadership transition in Thailand, reflecting the continued growth and maturity of its business in the market. This change marks an important step in strengthening leadership alignment and is in line with the Group's OneFraser's strategy, which aims to unlock synergies and enhance long-term value creation across its key markets.

Effective 1 October 2025, Mr. Lim Hua Tiong, currently CEO of Emerging Markets, Asia, will assume the additional role of CEO of Fraser's Property (Thailand) Public Company Limited ("FPT").

Mr. Thanapol Sirithanachai will be stepping down from his role as Country CEO of FPT. He will continue to serve on the FPT Board, ensuring continuity and ongoing contribution to the Group's strategic direction.

"This leadership transition reflects how far we've come in Thailand and the strength of our commitment to building a unified, future-ready organisation," said Panote Sirivadhanabhakdi, Group Chief Executive Officer, Fraser's Property Limited. "I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Thanapol for his leadership and many contributions in shaping FPT into a leading real estate platform. His dedication has played a key role in our growth journey. As we look ahead, I am confident that under Hua Tiong's leadership, we will continue to build on this strong foundation and unlock new opportunities for growth."
