MOVEMENT CONTROL ORDER IMPOSED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF MALAYSIA

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Samurai 2K Aerosol Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") wishes to announce that the Malaysian Government has imposed a movement control order (the "MCO") effective from 1 June 2021 to 14 June 2021 to curb the spread of the COVID-19 infection in the country. During this total lockdown period, the Group's headquarters in Malaysia is allowed to operate with 60% workforce capacity according to the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP).

The Group has initiated the work from home arrangement for all administration and office employees, as well as stringent health and precautionary measures to ensure the safety and health of our employees and visitors at our property. The Group strongly encouraged all the employees to register for vaccination for better protection against COVID-19. The Group does not expect any material operational and financial impact on the Group arising from the MCO.

The Board will continue to monitor the evolving situation and will make the appropriate announcement as and when there are material developments on this matter.

By Order of the Board
