Update on the Judicial Management

5. The Judicial Managers had previously been granted an extension for their terms of office until 14 July 2021 to determine whether a potential restructuring of Hyflux Group is possible as described in the 13 May 2021 announcement.
6. As explained in the 5 May 2021 announcement, the Judicial Managers had received seven (7) bids in respect of stage 2 of the investor process which includes one (1) bid for an investment in the entire Hyflux Group and six (6) bids for specific assets of the Hyflux Group.

7. Given the negotiations with the investor for an investment in the entire Hyflux Group were unsuccessful and consequently a restructuring not possible, the continuation of the judicial management of the Company is no longer necessary. The remaining six (6) bids involve the purchase of individual assets in the Hyflux Group and can be facilitated through a winding up of the Company.
8. Following the conclusion of the investor process, the Judicial Managers have formed the view that the objectives of the judicial management are no longer capable of achievement and the remaining value of the Hyflux Group are best realized in a liquidation.
9. On 4 June 2021, the Judicial Managers filed an application to the Court to wind up the Company.
